

Y. Goddess 161

Chapter 161 Hana Want A Fair Kiss Too

After feeling Ciel's lower part which had been wet by the slight friction of one of my fox tails, the shame that had filled my face immediately spread throughout my body.

What Ciel did was a condition where a girl lost control and did everything she could to make her sensitive lower body feel a friction of pleasure until the liquid filled with love came out of her body.

Maybe it sounded perverted and naughty, but that was what was happening to Ciel.

After her love liquid wet her sensitive lower body, I could see the naughty smile given by Ciel.

"Nee-sama... uhmm... can I feel the soft friction of Nee-sama's fox tail again?" Ciel asked with a gentle smile, which made me not know what to do.

What I was witnessing was a sensual seduction tactic given by Ciel and I would feel guilty if I refused the invitation to provide Ciel with a love that came from the soft friction of my tail.

With a snore that sounded cute and teased me, Ciel seemed to have lost control of her own body until one of her hands untied the skirt she was wearing.

"I think this is too disturbing for our love relationship ..." without any guilt after becoming a perverted and naughty Saintess girl, Ciel slowly took off the panties she was wearing until it fell to the ground.

Ciel's strange attitude was triggered by her heavy breathing and the blush on her face that looked like a drunk fox girl.

Yes, I can't do much if the drunkenness suffered by Ciel becomes love drunk after she accidentally smells the scent of my nine fox tails which gives a sensual stimulation to do something called "knitting love".

Um, could this be my fault for letting Ciel smell the scent of my nine fox tails?

I feel...

I have to take responsibility for this!

Boonk!!

Before Ciel did anything more perverted and naughty, I could hear the sound of Sia's dragon tail covered in hard dragon scales hitting Ciel's head.

It made Ciel look like a fox girl who was dizzy and staggering.

Buugghh...

Her body slowly fell before she completely removed her lower skirt to reveal a sensitive part that was perverted and naughty.

"Phew... I almost saw a pure and innocent girl like Ciel look like a perverted woman who has no shame in showing her lower body," Sia grumbled who was still holding back Hana's body movements who seemed to be trying to escape from the restraint given by Sia.

I saw Hana repeatedly trying to free herself from the small prison that was holding her back to run toward me.

"Lily!!" with her small scream and the overflow of her holy energy that gradually filled her body, I saw her gaze firmly directed at one of my fox tails that Ciel had used to rub her lower body.

"Let go of me!"

"I need to clean Lily's fox tail before it's too late!" shouted Hana who tried her best to escape from the restraint given by Sia.

In the distance between me and Hana which was quite far, I could see that she wanted to run towards me with her hands trying to grab something.

Sia who faced these two difficulties calmly held back Hana's actions who was struggling in her small restraint and her dragon tail which was busy holding Ciel who was unconscious after her head was hit by Sia's dragon tail.

Seeing a condition like this, for some reason it felt funny.

"Heh..." I let out a small breath to hold back my laughter seeing an incident like this very funny.

"This is a very funny sight," I muttered in the smallest possible tone.

When I muttered in the smallest possible tone, I suddenly heard the sound of footsteps running towards me.

Tapp... Tapp...

"Lily!!"

Bughh...

I felt like a hard and soft blow at the same time.

The hard blow made my body take a few steps back and the soft blow again led to the collision of our two breasts that were touching each other.

The pain from the push caused by the blow almost made my body's balance collapse and fall.

Seeing someone running fast towards me that caused a blow like this, I could only laugh a little after feeling the blow.

"Ahhh... what are you doing, Hana?" I said while straightening my body that had received the blow from Hana's body.

The surge of her holy magic energy that filled her entire body was still clearly visible and it made me feel an emotional urge to calm Hana's holy energy turmoil that responded to her heart's desire.

"Lily," I heard a small reply given by Hana who was controlling the surge of her holy magic energy that was exploding uncontrollably.

I, who was still in my fox girl form, immediately hugged Hana's body while providing comfort from the softness of my fox tail fur.

Swiipp...

My nine fox tails immediately wrapped Hana like a baby in the warmth of her own mother's blanket.

"If possible... please calm your holy magic energy that seems to be about to explode, Hana," I said in a calm tone while wrapping Hana in the softness of my nine fox tails.

"Umm..." Hana with her obedient attitude after being wrapped by my nine fox tails immediately tried to calm her holy magic energy that was overflowing uncontrollably.

With her body condition filled with holy energy, it made my fox tail feel a hot sensation where Hana's magic energy seemed to resonate with my nine fox tails.

Because my fox tail is sensitive to changes in magic energy, it makes my tail a measuring tool for Hana's magic energy which is currently trying to reduce the intensity of her overflowing magic energy.

I gave a gentle caress on Hana's head and a small touch from one of my nine fox tails to her lower body like Ciel did.

"Hmm? L-Lily..."

It seemed like Hana realized what I was doing to calm her down and managed to control the overflow of her holy magic energy which was exploding beyond her control.

"Please calm yourself down and control the overflow of your magic energy so that it doesn't get out of control, Hana," I whispered to Hana while giving a small caress to her hair.

When my body became her support after being pushed to the point of almost falling, now I looked like an anchor that held her weight.

My body consciously had to be able to support Hana's weight who was having difficulty controlling the power of her holy magic energy.

I gave Hana a gentle caress and tried to make her more comfortable in the embrace of my body which was becoming a fox girl.

Swiipp...

Swiipp...

The caress I gave was in tune with the movement of my fox tail which was gently stroking Hana's body to keep her in my embrace.

I could slowly feel that Hana's holy magic energy overflow had become more stable before and she now looked like she was enjoying the hug I gave.

In that gentle embrace, I gave a light touch to one of Hana's napes with a light kiss on my lips.

The kisses I gave happened slowly while watching every overflow of Hana's holy magic energy that returned to calm.

When Hana's body overflow became calmer and did not explode like before, I pressed her body even tighter in my embrace so that the distance between my lips and the nape of her neck became closer.

Sruugg...

As my caress and embrace of my body got closer to Hana, I could feel her breasts rising and falling along with her increasingly heavy breathing.

At a close and intimate distance like this, my fox tail could feel a drastic change in Hana's attitude which became calmer than before.

After the overflow of her magical energy became calmer again, and I could feel that it was safe to continue my gentle caress of her body.

"Lily..." with a weak and tired tone of voice, I noticed Hana's face which was covered in red as if she had a fever.

"Hana, are you okay?" I replied while loosening the embrace of my nine fox tails that wrapped her.

"I-I'm fine, it's just... can I do something that will make me feel comfortable and not abandoned by you?" said Hana while showing a lonely look in her eyes and wanting something from me.

In Hana's gaze that was filled with such lonely lamentation, I felt uncomfortable and my fox girl body detected an emotional change from within Hana's body.

Somehow... this made me put on an expression full of suspicion when facing Hana's sudden change.

"Am I going to leave you who already have an important bond as fellow Saintesses?" I replied to quell Hana's loneliness.

"Lily... I saw what happened to Princess Aurora and your twin step-sister," Hana said with her gaze shifting between me and ground beside me.

Hana's attitude which seemed like a fickle and careless girl was so funny that it almost made my mouth open wide to kiss her.

Hana started to be silent for a moment before saying something that made me speechless.

"S-See what, Hana?" besides my calm feeling that had seen the condition of Hana's holy magic energy overflow had stabilized, now I was faced with a new problem about Hana who seemed to see what had happened to Princess Anastasia and my twin step-sister.

A condition that would make Hana look like a woman who had just been abandoned by her love.

"You already know about that, right, Lily?" instead of answering my question, Hana gave a sweet smile and another question that made my heart feel guilty for leaving her who did not get the same opportunity as Princess Anastasia and my twin step-sister.

Hana did not give her childish attitude and wanted to get the same thing as I had done by giving a love mark on the nape of another girl's neck.

However, that was what made me wonder now about what Hana would do as a small reward that could make herself equal to the small reward that Princess Anastasia and my twin step-sister got.

Srruuttt ...

In front of my own eyes, I could see that Hana was loosening the robe of the Temple of the Goddess Aurora and showing her neck covered in sweat.

"Please mark my neck with your love too, Lily."

"Shouldn't you be fair to do it?"

"You won't leave me who doesn't get your love mark after Sia and Ciel give their love marks according to what their respective races do, right?"

"Lily ..."

The emotional attack given by Hana made me unable to refuse her request.

It was a cheating act where Hana was the only woman who had not received a love mark from my soft lip licks and kisses.

With a feeling of wanting to make this situation fair, I immediately gave a kiss and a soft lick to Hana's neck.

Chuupp...

Sluurrppp...

With this soft lick and kiss that I have given, I gave a sign of love to Hana's neck which will later be covered by her robe of the Aurora Goddess Temple.

"Ehehe... Haaahhh... I feel like I'm one with Lily," Hana muttered softly with a cheerful laugh.
