

Y. Goddess 178

Chapter 178 Mio Reforge Cursed Sword

The deadly duo that was happening before my eyes was an Exclusive Maid who was a former top-level adventurer and the former Head of the Magician Division who had worked at the Aurora Royal Palace.

All the magical energy throwing that caused pollution from the magic core residue made several groups of stealth slimes look at me with pleading gazes to stop this madness.

Unlike me, who knew information about magic core residue that could cause pollution of magic spellcasting, which could damage and fail, my mother and Pyra did not know this information in detail.

The reason I did not tell this information was that magic core residue was food that could be eaten by stealth slimes and the pretext of cleaning the air so that it was not polluted by pollution. However, excessive magic core residue like this would make them too full to eat anything.

With conditions like this, several stealth slimes were now rotating duties between serving as Maids who cleaned the Marquess Rommel Main Mansion and shadow troops who were spying on the noble family who openly belittled the position and dignity of the Marquess Rommel family.

With such a rotation of task formation, I could make a lighter workload with a different environment that wouldn't bore them.

"Uuhh, I didn't know it would end up like this," my little grumbled as I began to see the view of the backyard that had been destroyed by Pyra's sword strike and my mother's fire magic chant.

Along with the damage caused by my mother and Pyra, Princess Anastasia, and Hana almost helped them to destroy a rat's nest that seemed to have been burned without a trace.

Luckily, Princess Anastasia and Hana didn't end up helping my mother in destroying this backyard. They were currently standing watching a show of destruction brought by my mother.

"I didn't think Marchioness Amagi's magic energy would be this big," said Princess Anastasia while playing with her magic wand between her fingers.

"What do you mean by saying something like that?" replied Hana who seemed to be glaring at Princess Anastasia along with Vasilica who was holding Hana's grip on her small dragon scales.

"I mean... serving as the Head of the Magician Division in the Aurora Royal Palace is already a fairly successful achievement in the eyes of the public and now she has retired with her powers worthy of the title of Former Head of the Magician Division in the Aurora Royal Palace," Princess Anastasia's explanation was clearly depicted with the perception of my mother who was in her crazy condition who was playing magic chants around her.

The surge of dense magic energy and the rapid incantation of fire magic were shown by my mother which showed that her magic energy capacity was still in prime condition. It made my mother look like a witch who could threaten a kingdom with just her presence alone.

Hana watched my mother more closely.

Her eyes which had a sharp gaze began to understand what Princess Anastasia said after my mother chanted a high-level magic quickly and with extraordinary concentration.

If it were my mother a few years ago, her concept of rapid magic chants would have been very chaotic and resulted in several failed magic chants. But by following the instructions given by the magic book of one of the Great Heroes in the past, my mother's magic chanting became better and had a strong foundation structure without any failures in the magic chanting.

I was quite proud of the teachings I gave to my mother who was very talented as a witch compared to me who had a little difficulty finding a magic staff that could accommodate a certain amount of my magic energy like Mio's katana could.

I remembered Mio who still hadn't returned.

She leaving me to reforge the cursed sword made me feel a little lonely.

In loneliness and the destroyed scenery in front of my eyes, my nose suddenly smelled a fresh scent of cherry blossoms and some cherry blossom petals that flew and fell in front of my eyes.

That made me reflexively turn my head to the side and see a long flowing black hair with a cute hair ribbon ornament.

"Good afternoon, Lily-sama."

"Does Lily-sama miss me who has been missing for the past few weeks?"

This familiar voice made my face smile suddenly and felt a longing that was hard to explain with words.

Although her body looked close, this feeling of being separated made my little heart feel a longing that had not been cured for a long time.

"You made me wait for quite a long time, Mio," I replied by giving a gentle smile to Mio who looked like a naughty sweet girl.

The gentle smile given by Mio was a warm touch of longing that made me unconsciously stretch my arms to get a hug from her.

"Don't you miss me too?" I asked with my arms stretched out and ready to receive a hug from her.

"Of course, I miss my Master. It's just that if I do something like that. Then the two beautiful girls beside Lily-sama will look at me with a cruel murderous gaze and it makes me a little uncomfortable when I get a piercing gaze like that," Mio replied with a joke of hers that I haven't heard for a long time.

It was not a joke but a reality when my danger detection ability suddenly activated.

I could feel that Hana and Princess Anastasia were watching my arms that were stretching out as if expecting a hug from Mio.

"Should we do it tonight?" I asked with a small wink that hinted something to Mio.

"Sorry Master, but I have to refuse," she with a gentle smile trying to avoid the problem in front of her own eyes, Mio with her bold and elegant attitude had rejected my invitation to feel her tenderness at night.

"Uh, it hurts so much when my Exclusive Maid rejects the invitation I gave her," I replied with a small laugh understanding the intention of Mio's actions who wanted to avoid problems from Princess Anastasia and Hana.

To avoid the two big problems, Princess Anastasia and Hana simultaneously pulled my stretched hand with a small hug from them who hugged my arm tightly with their arm lock.

"Lily, do you always do this to your Exclusive Maid?" asked Princess Anastasia with her face knitted full of jealousy.

"You won't do something indecent when you sleep with me tonight!" said Hana who also felt jealous with her face staring sharply at me.

"Eh?" I only replied with a surprised expression after receiving their actions like this.

My face seemed to show great disappointment.

The arm lock given by Princess Anastasia and Hana's hug made my body unable to move freely to approach Mio who had been gone for so long. This longing had to be held back for a while while waiting for Princess Anastasia and Hana's emotions to calm down.

"You two, don't tell me you're going to sleep with me tonight... again?" I asked in a calm tone after receiving their hugs filled with love.

"Isn't the answer to that question very clear, Lily?" Princess Anastasia replied quickly and showed a smile that indicated that I would not be able to get away from her obsessive feelings.

"Lily, we will sleep together until my vacation is over," Hana replied with her face showing her possessive strength that did not want me to go far from her.

Finding two beautiful girls who were expressing their deep love for me, I felt happy and felt that today was the best day to enjoy excessive love like this.

"I don't think I can run away from this," grumbled a little myself who was starting to give up on a situation like this.

With an awkward smile and facing the two beautiful girls' behavior who were hugging my arm tightly, my eyes suddenly diverted to an object in Mio's hand.

An object that was very long and covered by a white cloth.

My gaze seemed to be noticed by Mio and immediately smiled to answer my curiosity.

"Lily-sama, this is the body of the cursed sword that has been reforged using special metal seeds in each forging," said Mio while placing the body of the cursed sword that had been reforged on the ground.

Plluuuppp ...

Baang!!

The sound of the body of the cursed sword that had been reforged gave my ears information about its weight which was no joke.

I'm sure that it was the new body of the cursed sword that was quite heavy to hold using one hand. At least it needed two hands to hold it evenly.

The sound of the body of the cursed sword attracted the attention of Princess Anastasia and Hana who were hugging my arm tightly. They loosened their tight embrace and looked seriously at the cursed sword that Mio was carrying.

"Special ore in each forging?" I said to Mio who wanted to get a more detailed explanation from her.

"What does that mean, Mio?" I continued to ask while watching her hand movements that were opening the white cloth that wrapped the body of the cursed sword.

Mio who was still opening the white cloth that covered the body of the cursed sword just smiled softly at me.

"I'm sure this will make Lily-sama very happy after losing the katana that was forged by my two hands before," said Mio who slowly opened the white cloth that covered the body of the cursed sword.

When the white cloth opened wide and revealed the body of the cursed sword, I felt a special bond between myself and the cursed sword. A long sword shaped like a katana but much longer than the katana that had been forged by Mio.

With the stunning black-red color pattern, I was almost at a loss for words to react to the sword that had been forged by Mio with great difficulty.

"This... is this the cursed sword that has been reforged?" I asked with great curiosity. My eyes could not take my eyes off Mio's very stunning forging results.

"Lily-sama was surprised by the final result?" Mio said with a wide smile on her face full of arrogance.

"You're right, I was very surprised by the final result," I replied while eating the arrogant smile on Mio's face.

"Then, want to do a formal introduction with Lily-sama's new weapon?" this time Mio looked like she wanted to tease me into using her new weapon.

"Formal introduction?" I replied with a tilt of my head.

"Yes, formal introduction. With this unique and troublesome forged weapon. A name must be given to it before it becomes the main weapon that will be used by Lily-sama at all times," Mio seemed to have an obligation to name the weapon that had been reforged by herself.

"Name, huh? That's a bit complicated," I muttered in a small tone.

Thinking of a name that fits this longer-than-usual katana, it feels like I have to think hard to find a suitable name for it.

A weapon that comes from the cursed sword.

A cute name that would make my opponent think for a moment.

"How about Momo?" I said in a soft tone that had found a name that suited her.

Although it was far from simple, deadly, beautiful, and elegant.
