

Y. Goddess 180

Chapter 180 The Ritual Linked for Cursed Odachi

The hunting of the rat nest carried out by Pyra, Momo, and my mother seemed to be approaching an end that made me wonder.

Destruction given by my cursed Odachi had contributed greatly to the process of destroying this backyard.

Without giving any resistance to the orders I gave, Momo with her new body covered in fresh blood from the rats she found immediately headed towards me.

Mio had finished giving a short explanation about Momo.

A living weapon that came from a cursed sword that had changed type into a cursed Odachi that followed my height as its main body.

"My Monarch, I have completed the task of exterminating the rat nest down to the last rat," said Momo who was still wearing her Odachi form.

The long, sharp iron blade was covered in fresh blood and some cooked rat meat that was perfectly roasted thanks to the magic attack cast by my mother.

I didn't know that this task would make her like an Odachi that became a skewer and it would be a hard job to clean her that was covered in blood like this.

"Mio," with the small call that I said, my gaze immediately turned to Mio who was still standing straight as if she wanted to explain something to me.

"How is the treatment for an Odachi that is covered in blood like this?" I asked by taking a real example in front of me.

A cursed Odachi that was flying floating along with its sharp body covered in rat blood.

"Odachi and Katana do not need special treatment. They are the same as a sword that is forged by skill in battle and sharpened to sharpen its blade," said Mio who gave an answer that made Momo approach me.

Because Momo was approaching me. That made Princess Anastasia, Hana, and Vasilica immediately move away from my body.

"Did you hear that, my Monarch?"

"I have to be treated like a normal sword. Forged with expertise on the battlefield and sharpened to make my sharp edge able to cut everything even the threads of fate," said Momo who seemed to be expecting my touch on her Odachi's handle.

"I understand about small things like that," I replied while stroking Momo's Odachi's handle which had adjusted its position to my reach.

Puusshhh...

Boosshh...

Like a main weapon that was just touched for the first time, I could feel a gripping aura from the thirst for destruction that could be caused by one swing of Momo.

The destruction caused by one swing of Odachi's body could destroy anything as long as there was the owner's will.

"You're excited to be my main weapon, huh?" I said after holding Momo properly.

The overflow of magical energy given by Momo made me have to hold it properly and not cause damage caused by Momo's magic range.

With one swing aimed at cleaning the blood stains and cooked rat meat that stuck to her sharp-eyed body, it gave a gust of wind that created a shockwave of wind fragments that formed wind blades.

Spllaatt ...

Brraakkk ...

The blood stains that wet Momo's body and the cooked rat meat that stuck to her sharp-eyed body were immediately replaced by a clean body that displayed a strong sharp blade from the forging done by Mio.

The shine from Momo's body that showed the sharp blade made me a little stunned. Especially with the reflection of the sunlight that made her clean body shine brightly.

"It's easy enough to do regular maintenance," I said after doing a few swings on Momo's Odachi body.

"Good job, Mio," I said to praise Mio's work that had succeeded in making Momo into a new form of Odachi-type weapon.

"Thank you for your praise, Lily-sama. I am very flattered by my hard work that got satisfactory forging results to meet your expectations," said Mio with a soft smile that made her happy.

This not-so-bad main weapon has made me one step closer to destruction itself.

From now on I have to act more carefully after becoming the official owner of the cursed Odachi named Momo.

"I hope we can get through this together, Momo," I said to Momo who was now an obedient Odachi who accepted the touch of my hand that stroked the handle of her Odachi.

"Ahh... the first touch from my Monarch after a long time."

"I missed this."

I felt that Momo's nature became more unique when she looked like a little girl who needed to be pampered like this.

Along with the touch of my hand that was stroking the handle of her Odachi, a black Odachi sheath suddenly floated and approached me.

"Hmm?" with a tone that wondered what was happening, I looked at the black-red Odachi sheath.

"Is there a problem, Momo?" I asked Momo who seemed to be calling her Odachi sheath to come closer to me.

"Please touch my Odachi sheath too, my Monarch!" Momo asked, looking like she wanted to get the first touch like a baby bird that had just been born from its eggshell.

Her overly childish attitude made me realize her age, which was quite young as an Odachi. If using the date of manufacture, I think her age was still calculated using days and weeks.

Quite young for an Odachi that had just been born from a blacksmith's house.

Granting Momo's request, I immediately touched her Odachi sheath and felt a close bond between Momo's main body and her Odachi sheath. It was like two weapons that could not be separated from each other. One main body that could be a deadly weapon and the other that was the benchmark for becoming a non-lethal weapon.

The long and heavy Odachi sheath felt very blunt, making it suitable as a non-lethal blunt weapon.

I think this is the easiest way to make Momo into a non-lethal blunt weapon.

"Ehehe... my Odachi sheath was touched by my Monarch."

"I feel happy after being reborn as an Odachi."

Like a child who feels happy after getting attention from her parents, I also feel happy after seeing my main weapon become happy like this.

A feeling of happiness that makes me want to protect this happiness with all my might and destroy anything that ruins this happiness.

"Hmm?" when I thought about that, suddenly I felt a turmoil that came from the blessing of the Monarch of Holy Destruction that tied my fate with Momo.

A red thread has connected me to Momo just like the Linked Ritual that is done after kissing.

"W-What happened?" I muttered a little, not understanding what was happening between me and Momo.

My ring finger had been tied with a red string and Momo's body in the form of a cursed Odachi had been connected like a thread of fate that wove destiny between the two of us.

This isn't a bad sign, right?

I noticed the red string that connected me and Momo, a sign that looked exactly like the one given by the Linked Ritual.

What exactly happened, why is there a sign like this in my relationship with Momo?

[I think it has something close to do with the Goddess of Destruction, Lily-chan.]

"Ung?" while maintaining my expressionless face, I was surprised by the voice of my Goddess that entered my head.

"What exactly happened, my Goddess?" I asked in a small whisper without moving my lips.

[You do know that this is a relationship that has been prepared between you and the Goddess of Destruction. A relationship where Lily-chan becomes a Monarch of Holy Destruction who is responsible for every cursed weapon creation that has been made by the Goddess of Destruction.]

Hearing my Goddess's words that sounded so astonishing, I was struck by a small panic that made my shoulders feel heavy.

This burden that I am carrying is a great responsibility after becoming a Saintess plus a burden of becoming the Monarch of Holy Destruction given by the Goddess of Destruction herself.

Just thinking about this makes my head feel a little dizzy from this endless responsibility.

It seems like I will become someone who works continuously with this big burden of responsibility.

Thinking back, there are several responsibilities that I have shouldered and one of them is the responsibility as the Matriarch who leads the Marquess Rommel family.

Putting that aside, I am also one of the Saintesses of the Goddess who does not have a temple at all.

Eh? Doesn't that mean I am an unemployed Saintess right now?

So, my real responsibility is only as the Matriarch of the Marquess Rommel family and the Monarch of Holy Destruction?

[Cough! Oh! Ahhh!!]

[Somehow it feels like it's stabbing my fragile heart.]

[Forgive me for not having a Temple that my own Saintess can be proud of.]

I seem to have unknowingly given an emotional attack to my own Goddess. As an unknown Goddess who doesn't have a temple that can be used for worship by her followers, I have truly become an unemployed Saintess and am playing around with my own Yurification System blessings.

Is it okay for a Saintess like me to be unemployed like this?

[L-Lily-chan, please don't attack my fragile and easily broken emotional state like this.]

[Seeing Lily-chan being affectionate with another girl is the right way to pray to me.]

[Do you want to build a Goddess Shrine to become a love nest for the women who have loved you?]

A suggestion that sounded stupid suddenly sounded in my mind.

I can't believe that such a stupid suggestion came from a perverted Goddess like this.

Who would have thought that a Goddess would order her own Saintess to build a Shrine just to become a love nest and have an affair in it?

This is a perversion that occurs beyond the human mind, a perversion that comes from a Perverted and Lewd Goddess.

[Hey! I'm not that perverted!]

[Please stop Lily-chan's wild thoughts that are far from my image as a holy and great Goddess!]

By releasing some emotional attacks that made my Goddess look perverted and lewd, I took a deep breath after my ring finger was bound by a contract with Momo through the Linked Ritual that the Goddess of Destruction had prepared beforehand.

By accepting this Linked Ritual, at least I have to be responsible for having Momo until the end.

I hope that an incident like this doesn't make me too busy with worldly affairs and the affairs of my perverted Goddess like this.

[Lily-chan... I'm not that perverted!]

[Is there a Goddess who allows her own Saintess to flirt and have a love affair with another woman besides me?]

[I'm at least still a fair and wise Goddess, right?]

It seems like my head heard a whisper that made my body shiver. A sensation where nonsense and perversion have become normal for my own Goddess.

[Lily-chan... I'm not like that.]

[Kuuhhuuu... I just want to see Lily-chan happy with the blessing I gave.]

[A blessing that makes Lily-chan stronger and liked by many beautiful women.]

[Yes, I also can't deny that Lily-chan can do a little perverted things to other girls.]

[That would be an added value for me!]

As I suspected before, my Goddess is perverted when there is an intimate relationship between me and other women.

Without any other defense, my Goddess reveals her perverted self.
