

Y. Goddess 188

Chapter 188 The Kiss of Magic

Leaving a difficult negotiation to my father to persuade mother to allow Alice and Alyssa to join the forest expedition in order to gain an alliance with the Dark Elf race, I began to prepare several other things that were bothering my mind.

Mio's expression who stood calmly and elegantly beside me seemed to reject this idea.

Her slight reluctance towards the element of magic was visible on her face.

"It seems that I cannot accompany Lily-sama on this expedition," Mio muttered softly, her body seemingly refusing to enter a place with a very high intensity of magic.

Whether this was her pride as a woman who was an expert swordswoman who used mystical techniques in her attacks or herself who could not cast magic, it made Mio not want to touch a place that depended on the intensity of magic.

I also felt this after my sword technique was filled with legendary movement techniques and mystical attacks that came from someone who was a genius at swordsmanship who coincidentally connected to Mio as one of her descendants.

The opportunity to go with Mio to a place filled with magic seemed to be in line with my father's plan to negotiate with my mother.

Bringing only Alice and Alyssa, this would be our first expedition as fellow sisters of the Marquess Rommel family. It could be said that this was an expedition that would bring us closer as a family.

"Don't you want to join this expedition, Mio?" I asked, understanding what Mio was thinking based on her disgust for a place that depended on magic.

Like a fast-reacting allergy, Mio seemed to hate magic more and tried to distance herself from a place filled with magic intensity to strengthen her confidence in sword techniques that relied on mystical attacks.

If I think about it further, I have no idea how mystical techniques like Sakura Vanish and Sakura Dash can activate without using magical energy.

If using magical energy, then such sword techniques should provide a spell chant but the sword technique that Mio possessed did not have a special spell chant and activated suddenly.

Could this be a genius that was given by her predecessor who became a legend with the greatest sword technique in history?

"No, I don't know if I can survive with a body that hates and is allergic to magic like that," Mio replied with a shake of her head after giving a definite answer about herself not wanting to join me on this expedition.

"Eh, even though we haven't met for a long time. Do you want to go far away from me again?"

I gave a gaze filled with longing to persuade Mio to join the expedition into the forest.

The look in my eyes looked like a cheating attack that made Mio look like she couldn't bear to leave me.

"If Mio doesn't join this expedition, then Noel will come with me," I said in a small voice while now staring at Noel's previous standing place which was empty because she delivered a paper containing Sebastian's handwriting earlier.

With thin sweat starting to fall from her forehead to her cheeks, Mio looked like she was receiving a little mental pressure from me.

"Lily-sama, you are too cheating to persuade me in this way."

"Lily-sama also knows that I am a little bit unaccepting of the concept of magic and feel disgusted by magic, right?"

Mio's words made me smile and my body released a small amount of magic energy that came from my magic core that had developed lately.

"Then, I will make you get used to magic," I said while wetting my dry lips with a lick of my saliva.

Sllurriipp...

With a small lick of my tongue that had wet my lips and my whole body which was now in a thin flood of magic energy, I walked closer to Mio who was slowly moving away from me.

Taappp...

Taappp...

Mio with her small steps that retreated backward seemed to reject my body that was filled with a flood of magic energy.

"Mio, why are you retreating backward?"

"Do you no longer want to receive a soft kiss from my lips?"

I gave an emotional pressure to Mio who was now standing still after hearing it.

"Yes, be a good girl by standing still like that."

I felt like I was committing a sin that made me look like a bad woman who was trying to seduce a kind and innocent woman like Mio.

Mio's body was standing straight and shaking looked like she was forcing herself.

Sllurrpp...

I feel like I'm going to sin after forcibly giving a kiss to her soft lips.

Oh, my Goddess, forgive your Saintess who will make this sin.

[Apology accepted.]

[Now, let's continue making this holy sin, Lily-chan!]

Somehow, I feel like I'm getting full support from my Goddess herself.

A sinful act that is officially supported by my Goddess herself.

Won't something like this be a problem later?

[That can be thought about later...]

[The most important thing right now is to make Mio's heart melt and help Lily-chan in going on an expedition into the forest to create harem dominance in the area where the Dark Elf race lives!]

[Good luck Lily-chan, I'm sure you can do this to Mio!]

[Persuade Mio with your soft kiss that successfully seduces and makes her heart melt to enter a place that she hates!]

The screams of my own Goddess echoed in my head.

It felt like I was taking this opportunity to commit a sinful act that looked holy in the eyes of my own Goddess.

"Miiioo..." With my steps slowly approaching Mio's body, I could see her body that had become more mature than before.

A body that looked beautiful, sexy, and mature.

It made me want to feel the warmth of Mio's body that had disappeared several weeks after she went to reforge the cursed sword into a cursed Odachi.

I could see Mio forcing her body to stand up straight and elegantly, her forced attitude looked very cute, especially with her gaze fixed on my entire body which was filled with overflowing magical energy.

My hand gently stroked her cheek and felt a twitch on her face that was holding back her overflowing emotions.

The touch of my hand on her soft cheek gave a sensation from the touch of my hand filled with overflowing magical energy that slowly stroked her cheek.

"Isn't being stroked with magic like this not too bad, Mio?" I asked to give a little temptation to Mio who was standing with her elegant and polite attitude.

The touch I gave seemed to make Mio feel a warmth from the core of my magic that came from the gift of my Goddess herself. A surge of golden yellow magic energy that felt warm and calming to the heart.

The restless feeling of disgust and hatred for magic that Mio felt changed into a peace of mind that felt a gentle magic that was given directly by me.

"Not too bad, right?" I asked while giving a soft caress that stroked Mio's dry lips.

"You look cute after receiving a little coercion like this."

"Should I give a little temptation that makes your heart beat fast after receiving it?"

I seemed to be enjoying what I was doing too much right now.

A temptation that stroked Mio's soft cheeks and rubbed her dry lips that wanted to get a soft touch from my lips.

Without being able to say her little protest to me, Mio stood quietly and accepted my loving touch. Her body that had refused to feel the overflow of my magical energy was now slowly accepting it.

With gentle and awkward movements that made Mio panic, I had to make sure that the overflow of my magical energy felt soft in every drop.

Like water that spreads slowly and covers the entire surface that will be new water container, I made Mio get used to the overflow of my magical energy by feeling the softness of my magical energy that has become a Saintess.

Mio was still standing quietly enjoying the touch of my hand on her soft cheek that occasionally teased her dry lips.

"You look like a child who is being scolded when you act calmly like this."

"So cute..."

I still gave a little tease to Mio who did not move her body and tried to stand with an elegant attitude.

The overflow of my magical energy that had filled her entire body was now facing a new problem, it about me wanting to kiss Mio's lips.

Since my private bedroom was filled with Black Maid units tasked with securing and protecting important documents from the stealth slime herd, I was a little awkward doing a kiss that I often gave to Mio's lips.

Besides the Black Maid units on duty in my private bedroom right now, my father and Sebastian seemed to be pretending to be busy after seeing what I was doing to Mio's lips.

I had to hold back my desire to kiss her lips so as not to cross a line that would embarrass myself and Mio.

"So, are you going to join this expedition or not?" I asked Mio, expecting a definite answer from her.

Mio, who was receiving my touch, only gave an unclear answer from her mouth that was mumbling.

"Uuuuhh... HUUU..." Mio looked like she was under pressure in giving her small answer and tried to remain calm but her body was shaking nervously.

"Lily-sama is cheating with things like this," Mio said with a small mumble in her mouth.

"I-I will join the expedition into that forest," with that short answer, Mio gave a defeated smile that made me feel happy.

With the touch of my hand that was still stroking her soft cheek and lips, I gave a small smile that touched her lips and made Mio surprised.

"Hmm?!! Mmnn!!" with her lips covered by my kiss, I gave some of my magical energy to enter Mio's body and forced her to accept the magical energy that came from me.

Chuuppp...

A kiss that shouldn't have happened had made Mio panic.

Mio quickly released the kiss on the lips that I gave her.

"L-Lily-sama?!!" with a panicked expression, Mio looked like she felt a sharp gaze from the people behind me.

Without turning around and paying attention to what was happening behind my body. It seemed that I had realized some things that had happened.

Several Black Maid units covered their faces with their hands and held their ears which were turning red after seeing me kissing Mio.

With the overflow of my magical energy that had been absorbed by Mio's body, now I felt like I was giving Mio magical protection so that she would be protected from magical attacks that would occur during the expedition.

Mio's posture which had previously stood elegantly and politely, now looked like a woman who had just done something bad and was caught by her parents.

My father and Sebastian who saw this shook their heads.

"You two, at least do it in your private room," said my father who looked normal after seeing me kiss Mio's lips.

"Father... this is my own private room," I replied to my father who seemed too lost in his thoughts that he forgot that this was my private bedroom.

"Ooohh... T-That's right."

With this awkwardness, I felt embarrassed...
