

Y. Goddess 202

Chapter 202 Newspaper With ... Me?

The military uniform I was wearing felt a little strange.

Not only did the breasts feel tight, but the design also made me aware of my position as a guest visiting Earl Timoti's territory.

Mio and I stood quietly while waiting for the scarf I had been waiting for to arrive. My quiet wait also felt awkward after several women saw me kissing Mio.

The kiss that occurred between lips and lips had made several women want to ask about that one thing, including the woman who had given me a military uniform of Earl Timoti's territory.

With her body movements that looked awkward and she wanted to ask one thing, she tried to force that curiosity with strong courage.

"Um, do you girls often do that... thing?" asked the woman whose name I still don't know.

"Yes," with a short reply, I answered her with a smile and the movement of my tongue wetting my lips.

"Sometimes we do more than this like taking a bath together, sleeping together, and stripping each other on the bed. Humppff!!"

When I wanted to explain what I often do with Mio, a palm had covered my mouth. It was a palm that came from Mio with her face now covered in a blush.

"L-Lily-sama... I think it's a secret that only we should know," said Mio her body shaking as if she felt embarrassed after my mouth openly told her about what we often do together.

By pulling Mio's hand that was still covering my mouth, I gave a small lick with my saliva that slowly wet her hand that was covering my mouth.

Sluurrpp...

With my wet saliva, Mio's hand felt ticklish and immediately released her palm that was covering her mouth.

"Lily-sama is so cheating by using a method like that to escape from my embrace," grumbled Mio who was now starting to wipe her palm with her body feeling embarrassed.

Seeing that unusual reaction, I moved a little closer to her and pushed my breast towards her so that her eyes could see the cleavage of my breasts.

"Is it wrong to try to get away from the hand that is covering my mouth?" I asked, pushing my body to give Mio access so she could see my cleavage more clearly.

"Uuuuhh!! T-That..." Mio's gaze accidentally stared at my cleavage and began to act strangely. Her trembling body and her gaze that couldn't leave my cleavage seemed to give a clear signal to cover up the weapon that was able to tempt Mio like this.

"Mio, are you okay?" I asked, giving her a further level of temptation by pushing my body to press my breasts against hers.

Booiiinnngg...

With the touch of our two large breasts, I could feel that Mio's body was covered in a blush from head to toe.

"Miioo?" with soft words that wanted to keep Mio aware of her blushing, I called her with a loving gaze.

The temptation that I gave continued by touching Mio's forehead who was standing with a strange smile on her face.

"Did you catch a fever after working hard lately?" I asked while pressing my breasts more on hers.

Booiiinnnggg...

Squueesshhh...

"Hmmp!! L-Lily-saaaa!!" with that small shriek, Mio pushed my body away.

Our breasts that had touched were separated from Mio who was filled with shame all over her body.

Seeing that the temptation I gave her had succeeded, I immediately glanced at the woman who had questioned my closeness with Mio.

"That's ... how close I am with Mio," I said in a calm tone and a triumphant smile after successfully teasing Mio through touch.

In addition to enjoying the temptation of physical touch like that, I also get other benefits from the Yurification Points that continue to increase when I make physical contact with a woman who has formed a Ritual Linked with me.

Just think of it as a mutually beneficial action and I like Mio's embarrassed reaction who has received the temptation of physical touch from me.

"I-I see. I didn't know two girls could be close like this," the woman in front of me replied, seemingly satisfied with my answer.

"Is there a problem when two girls become close like this?" I asked, suddenly hearing a problem from the woman.

"Nothing, we were just curious about Lily-sama's presence who had become the talk of Earl Timoti's troops after her great success in the legendary Golden King Bear Hunt Operation," said the woman with her eyes now looking at me with full respect.

"Heh?" with a little confusion in this conversation, it seemed like I heard something that felt itchy in my ears and would make me feel troubled in the future.

"In addition to Lily-sama's greatness in giving orders at the headquarters that were careful and precise, I also heard that Lily-sama went down directly to hunt the Golden King Bear that had become a Calamity Disaster."

"Huh?" with another confusion, I began to listen to a rumor about myself that was right on target like this.

Could it be that Earl Timoti deliberately told his troops about the Golden King Bear Hunt Operation?

"I also heard that Lily-sama has a unique relationship with women who have become part of Lily-sama's life. Like this lucky woman. In addition to receiving Lily-sama's love and affection, she also received great trust to become Lily-sama's aide this time thanks to the recommendation given by Earl Timoti!" as if seeing a different self from before, the woman who looked calm and serious before turned into a woman who wanted to satisfy her curiosity about me.

"Uh, Y-Yes," I could only reply in this way after some of her questions were mostly the truth.

"You know a lot about me, where did you get that information about me?" I asked the woman without further ado.

With a smile on her face, the woman felt something in her military uniform pocket and took out a newspaper that had been circulating in Earl Timoti's territory.

A newspaper with me wearing a military uniform and looking serious while planning the Golden King Bear Hunting Operation assisted by a herd of stealth slimes.

With the scary photo position and seemingly threatening to anyone who saw it, it made me a little embarrassed when I saw my own photo.

I quickly hid my embarrassment by reading the newspaper title.

"A strategic girl who is the key to the success of the Golden King Bear hunt?" I said while rereading the newspaper title that the woman in front of me was showing.

My eyes quickly read the contents of the newspaper and realized that it was the same question from a woman who was taking care of Earl Timoti's military report at that time.

"I think it's a little embarrassing if I become the key to success, without direction from Earl Timoti and my father who are experienced in the battlefield. I'm just a little kid who was just born on the battlefield," I said a little jokingly to the woman in front of me.

"Haha! That's exactly what the humble elder said," she replied in a joking tone too.

Looking at the newspaper that contain news about me, was this a sign that I was well-known by the residents of Earl Timoti's territory?

If my face and skin could be recognized so easily, would I receive a bullying like in my childhood?

My body shuddered as I thought about this.

A fear from the past that haunted me again.

"Lily-sama, you should be prepared after entering Earl Timoti's territory," along with those words, I felt an invisible needle stabbing my chest.

"If you are not careful in Earl Timoti's territory, then there will be some Lily-sama fans who try to approach Lily-sama," the woman continued with a hammer that suddenly destroyed the invisible needle that stabbed my chest.

"W-What does that mean?" with confusion on my face that was visible, I gave a questioning look to the woman.

"Thanks to the hunting of the Golden King Bear and the raw materials from their bodies, it caused some Alchemist potions that cure chronic diseases in Earl Timoti's territory to decrease drastically. Some old people who recovered from chronic diseases have praised Lily-sama as their life savior."

"Uguh!" hearing such words, I felt like I felt another pain that I couldn't see where it came from.

"Although there are some unscrupulous merchants who sell fake Alchemist potions for their gain. Ahh.. that has been handled well by Earl Timoti and Lily-sama's good name is still maintained."

I who had been hearing this all this time only felt confused.

Why did I become famous?

Why did some old people praise me?

Why is this related to the hunt for the Golden King Bear?

In the midst of all that talk, I only saw Mio's expression I was very happy after hearing that I was famous like this.

"Is it a good thing to go around Earl Timoti's territory?" I asked to ensure the safety of myself who seemed to have a big influence in Earl Timoti's territory.

"I think it's a good thing, but you have to be careful of the fans who will always follow Lily-sama while going around Earl Timoti's territory."

"That sounds very troublesome if I have to meet them."

"That's why Earl Timoti gave his territory's military uniform so that Lily-sama would not stand out too much in public and could blend in with other soldiers when entering the city."

With that answer, I immediately saw my cleavage that was still not covered.

"I think, we have to do something about this first," I said while showing my cleavage through this tight military uniform.

"I will find a military uniform that fits your body size after arriving in the city. For now, we apologize for our miscalculation that did not know that Lily-sama's breasts were growing healthily like this," with a friendly smile on her face, the woman tried to peek at my cleavage that looked like chocolate ready to be licked.

When the woman's gaze fell on my cleavage, I could see her nose starting to bleed with blood flowing profusely.

"H-Hey, you're having a nosebleed," I said to inform her about her nosebleed.

"I know that Lily-sama," with her eyes still looking at my cleavage, the woman still dared to peek at it.

That made Mio immediately go towards me and put out her hand to cover my cleavage.

"Hey, don't peek like that. I know that Lily-sama's breasts look tempting. But don't look at them continuously like that," said Mio with a stern expression on her face.

When Mio's hand was covering my cleavage, a scarf that I had been waiting for was in front of my eyes through the hand of a woman who was walking closer.

Mio immediately used the Sakura Vanish and Sakura Dash moves to grab the scarf so that it covered my cleavage.
