Chapter 214 - My Free Time For... What?

The luncheon that had ended received good news from Earl Timoti.

Due to the incident that had occurred today, there was a temporary change in the military leadership of Earl Timoti by implementing military budget efficiency to make military improvements.

The complicated relationship between Earl Timoti and his father-in-law originated from the relationship between his wife who seemed afraid after her father caused a big problem like this.

To prevent the situation from getting out of control, a stealth slime volunteered to supervise the old man who became Earl Timoti's father-in-law. With a big incident like this, the good relationship between Earl Timoti and Marquess Rommel would be on a thin thread that was almost broken.

In order to maintain a good relationship like before, I thought about carrying out my long-term surprise attack plan as soon as possible.

Before that, it seemed like I had to relax for a while in the luxurious room that Earl Timoti had provided.

After a few hours had passed from the luncheon, Mio and I got a luxurious room that would be used as our temporary residence. This luxurious room is a castle room that is often the residence of important guests of the Earl Timoti family and gets direct service from a professional Maid who serves as observer of the situation.

Buuuggghh...

"Quite a tiring day, isn't it, Mio?" I said while lying down on the bed and enjoying the fragrant cold sheets.

"Yes, this is a tiring day to keep Lily-sama from doing as she pleases without thinking about the consequences that must be faced," said Mio with a tone of voice that seemed tired.

"Hey, I'm not that difficult to deal with you know ..." I replied while puffing out my cheeks to launch my small protest to Mio.

"Yes, I know it's not as difficult as usual ... but it's quite excessive by destroying Earl Timoti's residence and giving a view of the sky that is split like that," said Mio while directing her gaze to the sky during the day that was split by the cursed Odachi attack.

The split sky still left a path of my magical energy slash that had become pure damage. In addition to the sky that looked like it was split in two due to the attack I did, it also left a red-black scar that could be seen from various angles.

"I apologize about that, Mio," I replied in a casual tone and chuckled.

"Rather than making a fuss about that, now it's time to take a nap together before moving at night. Help me take off this military uniform without making me get up from this cold bed!" I ordered like a noble lady who wanted to be pampered by Mio.

With my attitude that looked like a lazy noble woman, Mio only let out a long, heavy sigh and shook her head. Several Maids who were on duty in this guest room suddenly looked at me with surprised looks at my unusual behavior.

"Lily-sama, you become a girl who needs to be pampered after being in the room," Mio grumbled as she stepped closer to me.

Sruugg...

With my body position already lying on the bed, Mio slowly got on top of me and looked into my eyes with a feeling of unease.

Because my body position was lying on my back on the bed and Mio was on top of me, it looked quite lewd and made some of the Maids start to smile while holding themselves back from not seeing what we were going to do.

"You're on top of me without doing anything?" I asked while baiting Mio to do something to my body that was feeling lazy to move.

I could see Mio's gaze fixed on the nape of my neck which was still covered by the military uniform collar.

Mio's hand slowly pulled my hair ribbon which made it flow freely. The movement of her hand continued to the collar of my military uniform which was slowly loosened by Mio until her lips suddenly kissed the nape of my neck.

Chuuu...

Chuuu...

Sluurrpp...

Along with the movement of Mio's lips trying to give a soft kiss to the nape of my neck which was full of sweat, Mio's tongue started to come out and gave a refreshing cold sensation to the nape of my neck.

"Mmm... Ahhuu..." A small moan from my mouth was heard and made some Maids squeal with their eyes closed after seeing what Mio did.

"Miooo... do you like the nape of my neck to be licked while it's sweaty?" I asked in a tone that held back a moan.

Sluurrppp...

"Uukk... Mmpph..." I moan again after Mio's lips gave a kiss and a small bite that made the nape of my neck feel a little sore. The small bite would leave a red mark on the nape of my neck which would be a sign of love given by Mio directly.

"Mio, it would be troublesome if I wore a dress that showed the nape of my neck and looked for something to cover the love mark you gave to the nape of my neck," my little comment on what Mio had done.

Along with the kisses and small licks given by Mio to the nape of my neck, I felt this would be a hard job for the Maid who would clean this luxurious room.

"Mio, control yourself before I lose control too..." I said in a soft tone and tried to control my sighing breath.

Mio stopped the movement of her lips and tongue that were trying to enjoy the nape of my neck. Her hands now moved to remove the top of my military uniform without making me get up from the bed.

Mio's skill in loosening my military uniform and making me half-naked happened quickly. In just a few seconds, I was already half-naked wearing only a thin camisole that I often wore to sleep at night and during the day.

Thanks to this thin camisole, I showed most of my exposed skin so it would be very embarrassing if a man saw me while wearing a camisole like this.

"Lily-sama, do I need to change your underwear too?" Mio asked with a serious look that started to look suspicious.

"Mio, you just want to smell my sweaty underwear to fulfill your daily dose, right?" I replied in a cold tone that was able to guess what Mio was thinking.

"Of course not! How could I dare to do that in front of Lily-sama directly!" Mio denied with her breath excited.

"So you would do it if not in front of me?" I replied while giving Mio a cynical look.

"I was just kidding, Lily-sama. I'm not like Noel who would do that by taking advantage of the time when you're taking a bath with me," said Mio who slowly started to become normal after getting my cynical gaze.

"Hmmm... for some reason, I have to move the dirty clothes basket to be inside the bathroom instead of outside the bathroom as one way to avoid Noel's perverted actions like that," I grumbled to Mio.

"I think that's a pretty good idea, Lily-sama."

When Mio's perverted touch in removing my military uniform was finished and continued with casual chat, my room door was suddenly knocked on by someone who made several Maids on duty wait for my orders.

Tokk...

Tookk...

With my body condition I was only wearing a camisole like this, it would be very embarrassing if Earl Timoti visited with my body in a seductive and impolite condition for a married adult man to see.

I then rolled to the edge of the bed and pulled the blanket that was neatly folded on the bed to cover my body.

"Mio, can you see who our guest is?" I said to Mio while handing this to her.

"Unn!!" Mio nodded and started to get up from the bed while carrying my neatly folded military uniform in her hand.

Before Mio opened the door, she gave my neatly folded military uniform to one of the Maids to get a cleaner and fresher change of uniform.

Kraaakkk...

The door to this room was slowly opened by Mio and I remained on the bed in a lazy condition.

The figures of the guests behind the door were the noble girls who had previously trained together with the muscular men in the open arena. I caught a glimpse of their silhouettes from behind the door and listened to their conversation with Mio.

"Um, excuse me, does Lily-sama have free time to chat with us?"

A serious question was heard and made my body shiver after hearing it.

"Currently Lily-sama does have some free time, but to talk to her... it seems like it will require Lily-sama's consent because there is a more important matter because Lily-sama has promised to take the time to complete a request between herself and one of the leaders of the stealth slime herd," a professional answer was given by Mio and made me remember my one problem.

Along with a small nod that I gave to one of the stealth slimes, I heard several messages that answered each other on the Soul Tame communication channel.

Especially with Aiko's screams who were calling Sirius' name to apologize to me.

[Sirius! Where did you go?]

[Hurry up and meet the Supreme Commander right now!]

The shout filled with passion filled the Soul Tame communication channel with cheers calling Sirius' name to immediately apologize to me.

Honestly, I had just forgotten that this was the free time that I had promised with Sirius.

Wuushhh...

Suddenly a wind came blowing into this luxurious room. A wind that was created by the arrival of Sirius who was already in her human form and was kneeling towards me with her head bowed down.

"Supreme Commander, I would like to apologize for what happened to my actions that were not pleasing to the Supreme Commander who was disgusted by the stealth slime!"

"I realize that it was an action that damaged the Supreme Commander's self-esteem and reduced the Supreme Commander's trust in the stealth slime herd."

"I am truly sorry and hope that the Supreme Commander will give great forgiveness to me and the entire stealth slime herd that is currently on duty!"

A well-arranged sentence and an apology were heard from Sirius' mouth who was bowing her head in front of me. Her attitude of kneeling made me feel a little sorry after making herself have to bear the guilt that made her the object of ridicule from other stealth slimes.

The sincere apology made me who was covering my body with a blanket immediately approach the edge of the bed to sit directly facing Sirius who was kneeling.

"It seems like you already understand how disgusting slime mucus is that it makes me angry," I said in a cold tone and looked down at Sirius who was kneeling in front of me.

"I will give you one last chance and if this happens again... then I will have to break your Soul Tame contract."

"Do you understand my words?"

Giving Sirius a pause to answer, I gave the sole of my right foot towards her bowed head.

"I will give my utmost trust to the entire stealth slime herd and forgive your mistakes..."

Along with those words, I saw Sirius smiling happily and the cheers of happiness from the entire stealth slime herd in the Soul Tame communication channel.

Along with the cheers of happiness from the stealth slime herd, I felt a ticklish sensation when Sirius pulled the sole of my right foot that was in front of her face and kissed the sole of my right foot with her lips.

This seemed like an increase in loyalty.
