

Y. Goddess 223

Chapter 223 - Evelyn Quest

The kiss I gave Evelyn's lips was well received by my Yurification System's blessing.

With the slow kiss from my lips, I had triggered Evelyn's growth to become even better.

As a military girl who has great potential in the future, of course, I was tempted to have her.

The effect of the kiss given by my lips, it had triggered the blessing of the Yurification System which made me have to accept the Yurification Quest given by the blessing of my Goddess.

After the long kiss ended, I gave a gentle stroke to her lips which were dripping saliva.

"You are much calmer after getting my kiss, huh?" I said with a cold gaze and a gentle stroke to her lips that were dripping saliva.

At this time, I looked like a young girl who was playing around with another young girl and playing with her pure heart that was still clean.

"You want to be much stronger than something pathetic like this, right?"

Evelyn who had just received a kiss on her lips was silent and her face was filled with a pink blush that attracted the attention of other noble girls towards her.

While waiting for Evelyn's answer, I noticed the Yurification Quest that pop-up in front of me.

I don't know what other mischievous my Goddess is planning, one of her troublesome blessings has been activated when I wanted to have a more intimate relationship with another girl.

Could it be a blessing that was activated with my awareness to have a more intimate relationship with another girl?

It seems I have to try to do something to test that one theory.

I don't want this Yurification Quest to be activated in a dangerous condition like this.

If the Quest given is strange, then I will reject it.

My eyes immediately read the information given by the Yurification Quest.

Somehow...

My eyes feel heavy after seeing the Yurification Quest given by my Goddess with her free will like this.

Oh, my Goddess, are you sure to give me the blessing of a Yurification Quest like this?

[Of course! I was sure when I wrote the proposal earlier!]

[Even the Goddess Aurora and the Goddess of Destruction have agreed to this Yurification Quest proposal.]

Eh? Why are the other Goddesses also involved in this kind of Yurification Quest?

[Lily-chan...]

[Although it seems embarrassing... the blessing I am currently giving has received donations from two Goddesses who have contributed fully to the development of the Yurification System blessing.]

[Without their help... I would still be a Goddess who is not self-aware because the interface used is too simple and tacky.]

[Didn't Lily-chan herself say that the interface of the Yurification System looks ordinary?]

It seems like something like that happened a few years ago and I forgot when it happened.

As far as I know, I once said that the interface of the Yurification System was not attractive and looks ordinary.

[See! Even Lily-chan herself admitted it!]

[This makes me insecure with giving the blessing of the Yurification System which is currently build side by side with the blessing of the Monarch of Holy Destruction which has developed rapidly due to the intervention of the Goddess of Destruction.]

Does it feel troublesome with the blessing I have received right now?

[Not really, we are developing three blessings at the same time. Just think of it as a blessing given by the collaboration of the three Goddesses who work together to make Lily-chan happy!]

I frowned and started to return to the problem in front of me right now.

A Yurification Quest that involves excessive intimacy with Evelyn Del Timoti who is still blushing and lowering her face.

"So, are we going to train for a while after this?" I asked Evelyn who still did not give an answer to my previous question.

From my question, I gave an attitude that seemed to pamper Evelyn for a while.

My lips that had just kissed her lips immediately gave a tongue lick that wet my lips.

Slurrpp...

With such seductive little movements, I will use various sensual ways to complete the Yurification Quest that my Goddess has given me.

My body feels as if my Goddess is watching me directly from the realm of the Goddess.

Oh, my Goddess, look at me who is struggling to fulfill your perverted wishes.

[Lily-chan, I say this once more.]

[I am not a perverted Goddess!]

Yes... Yes... I understand that, my Goddess.

[Please don't give me a look as if I'm the pervert here, Lily-chan. You are also just as perverted by giving sensual tongue movements by wetting your lips like that!]

For now, I will ignore my pervert Goddess and focus what will happen.

"Lily-sama..."

When the situation was under control and felt safer than before, I got a small call from Mio who brought some throwing knives that had been used by Evelyn's group.

"Oh, Mio, have you taken back the throwing knives that had been stuck in the scout wolf's body?" I replied while turning my gaze to Mio with the bloody throwing knives in her hand.

"Yes, these are some throwing knives that can be safely reused. The rest have become blunt and are difficult to hit to their targets," Mio replied while carefully putting her throwing knives on ground.

Different from Mio's previous attitude of not wanting her throwing knives to be used carelessly, now Mio looked like she was serious when she wanted to say something to me.

"Lily-sama, if you are okay with this. May I teach them..."

Before Mio finished her words, I gave her an answer that gave her permission to do so, "Do that, Mio," I replied quickly before Mio finished her words.

"Eh? Um, Lily-sama?" with a questioning expression, Mio seemed to want to confirm my answer.

"You want to teach them about throwing knives properly, right?" I asked, guessing Mio's true intentions.

"Yes, that's what I'm planning," Mio replied with an attitude that now looked awkward.

I immediately stepped towards her and gave her a soft kiss on the lips.

Chuupp...

My kiss on Mio's soft lips seemed to give a small moan that made Mio's saliva come out to wet my lips.

Just by feeling her kiss on my lips, I could feel Mio's strange anxiety and it showed that she was jealous when I kissed another girl in front of her eyes.

With a fair kiss on the lips like this, I gave the impression of being a Master who still cared about my Maid and didn't forget about her.

This reminded me of the Side Quest from the Yurification Quest given by my Goddess, like making Mio involved in the intimate relationship that would occur between me and Evelyn.

The soft kiss slowly broke away and showed Mio's face which was dissatisfied with the kiss I gave.

With a small touch caressing her ears filled with pink blush, I gave a small whisper to Mio.

"Don't be too jealous like that, you know I like giving fair love like this," I whispered a little to calm Mio's jealousy which was not visible in her facial expression.

Even though Mio didn't show a jealous expression, I already understood her sulking behavior when she saw me treating another girl more intimately than usual.

My relationship with Mio has progressed far enough to know what's in her heart without saying it through words.

"Uuhhh... Lily-sama likes to cheat directly in front of other girls huh," replied Mio with her small whisper that only I could hear.

"Should I tell to the other girls about the new girl who has received Lily-sama's love?" continued Mio's small whisper who wanted to do something troublesome like that.

I could only smile softly and give an answer that showed my sense of love for the girls who had done the Linked Ritual with me.

"If it's not a bother for you, please do it slowly," I replied by giving a small touch that poked her cheek.

I returned to my normal attitude and saw Evelyn who had recovered from her blushing.

Evelyn was now standing straight and looking at me with a sparkling gaze.

"Evelyn, are you ready for this sudden midnight training?" I asked while giving a firm attitude and adjusting my military cap to further show my attitude of military instructor.

"Yes, I am ready for any training, Lily-sama!" Evelyn answered with her gaze changing to be more firm than usual.

Along with Evelyn's answer, several other military girls immediately lined up beside Evelyn's body in a horizontal line.

It made me smile in satisfaction with their determination to grow stronger on the real battlefield.

"There is still some time left in the middle of the night before bedtime, for that..."

Snap...

I immediately snapped my fingers after giving orders to the stealth slime herd to bring a wooden log and a blunt throwing knife.

Thuugg...

Thuuudd...

Along with the snap of my fingers, a wooden log had stood behind me and would act as a target for throwing blunt knives.

Triinnng...

Tiinggg...

Along with the wooden log that had stood upright as a training target, several blunt knives had stuck in the middle of the wooden log that was the training target.

"As you can see, even blunt throwing knives can still stick if your knife-throwing technique is correct," continued my words to Evelyn's group who were lining up in front of me.

"Next... Instructor Mio, show me your best teaching methods," I continued by giving Mio a stage to shine in this midnight throwing knife lesson.

Following my orders, Mio confidently moved to teach Evelyn's group.
