

Y. Goddess 229

Chapter 229 - Cooking Breakfast

"Naked apron, huh?"

In the morning which still showed no signs of busy activity, I grumble the words that echoed in my head.

A whisper that carried words to do something perverted that came from my Goddess herself.

I didn't know that my Goddess had become this perverted.

At every opportunity that made me become a perverted girl who had no dignity, my Goddess used that opportunity to tease me with a request that made my faith in her waver.

"What should I do now?" I muttered softly while looking around me.

In an open place and the wilderness like this, I have to wear a naked apron that shows some of my skin that looks half-naked.

Isn't that only done by perverts who no longer care about manners and politeness?

Among those perverts, my Goddess is even more perverted by making me wear a naked apron when cooking breakfast.

Is there anything more normal than a request that sounds perverted like this?

[I thought of one more request though, I guess it's not as good as a naked apron.]

My ears twitched after that voice echoed inside my head.

I wanted to know what request would be better than using a naked apron when cooking breakfast.

[Uh, cooking while wearing underwear wrapped in an apron?]

"Ugh... what a disappointing answer," I immediately gave that answer with my face stiff and covered in black shadows.

My disappointment towards my Goddess was at its highest at this moment.

Using a naked apron had already received a significant rejection from me and now my Goddess wanted to wear underwear wrapped in an apron.

Isn't that the same thing as a naked apron?

I can't do something perverted and embarrassing to the public like this.

Can't my Goddess be a little more sane this time?

I beg of you, my Goddess.

Please grant a sane request and save your pervertedness after seeing me having sweet time last night.

[I did this because I wasn't satisfied, Lily-chan!]

[I want to see Evelyn's courage to seduce and blush at the same time!]

[Seeing Evelyn's extraordinary innocence like that, I want to keep seeing her blush after accepting Lily-chan's temptation!]

I ignored the words given by my Goddess in my head. The words that kept echoing made me wear a white apron to get ready to cook breakfast.

By ignoring the lewd request from my Goddess and wear the apron without naked or anything like that, I started to rush towards Evelyn and Mio who were cleaning up the food ingredients from their supplies.

Several noble girls had cut up some sharp-horned boar meat and sorted out the fresh meat that hadn't rotted to be used for breakfast.

The apron I was wearing looked so tight that it made my breasts hurt little bit. My hands were also busy tying my hair into a ponytail so that no hair would fall into the food I wanted to make.

Ctakkk... Ctakkk...

Mio with her skilled hands seemed to be chopping up the flesh of a sharp-horned boars that had been dissected by the noble girls.

"Mio, I'll chop it and mix it with the spices we often use," I said, walking next to Mio who was busy cutting the sharp-horned boars meat into small pieces.

My hand immediately took another knife to chop the sharp-horned boar meat into soft meat pellets.

Grakkk... Grakkk...

With my skillful hands capable of mincing sharp-horned boar meat until it looked fine.

The spices that were near me and had been sorted by Mio seemed to indicate her intention to make a hamburger steak dish from minced sharp-horned boar meat.

"You're planning on making minced hamburgers from sharp-horned boar meat, Mio?" I said while moving my hand to chop the sharp-horned boar meat that had been cleaned by the noble girls.

"Yes, I plan to make a heavy breakfast for heavy activities. After this, we will do something else related to our original goal, right, Lily-sama?" Mio replied while giving me a piece of sharp-horned boar meat to chop.

"Yes, seeing the thick morning fog earlier. It has shown that we are near a water source which is a river intersection. By doing long-term sabotage, it will make us more prepared to carry out surprise attacks in the future."

"Lily-sama is indeed smart when it comes to preparing for the future, huh, I didn't know that Lily-sama would become a noble girl who cares about her own territory."

"I have to do this to understand the dangers that I will face when I become the Matriarch of the Marquess Rommel family in the future, Mio," I replied while moving my hands to cut the sharp-horned boar meat until it was finely chopped.

"The responsibility of being the Matriarch of the Marquess Rommel family is very heavy, Lily-sama. Is Lily-sama able to bear such a big responsibility?"

"Inevitably, I have to bear it when Alice and Alyssa are not interested in becoming the Matriarch of the Marquess Rommel family. I don't know why they are not interested in becoming Matriarchs, especially with their skills that cannot be underestimated with their great magical capacity."

"I think, Alice-sama and Alyssa-sama have their reasons such as wanting to become the protector of the Marquess Rommel family led by Lily-sama."

"Is that what you think, Mio?"

"I think so, Lily-sama."

In a serious conversation like this, some finely chopped sharp-horned boar meat had piled up in front of my eyes. I immediately rinsed my hands with clean water before seasoning and forming the finely chopped meat into flat pieces like hamburger steaks.

The meat that was minced until soft and the seasoning that stuck perfectly made me want to cook it on a hot iron immediately.

I could already imagine the aroma of meat mixed with delicious seasoning like this.

After forming several pieces of hamburger steak according to the available portions, I handed them to Evelyn who was getting ready to cook.

"Evelyn, I'll leave the cooking part to you," I said while handing Evelyn a round piece of hamburger steak.

"Just leave this task to me, Lily-sama!" exclaimed Evelyn who couldn't wait to have breakfast and enjoy this unusual cooking breakfast.

Cresss...

Cress...

When the finely chopped horned boar meat was attached to the hot iron used for cooking, a delicious aroma of half-cooked meat was wafted. Together with the aroma of the spices evenly coated in the meat, it added a soft aroma that triggered my hunger.

When Evelyn cooked it until it was done, my right and left arms suddenly got a hug from Aiko and Sirius.

Sruugg...

Sruugg...

"Supreme Commander, may we use the same spices as the Supreme Commander is using?" Aiko asked while giving me a pleading look.

"W-We seem to want to eat the same dish as the one being cooked right now," Sirius said with a pleading look in her eyes as well.

I could only give a look that agreed to their request after receiving such pleading looks.

"I don't mind, you girls know how to make it, right?" I replied while taking out a magic circle that was connected to my magic storage box.

From inside my magic storage box, I pull out a cooking utensils and seasonings from the Yurification Shop.

Two emergency kitchens in the wilderness like this were immediately busy by the hard work shown by Aiko and Sirius. With their keen observation, they were able to imitate what Mio and Evelyn had done.

Aiko and Sirius used their observation skills to imitate it accurately. Several stealth slimes on duty also provided fresh meat and cleaned up rotting meat to remove the unpleasant odor.

The good performance of the stealth slime herd made me feel proud as their Supreme Commander.

I could feel that they were able to develop even further when given a stronger push.

While I was pondering the future of the stealth slime herd, an aroma that tempted my hunger immediately wafted through my nose.

The taste of the cooked food sprinkled with delicious seasoning made my hunger rise to the surface.

The aroma of the sharp-horned boar hamburger steak being cooked by Evelyn immediately spread quickly. It made several other noble girls speed up their preparations for breakfast.

The spirit in this morning is the aroma of hamburger steak with sharp-horned boar meat which is famous for deliciousness.

In addition, the spice blend used by Mio is a secret recipe that adds deliciousness to every bite.

Tuukk... Tuukkk...

Along with the almost-cooked food, Mio was seen preparing a special sauce that was used to make the hamburger steak dish taste even better.

With that special sauce, Mio managed to get the attention of one of the stealth slimes who was learning from her.

"It's like a daughter who is learning to cook from her mother, huh?" I muttered a little when I saw Mio who was busy teaching one of the stealth slimes in making the spices that formed a special sauce as the final touch on her cooking dish.

Cesss... Cess...

The aroma of the cooked food being cooked by Evelyn began to invite my hunger until a scream from the noble girls indicated that their breakfast preparations were complete.

I then turned my gaze to their preparations which looked like they were having a picnic.

The noble girls had prepared a clean place to sit together on the ground and prepared wooden cutlery. By arranging the wooden cutlery neatly, the breakfast preparations were complete.

Several noble girls began to approach and take some of the cooked hamburger steaks. Together with the special sauce that Mio had prepared, it provided a special dish for breakfast this morning.

Sluurr...

Pluurr...

The drizzle of the special sauce that Mio had prepared gave the appearance of a tempting hamburger steak dish to the eye. In addition to the strong aroma and tempting hunger, it also made the appearance of the breakfast dish elegant.

Sniff...

Sniff...

With the aroma of food that arouses hunger. It made several stealth slimes speed up cleaning the rotting sharp-horned boar meat.

Several stealth slimes worked hard so that the delicious aroma of the cooking did not clash with the aroma of the rotting meat.

Seeing them working hard like that. I gave my appreciation by sticking up my thumbs while saying, "Good job, all of you!"

Aiko and Sirius began to speed up their cooking process with the help of other stealth slimes. Several stealth slimes who were on patrol also conveyed their food orders to be separated so that they could take turns with other stealth slimes who go patrol.

Is it just me or are they starting to implement turn-based discipline?

It seems like the stealth slime herd led by Aiko and her sub-leader Sirius has grown rapidly again.

When the report given by the stealth slime on duty around me was finished, it aroused the curiosity of the other stealth slimes on duty as spy agents.

Since the breakfast preparations were complete, I began to take my share.
