

Y. Goddess 73

Chapter 73 My Hunt

"PIYAAAA!!"

My ears were ringing and hurting as the sin-eating slime screamed.

The attack from the basic level magic in the form of Fireball coated with holy magic energy seemed to have injured the sin-eating slime.

The shape of the slime's body which was already full of holes indicated that it was an attack that could not regenerate its body shape.

Pommm!!

Paayaaa!!

The sin-eating slime suddenly moved away from me. The speed of the slime trying to escape surprised me because it was so agile and flexible to follow.

Woosshh...

I used Sakura Dash and Sakura Vanish to go after the sin-eating slime's escape. Its body shape which looked fat and big did not match its fast movements. It seemed that the slime had another card that it used to escape after the attack that the slime did to the little boy failed.

Prangg...

Pyaarr...

The sin-eating slime moved fast and agile towards the outermost area of the Royal Palace. I chased after it using Sakura Dash and Sakura Vanish, which cut off the slime's escape path with a basic-level magic attack from Fireball.

"Fireball!!"

"Fireball!!"

"Fireball!!"

I have released several magic spells from Fireball and moved towards the slime of the sin eater. The agility of the slime made my Fireball look like a toy ball bounced by the gusts of wind from its fast body movements.

The Fireball that I threw did not hit the slime's body but hit the ground that slime stepped on in uncontrolled escape.

The sin-eater slime moved quickly until it left the Royal Palace area and headed towards the Capital City, which was filled with residents.

"Uh, wouldn't this be a big problem when the sin-eater slime makes trouble in a crowd filled with ordinary people?" I muttered without turning my attention to the sin-eater slime that was moving quickly.

Woooshh...

Tappp...

Bamm...

The Sakura Dash that I used had a speed level that could match the speed of the sin-eating slime's escape, the more I used Sakura Dash, I realized that Sakura Dash moved straight and was a little difficult to turn and I had to use a zigzag formation to change the direction of Sakura Dash.

"Fireball!!!"

The chase that I did against the sin-eating slime was quite intense with the fast spell-casting technique of the basic level magic formation Fireball.

Baaaamm...

When my fast Fireball spell casting managed to hit one of the body parts of the sin-eating slime that was running away from me, I could feel that its body looked normal when receiving the Fireball attack without a mixture of holy magic energy.

I frowned when this chase would be difficult because I had to cast the troublesome Purification Fireball.

The cape of the Marquess Rommel family crest that I was wearing had fluttered during my pursuit of the fat sin-eating slime's body.

"Kyaaaa!!"

"Hiyyaaa!! Mama!!"

"Oh no! My merchandise!!"

"What happened? Why is there a monster inside the Aurora Kingdom's Capital?"

"Guards!! There's a monster wreaking havoc in the center of the Capital! What the heck are you doing!"

During my escape chasing the sin-eating slime, I could hear screams and panic from the commoners who were suddenly shocked by the appearance of the sin-eating slime with a terrifying fat body.

"Fireball!!"

"Fireball!!"

When I saw the sin-eating slime almost changing its escape direction, I immediately used quick spellcasting to cast the elementary-level magic Fireball to block its escape path with the low-level flames of Fireball.

It shouldn't have hurt the sin-eating slime but it was very effective because the slime moved straight without stopping until it was successfully herded towards the exit gate of the Aurora Kingdom's Capital.

Badaamm!!

Baaaamm!!

The rumbling sound was formed when the fat sin-eating slime's body slammed into the gate of the Aurora Capital City that was filled with a high-level magic barrier. Its fat body seemed to be stuck inside the gate of the Aurora Kingdom's Capital City.

[Oh, No! Help me, my stepsister, I am Stuck!]

Suddenly I heard the voice of the Goddess saying strange words inside my head.

"Did I do something wrong, my Goddess?" I asked, lowering my tone with a tired breath after using Sakura Dash many times to chase the sin-eating slime.

The magic staff in my hand now felt very heavy due to the heavy burden of my pursuit that drained my stamina and physical endurance. For the time being, I wanted to save my energy by utilizing the sin-eating slime that was stuck at the gate of the Aurora Kingdom's Capital City.

[It's okay, Lily-chan. I just remembered it after seeing that disgusting slime being squeezed by the gate. Doesn't it look so cute, just like a woman who is squeezed by the exit because her body is squeezed by the gap of the door and leaves her butt to be used... I mean being teased with a little slap.]

I regulate my heavy breathing until it returns to normal.

The sweat that I feel on my forehead slowly flows down my cheeks and drips until it falls through my chin.

[Oh, you look so cool, Lily-chan.]

[Seeing Lily-chan Badass like this makes my heart throb like falling in love.]

[Please squish me with kadedon like what happened to Alice and Alyssa, Lily-chan.]

[I beg you... please pamper your Goddess after I finish the task from the other Goddess who doesn't respect my free time to observe Lily-chan any longer.]

"What does that mean?" I replied with a normal exhale while walking toward the sin-eating slime that was having trouble getting out.

[Push me against the wall!]

[Put one of Lily-chan's hands next to my head!]

[Touch my cheek!]

[Stroke my hair!]

[For the final touch... please kiss me!]

"Why do I have to do all that?" I replied after recovering my fatigue with the rhythm of my breathing that was no longer tired.

With a light and relaxed walking motion, I returned to holding the magic staff of the Aurora Goddess Shrine which felt light again.

[To make me feel more alive than dead inside?]

Another answer that I didn't know the meaning of had sounded in my ears.

Can't my Goddess give me a normal answer that is easy for me to understand?

It feels so useless if I don't understand what the Goddess means at all.

[You'll understand someday, Lily-chan.]

[I will look forward to the day when Lily-chan moves actively to the point that my heart throbs all the time.]

"Ugh, I hope that day is not too heavy with responsibilities like this," I said while looking at the sin-eating slime that slowly forced its body through the gate of the Aurora Kingdom Capital.

Peeesss...

Braakk...

Katakataka...

I could see the panic caused by the sin-eating slime.

Several soldiers guarding the gate of the Aurora Kingdom Capital rushed to form a line formation to attack the sin-eating slime but their weapons melted like glass heated by high temperatures.

The metal sword weapon that looked sharp and strong seemed useless to injure the body of the sin-eating slime, it made me breathe a sigh of relief because the katana weapon given by Mio was still safe from such destruction.

If only I had attacked it using the katana given by Mio, maybe I would have cried with regret.

"Hey, little girl, what are you doing here? It's too dangerous and leave immediately! Let us buy some time! Ehhh... Y-you!!" a familiar voice sounded in my ears.

When I turned my attention, the voice came from an adventurer I had fought at the Adventurer's Guild when I wanted to deliver Mio's mother lunch.

"W-What are you doing around here?" the adventurer asked in an awkward tone.

If I remember correctly, his name was Nicholas and he was one of the adventurers with a D-class rank.

Right behind Nicholas, I could see another person who seemed to be forming a party with him. I had heard that adventurers often grouped and formed parties to carry out Quests given by the Adventurer's Guild.

The white cape containing the symbol of the Marquess Rommel noble family fluttered again and showed a clear contrast between my skin color and my cape.

"Isn't it obvious? I'm hunting down that disgusting creature that is currently causing chaos in the Aurora Kingdom's Capital," I replied while pointing at the sin-eating slime that was trapped at the gate of the Aurora Kingdom's Capital.

"Yuck! What kind of monster is that? I want to throw up!" said one of the women in Nicholas' party.

"Little girl, this is not the time for you to play around in this place, I can take you to a safe place," said one of the adult women with thin armor that almost showed all of her skin, I could see that the muscles on her stomach formed perfect abs and her large weapon that looked heavy for one swing that hit a person or monster's body.

"I'm fine," I replied briefly while moving the magic staff that I borrowed from the holy woman from the Aurora Goddess Temple.

"Because my purpose here is to hunt and kill that personally," I continued with a cold smile filled with a threatening gaze that was helped by my glowing red eyes.

When I said that sentence, Nicholas pulled the woman's body.

"Just let it be, the little girl knows how to hunt it, and believe me... this little girl can hunt the monster alone because I have felt her ability that is impossible to match our adventurer rank," said Nicholas while looking at me with an awkward smile from the defeat in the past line.

"What does that mean, Nicholas? She's still a little girl!"

"You'll understand after seeing it."

The adventurer man named Nicholas seemed to be giving me a stage to complete my hunt to kill the sin-eating slime. When my cape fluttered and showed the family symbol of Marquess Rommel, the woman muttered a little as if remembering something.

"A family of hunters who protect the people from the forest of death," the woman muttered a little while walking backward.

I turned my body and stared intently at the sin-eating slime and took a small breath to clear my head which was filled with the rapid invocation of the Fireball magic formation.

The rapid invocation focused on the number of Fireball magic formations that could be used repeatedly without stopping.

Tuumm...

I swung the magic staff I borrowed and manifested a quick chant that came from within my mind.

Various magic formations of the elementary Fireball magic began to appear around me until they filled the sky of the Aurora Kingdom Capital.

"Fireball..."

With the chanting of that simple magic spell, I launched a series of Fireball magic attacks that hit the body of the sin-eating slime without stopping.

Bamm...

Bammmm...

Bammmmmm...

I cared about the safety of the attacks I did and it was intended to make the soldiers who were about to attack the sin-eating slime immediately move aside.

"What the hell is that? How can a little girl cast that many spells and launch elementary magic attacks in succession without stopping!" shouted one of Nicholas' party members.

In the magic attack that I launched, I could hear the screams of pain from the sin-eating slime begging to be killed rather than tortured like this.

"PIYAAA!!"
