

Y. Goddess 76

Chapter 76 Cat versus Cat

Alice, Alyssa, and Hana spread around me while emitting their dense magic energy.

Their magic wands that emitted light looked so shiny with rows of spells that complemented each other. They attacked the sin-eating slime in one direction so their attacks were even accurate.

Kaboom...

The explosion produced by the low-level magic spell shot clearly into the body of the sin-eating slime but it was in vain and did not cause significant damage.

"Kuh! This ugly monster drains my magic energy even though I attacked it with low-level magic spells," grumbled Alice who looked exhausted after casting intense attack magic spells.

The collision of her magic energy waves was very fast, making Hana's restraint magic spell look like a snail running next to a cat.

[Oh, this is very interesting.]

[I've never seen a little witch girl who can cast magic spells that fast.]

[The resulting DPS is too great to be produced by one individual casting attack spells like that.]

I was surprised by the Goddess's comment on Alice's magic attack chant. Compared to my fast magic chant that prioritized magic cast-time efficiency and saved my magic energy capacity which was able to have a long-range fast attack, the magic attack produced by Alice seemed very offensive and indiscriminate in hitting her target without mercy.

Kaboom...

Kaboom...

Kaboom...

Consecutive magic attacks, fast magic chants, and long-range attack from us complemented each other.

That was enough for me to give myself some free time about what I would do next.

Thommpp...

I stuck the magic staff of the Aurora Goddess Shrine on the street of the Aurora Kingdom Capital and loosened my grip on its handle.

"Purification Fireball chant, huh? That's going to take a lot of time, especially with circumstances like this," I muttered softly while watching my twin step-sister and Hana who were trying to limit the direction of the sin-eating slime's movement.

That slime increasingly thinning the defensive magic energy of the protective wall of the Aurora Kingdom Capital.

"I'll try hard to get a kiss from Lily-nee!"

Amongst the fiery magic attacks, I could hear Alyssa's screams as she worked hard to find a part for herself that could land a single magic attack that hit the sin-eating slime's body.

Katakataka...

A magic attack formation from Alyssa formed a magic chain that aimed to restrain the sin-eating slime's movement but it was easily broken because the sin-eating slime's main body was liquid.

Slip...

"Hue? It didn't work?! Why did that happen!" Alyssa said in confusion because her magic spell attack that wanted to restrain the sin-eating slime was easily broken.

Slurp...

Plop...

The sin-eating slime's body shape almost ate up the entire large wall that was protected by high-level defense magic.

"If restraint like that can't work, then taste this... Iron Maiden!" Alyssa shouted while chanting her attack magic spell that summoned a thick iron ornament that was visible in the sky of the Aurora Kingdom Capital.

Bong!!

Kabaam...

The loud and non-explosive impact came from one of Alyssa's summoning magic that aimed to restrain the opponent's movement in a narrow space filled with traps.

It's just...

[What is that? The cute Iron Maiden!]

[I like Alyssa's creativity and sense of cuteness!]

Far above the sky of the Aurora Kingdom Capital, a giant bear made of iron landed quickly on the body of the sin-eating slime. The sound of the heavy weight of the object shook the ground of the Aurora Kingdom Capital like a small earthquake.

A restraining attack carried out by Alyssa made me a little inferior because Alyssa decided to follow my directions and orders, she was perfect when executing my orders.

"I was not wrong when I told them to restrain the sin-eating slime while giving me free time to cast the Purification Fireball magic spell," I muttered while observing the situation around me.

The sin-eating slime that was crushed by the giant iron bear equipped with a cute hair ribbon attracted several pairs of curious eyes with this extraordinary event.

The more ordinary people gathered, the more chaotic the situation would be.

So I decided to cast a slow spell to summon a Giant Purification Fireball attack with the same size as Alyssa's iron bear.

"Hey, Alyssa, why did the size of your Iron Maiden magic spell become so big?" Alice asked in the middle of the battle.

"Is that a problem? Lily-nee taught me that the size of a summoning object like the Iron Maiden magic spell can be changed in shape, size, and weight. Maybe it's time for you to finish reading the notes Lily-nee gave to you, Alice..." Alyssa explained attentively in between chanting another magic spell that controlled the direction of the giant iron bear-shaped Iron Maiden.

"Ugh, don't remind me of that again after experiencing a magic accident from a teleportation magic spell," Alice replied while changing positions to attack the body of the sin-eating slime that was crushed by Alyssa's Iron Maiden magic.

"It's your fault for not finishing reading the notes Lily-nee left behind!" Alyssa said with an arrogant face because she was one step ahead of Alice.

"I admit that I was wrong, Alyssa. Don't bring up that problem again or I'll throw a tantrum and ask for a kiss from Onee-sama to calm down my tantrum!" Alice stuck out her tongue to tease Alyssa before looking at me with a pouting look on her face.

"Hey! Don't cheat like that!" Alyssa grumbled while launching a water magic attack to wet Alice's face.

Byaarr...

Baaam...

Kabaaammm...

A series of prank magic and attack magic to slime collided with each other.

Seeing their extraordinary concentration made me a little jealous because they could easily separate the magic chants to tease each other while the offensive attack magic was still attacking the body of the sin-eating slime.

I now understand the destiny of Alice and Alyssa who will become genius twin witches who will be recorded in human history.

Seeing their bright future, I want to see it until that time comes.

I smiled while thinking about it and suddenly a soft hand touched my arm.

"Onee-san, are you okay? Some of your magic chants have errors in the arrangement of the magic formation," said Hana who suddenly stood beside me.

"If it's too much trouble for Onee-san, I can help you to arrange such a complex magic formation," Hana held my arm and raised her hand to my wrist.

Our wrists touched against the backdrop of the battle against the sin-eating slime.

I could feel Hana's sweaty hands and her body was shaking with a blush starting to fill her cute face.

"Huuu... this is more embarrassing than I thought," Hana grumbled as she turned her face away from me.

I could feel a slight twitch coming from her grip as if Hana was determined to do something.

"Onee-san, please let me share my mind with you," she said while holding back the blush on her face that was increasingly showing her heart as she tried to hold back her embarrassment.

"Vasilica, can you prepare the holy magic that we usually use to share deep-mind?" Hana asked her heavenly holy dragon spirit.

Plap... Plap...

The flapping of the wings that came from Hana's heavenly holy dragon spirit expanded, under the blow of her dragon scales that were wrapped in a faint holy magic energy, I felt like I was drowning in a calm pool of water.

My vision became dark and my hearing became empty as if devoured by silence.

A drop of water woke me up when I saw Hana who suddenly pulled my body under the seemingly silent darkness.

"Onee-san..." Hana called me and buried her tiny lips into mine.

An unexpected kiss that happened in the darkness and silence.

When I heard the drop of water again, I could see my vision returning to its original state but with a different nuance of heart.

Hana was beside me hugging my waist with one hand while the other hand still held my hand that was holding the magic staff of the Aurora Goddess Shrine.

Hana looked at me with a soft smile while moving her lips to say soft words in front of me, "That was my first kiss, Onee-san. You have to take responsibility for that..."

A mischievous smile filled Hana's face that looked like she had won something before a voice inside my mind had completed the Purification Fireball magic formation.

"Not a bad magic formation, Onee-san. You could have completed this magic formation if your gaze wasn't distracted by those rude cats," Hana said while glancing at my twin step-sister who was still fighting the sin-eating slime.

Wooosh...

Suddenly a wind cleavage magic spell formation passed my face.

"Did you think I didn't see that, you thieving cat?" Alyssa said who was suddenly filled with a terrifying aura to kill.

"Hiyaa... Onee-san... I'm scared... please hug me tighter," Hana tried to tighten her arms around my waist.

With small, light steps, Alyssa approached me and placed a soft kiss on my lips while caressing my cheek.

"Lily-nee, you won't stay silent when cheating like this happens, right?" Alyssa said after kissing my lips softly.

"Hey! What happened? Why did you kiss Onee-sama, Alyssa? Quickly help me!" Alice seemed to realize that Alyssa's Iron Maiden's movements felt strange and moved to find Alyssa who was kissing my lips.

Just like Alyssa did, Alice walked leisurely towards me and kissed my lips too.

"Uh, what's going on here?" I said in response to this incident.

"Onee-san, it seems like these cats have sharp hearing and eyes. Maybe we should do it again in a quiet place?" Hana said with a look in her eyes that invited hostility.

"Hooho... don't think I didn't find Lily-nee in your little game. I've already remember Lily-nee's scent and can track her just by smelling her sweat," Alyssa said in response to Hana's hostile gaze.

I don't know why this happened but things have turned out this way.

The sin-eating slime was being squeezed by Alyssa's Iron Maiden restraint magic and Alice's barrage of offensive attacks.

Meanwhile, the magic spell of Purification Fireball had been activated in the sky of the Aurora Kingdom's Capital.

To get out of this awkward situation, it seemed there was only one way.

"Purification Fireball!" I said to bring the final blow to the sin-eating slime.
