

Y. Goddess 77

Chapter 77 Chilling After Battle...

The thick wall debris scattered and Alyssa's Iron Maiden summoning magic slowly disappeared.

Psstttt...

The swish of the Purification Fireball still felt hot and showed embers slowly evaporating away.

The impact of the Purification Fireball attack that I used seemed to have sent the sin-eating slime to a painful death.

The sticky liquid and black mucus from the sin-eating slime's body slowly faded to reveal a bright blue color like calm river water.

"Haaahhh... that was so tiring..." I muttered while catching my breath which was panting due to exhaustion from using such a large magical energy.

"Kuuu!!" I could feel a throbbing dizziness in my head as I forced my imperfect magic to casting such a large magic formation.

My vision felt shaky and blurry as if I had a fever.

"Onee-san, are you okay?" said Hana who hugged her waist and made my body lean on her.

"It's okay, I just feel dizzy after casting such a big magic spell," I replied to explain my body's condition which was exhausted from using magic energy.

"If Onee-san would like, you can sleep on my bare thighs, you know..." Hana said with a small smile that caught the attention of my twin step-sisters.

Squuishhh...

"What do you want to do, thieving cat?" Alyssa said while pulling Hana's cheeks until they stretched long.

Squiiisshhh...

"Aww... Wawawa!!"

I could see Hana's cheeks being pulled forcefully by Alyssa until they stretched and bruised red mark.

Plloopp...

After a while, Alyssa released Hana's cheeks and turned to me.

My sweaty head was wiped with Alyssa's handkerchief and her hands were busy separating Hana arms who was clinging tightly to me while hugging me.

"Lily-nee, are you tired? I can use recovery magic to relieve your fatigue. Uhm... I-if Lily-nee doesn't mind... maybe Lily-nee can use my bare thighs to sleep while Alyssa recovers Lily-nee's fatigue," Alyssa said with her gentle gaze towards me, her hand had stolen my hand that had been holding Hana's hand.

"Alyssa, aren't you going a bit overboard? If you use your magical energy to recover Onee-sama's fatigue, then you'll be the one who gets exhausted after summoning Iron Maiden like that!" said Alice who got into a small dispute like this and pointed at the traces of Alyssa's Iron Maiden that were slowly disappearing, the cute giant iron bear shape looked like it was swallowed by thin air leaving a trail of crumbs on the ground.

"Alice, you need to know that my Iron Maiden magic formation has a little magical energy usage compared to summoning a golem and moving it. Summoning a giant cute torture device and a golem are already different in terms of magical energy usage. I only moved my Iron Maiden using Levitation magic. So in theory, my remaining magical energy is more than enough to make Lily-nee fall asleep soundly on my bare thighs!" said Alyssa explaining the rest of her magical energy that coincidentally directed at her desire to make me sleep on her bare thighs.

[Oh! Two sisters who are fighting for the attention of their beloved Big Sister.]

[Lily-chan, which one will you choose?]

[Alice who looks like a strict, stubborn, and disciplined little sister like that.]

[Or Alyssa who looks like an innocent girl who uses simple logic to silence her conversation partner like that. If this is left any longer, then there will be a love war in Marquess Rommel's household.]

[Lily-chan, please make a wise decision in dealing with this hot and cute situation.]

My head which was already dizzy now had to face a new problem from my twin step-sisters who were at odds with each other.

"Hey! I was the one who first suggested sleeping on bare thighs!" shouted Hana which made the atmosphere even worse.

Twitchh...

I could see Zoe who had returned to her butterfly spirit form.

"Master, it seems I wasn't of much help in the battle but I have cleaned up the damage caused in the fight against that disgusting slime," Zoe said as she perched on my head.

"Oh, that has lessened the burden of damage caused by the sin-eating slime. Thank you for your help, Zoe," I said sincerely to Zoe who had repaired the material damage caused by the sin-eating slime's attack.

My gaze shifted to the great protective wall of the Aurora Kingdom Capital that had previously cracked when supporting the body of the sin-eating slime. Although its high-level protective magic was not active, it was enough to see it still standing strong and far from being damaged.

I smiled when I saw the end of the battle that did not cause any casualties or damage like this.

Tinnngg...

As the dizziness in my head spread, I remembered Zoe's action of suddenly kissing me. It was as if Zoe did it on purpose to provoke Hana and my twin step-sister to fight about the kiss on my lips.

"Zoe, for the previous kiss, did you do all that on purpose?" I asked Zoe in a small voice after Zoe perched on my hair.

"Master, I told you before. I want to do what Master usually does with the other little girls. Isn't it natural for a spirit to want to feel close to her Master romantically and be jealous when seeing her Master to close relationship with another little girl?" Zoe replied while flapping her butterfly wings.

"Ughh..." I could only let out a thin breath after hearing Zoe's answer.

[Oh! A Spirit who can feel jealous when her Master is close to another woman.]

[This makes me excited to see her jealousy in the future.]

My Goddess only gave a short, useless comment at a time like this.

My body began to feel tired and heavy, it made my grip on the handle of the Aurora Goddess Shrine's magic staff slip a little.

I immediately left Alice, Alyssa, and Hana who seemed to be having a long conversation.

From their words, I could hear myself being mentioned and their right to have my head sleeping on their bare thighs.

Speaking of bare thighs, I glanced at the long skirt I was wearing and pulled it up to reveal my bare thighs covered in sweat.

[Lily-chan, please don't tease me like that.]

[It makes me want to go down to the world and lick the sweat of your bare thighs... Ah! No! That's not it! I just want to sleep on your bare thighs covered in sweat.]

I immediately closed my long skirt that revealed my bare thighs when I heard the Goddess's words.

For some reason, this Goddess has a questionable level of morals as a Goddess.

[Please don't get angry like that, Lily-chan.]

[I accidentally showed my true intentions... Uhm... I mean... which Goddess wouldn't be interested in being pampered by her own Saintess?]

[Yes! I want to be pampered by Lily-chan and bury my entire face in your soft bare thighs!]

[There are no other suspicious intentions from me!]

I could feel that those words were filled with lies.

When my footsteps took me to a long park bench on the side of the road, I immediately tidied up my long skirt from dust and dirt. I also tied the magic staff that I borrowed together with my katana sheath.

"You girls... don't you want to feel this?!" I shouted to provoke their small commotion.

As I sat on the long garden bench, I sat in the middle and left some space to sit with them.

Patt... Pattt...

Because of the sweat that had accumulated on my thighs, I lightly patted my long skirt which had been cleaned from dust and dirt.

"Oh, Onee-sann, I'm coming!!" Hana shouted with a wide smile on her face.

"Onee-sama, wait for me!!" Alice ran towards me with all her might before laying her head on my right thigh.

"Lily-nee!! Ahh!! Alice cheated so much when taking first place!!" said Alyssa who had difficulty running after seeing Alice had laid her head on my thigh.

Alyssa and Hana who arrived late realized that there was one spot left.

I could see sparks in their eyes that seemed to want to do something dangerous.

"Hey, don't make my tiredness worse," I said to warn of the heated conflict that was happening between Alyssa and Hana.

Paatt... Pattt...

"Hana, come here..." I patted my left thigh for Hana.

"Ahrk!!" I could see Alyssa's face froze after I said that to Hana.

"Alyssa, you can sit in front of me, you don't mind if I hug you from behind, right?" I continued to say to prevent Alyssa's thoughts that slowly leaving her body like it was empty and lifeless.

"Sigh... I almost died because I saw the injustice before my own eyes," said Alyssa who was relieved by my decision.

"Onee-san, sorry for making you trouble like this," said Hana in a shy tone to me. Hana's body moved closer to me and sat next to me to take a few short breaths before laying her head on my left thigh.

Pluummm...

I could feel Alice and Hana's rhythmic breathing and the ticklish sensation creeping up my thighs.

"Alyssa, don't you feel comfortable if I hug you from behind?" I asked Alyssa after seeing her standing still.

Patt... Patt...

I patted the space in the middle of my thighs again.

"Come here..." I said to persuade Alyssa to sit between my thighs.

Alyssa shyly sat between my thighs.

I immediately hugged her from behind and whispered in her ear which was close to my mouth, "Thank you for holding back that slime monster, Alyssa."

Chuuu...

In that whisper, I accidentally bit Alyssa's ear and I could feel her body shaking.

The blush had wet her ears until her face was like a little girl who had just received a confession of love.
