

Y Master 751

Chapter 751 - The Momentum Crushes, One Punch Breaks Ten Thousand Laws!

The following morning, representatives of the main forces of the global cultivation world and young geniuses alike flocked to Bodh Gaya's largest temple.

The first Global Cultivation Conference was being held there.

At nine o'clock, representatives of the cultivation families and sects entered the temple's grand hall one after another to attend the meeting.

Only one person was the exception.

Chu Xuanji.

He stood with Ye Fan outside the grand hall in the courtyard.

Besides them, all the young geniuses also gathered in the courtyard—they were not eligible to attend the meeting.

"Strange, why isn't the Evil Emperor of Huaxia going in to attend the meeting?"

After the meeting started, a young genius, seeing Chu Xuanji still standing in the courtyard, asked with some confusion.

"With his strength and status, he not only qualified to attend, he should be one of the key members of the meeting. Now, due to his disciple's involvement, he must have been stripped of his qualification to attend, just waiting for the final judgment," another young genius sighed.

"Tell me, what right does a criminal have to attend the meeting?" A young Supreme from the American Cultivator Alliance, Hughes, spoke up, his face filled with a cold sneer.

"There is only one outcome for a criminal, and that is to face judgment!" Fantian, a young genius from the Tianzhu Alliance, also spoke up.

Originally, because of Su Liuli's close relationship with Ye Fan, he had been hostile towards Ye Fan. Now, with the number two genius of the Tianzhu cultivation world, Shini, slain in public by Ye Fan, his hatred for Ye Fan had skyrocketed, wishing nothing more than to burst Ye Fan open to vent the hatred in his heart.

"Who is the criminal?"

Upon hearing, Ye Fan stepped forward, narrowed his eyes, and asked angrily.

"Who else but you and your disciple?"

"For your crimes, you should be cast into the Eighteen Layers of Hell, never to be reborn!"

Hughes and Fantian spoke one after another, sensing Ye Fan's fury but not taking it to heart.

"If you're looking for death, I don't mind fulfilling your wish!" Ye Fan spoke coldly, murderous intent erupting, like an unsheathed treasure sword, sharp and unmatched.

"Heh, if it weren't for the rule that Master Miller set earlier, forbidding fighting you, I'd send you to Hell right now!" Hughes was unafraid, ready to fight.

"As soon as Master lifts the rule, I will use your head to commemorate Brother Shini!" Fantian, too, was not to be outdone, extremely arrogant.

Clearly, whether it was Hughes or Fantian, although they were somewhat wary of Ye Fan's strength, it did not mean they were afraid to fight Ye Fan.

Moreover, in front of so many geniuses, they naturally couldn't be suppressed by Ye Fan's aura!

"You don't have to act; I'll be the first to slay him!" said Chen Feilian with murderous resolve.

Compared to Hughes and Fantian, his hatred towards Ye Fan was even greater, dreaming of Ye Fan's utter destruction.

"This place is a Buddhist Holy Land, where violence is strictly forbidden, and violators will be killed without question!"

As Hughes, Fantian, and Chen Feilian spoke in turn, four murderous intents silently collided, making the atmosphere extremely tense. At the critical moment, an elder from the Tianzhu Buddhism appeared and spoke coldly.

As the elder's words fell, he involuntarily glanced at Chu Xuanji.

Clearly, Chu Xuanji's prior strong move, severely injuring Shijia, the second strongest of Tianzhu Buddhism, had shocked everyone, making him very wary.

"After the conference ends, you three come at me together, and I'll take you down with me!"

Ye Fan spoke again, sensing the blatant murderous intents from the three, he decided to have a life and death battle with them after the meeting, to truly test the power of the Nine Profound Body.

"Hiss~"

At the sound of Ye Fan's bold words, and feeling his surging War Intent and chilly murderous intent, all the young geniuses inside the courtyard were startled, their eyes widening as they looked at Ye Fan as if seeing a monster.

Even Doug, known as the strongest among the younger generation, was no exception.

Because even he wasn't sure he could face all three, Chen Feilian, Hughes, and Fantian, and come out victorious!

"You know you can't escape death, so you're talking about a fight afterward, aren't you?" Fantian said, full of mockery.

"You should pray to God to let you survive," Hughes sneered, as if Ye Fan was already a dead man in his eyes.

"Heh heh..."

Chen Feilian didn't say much, just a teasing laugh, as if he had heard the coldest joke in the world.

"Originally, I was curious about what the Evil Emperor's Disciple of Huaxia was relying on to fight the three Young Supremes. So this is it..."

"If you can't even survive, how can you talk about fighting three Young Supremes?!"

Hearing the words of Chen Feilian and the others, those young geniuses who had been shocked by Ye Fan's words had a sudden realization and looked at Ye Fan with disdain.

In response, Ye Fan didn't waste any more words, retracted his form, and stood behind Chu Xuanji.

He knew that arguing was meaningless and that everything had to be spoken with facts!

Since it was the first Global Cultivation World Conference, there were many issues, including the establishment of the Global Cultivator Alliance, Essence Stone resource division, and the frequent attacks on humans by mutant beasts, among other matters.

Among these, the frequent mutant beast attacks on humans were one of the key points of the conference.

Because with the sudden increase in the amount of Heaven and Earth Primordial Qi globally, not only have cultivators' cultivation speeds and strengths increased, but the same is true for mutant beasts.

Up to now, there have been several incidents of mutant beasts attacking humans worldwide, which has attracted great attention from the global cultivation community.

Discussing how to deal with Chu Xuanji and Ye Fan's massacre and raid on the Japan Cultivation World was also an item on the conference agenda, arranged at the very end.

Since a pre-conference meeting was held the day before and many matters had already reached a consensus, the conference progressed very smoothly, almost as a formality. So much so that by the time it was nearing noon, the conference began discussing the last agenda item.

"Evil Emperor of Huaxia, please bring your disciple and enter the conference hall!"

The elder from Tianzhu Buddhism appeared once more, speaking to Chu Xuanji with a tone that included the word "please" but lacked any gesture of the sort, his attitude especially cold.

Chu Xuanji didn't even glance at the other party, and, under the gaze of many young geniuses, slowly stepped into the hall.

The hall was the largest Buddhist temple in the monastery, half the size of a soccer field, surrounded by a forest of Buddha statues, filled with a sense of sanctity.

Including Yan, the leaders of the Six Major Alliances of cultivator organizations, sat in the front row of the Buddhist temple, with representatives of the other major Xiu Lian Sects and Families sitting below them, directly opposite.

Swish!

As Chu Xuanji and Ye Fan stepped into the Buddhist temple, all eyes turned toward the two.

Among them, many representatives of the cultivation families and sects in the audience sighed inwardly.

In their view, since Chu Xuanji had willingly waited outside the Buddhist temple all morning, it was likely because he knew he could not stand against the combined pressure of the global cultivation world's strong people and chose to swallow his pride.

Meanwhile, Xi Wei'er on the platform had a cold smile spreading across his lips, as if immensely enjoying this feeling of dominance.

Yan let out a quiet sigh in his heart.

He knew that Chu Xuanji had quietly waited outside the Buddhist temple all morning, not because he feared the suppression of global cultivation world's strong people, but because he—Chu Xuanji—didn't want to put him in a difficult position!

He also knew that his old friend never thought he could get fair results at the conference.

Chu Xuanji was just repaying the kindness the Yanhuang Organization had shown by supporting him and his disciple in secret a few days ago!

When the time for repaying the favor ended, that would be the moment for Chu Xuanji to become furious!

One punch to break all laws!

Without fairness, he would use his fists to create fairness!!

Chapter 752 - Public Confrontation

"Next, we shall proceed with the final item of the conference, discussing how to deal with the massacre and pillaging of the Japan Cultivation World by the disciples of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia."

At the chairman's podium, Xi Wei'er, who was presiding over this global cultivation conference, began to speak. He did not invite Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan to sit, nor did he even look at them when he spoke, displaying a full posture of authority.

"Xi Wei'er, stop putting on airs in front of me."

With Chu Xuanji's temperament, waiting outside the Buddhist temple for a whole morning was already his limit. Seeing Xi Wei'er putting on airs now, he immediately said coldly, "Do you really think you're the leader of the global cultivation community? If not for giving Yan face, I wouldn't have bothered stepping into this place."

"Evil Emperor of Huaxia, what do you mean? Do you think you can disregard the Cultivator Alliance just because you are strong?" Seeing Chu Xuanji shouting, Caesar smartly spoke up before Xi Wei'er could.

"You play the lackey quite well."

Chu Xuanji snorted coldly, then said, "Cut the crap and get on with it. Once it's over, let us have a good battle today if you want a fight!"

"Hiss~"

As Chu Xuanji's words echoed in everyone's ears and his domineering aura was felt, those sects and family representatives who initially thought that Chu Xuanji would submit under pressure inhaled sharply. They felt like they had been slapped in the face by Chu Xuanji right there.

At the chairman's podium, the expressions on the faces of Xi Wei'er, Caesar, and Mile were somewhat ugly.

Not only them, but even the representatives from the African Union and the Russian Alliance Cultivation Organizations furrowed their brows, seemingly dissatisfied with Chu Xuanji's behavior.

Yan sighed deeply in his heart.

Everything was as he had anticipated; Chu Xuanji had already given enough face to him and the Yanhuang Organization. Now, his patience was almost exhausted, and his true nature was showing.

Even, in his view, if Xi Wei'er dared to shout back now, Chu Xuanji would surely not waste words and directly start fighting.

Xi Wei'er seemed to realize this too.

Although aggravated, he did not confront Chu Xuanji head-on. Instead, with a flicker of shrewdness in his eyes, he changed the subject, saying, "Next, please let the representative of the Dai Yuan Family of the Japan Cultivation World, Daiyuan Cunshang, explain what happened that day."

Brilliant!

As Xi Wei'er finished speaking, the representatives of the cultivation families and sects internally praised Xi Wei'er's maneuver.

In their view, if Xi Wei'er had directly confronted Chu Xuanji, he would have appeared inferior.

Conversely, by quickly diverting the topic and proceeding as previously planned, Xi Wei'er not only showed his magnanimity but also highlighted Chu Xuanji relying on his superior strength to disregard the rules, intentionally making Chu Xuanji seem unreasonable and forcing him to stand against the global cultivation community, facilitating a collective opposition against Chu Xuanji.

Yan also recognized this, but he knew that at this point, the situation couldn't be changed—Chu Xuanji's nature and style made him care little for such matters!

If not, Chu Xuanji wouldn't have demonstrated such dominance just now!

Daiyuan Cunshang was the only remaining cultivator of the Gate Realm in the Dai Yuan Family.

On that day, after Ye Fan had killed the top seven strong people of the Japan Cultivation World using the Nine Heavens Mysterious Crown, he swept through the Dai Yuan Family, crippling the cultivation of all its members.

Daiyuan Cunshang had tried to escape but was eventually caught up by Ye Fan. His attempt to resist was futile; he was directly hit by the Xuanye Flying Blade, which shattered his Dantian and Power Seed, completely crippling his cultivation.

After getting up, Daiyuan Cunshang did not immediately head to the chairman's podium, but glared at Ye Fan with a face full of resentment and hatred, as if an evil spirit had fixated on his enemy, wishing desperately to confront Ye Fan and seek revenge.

Feeling Daiyuan Cunshang's hatred, Ye Fan remained indifferent, simply sitting in the last row of seats with Chu Xuanji.

"On that day, the disciple of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia first massacred the Asakura Family and then staged a false scene of a fierce battle between the Asakura Family and the Japan branch of the Qinghong Organization."

Soon, under the gaze of everyone, Daiyuan Cunshang stepped onto the chairman's podium and, facing the representatives of the cultivation families and sects, said with a face full of sorrow and anger, "Afterward, when the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force uncovered the truth and tried to arrest the Evil Emperor's Disciple, he directly killed four members of the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force at the Tokyo Airport using extremely brutal methods!"

"Heh..."

Seeing Daiyuan Cunshang distorting the truth, Ye Fan did not immediately speak out in refutation but sneered mockingly.

Swish!

Ye Fan's sneer instantly drew everyone's attention, including those from the cultivation families and sects, who could not help but inwardly exclaim, "Like master, like disciple"—Ye Fan had completely inherited Chu Xuanji's style!

"You... you devil! Can you still laugh? Do you think just because you have your master backing you, you can be lawless?"

On the chairman's podium, Daiyuan Cunshang was so angry that he almost fainted, pointing at Ye Fan and shouting, "You will pay dearly for this!"

"Have you finished speaking?"

Ye Fan asked, his face still wearing a mocking smile.

"Finished? Hey, this is just the beginning. I will list all your crimes one by one and let the global cultivation community see just how bloody and cruel you are!" Daiyuan Cunshang said angrily.

"Daiyuan Cunshang, you only need to state the actual events of that day. As for the final judgment, the review panel will give you an account!"

Xi Wei'er spoke out to interrupt Daiyuan Cunshang's words, essentially reminding him not to confront Ye Fan directly.

Chapter 753 - Public Confrontation_2

Dai Yuan Cunshang was instantly enlightened upon hearing this and gritted his teeth as he said, "After the disciple of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia killed four members of the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force at Tokyo Airport, the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force dispatched personnel to pursue him. As a result, the leader of the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force was directly killed by him. It was only when Daiyuan Jia, the elder, and the former leader took action together that his mad slaughter was stopped."

"But... he did not stop there, he publicly destroyed the Jingguo Shrine and even took away the Heroic Souls of Japanese military heroes!"

"In order to capture him, the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force, the military, and the police jointly dispatched a large number of personnel for the arrest, but after hiding for a while, he suddenly appeared at the Dai Yuan Family Mansion!"

At that time, he directly broke into the Dai Yuan Family's Essence Stone Storage, intending to raid the storage, but he triggered the Formation and was discovered by seven of Japan's top martial artists, including the Dai Yuan Family Patriarch!"

"The seven strong people rushed to the scene immediately and were killed by the hidden Evil Emperor of Huaxia."

At this point, Dai Yuan Cunshang's expression became even more sorrowful, thus achieving the purpose of mixing lies with the truth, "After the death of the seven strong people, the Evil Emperor of Huaxia hid. The Evil Emperor's disciple then crazily attacked the Dai Yuan Family, destroyed the Dantians of all its members, abolished their Cultivation, and raided the Dai Yuan Family's Essence Stone Storage!"

"After that, relying on the fact that no one in the Japan Cultivation World could suppress him, he directly swept through the sixteen main Cultivation Families and Sects of Japan, abolished everyone's Cultivation, and took all their Essence Stones!"

"After completing all these acts, he still did not stop but went directly to the headquarters of the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force, smashed the plaque of the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force with one punch, and abolished the Cultivation of all the members of the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force present..."

"The acts of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia and his disciple can no longer be described as cruel; they are simply devilish!"

Towards the end, Dai Yuan Cunshang roared with fury, "If they are not punished, next, the entire global Cultivation World will suffer at their hands!!"

As he finished speaking, Dai Yuan Cunshang's breathing became heavy, his emotions exceptionally agitated.

Swish!

At the same time, everyone's attention turned back to Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan.

Among them, representatives of the American Cultivator Alliance, the European Union, and the Tianzhu Alliance — the three major alliances of Cultivation Families and Sects — glinted with anger in their eyes.

The representatives of the other three major alliances of Cultivation Families and Sects did not show anger in their eyes.

Clearly, they did not believe Dai Yuan Cunshang's one-sided story!

"Huaxia cultivator Ye Fan, do you admit your guilt?"

Just then, Xi Wei'er suddenly spoke up from the podium, like a judge.

"If one person's word could convict, then everyone in the world would be guilty!" Ye Fan responded with a cold laugh.

"Devil, what do you mean by 'one person's word'? Your cruel actions can be testified by all the cultivators of the Japan Cultivation World!" Dai Yuan Cunshang angrily said.

"Ye Fan, explain what happened that day."

Yan spoke up, sensing that as Dai Yuan Cunshang's narrative ended, Xi Wei'er had succeeded in turning Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan against the global Cultivation World and did not seem to want to give Ye Fan a chance to speak and defend himself.

"Regarding the events of that day, I will not elaborate further, only explain a few reasons."

Perhaps knowing that no matter how he defended himself, he could not achieve a just outcome, Ye Fan simply did not bother with unnecessary words and stated the key points, "First, before I took action against the Asakura Family, Asakura No and Asakura Taiichi from the Asakura Family openly violated the rules of martial engagement and attacked me, a Huaxia practitioner.

Moreover, Asakura No, along with six delinquent youths, gang-raped a Huaxia girl to death, but the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force blatantly protected him, giving Asakura No no punishment!"

"Second, I acted against the members of the Qinghong Organization in Japan because they wanted to kill me. Additionally, the nature of the Qinghong Organization is well known to everyone present here. Their leader, Chen Daozang, once attempted a massive slaughter in Huaxia but was repelled by my master."

"Third, I killed four members of the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force at the airport because they were overly aggressive, scattered the ashes of the deceased girl on the ground, attempted to forcibly take away three innocent Huaxia people, and attacked one of them. When I revealed myself, they immediately attacked me."

"Fourth, I destroyed the Jingguo Shrine in Japan to seek justice for the war of the last century — to this day, Japan has not acknowledged the heinous crimes committed during that war!"

"Fifth, I swept through the Japan Cultivation World and raided the Essence Stones of the sixteen major Cultivation Families and Sects in Japan because the Japan Cultivation World had laid a Heaven and Earth Net to capture me alive and forcibly take away my Magic Artifact and Cultivation Technique!"

"Hey, kid, you really know how to lie——with your master secretly protecting you, who could snatch your Magic Artifact and Cultivation Technique? You clearly just wanted to raid the Essence Stones of the Japan Cultivation World, stop making excuses here!" The head of the European Union Cultivator Organization, Caesar, angrily shouted.

"Heh, if my master was present that day, would I have been chased and forced to flee by Daiyuan Jia and the former leader of the Japan Cultivator Self-Defense Force?" Ye Fan retorted with a cold laugh.

"That's because your master couldn't show himself at the time and was looking for an opportunity to kill all the top martial artists of the Japan Cultivation World!" The head of the Tianzhu Alliance Cultivator Organization, Mile, also spoke up.

Chapter 754 - Public Confrontation_3

"What a joke, my master has always been open and upright, and if he had to kill those people, he wouldn't hide in the dark but would kill them face to face!" Ye Fan said in a deep voice.

"According to what you've said, your master wasn't present at that time, so were all seven of Japan Cultivation World's top strong people killed by you?" On the stage, Xi Wei'er asked with a cold laugh.

"So what if they were?" Ye Fan retorted.

"Heh...heh heh...heh heh heh..."

On the stage, Xi Wei'er laughed instead of getting angry, "Do you think anyone here would believe your words?"

"With your power, you want to kill seven of Japan Cultivation World's top strong people? Do you think we are all idiots?"

"Since you could kill seven top strong people from Japan Cultivation World, I suppose you can contend with me. Why not let me experience your power?"

"Kid, at this point, making excuses is useless; don't even think about clearing the Evil Emperor of Huaxia's name!"

"Not only are you to be punished, but the Evil Emperor of Huaxia as well!"

Following Xi Wei'er's words, the representatives of the American cultivation family and sects below began to speak up, their tone quite unfriendly.

"I was able to kill the seven top strong people from Japan Cultivation World that day because I had obtained a Magic Artifact from the Ancient Cultivation World, which has now been destroyed, otherwise, I wouldn't mind letting you try it out!"

Ye Fan stared coldly at the provoking representative of the American cultivation family, wishing that if Elder Xuan weren't in his slumber, he would really want Elder Xuan to take action and teach the other party a lesson.

"Magic Artifact from the Ancient Cultivation World?! Kid, can you make up something even more fake?"

On the stage, Caesar's face was filled with a playful smile, as though he had heard the biggest joke in the world.

"Kid, since you claim it's a Magic Artifact from the Ancient Cultivation World, then tell us what this Magic Artifact is, what does it look like?"

It wasn't just him; Xi Wei'er, Mile, and most representatives from the cultivation families and sects below also wore teasing smiles.

Clearly, nobody was going to believe what Ye Fan had said!

Seeing this scene, Yan frowned in the darkness.

He knew that what Ye Fan had said was the truth, but he also understood that even if he came forward to verify it, nobody would believe him.

After all, the actions of Ye Fan completely contradicted the Cultivation World's understanding—even in the Ancient Cultivation World, there wasn't a Magic Artifact that could be so powerful!

"Evil Emperor of Huaxia, do you have any words to say?"

Xi Wei'er spoke again, not planning to give Ye Fan any more chances to defend himself but instead directly questioning Chu Xuanji, seeking to provoke him.

In his view, at this point, if Chu Xuanji continued to be assertive, it would surely lead to public outrage!

"According to the representatives of the Japan Cultivation World, there's no evidence to prove the involvement of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia in this matter!" Yan said, fully aware of Xi Wei'er's malicious intent, spoke up before Chu Xuanji could.

"Yan, after this incident happened, instead of following the rules and punishing the Teacher and Disciple of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia, the Yanhuang Organization has been protecting them all along," Caesar said with a cold laugh, "Now that the evidence is conclusive, do you still want to exonerate the Evil Emperor of Huaxia? What is your and the Yanhuang Organization's intention? Do you intend to blatantly break the rules?"

"Conclusive evidence? Stop making groundless accusations!" Lv Zhan could not sit still any longer and questioned with a heavy voice, "What evidence do you have that proves Brother Xuanji was involved in this matter?"

"Since things have been made clear, let me share my thoughts on the handling of this matter."

Xi Wei'er once again spoke up on the stage, deciding to put an end to the endless argument and get straight to the point, preparing to convict Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan!

Chapter 755 - The Sole Focus!

When Xi Wei'er spoke, the Buddhist temple immediately quieted down. Everyone, including Chu Xuanji and Ye Fan, withheld their comments and instead directed their attention towards Xi Wei'er, awaiting her next words.

"Given the lack of evidence, let us not discuss whether the Evil Emperor of Huaxia intervened."

Contrary to everyone's expectations, Xi Wei'er did not directly sentence Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan. Instead, it seemed she might be speaking in Chu Xuanji's defense.

"What is Xi Wei'er trying to do?"

Upon hearing Xi Wei'er's words, almost everyone began to harbor this doubt in their minds.

"Let me first discuss my views on how to deal with the incident of the Evil Emperor's Disciple brutally massacring and looting the Japanese Cultivation World."

"The actions of the Evil Emperor's Disciple severely violate the rules of the Cultivation World. The nature is extremely malicious. Personally, I suggest the death penalty!"

Xi Wei'er spoke again, her voice resounding loudly, not only making everyone present hear her clearly but even the young geniuses outside the Buddhist temple heard her.

There was a stir!

Though they knew Xi Wei'er would not give Ye Fan a chance to survive, hearing her righteously demand Ye Fan's execution still caused a commotion at the scene.

In an instant.

Almost everyone turned their gaze to Chu Xuanji, curious about his reaction.

Clearly, by this moment, everyone guessed Xi Wei'er's intent—assign a capital offense to Ye Fan to enrage Chu Xuanji, pushing him to stand against the Global Cultivation World!

It must be said, Xi Wei'er's move was extremely ruthless and strikingly bloodless.

However—

Contrary to Xi Wei'er's expectation, Chu Xuanji did not get angry but merely looked at her expressionlessly.

"In addition, the act of looting Essence Stones from sixteen major Cultivation Families and Sects in Japan by the Evil Emperor's Disciple is an act of robbery and must be returned!"

Seeing that Chu Xuanji remained unmoved, Xi Wei'er was taken aback, then she spoke again, "According to preliminary estimates, the Evil Emperor's Disciple looted up to five hundred thousand Essence Stones!"

"If the master and disciple of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia can't repay the Essence Stones, then the Yanhuang Organization shall bear it!"

Towards the end, Xi Wei'er revealed her true intentions, directly involving the Yanhuang Organization, "Firstly, the master and disciple belong to the Huaxia Cultivation World, and secondly, after this incident, the Yanhuang Organization not only failed to punish them but even tacitly approved, which is a blatant violation of the rules!"

Brilliant!

As Xi Wei'er finished speaking, the word brilliant surfaced in the minds of most of the people present.

They saw that Xi Wei'er was not only perfectly controlling the situation but also advancing step by step, leading the meeting in the direction she had already planned, which was extremely calculated.

"This matter has nothing to do with the Yanhuang Organization. Xi Wei'er, do not involve the Yanhuang Organization! As for returning the Essence Stones, ha, if you want Essence Stones, we have none, if you want a life, come and take it!"

Chu Xuanji finally spoke. He did not wish to embroil the Yanhuang Organization, as it would put Yan in a difficult and passive position.

"Xi Wei'er, neither the Yanhuang Organization nor the Huaxia Cultivation World has any obligation to help the master and disciple of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia return the Essence Stones. You should rather settle your accounts directly with them!"

Beneath the stage, in the area where the Huaxia Cultivation World delegation was seated, Granny Jiang Jiang Yurong suddenly spoke with schadenfreude.

"Shut up!"

As Jiang Yurong's voice fell, a low shout resounded.

Yan, who had been silent all along, suddenly spoke up like a thunderclap exploding, startling everyone and unsettling their minds.

"Yan, you..."

Seeing Yan reprimand her in front of representatives of major forces from the global Cultivation World, Jiang Yurong trembled with anger. She wanted to say something, but sensing the anger in Yan's eyes, she wisely swallowed the words that had reached her lips.

"I agree with Xi Wei'er's handling suggestions and further propose an investigation into whether the Evil Emperor of Huaxia was involved in this matter."

At that moment, on the main stage, Caesar, the leader of the European Union's Cultivator Alliance, spoke up. His timing was impeccable, turning everyone's attention back to the matter at hand.

"The crimes of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia's disciple are too severe; only death can atone for them!"

The leader of the Tianzhu Alliance's Cultivator Organization and the head of Tianzhu Buddhism, Mile, also spoke. Although not explicitly stated, it was tantamount to indirectly expressing support.

Hm?

Hearing Caesar and Mile make their statements in succession, those beneath the stage understood that the situation had become extremely unfavorable for the disciple of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia.

For, if just one of the responsible persons from either the African Union or the Russian Alliance expressed their stance, Xi Wei'er's handling suggestion would transform into a handling decision!

Just two words, but a world of difference!

Swish!

The next moment, everyone simultaneously turned their gazes towards the leaders of the African Union and the Russian Alliance's Cultivator Organization, waiting for their stances.

"Let me share my opinion."

At this crucial moment, Yan spoke up, making a final effort, not wanting Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan to become enemies of the world, "Firstly, everyone has heard the statements from the representative of the Japan Cultivation World and Ye Fan. From their statements, I extracted a fact—Ye Fan's actions were not out of initiative, but coercion.

That is to say, if the Japan Cultivation World hadn't gone too far, Ye Fan would never have retaliated so vehemently! For example, Ye Fan raided the Essence Stone Storage of the Japan Cultivation World only after being enraged by their setting up of the Heaven and Earth Net to pursue him and forcibly take his Magic Artifact and Cultivation Technique."

Furthermore, when the Destroy virus erupted, humanity faced the greatest calamity in history. If not for Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan, who developed the antidote to the virus, I believe, apart from stronger cultivators, no one would have survived.

In light of this, I recommend leniency in handling Ye Fan!"

"Yan, everyone knows that it was the Evil Emperor of Huaxia who first developed the medication to resist the Destroy virus, followed by Chen Daozang of the Qinghong Organization. What does this have to do with the Evil Emperor's disciple?" Caesar spoke up again from the main stage, challenging the validity of Yan's previous words.

"Master Yan, they have already set their hearts on my death; no amount of your words will help," Ye Fan also spoke up from below the stage, having anticipated the outcome. He did not believe Yan's defense would be effective, but he still felt very grateful for Yan's support at this moment.

Did the disciple of the Evil Emperor truly participate in the drug development?

As Ye Fan spoke, the Buddhist temple fell silent once more, and everyone looked at him while the same question emerged in their minds.

"That's impossible! How old was the disciple of the Evil Emperor five years ago? How could he possibly have been involved in the drug development?"

"Exactly, you should know that back then, none of the top alchemists around the world were able to develop it successfully at first. It was only later that the Evil Emperor of Huaxia and Chen Daozang shared the formula, and drugs to resist the virus were subsequently developed."

Soon, representatives of two major cultivator families from the American Cultivator Alliance spoke up, casting doubts on what Yan had said before.

With these two speaking, the crowd also felt that the possibility of what Yan had said was extremely slim.

"Yan, why must you place the credit of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia on his disciple? You should know that in Huaxia, there's a saying that 'merits cannot offset faults.' Even if, as you said, the disciple of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia was involved in developing the drug to fight the 'destroy' virus, his crimes cannot be pardoned because of this."

At the chairman's podium, Xi Wei'er spoke once again, it was quite a cutting remark, "Moreover, it wasn't only the Evil Emperor of Huaxia who successfully developed the drug to combat the 'destroy' virus, Chen Daozang did too!"

"Exactly, 'merits cannot offset faults!'"

"Even if the Evil Emperor of Huaxia didn't share the formula, Chen Daozang would have shared it!"

Soon, Xi Wei'er's statement received an outpouring of support.

On one hand, Xi Wei'er's phrase 'merits cannot offset faults' seemed very reasonable to everyone, and on the other hand, back then, Chen Daozang indeed also developed a drug to resist the 'destroy' virus.

And this was one of the reasons why Qinghong Organization, led by Chen Daozang, was not besieged and eliminated by the global cultivation world!

Of course, a more important reason was that the force of the Qinghong Organization was simply too strong; including the Yanhuang Organization, no alliance of cultivator organizations dared to confront Qinghong Organization outright, fearing it might stir up global turmoil!

"I agree with Xi Wei'er's approach."

"I also agree."

Seeing the situation once again lean heavily to one side, the leaders of the African Union and Russian Alliance finally stated their positions.

They chose to support Xi Wei'er!

"The master and disciple of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia are finished!"

Following their statements, the majority of the representatives from various cultivator families and sects made such a judgment.

Meanwhile, on the chairman's podium, Xi Wei'er, Caesar, and Mile simultaneously directed their gazes at Chu Xuanji, among them Xi Wei'er's lips curling into a smile unique to victors, unaware whether she was reveling in the thrill of victory or to infuriate Chu Xuanji, or both.

"I think, I need to announce something to everyone here!"

Immediately, without waiting for Chu Xuanji to respond, Yan spoke up again, he stood up abruptly, his gaze sweeping around, his expression extremely serious.

"Yan, what else do you want to say?"

Caesar scoffed, at this point, the matter was settled, and he did not believe Yan could change the outcome for Chu Xuanji and Ye Fan.

"The threat from the 'destroy' virus to humanity has not disappeared!"

Yan spoke, his voice loud, echoing throughout the Buddhist temple.

"What... what?!"

The next moment.

The whole venue gasped in shock.

Even Xi Wei'er, Caesar, and Mile's expressions changed!

On the one hand, they deeply knew the terror of the 'destroy' virus, otherwise, it wouldn't have been called the greatest calamity in human history!

More importantly, it was common knowledge that back then, as Chu Xuanji and Chen Daozang shared the medicine to combat the 'destroy' virus one after another, the 'destroy' virus no longer posed a threat to humanity.

But now, Yan claimed that the hazard of the 'destroy' virus to humanity had not disappeared, how could this not shock everyone?!

"Back then, the drugs developed by Chu Xuanji and Chen Daozang only temporarily immunized the human body against the 'destroy' virus, but did not eliminate the 'destroy' virus in the body. After several years of latency, the 'destroy' virus will mutate and at that time, it will become an even more terrifying virus!"

Yan revealed the mystery, causing everyone to tense, "That day will be the real catastrophe for all humanity!!"

"Yan, are you trying to scare us?"

"Yan, you need to be responsible for what you say—your statements will cause panic worldwide!"

Caesar and Mile spoke in succession, they did not believe what Yan said.

"I guarantee that everything I have said is true. In as little as three years, or as many as five years, the 'destroy' virus will reappear amongst us!"

With that, Yan directly made a vow, "If at that time, what I have said does not come to fruition, I will cripple my own cultivation—everyone present can bear witness!!"

Whew!

The venue was stirred up once again!

If previously no one believed what Yan had said, now at this moment, as Yan, one of the strongest in the world, staked his own cultivation on his claim, everyone was moved.

Including Xi Wei'er, everyone believed that Yan did not speak without reason, nor would he stake his reputation and cultivation on a vow just to protect Ye Fan.

"Yan, what exactly are you trying to say??"

After the shock, Xi Wei'er suddenly felt uneasy, blurting out her question.

"In today's world, only one person has the complete formula to eliminate the 'destroy' virus."

Yan slowly spoke, pointing at Ye Fan.

The venue fell silent.

Ye Fan became the sole focus!

Chapter 756 - Evil Emperor Goes Berserk

Apart from Yan, the other Five Great Alliances unanimously decided to execute Ye Fan.

At the critical moment, Yan, in his capacity as Earth's strongest defender, staked his reputation and cultivation level and swore an oath to the assembly that the threat of the destroy virus to humanity had not been eliminated. Only Ye Fan had the complete antidote recipe...

This took everyone by surprise, so much so that when Yan's words fell, the vast Buddhist temple fell silent, and everyone instinctively turned their gazes towards Ye Fan, completely dumbfounded.

"Is this true?"

Recalling what Yan had just said and looking at Ye Fan's composed demeanor, almost everyone, including Xi Wei'er, quietly asked themselves.

"I don't believe it's true!"

"Neither do I. This is definitely a lie made up by Yan to save the Evil Emperor's Disciple!"

After a brief silence, representatives from the Cultivation Families and Sects of the American Alliance were the first to speak out.

"Nonsense! As the strongest person of our time, how proud is Yan? How could he joke about such a matter?" Lv Family Patriarch Lv Yuan spoke out, admonishing them, but his heart was blooming with joy.

In his view, since Ye Fan was to become the savior of the future, absolutely no one would dare take Ye Fan's life!

"Even if the destroy virus truly poses a threat to humanity again, I don't believe that the recipe for eliminating the virus is in the hands of the Evil Emperor's Disciple!"

"The recipe must have been developed by the Evil Emperor of Huaxia. Yan deliberately framed it on the Evil Emperor's Disciple, the purpose being to save the Evil Emperor's Disciple's life!"

The vast majority believed the destroy virus would indeed reappear but did not believe Ye Fan was the savior of that era, nor did they believe that the final antidote recipe came from Ye Fan's hands.

"Does it matter? Whether the recipe was developed by the Evil Emperor of Huaxia or by his disciple, it will become a life-saving talisman for the Evil Emperor's Disciple."

Jiang Yurong also didn't believe the recipe was developed by Ye Fan, but she didn't dwell on this topic, instead revealing the crux of the matter with one sentence.

Hmm?

As soon as Jiang Yurong spoke up, all the arguing and discussion suddenly ceased, and the Buddhist temple became quiet once again.

Clearly, everyone understood that what Jiang Yurong said was the truth!

"Yan, are you threatening us? Or do you plan to use that so-called recipe as a bargaining chip to save the life of the Evil Emperor's Disciple of Huaxia?"

On the main stage, the head of the European Union's Cultivator Alliance, Caesar, spoke out, his tone quite displeased.

Originally, he thought Yan had no way to help Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan turn the tide. Now, with the situation suddenly changing, he felt as if he was being slapped in the face in public.

"Caesar, I have not threatened anyone, nor have I thought about using this to save Ye Fan's life. I am simply stating a fact," Yan responded.

"If that's the case, then I suggest that the Evil Emperor of Huaxia and his disciple hand over the recipe. The Six Major Alliances should share it and prepare for the possibility of the destroy virus erupting again, to prevent humanity from facing another catastrophe!"

The head of the Tianzhu Alliance's Cultivator Alliance, the leader of the Buddhist sect Mile, spoke up with an ostensibly compassionate demeanor, but there was a hidden threat in his words—if Chu Xuanji and Ye Fan lost the recipe, it would be tantamount to sentencing Ye Fan to death once again!

"Ha ha... ha ha ha..."

Stunned to hear Mile's words, Chu Xuanji didn't get angry but laughed instead, his laughter echoing through the entire Buddhist temple.

"Although merits can't offset the past, if the Evil Emperor of Huaxia and his disciple are willing to share the recipe, the adjudication group can consider a lighter punishment for the Evil Emperor's Disciple's actions of massacring and raiding the Japan Cultivation World!"

As Chu Xuanji's arrogant laughter rang in her ears, Xi Wei'er knew full well that what Mile had suggested was utterly unrealistic. Hence, she took a step back.

Hmm?

The shift in Xi Wei'er's attitude caused a slight surprise among the crowd.

Soon after, the representatives of the Cultivation Families and Sects felt that Xi Wei'er too had no choice—if she insisted on executing Ye Fan, it could cause Chu Xuanji and his disciple to be unwilling to share the recipe, positioning her as a sinner of all humanity, impossible to gain support!

And if she didn't have the support of those Cultivation Families and Sects present, it would contradict her initial intent and it wouldn't be possible to push Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan to stand against the global Cultivation World!

"How would you lighten the punishment?"

Seeing a turning point at hand, Yan, who outwardly stated he did not wish to save Ye Fan's life but in fact felt quite the opposite, immediately asked.

"Death penalty can be spared, but the living crime is inescapable!"

Xi Wei'er did not hesitate and directly stated the decision she had long thought out, "Strip the Evil Emperor's Disciple of Huaxia of his cultivation and a compensation of five hundred thousand Essence Stones cannot be less, to give an account to America and to the global Cultivation World!"

"Enough!"

Upon hearing this, Chu Xuanji shouted in a low voice, "I gave Yan face to come here to reason with you and lay down rules, and you really start to think highly of yourselves?! You want to execute my disciple, strip him of his cultivation, and demand compensation of Essence Stones! Heh, you really think I am to be bullied?"

"I lay my words here—no Essence Stones, not one; if you want to execute my disciple, or strip him of his cultivation, first ask if my fists are willing!"

Immediately, Chu Xuanji's voice exploded, shaking the Buddhist temple, the tremors lasting for a long time.

"Crack—"

As his words fell, Chu Xuanji burst with War Intent, and the Gang Qi surged within him, shattering the surrounding tables and chairs to pieces.

Just as Yan had predicted, after Chu Xuanji repaid his debt to the Yanhuang Organization, he no longer held back and revealed his true nature!

Dominant!

At this moment, Chu Xuanji, as the third-ranked powerhouse on the Divine List, displayed his dominance to the fullest!

Suddenly, the vast Buddhist temple became quiet once again.

The representatives of the Cultivation Families and Sects surrounding Chu Xuanji only felt their eardrums vibrating and their blood surging, while others, though not greatly affected, were intimidated into silence by the sudden outburst of War Intent from Chu Xuanji.

Even Xi Wei'er, Caesar, and Mile on the main stage were silent.

"Chu Xuanji, do you think that just because you've broken through to the Top-level Battle God Realm, you can be an enemy of the global Cultivation World?" After a brief silence, Caesar spoke again, anger lacing his tone.

"What are you worth to represent the global Cultivation World?!" Chu Xuanji retorted coldly.

"You..."

Caesar's face turned pale with rage, wanting to retort, but he could not find anything to rebut.

After all, he was merely a representative of the European Union Cultivator Alliance!

Moreover, even within the European Union, he could not command universal obedience—the Dark Council didn't give a damn about him!

"Chu Xuanji, you are disregarding and trampling on the rules of the Cultivation World!"

Seeing Caesar at a loss, Mile spoke up. He cleverly avoided mentioning that Chu Xuanji and his disciple Ye Fan were enemies of the whole world, simply pointing out that Chu Xuanji's actions were destructive to the rules.

"So what?"

Chu Xuanji said coldly, "Little Japan set up the Heaven and Earth Net to capture my disciple, intending to seize his Cultivation Technique and Magic Artifact. They merit death—if it wasn't for the fact that my disciple relied on that ancient Magic Artifact to save his life, I would have killed my way to Japan already. How dare you all make criticisms?!"

"You..."

Faced with Chu Xuanji's aggressiveness, even Mile's face turned pale with anger, not knowing how to respond.

"Talking to me about rules? When Chen Daozang attempted to blood-wash the Hua Xia Cultivation World and overthrow the global structure, shouldn't the Six Major Alliances have joined forces to eliminate the Qinghong Organization?!"

Chu Xuanji spoke again, questioning the others, his voice thundering through the skies.

There was no answer.

Caesar and Mile wisely closed their mouths, while Xi Wei'er frowned tightly, secretly releasing her mental perception in anticipation of Chen Daozang's appearance.

The representatives of the African Union and Russian Alliance's Cultivator Organizations wisely did not involve themselves.

The representatives of the Cultivation Families and Sects sitting below dared not utter a word either.

On one hand, they all understood that Chu Xuanji did have a point—when it came to violating rules, Chen Daozang should have been the first to be held accountable.

On the other hand, they were all intimidated by Chu Xuanji's overwhelming show of force, not daring to provoke him at this time.

Only one person was an exception.

Jiang Yurong.

After a brief silence, she suddenly sneered, "Chu Xuanji, don't use Chen Daozang as your excuse. You should know, he was a disciple that you taught. Moreover, if it hadn't been for your consideration of the teacher-disciple relationship, allowing him to escape back then, that incident would never have happened!"

Whoosh!

Chu Xuanji responded with action!

In the quiet Buddhist temple, Chu Xuanji's right hand suddenly swung, slapping toward Jiang Yurong across the air.

In an instant,

A Gang Qi palm appeared in front of Jiang Yurong, radiating terrifying energy fluctuations.

Bang—

A muffled sound echoed, and before Jiang Yurong could react, the Gang Qi palm struck her, shattering her Protective Aura.

"Pu-chi—"

Jiang Yurong was sent flying backward, blood spraying from her mouth, her internal Qi and blood in turmoil, bones and viscera severely damaged.

Just one slap.

A simple slap from Chu Xuanji sent Jiang Yurong flying and inflicted serious injuries on her!

"Sss~"

For a moment, the representatives of the Cultivation Families and Sects all sharply inhaled.

On one hand, they were shocked that Chu Xuanji was so domineering, not sparing words and striking directly. More importantly, the strength he displayed completely horrified them!

"Bang—"

Immediately, before they could recover from their shock, Jiang Yurong's body slammed hard against a Buddhist statue, breaking it into pieces, and then she fell to the ground, her face pale as paper, her body twitching slightly, lying there like a dead dog, utterly devoid of combat power.

"Giving you face and you don't want it, truly believing I wouldn't dare touch you? Waste any more words, and I will go exterminate the Jiang Family now!"

Chu Xuanji swept a cold glance at Jiang Yurong, then redirected his gaze towards Xi Wei'er, Caesar, and Mile, "If you want to deal with my disciple, defeat me first. The three of you come at me together!"

Faced with the overpoweringly strong Chu Xuanji, whether it was the previously noisy Caesar and Mile or the behind-the-scenes controller Xi Wei'er, they all fell silent.

Caesar and Mile were both frightened by the combat power Chu Xuanji showed—Jiang Yurong's strength was on par with theirs, yet Chu Xuanji had incapacitated her with a slap. If they were to fight him, even if they teamed up with Xi Wei'er, they could not guarantee their survival.

Xi Wei'er was different from them—although Chu Xuanji's displayed strength was astonishing, it did not scare him. He remained silent, simply waiting for Chen Daozang to appear and fulfill their agreement.

The next moment,

he got his wish.

"Master, you sure have a grand presence!"

A mocking voice sounded.

As the voice fell, a figure appeared!

Chen Daozang descended from the sky with the Xuanyin Sword and the Yanhuang Furnace in hand!

Chapter 757 - Past Causes, Present Effects, The Great Battle Begins!

Just as Chu Xuanji was going berserk, intimidating everyone around, Chen Daozang appeared, bringing with him the Xuanyin Sword and the Yanhuang Furnace.

Both the Xuanyin Sword and the Yanhuang Furnace were famous magical artifacts in the Cultivation World and had previously shone brilliantly in the Ancient Cultivation World.

Among them, the Yanhuang Furnace was known as the most mysterious magical artifact in the history of the Cultivation World. It couldn't only concoct Elixir Pills, but was also a rare defensive magical artifact with astonishing defensive power.

And the Xuanyin Sword was one of the most terrifyingly powerful attacking magical artifacts in the Ancient Cultivation World!

The leader of the right path in the Ancient Cultivation World had relied on the Xuanyin Sword to display divine might and defeated the leader of the Demon Path who possessed the top-grade high-level magical artifact 'Soul Summoning Banner'.

As the Ancient Cultivation World declined, the Yanhuang Furnace and the Xuanyin Sword both vanished without a trace, until they reappeared in the modern Cultivation World — Chu Xuanji had found them in a Dong Mansion!

There was a time when Chu Xuanji used these two artifacts to shake the four quarters.

Latterly, out of consideration for the mentor-disciple relationship, he had let Chen Daozang go, but he didn't expect that Chen Daozang wouldn't immediately leave Huaxia. Instead, while he was away, Chen Daozang sneaked into Mount Tian, broke his Formation, and stole these two artifacts.

Now, Chen Daozang appeared with these two powerful artifacts, instantly drawing the attention of everyone present.

Apart from Chu Xuanji, Yan, and Xi Wei'er, the faces of others revealed more or less a touch of surprise.

It seemed that none of them had expected Chen Daozang to brazenly show up at the conference, and moreover with two powerful artifacts in tow!

"Chen Daozang has ill intentions coming here!"

After the surprise, almost everyone came to this conclusion in their hearts.

In Xi Wei'er's eyes, a sharp light twinkled, and a faint, hardly noticeable smile appeared on her lips.

Seeing this, both Caesar and Mile immediately determined that Chen Daozang's appearance at this time was no coincidence. Their originally tense nerves relaxed a bit, and their expressions faintly showed excitement, as if they were anticipating something.

The representatives of the African Union and the Russian Alliance Cultivator Organization appeared thoughtful, evidently guessing something.

Yan furrowed his brows.

And below, representatives of the Cultivation Families and Sects had varying thoughts.

"Chen Daozang, you dare to show up?"

After a brief silence, a bellow erupted in the Buddhist temple, and the Lv Family Patriarch, Lv Yuan, suddenly stood up, glaring at Chen Daozang.

On that day, when Chen Daozang wanted to massacre the Hua Xia Cultivation World, he and Chu Xuanji had fought desperately to stop him, harboring deep-seated hatred for Chen Daozang.

"As a part of the Cultivation World, why can't I come?"

Chen Daozang was indifferent to the anger of Lv Yuan and the other strong people from the Hua Xia Cultivation World. He spoke with a full smile, seemingly unconcerned about others making a move, his arrogance peaking.

"Since you're here, then there's no need for you to leave!"

Yan spoke, his body erupting with intense war intent and killing intent.

Chen Daozang had once tried to cleanse the Hua Xia Cultivation World in blood and joined forces with Jie Dao for a mad slaughter that caused a tragedy. Now that he appeared, as the leader of the Yanhuang Organization and the Guardian of Hua Xia, Yan naturally had to do something.

"That's right, Chen Daozang, today is your death day!" Lv Yuan chimed in, ready to strike at any moment.

"Chen Daozang, give back the lives of my master and disciples!"

Sect Leader Cang Bo of the Tian Shan Sword Sect was even more forthright, drawing the treasure sword from his waist as he spoke.

In addition, aside from Jiang Yurong, who couldn't get up, and Wudang Sect Leader Heavenly Master Zhang, other representatives and strong people from the Hua Xia Cultivation World were brimming with intense war intent, just waiting for Yan's command.

"Heh, are you all thinking of ganging up on me?"

Feeling the intense war intent from everyone, Chen Daozang was utterly unafraid, his face breaking into a cold laugh: "There's no need to waste your effort. Besides Yan and my old master, the rest of you are nothing but a bunch of chickens and dogs, without any ability to withstand a single blow. However many of you come, it won't make a difference!"

"Is that so?"

Yan was enraged, and he abruptly stood up, ready to make a move.

"Yan, the cause of the past, the fruit of today, let me do this!"

The silent Chu Xuanji finally spoke. As he did, he grabbed Ye Fan and threw him towards Yan, "Take good care of Xiao Fan for me!"

"Master!"

Ye Fan's face changed.

On that day, when Chen Daozang wreaked havoc in Mount Tian, Ye Fan had also been there, deeply witnessing Chen Daozang's strength and terror.

Today, Chen Daozang had arrived with two mighty artifacts, clearly well-prepared, and the situation was greatly disadvantaged for Chu Xuanji.

This... made him very worried for Chu Xuanji's safety!

"Chu Xuanji, since I've appeared today, naturally I intend to settle things with you."

Seeing Chu Xuanji about to act, Chen Daozang remained very calm, as if everything was under his control, "However, there's no need to rush, old man. Allow me to say a few words first."

Chu Xuanji, upon hearing this, didn't rush into action, seemingly intrigued as to what Chen Daozang had to say.

Seeing this, Ye Fan, without a word, dashed towards Chu Xuanji, ready to face life and death with his master!

"Little junior brother, are you in a hurry to court death?" Seeing Ye Fan's action, Chen Daozang let out a mocking laugh.

"Chen Daozang, the one meeting death today is you, isn't it?"

Yan said, his figure flashing as he moved next to Chu Xuanji.

"Heh, Yan, ranked first in the Divine List and known as the strongest person of our time, do you really think you need to join forces with Chu Xuanji to deal with me?"

Yan's action caused Chen Daozang's brows to twitch slightly, but they quickly relaxed as he scoffed in ridicule.

"Why would I need to join forces to take you down?"

Yan said in a deep voice, his confidence as the world's strongest person fully on display.

"Haha..."

Upon hearing this, Chen Daozang couldn't help but burst into laughter, then said with a chilling murderous intent, "As expected of the world's strongest person, truly domineering. Well then, come at me one by one. I'll send you on your way separately!"

"Such arrogant nonsense!"

Lv Family Patriarch Lv Yuan couldn't stop sneering. In his view, Chen Daozang had been severely injured by Chu Xuanji last time, and it was hard to say how much of his strength had recovered. Even if he came with the Xuanyin Sword and the Yanhuang Furnace, he might not be a match for Yan.

"That's right, Chen Daozang, do you think that by bringing the magic artifact you stole from the Evil Emperor, you've become invincible in this world?"

Sect Leader Cang Bo of the Tian Shan Sword Sect spoke up in agreement, also disbelieving that Chen Daozang could be Yan's opponent.

"You all know I am a very cautious person. Well, to prevent you from abandoning your so-called pride as strong people and joining forces, I need to remind you of one thing."

Chen Daozang completely ignored Lv Yuan and Cang Bo, instead smiling at Chu Xuanji and Yan, "According to the rules of this Cultivator's Convention, participants must temporarily put aside past resentments and must not initiate combat on the convention grounds. If one wishes to fight, they can go to the temple's Ancient Arena. Violators will be severely punished!"

"Miss Xi Wei'er, you are the host of this convention. Am I right?" Chen Daozang said, turning his gaze to Xi Wei'er at the end.

"Yes."

Xi Wei'er nodded.

"Miss Xi Wei'er, what happens if Yan sneak attacks while I'm dueling Chu Xuanji?" Chen Daozang asked again.

"As one of the main leaders of the Global Cultivator Alliance, if Yan abandons the pride of the strong and takes the lead in breaking the rules by doing something so despicable, the other five leaders will naturally interfere to stop him," replied Xi Wei'er.

"Exactly, we will not allow such a thing to happen!"

Caesar, seeing Xi Wei'er and Chen Daozang in cahoots, solidified his assumption and immediately spoke out in support.

"The convention's rules are not to be trampled upon, Tianzhu Buddhism must not be desecrated, and it's not just Yan—should any other member of the Hua Xia Cultivation World delegation act, I'll be the first to object!" Mile also spoke up, taking a strong position.

"Hey, let's see if the people from the Hua Xia Cultivation World dare to make a move!"

Following the stances taken by Xi Wei'er, Caesar, and Mile, representatives from the families and sects of the American Cultivator Alliance, European Union, and Tianzhu Alliance below all spoke out with unified attitudes, extremely forceful—should anyone from the Hua Xia Cultivation World dare to act, they too would intervene!

"With that settled, then I can rest easy," Chen Daozang said, smiling slightly.

"Chen Daozang, back then, my master spared your life, but not only did you fail to repent, you now threaten to betray your master with the magic artifact you stole from him...

Overhearing what Sect Leader Cang Bo of the Tian Shan Sword Sect had said and gazing at Chen Daozang's punchable smile, Ye Fan glared at Chen Daozang with a face full of anger and shouted sternly.

"Junior brother, you'd better just pray for your own fortune."

Chen Daozang mocked with a smile, before shockingly announcing, "Well, I've heard just outside the Buddhist temple that Yan has staked his reputation and cultivation on a bet, saying that the destroy virus has not been wiped out from the human race and that it will reappear in the world—that is the truth!"

Whoosh!

Startled by Chen Daozang's words, the previously quiet scene stirred, with varying degrees of surprise appearing on people's faces.

Even Chu Xuanji, Yan, and Ye Fan were no exception!

Chu Xuanji, in particular, had a glint in his eye as if he had guessed something.

"However, there's one thing he got wrong."

Chen Daozang spoke again, his smile unabated and his demeanor lighthearted, yet his words were shockingly heretical, "It's not only Chu Xuanji and his disciple who have the formula to completely eradicate the destroy virus. I have it too!"

"What... what?"

Upon hearing Chen Daozang's words again, someone exclaimed in amazement.

At the same time, on the stage, Xi Wei'er, Caesar, and Mile, as if having heard the greatest of good news, immediately beamed with smiles.

In contrast, Yan Yi's face showed the opposite reaction, his pupils contracting suddenly into the most dangerous pinpoints.

As if to confirm Yan's suspicion, Chen Daozang once again spoke, directly pronouncing Ye Fan's death sentence, "So, Miss Xi Wei'er, you need not worry about anything, just go ahead and execute my little junior brother. As for my master himself, leave him to me—we also need to come to an end!"

"You heinous disciple, were you the one who developed and deliberately spread the destroy virus??"
Chu Xuanji's gaze locked on Chen Daozang like a knife, he interrogated coldly.

"Master, even if you know you will die at my hands, there's no need to slander me like this," Chen Daozang sneered.

"Your master would never engage in such underhanded tactics just to dispose of me!"

"You heinous disciple, come out and face your death!"

Hearing his words, Chu Xuanji, fully aware that even if his judgment was true, Chen Daozang would never admit it, simply cut off further talk.

"Master, rest assured, on this day next year, I will definitely burn offerings at your grave!"

Chen Daozang's arrogance knew no bounds. He completely regarded Chu Xuanji as a dead man!

Chapter 758 - Resolving Grievances, The Great Battle Between Master and Disciple! (Part 1)

Chu Xuanji and Chen Daozang were about to engage in a life-and-death duel!

Although everyone knew that this battle was inevitable after Chen Daozang arrived with the Xuanyin Sword and the Yanhuang Furnace, they hadn't expected it to come so swiftly.

"Xuanji..."

Yan looked at Chu Xuanji, his words failing him.

As the world's number one fighter, he could sense that Chen Daozang had surpassed his elders, his strength above Chu Xuanji's, not falling much short even when compared to himself.

Now, with Chen Daozang wielding the Xuanyin Sword and the Yanhuang Furnace, a battle with Chu Xuanji was almost a sure win.

In such a scenario, he was well aware that Chu Xuanji's decision to fight first was made with a resolve to die battling Chen Daozang, to severely wound him if not kill him, so that he could then easily eliminate Chen Daozang and eradicate the threat once and for all!

"Take good care of Xiao Fan for me."

Chu Xuanji's soft voice interrupted Yan, his expression resolute as if nothing could change his mind, not even if the sky were to fall down.

"Master!"

Hearing Chu Xuanji's words, and feeling the bleakness emanating from him, Ye Fan trembled, grabbing Chu Xuanji's arm in a tight grip, fearing Chu Xuanji would leave him forever.

"Brother Xuanji!"

Beneath the stage, Lv Yuan and the others too felt the sadness from Chu Xuanji and couldn't help but speak up, though finding themselves with dry throats, unsure of what to say.

"Master, why are you being like an old woman right now, all naggy? If you're afraid of dying, I could, considering our former master-disciple relationship, show mercy and spare your life!"

Witnessing this scene, Chen Daozang sneered contemptuously, his eyes flashing with a murderous intent, showing he had no intention of showing mercy.

"Chen Daozang, you're worse than a beast!"

As Chen Daozang's words reached their ears, and feeling his intense desire to kill, Lv Yuan and the others became furiously indignant.

"If you seek death, I won't hesitate to send you to join Chu Xuanji in the afterlife!" Chen Daozang laughed coldly, exuding overwhelming dominance; to him, killing Lv Yuan and the others seemed easier than slaughtering chickens.

"Chen Daozang, you will surely die today!"

Chen Daozang's arrogance and provocation finally infuriated Yan, leading him to issue a rare and harsh threat.

No matter the outcome of the battle between Chu Xuanji and Chen Daozang, he would stop at nothing to kill Chen Daozang today!

And yet, Chu Xuanji did not get angry.

He simply patted Ye Fan's shoulder.

Then... he looked deeply at Ye Fan.

Just one look.

Very brief.

After that glance, he resolutely turned away!

"Master, wait!"

Ye Fan spoke again, holding tightly to Chu Xuanji's arm.

"Don't worry."

Upon hearing this, Chu Xuanji's heart slightly quivered, then he stopped walking, turned around, and said to Ye Fan with a smile.

"Master, wear these!"

Feeling Chu Xuanji's determination, Ye Fan did not try to stop him. Instead, he quickly pulled out the Ghost Ring and the Black Iron Fist set, offering them to Chu Xuanji.

Seeing this gesture, even the rock-solid heart of Chu Xuanji trembled.

As Ye Fan's master, he should have been like those heads of the cultivation families and sects, providing Ye Fan with cultivation resources and magic artifacts.

Yet now, the two magic artifacts he had obtained in his early years had been stolen by Chen Daozang to be used against him.

And Ye Fan had taken out his own magic artifacts and handed them over for him to use against his enemy!

Such completely different behaviors from disciples!

This stark contrast wrung his heart with sorrow.

He said nothing, but silently accepted the Black Iron Fist set and the Ghost Ring.

"Useless."

Watching this, Chen Daozang said mockingly, then with the Xuanyin Sword on his back and lifting the Yanhuang Furnace, he leapt up, soaring into the air, propelled by his manipulation of Qi.

"Who would have thought things would come to this?"

"Which one of them is stronger, Huaxia's Evil Emperor or the Demon Emperor Chen Daozang?"

"Is that even a question? The Demon Emperor has already exceeded the Evil Emperor of Huaxia, ranking second on the Divine List. Now that they're both Top-level War Gods, with the Demon Emperor wielding two dreadful magic artifacts, the Evil Emperor of Huaxia is definitely no match for him!"

Outside the Buddhist temple, the young geniuses who had heard the previous conversation couldn't help but discuss amongst themselves as they saw Chen Daozang fly into the air first.

"It's about time to dismantle that old bag of bones, Chu Xuanji!"

Within the crowd, Chen Feilian looked up at his father Chen Daozang and said with a cold smile.

Hm?

As the words fell, Chen Feilian suddenly felt a piercing gaze lock onto him. Turning his head, he was shocked to find Ye Fan following Chu Xuanji out of the temple, staring at him with intense killing intent.

"Ye Family's bastard, after my father kills Chu Xuanji, I'll send you to keep him company!"

Feeling the strong killing intent in Ye Fan's eyes, Chen Feilian was not at all intimidated.

In his view, the reason he had been chased down by Ye Fan like a stray dog that day was purely because Ye Fan had a flying artifact, which combined perfectly with his Flying Knife Assassination.

Now that he too possessed a Flying Artifact, he naturally didn't fear Ye Fan. On the contrary, he was eager to immediately slaughter Ye Fan and avenge his humiliation!

Hearing this, murderous intent burst forth from Ye Fan's body, but he didn't make a move, nor did he confront Chen Feilian head-on. Instead, he worriedly looked at Chu Xuanji, fearing that Chu Xuanji might suffer an unforeseen mishap in this battle.

At the same time, Yan and the representatives of the organizations from the other Five Great Alliances, as well as those from Cultivation Families and Sects, also stepped out of the Buddhist temple, ready to witness this earth-shattering battle.

"Yan, in a competition among peers, if Xiao Fan dies in battle, then he accepts his fate. But if anyone bullies the weak by relying on their power and causes him harm, no matter who it is, I want you to annihilate their entire family!"

Chu Xuanji stopped in his tracks, turned his head to look at Yan, his expression extremely serious.

Clearly, he too realized the danger of this battle was greater than its chance of success, but he was not afraid of dying; his only concern was for Ye Fan's safety.

"Master..."

Ye Fan trembled all over, wanting to say something, only to find his throat dry and his eyes blurry.

"Hmm."

Yan gave a slight nod, agreeing to Chu Xuanji's request.

"Xuanji, rest assured, whoever targets Xiao Fan is declaring themselves an enemy of the Lv Family!" The Lv Family Patriarch, Lv Yuan, spoke up to state his position and promise to Chu Xuanji.

Huh?

Xi Wei'er and others raised their eyebrows at this but, given the tense situation at hand, they didn't dwell on the matter of how to deal with Ye Fan. They were just looking forward to the big battle.

Whoosh!

Seeing Yan nod and hearing Lv Yuan's words, Chu Xuanji completely let go of his burdens and worries, and with a sweep of his body, he flew into the air.

"Chen Daozang, dare you to discard your Magic Artifact and fight a battle with Brother Xuanji?"

As Chu Xuanji soared into the sky, everyone looked up to the two of them, and Lv Yuan couldn't help but speak out.

The Lv Family, an ancient Hua Xia Cultivation Family, had many classics that recorded details about the Xuanyin Sword and the Yanhuang Furnace, and Lv Yuan was well aware of the terror of these two Magic Artifacts.

He believed that if Chen Daozang and Chu Xuanji were to fight hand-to-hand, Chu Xuanji might have a slim chance of victory; otherwise, Chu Xuanji stood no chance at all.

In the sky, Chen Daozang completely ignored Lv Yuan's challenges, just staring fixedly at Chu Xuanji who had taken to the air.

"Today he has brought the Xuanyin Sword and Yanhuang Furnace, clearly he came prepared. How could he possibly forsake his Magic Artifact?" Sect Leader Cang Bo of the Tian Shan Sword Sect, sighed.

"That bastard!"

Ye Fan clenched his fists tight, staring at Chen Daozang with full of hatred, wishing he could immediately rush into the air and shatter Chen Daozang!

He had never hated a person as much as he did now!

To him, it was bad enough that Chen Daozang returned kindness with ingratitude, but to actually use the supreme Magic Artifact stolen from Chu Xuanji to kill him—this was nothing short of beastly!!

Xi Wei'er, Caesar and Mile heard this and couldn't help but chuckle to themselves.

In their view, as long as Chen Daozang succeeded in killing Chu Xuanji, it didn't matter whether Chen Daozang could kill Yan afterwards. When that time came, they would forcibly execute the decision of the adjudication panel, and if Yan tried to protect Ye Fan, he would surely face condemnation and suppression from the other Five Great Alliances!

Thus, the Hua Xia Cultivation World, and indeed the whole of Hua Xia, would struggle in the days ahead, and losing the seat as the First Alliance would just be a matter of time!

This... was their ultimate goal!

"Chu Xuanji, although I knew you would be the first to fight, when the moment truly arrives, I still admire your courage," said Chen Daozang slowly, holding the ancient Yanhuang Furnace, staring right at Chu Xuanji in the sky.

"Evil disciple, last time on Mount Tian you narrowly escaped, but you won't be so lucky this time!" Chu Xuanji glared at Chen Daozang, responding coldly.

As soon as he finished speaking, Chu Xuanji spurred the Gang Qi within his body, his whole being engulfed by it, and his War Intent suddenly surged.

"Hehe..."

Chen Daozang was not at all afraid, even as he heard Chu Xuanji's words and felt his overwhelming War Intent and resolve for a do-or-die battle. Instead, he sneered, "Last time, I simply didn't want to burn my Gang Qi Essence, otherwise I would have sent you on your way long ago! This time, I've brought the Xuanyin Sword and the Yanhuang Furnace precisely to prevent you from burning your Gang Qi Essence!"

No response.

Chu Xuanji's momentum suddenly soared, the Gang Qi around him whirling wildly, his aura terrifying.

Burning Gang Qi Essence!

Without even starting the fight, Chu Xuanji was frantically manipulating his internal Gang Qi, burning his Gang Qi Essence, seeking to fight Chen Daozang with peak combat power!

Whoosh!

The crowd below, watching the battle, was instantly thrown into a stir by Chu Xuanji's actions.

"Without even making a move, he's burning his Gang Qi Essence... Alas, I never thought the Evil Emperor of Hua Xia would be forced to this point!" said the abbot of Shaolin Temple in front of the Buddhist temple, unable to hold back a sigh.

The other representatives of the Hua Xia Cultivation World also shook their heads with sighs, only Lv Yuan, Cang Bo, and Yan had grave expressions.

Both Lv Yuan and Cang Bo had witnessed Chen Daozang's display of divine might on Mount Tian and knew how formidable Chen Daozang was.

And although Yan hadn't seen Chen Daozang fight after breaking through the Great Perfection of Gang Qi, he could tell that Chen Daozang was very strong.

"If the Evil Emperor of Hua Xia doesn't do this, he might not even have the chance to make a move."

"I agree. Without burning the Gang Qi Essence, he would be instantly killed by Chen Daozang!"

Opposite to the Hua Xia Cultivation World representatives, the representatives of the American Alliance, European Union, and Tianzhu Alliance's Cultivation Families and Sects all sneered.

Meanwhile, in the temple, the young geniuses were so shocked by Chu Xuanji's sudden outburst of Qi that they were silent, not speaking a word.

"It's useless, Chu Xuanji, all your struggles are in vain!" Chen Daozang saw Chu Xuanji burning his Gang Qi Essence, unafraid, and stood with his hands behind his back in the sky, exuding a supreme aura, "Today, you have no chance!!"

Chapter 759 - Resolving Grievances, The Great Battle Between Master and Disciple! (Part 2)

Ye Fan ignored Chen Daozang's bluster.

At this moment, Chu Xuanji, resolute-faced, endlessly burned the essence of his Gang Qi within his body.

Streams of Evil Yin Qi enveloped his body, merging with the burning Gang Qi and boiling Blood Qi to form a black and red aura of protection.

The terrible pressure, like mighty tidal waves, swept toward Chen Daozang with the force of collapsing mountains and overwhelming seas.

Too powerful!

Inside the temple, whether it was the young geniuses or representatives of the cultivation families and sects, everyone's face changed upon sensing the terrifying aura emitted by Chu Xuanji.

Even Caesar, Mile, and leaders of cultivator organizations from the African Union and the Russian Alliance were all shocked.

None of them had broken through the Great Perfection of Gang Qi and could not fathom the strength of this realm.

At this moment, not only was Chu Xuanji at the Great Perfection of Gang Qi, but his frenzied burning of Gang Qi essence unleashed an aura so terrifying that it horrified them all.

At this moment, Caesar and Mile secretly rejoiced that they had not rashly contested Chu Xuanji before, as with the strength Chu Xuanji displayed, he could easily annihilate them!

"Chu Xuanji, bring out your strongest combat power, I'll give you a chance to strike first!"

In the sky, Chen Daozang was still very composed, even going so far as to give Chu Xuanji the chance to strike first, which could only be described as extreme arrogance.

Still without response, Chu Xuanji's momentum soared to its limit, his body surrounded by Evil Yin Qi, Gang Qi, and Blood Qi, which formed a black and red protective aura, obscuring his features.

Whoosh!

Finally, Chu Xuanji made his move!

Immovable as a mountain, fierce as thunder!

In the sky, Chu Xuanji's figure abruptly flashed, transforming into a black and red beam of light, swiftly sweeping towards Chen Daozang.

"Come on!"

Chen Daozang was fearless, his combat intentions fully erupted, his aura no less inferior to Chu Xuanji's burning Gang Qi essence.

Whoosh!

Closing the distance, entering the attack range, Chu Xuanji without a word threw a punch at Chen Daozang!

Qi Rushes to the Sky!

Chu Xuanji did not make a move, but when he did, it was his killing move!

Boom!

A punch was thrown, Gang Qi surged, evolving into a vast black and red Punch Ray, accompanied by gusts of Gangfeng, like a mountain crashing towards Chen Daozang.

"Master, you're old."

Chen Daozang sneered, released the Yanhuang Furnace, and his hands moved quickly, casting streams of Gang Qi that blended with the Evil Yin Qi around him, evolving into a massive gate of roiling evil aura to block in front of him.

Xuanyin Gate!

Faced with Chu Xuanji's furious attack, Chen Daozang did not hold back, deploying his most powerful defensive technique immediately.

Boom!!

The black Punch Ray, like a meteor streaking through the sky, crashed into the Xuanyin Gate, unleashing an energy storm that swept the heavens, with an impact that shook the earth.

Below, the observing young geniuses turned pale, their inner Qi blood roiling, some even unable to stand steady.

It was foreseeable that if Chu Xuanji and Chen Daozang had been fighting on the ground, the energy storm would have likely killed many of these young geniuses.

The next moment.

Before the crowd could recover from the shock of Chu Xuanji and Chen Daozang's earth-shattering strike, the Xuanyin Gate in the sky exploded with a bang, turning to nothing.

One punch shattered the Xuanyin Gate!

In the first encounter, Chu Xuanji, who burned his Gang Qi essence, prevailed.

"How... how can this be?"

"The Evil Emperor of Huaxia actually has the upper hand?!"

This outcome caused many young geniuses to exclaim in surprise.

Originally, they all believed that Chen Daozang could easily defeat Chu Xuanji, but seeing Chu Xuanji shatter the Xuanyin Gate with one punch, how could they not be shocked?

In contrast, the representatives of the cultivation families and sects were much calmer.

They were well aware that burning Gang Qi essence significantly increases attack power.

In such circumstances, Chu Xuanji launching a furious attack, breaking Chen Daozang's Xuanyin Gate was not surprising.

Meanwhile, in the sky, after the Xuanyin Gate was shattered, the black Punch Ray did not dissipate, albeit dimmed, but still emanating terrifying energy fluctuations, continuing its assault on Chen Daozang!

"Hmph!"

Falling into a disadvantage in one move, Chen Daozang snorted coldly, grabbed the Yanhuang Furnace and horizontally blocked in front of him, his palms emitting Gang Qi that continuously flowed into the Yanhuang Furnace.

"Pop~"

The Yanhuang Furnace emitted a clear sound, as if its internal formations were activated, radiating a black light.

"Bang—"

Just at that moment...

The black and red Punch Ray roared in, striking the Yanhuang Furnace.

In an instant, the black and red Punch Ray exploded, the black light on the surface of the Yanhuang Furnace keeping all the Gang Qi outside, unmovably withstanding the punch.

The Yanhuang Furnace successfully fended off the damaged Punch Ray's attacks!

This result stirred the crowd below again.

"The Yanhuang Furnace is truly one of the most mysterious and powerful magic artifacts of the Ancient Cultivation World, with amazing defensive capabilities; to call it the number one defensive artifact is not an exaggeration."

"Yes, the defensive power of the Yanhuang Furnace is simply terrifying!"

"With the Demon Emperor Chen Daosang owning this furnace, along with the Xuanyin Gate, he can almost ignore the attacks of the Evil Emperor of Huaxia. This battle will have no suspense!"

In front of the Buddhist temple, representatives from the American Alliance, European Union, and Tianzhu Alliance excitedly exclaimed, seemingly foreseeing Chu Xuanji's defeat.

Conversely, on the Huaxia Cultivation World's side, except for the Wudang Sect Leader Heavenly Master Zhang, everyone else was frowning heavily, their expressions solemn.

Yan was no exception!

Ye Fan's fists were clenched tightly in nervousness, he held his breath, and motionless, he watched Chu Xuanji in the sky.

"Old Dog Chu burning the essence of Gang Qi can't even harm my father in the slightest, not even causing the Yanhuang Furnace to waver, what can he use to fight my father?!"

Meanwhile, in the temple, Chen Feilian was the first to recover from his shock, speaking proudly.

The Evil Emperor of Huaxia is bound to lose!

Hearing Chen Feilian's words and recalling the astonishing scene just now, including Doug, hailed as the number one genius, those young geniuses all made such a judgment.

Of all this, Chu Xuanji was unaware.

At this moment, he focused all his energy on dealing with Chen Daozang.

After a failed strike, Chu Xuanji did not pause; he immediately waved both hands, forming a complex and cumbersome seal.

"Boom~"

As the sealing was formed, the Heaven and Earth Primordial Qi in the sky roiled, and a majestic Evil Yin Qi descended from the sky like a black column of light, slamming towards Chen Daozang's head!

Evil Yin Formation!

Chu Xuanji struck again, using a magic attack.

"It ends here!"

Chen Daozang sneered, grabbed the Yanhuang Furnace, and hurled it violently, smashing it towards the falling Evil Yin Qi.

"Bang——"

A dull thud, the black column formed by the Evil Yin Qi was directly smashed into pieces by the Yanhuang Furnace, and the Evil Yin Qi dispersed.

Swish!

Just then, Chen Daozang suddenly drew the Xuanyin Sword from his back.

"Cling~"

The Xuanyin Sword, as if sensing Chen Daozang's surging war intent, trembled slightly, emitting a light hum.

Swish!

As the treasure sword was unsheathed, Chen Daozang, like a fierce tiger pouncing on its prey, dashed forward, lunging at Chu Xuanji.

At the same time, the Evil Yin Qi in the sky, as if summoned, surged into the body of the Xuanyin Sword.

Instantly, the sword body of the Xuanyin Sword flickered with light, appearing like a demon weapon, emitting a chilly aura.

"With the Evil Yin Qi you summoned, I'll send you on your way!"

As the words fell, he arrived!

Chen Daozang rushed to the front of Chu Xuanji, striking with his sword!

Woo woo woo! Woo woo woo!

An eerie wind howled, countless streams of Evil Yin Qi and Gang Qi merged, shooting out from the Xuanyin Sword, forming terrifying faces that screamed ferociously, as if doomsday had arrived.

Immediately, those terrifying faces fused together, forming a huge black Sword Radiance, slashing towards Chu Xuanji.

Shadowless Yin Demon Slash!

Before the battle, Chen Daozang had said he would go easy, but now, his attack was extremely ruthless, not only drawing the Xuanyin Sword but also using his strongest killing move.

With a slash, a Yin Demon with three heads and six arms suddenly appeared, circling above Chen Daozang's head, slashing its demon blade and sweeping out a black sword light.

In an instant, the sword light merged with the sword radiance, enveloped by the Evil Yin Qi, carrying a sinister and malevolent aura, as if intending to destroy all things and ferociously slashing towards Zhe Xuanji!

Retreat!

Without any hesitation, Chu Xuanji immediately withdrew explosively!

However—

Chen Daozang's strike not only used the Xuanyin Sword but also deployed the strongest killing move "Shadowless Yin Demon Slash," and even absorbed the Evil Yin Qi summoned by Chu Xuanji's "Evil Yin Formation," making it an exceptionally powerful strike indeed!

This sword transformed into Sword Radiance, almost spanning the horizon, leaving Chu Xuanji no place to hide.

At this moment, Chu Xuanji, relying on the high-level magical artifact Ghost Ring, increased his speed drastically, but still couldn't completely avoid the slashing sword radiance coming head-on.

Having no other choice, Chu Xuanji had to strike out with his fist, countering attack with attack!

Bang!!

A loud noise, the Punch Ray that Chu Xuanji struck out was instantly split by the Sword Radiance, the residual Sword Radiance striking his body, causing his protective aura to show cracks like a spider web.

"Pu——"

As the protective aura shattered, Chu Xuanji's body trembled violently, he flew backwards, spitting out a mouthful of blood, his face pale as paper.

Injured!

Despite Chu Xuanji's full effort to dodge and, at the critical moment, to confront Chen Daozang's attack head-on, he was still injured, and severely so. A blood stain appeared on his chest, the flesh visible, and his internal meridians and organs were severely damaged.

"Xuanji!"

"Master!"

Seeing this scene, Yan, the representatives from the Huaxia Cultivation World, and Ye Fan nearly simultaneously exclaimed.

Without responding, Chu Xuanji's body flew backwards nearly a thousand meters before he managed to stop, then without pausing, he immediately took out the "Nirvana Pill" from his pocket and swallowed it.

"Chu Xuanji, if it weren't for the fact that I still need to send Yan with you on your way next, I could have played with you a bit longer," Chen Daozang said as his entire demeanor climbed again, appearing like an invincible Demon King arriving, holding the Yanhuang Furnace in his left hand and the Xuanyin Sword in his right. As he approached Chu Xuanji, he added, "It's just that, in this world, there are no ifs. My old man, have a good journey to the Netherworld!"

As his words fell, Chen Daozang once again closed the distance to Chu Xuanji, entering his attack range, he raised his sword to strike.

Chu Xuanji steeled his heart, ready to burn all the essence of his Gang Qi entirely, forsaking his cultivation base, to launch a final strike, dying together with the enemy!

"There are no ifs in this world, but there is cause and effect."

The next moment, just before Chu Xuanji could burn his Gang Qi essence again, a ethereal voice rang out, sounding as if it was from far away, yet it seemed very near.

A white figure, as if a divine being from the Nine Heavens, appeared out of thin air in the sky.

Bodhi Wuyin has arrived!

Chapter 760 - Since You're Here, You Won't Leave

The life-and-death duel between Chen Daozang and Chu Xuanji seemed complex, but in reality, it took very little time.

There was no probing between the two. Each strike was a killing move, meant to send the opponent to their death.

In the end, Chen Daozang demonstrated divine prowess, wounding Chu Xuanji with a single sword strike.

Just when everyone thought Chu Xuanji's life was hanging by a thread, before Chen Daozang could follow up on his advantage, Bodhi Wuyin appeared.

This scene was beyond everyone's expectations, including Chu Xuanji and Chen Daozang!

For a moment, Chu Xuanji forgot to stimulate the power of the Nirvana Pill to heal his injuries and simply stared dumbfounded at Bodhi Wuyin. Chen Daozang also stopped in his tracks and turned his gaze towards Bodhi Wuyin.

At the same time, the people below also unanimously turned their eyes towards Bodhi Wuyin.

"Who is that?"

"If I'm not mistaken, she is the Buddhist Supreme of Huaxia Buddhism, Bodhi Wuyin, known as the person with the greatest comprehension of our times, not only for her astonishing cultivation speed but also for creating the 'Bodhi Skill'."

Among the crowd, the young geniuses were first shocked by the appearance of Bodhi Wuyin, then conversations erupted like a boiling pot.

Not just them, but representatives of the cultivation families and sects were also engrossed in discussions.

"I've always heard that Bodhi Wuyin had a romance with the Evil Emperor of Huaxia, and that she even joined the Buddhist sect because of the Evil Emperor. It seems that the rumors are not false."

"It seems that Bodhi Wuyin hasn't let go of the Evil Emperor yet, otherwise she wouldn't have shown up at this moment!"

"Yes, she must have been here all along, just not showing herself!"

"If that's the case, then her ability to stay hidden is really formidable!"

As the conversations concluded, the representatives of the cultivation families and sects were left in shock.

"I cannot sense her breath at all. What kind of strength does she possess? Could she also have broken through to the Top-level War God?"

In their astonishment, someone voiced their doubt.

"Master Yan, has Master Bodhi Wuyin broken through to the Gang Qi Great Perfection Realm?"

Ye Fan couldn't help but address his question to Yan, his expression very anxious.

Just now, when Chu Xuanji had been wounded by Chen Daozang's sword, Ye Fan had been extremely nervous, almost seeking Yan's help to deal with Chen Daozang.

At this moment, with the appearance of Bodhi Wuyin temporarily blocking Chen Daozang, he could breathe a slight sigh of relief, but the worry in his heart lingered.

In his view, only if Bodhi Wuyin had broken through to the Peak of Gang Qi was there a chance to stop Chen Daozang.

"I don't know."

Yan shook his head lightly and said, "She has used a special secret technique to conceal her breath, making it impossible to judge her strength from it. Her ability to remain hidden in the sky without being detected by everyone is due to this."

Hmm?

As Yan's words echoed in his ears, Ye Fan's heart was once again in his throat, while the others ceased their discussions and looked up at the sky, waiting for the mystery to unfold.

"Hey, I really didn't expect that, after so many years, you still haven't forgotten him. You two really have a love deep as the sea!"

In the sky, Chen Daozang also couldn't sense how powerful Bodhi Wuyin really was but didn't care and spoke with a mocking face.

Because, for him, even if Bodhi Wuyin had reached the Great Perfection of Gang Qi, he didn't fear at all — with the Xuanyin Sword and the Yanhuang Furnace in his possession, he was confident in defeating anyone.

Including Yan, who had been firmly holding the first place on the Divine List above him!

Confronted with Chen Daozang's taunts, Bodhi Wuyin didn't respond and instead, her feet shuffled lightly, and her figure quickly moved like the wind, arriving in front of Chu Xuanji.

"You..."

Looking at Bodhi Wuyin close at hand, even the usually resolute Chu Xuanji was momentarily dazed.

There had been a time when he thought he would never see Bodhi Wuyin again in his life!

But now, when he had been struck by Chen Daozang and was on the brink of death, Bodhi Wuyin appeared!

The impact this had on him was unimaginable!

He opened his mouth to say something but found his mind was blank and didn't know what to say.

"Are your injuries severe?"

Bodhi Wuyin looked at the bloodstain on Chu Xuanji's chest and asked softly, interrupting his speech. Her face, which had previously shown a saintly expression, now displayed a touch of worry and heartache.

"Bodhi Wuyin, Chu Xuanji doesn't understand the meaning of love at all. You have waited a lifetime for such a man, and now you are ready to accompany him on this journey. Is it worth it?"

Before Chu Xuanji could reply, Chen Daozang suddenly growled, his emotions seeming somewhat agitated.

He had always believed that he couldn't be with Ling Yun, Ye Fan's mother, all those years ago entirely because of Chu Xuanji's interference!

That was one of the reasons why he had harbored resentment against Chu Xuanji for so many years!

Now, seeing Bodhi Wuyin still so deeply in love with Chu Xuanji, he felt inexplicably angry!

"You should leave."

Hearing Chen Daozang's low growl by his ear, Chu Xuanji came back to his senses from his daze, stared at Bodhi Wuyin's face, and spoke softly.

"Since I'm here, I will not leave."

Bodhi Wuyin shook her head gently, her expression firm and persistent.

"But..."

Chu Xuanji tried to say something.

"Even if you want to leave, you won't be able to now!"

Chen Daozang interrupted with a cold smile, his whole body emanating intense killing intent, "I'll send you both on your way, so you can be a ghostly couple in hell!"

Whoosh!

As soon as the words fell, Chen Daozang wasted no more time, sprung forward, sword in hand, charging at Chu Xuanji and Bodhi Wuyin.

"I'll hold him off, you heal."
