

Ye Chen 3131

Chapter 3131

Hearing this, Gu Qiuyi's entire body instantly tensed up and said offhandedly, "Dad! I should not be causing trouble for brother Ye Chen, right?!"

Lin Wanqiu spoke up at this time, "I think the An family knows that Chen'er is still alive, it shouldn't be a bad thing, Chen'er's grandparents are still alive, and the An family is also run by them, if they know that Chen'er is still alive, they will only be happy and will never threaten Chen'er, maybe after they get acquainted with Chen'er, they can bring more resources and opportunities to Chen'er instead. "

Saying that, Lin Wanqiu added: "Taking a step back, even if the An family has little affection for Chen'er, but after all, there is blood kinship, at most, they will not bother each other, and they will certainly not be able to come to trouble Chen'er of their own accord."

Gu Yanzhong thought about it, sighed in relief and nodded, "That's true, the obvious threat to Chen'er is the Su family, but the Su family is clearly no longer a match for him now."

Lin Wanqiu was busy asking, "Then do you think the murderer who killed Brother Ye and Sister An back then would have gone after Chen'er if he knew he was still alive?"

Gu Yanzhong shook his head, "I don't think so, if they wanted Chen'er's life, back then in Jinling, they would have killed him along with them, after all, even big brother Ye was not able to escape their poisonous hands, if they wanted to kill Chen'er, how could Chen'er be spared."

Lin Wanqiu nodded slightly, while Gu Qiuyi at the side was slightly relieved, she touched her heart while saying incomparably fearful, "I'm really worried about causing any trouble for brother Ye Chen after all, I didn't discuss this matter with him in advance either"

Gu Yanzhong smiled faintly and said, "Actually, it's okay, the only ones who know about your engagement are the Ye family, the An family, and the Yanjing families, even if you didn't say this at the concert, the Ye family has long known about Chen's matter, and Su Zhiyu and Du Haiqing's mother of the Su family must also know about it, as for the remaining two or three families, even if they know about it now, it's nothing It's not a big deal."

"Right." Lin Wanqiu spoke, "Even if they know that Chen'er is still alive, they still know who Chen'er really is, so I guess it won't matter."

"That's good." Gu Qiuyi sighed, "Just now Dad suddenly said crap, I thought I was in big trouble"

Lin Wanqiu touched her hand and said with a smile, "Don't feel so burdened, this is not a good thing."

If she knows about your concert today, she will definitely know that we have found Chen'er, and perhaps she will talk to Chen'er's grandmother about it. you might be able to meet up with the An family."

"Meet with the An family?" Gu Qiuyi asked busily, "If brother Ye Chen finds out, will he be angry with me?"

Lin Wanqiu said seriously, "So you have to grasp the degree, when you go to America, you can only take the initiative to visit Wang Weiwei, as for whether the An family will see you or not, it depends on whether Wang Weiwei will convey this information over, if Wang Weiwei conveys this matter over, then it will be their initiative to see you when the An family sees you, not your initiative to see them."

Gu Qiuyi asked in confusion, "But what am I going to see the An family for"

Lin Wanqiu said, "Naturally, it's to help connect Chen'er with the An family. If Chen'er can get the An family's help, his future development will definitely get a huge boost, thus getting twice the result with half the effort. ."

Chapter 3132

Although Chen'er and the An family are related by blood, they have never had much contact with each other, and since Chen'er's mother has passed away, the An family has been estranged from Chen'er for many years. "

"And this time, Wang Weiwei came to make your wedding dress for the sake of the An family, which in itself is a very good opportunity for a breakthrough, and if you go to America this time and visit Wang Weiwei by the way, everything will naturally fall into place."

Gu Qiuyi nodded her head in a daze and busily said, "Okay dad, I know."

At this time, Ye Chen and his wife Xiao Churan had already returned home.

Xiao Churan, because she could not quite accept that Gu Qiuyi was suddenly going to quit the singing world permanently, had been holding her phone while participating in the new campaign on Weibo for the number one spot on the hot search list, where millions of fans joined hands to request Gu Qiuyi to stay in the entertainment industry.

While she was busy swiping her phone in support, Ye Chen went to the courtyard alone and made a phone call to Gu Yanzhong.

He knew that Gu Yanzhong was leaving Jinling and returning to Yanjing tonight, but just now at the concert venue, he didn't have much communication with Gu Yanzhong because his wife was there and there were really too many people, so he hurried to give him a call and wanted to wish him and Lin Wanqiu a good trip.

When the call was answered, Gu Yanzhong said with a smile, "Chen'er, you've arrived home, right?"

Ye Chen said, "Yes, Uncle Gu, I've arrived home, where are you and Auntie Lin? Have you and Auntie Lin left for the airport?"

"Yes." Gu Yanzhong said with a smile, "We're already on our way, and it just so happens that Nui Nui also has to go back with us tonight, so we're going together as a family."

"Ah?" Ye Chen was surprised and asked, "Nui Nui is also leaving? She's so tired after the concert, why doesn't she rest for the night before going back?"

Gu Yanzhong laughed, "Your Auntie Lin and I also advised her to do the same, but the child insisted on coming back with us, saying that there was nothing more to do here, so she could go back and have a good rest."

Ye Chen's heart was a bit empty and he said helplessly, "Alright then, you can tell her to send me a WeChat when she lands."

"Okay." Gu Yanzhong then said, "Chen'er ah, it's getting late, you should also rest early."

Ye Chen was ashamed and said, "Uncle Gu, I'm really sorry, you and Auntie Lin came all the way here today, I didn't entertain you properly, and I couldn't go to the airport to see you off when you left."

Gu Yanzhong laughed casually, "It's alright, we're all family, no need to be so polite, moreover, in less than a month, you'll be coming to Yanjing to attend the Ye family's ancestral ceremony, then you'll stay at uncle's house, and we'll have a few good drinks."

"Okay." Ye Chen agreed without hesitation, going back to attend the ancestral festival was something he had promised his grandfather before, and since he had already promised people, it was natural that he had to keep his promise.

However, Ye Chen didn't want to have too much contact with the Ye family either, so he hadn't originally planned to stay at the Ye family either.

Otherwise, if he could see that aunt of his, Ye Changmin, even when he looked down and up, not only would she be badly offended, but he himself would also be upset.

It would naturally be much more convenient if he stayed at Gu Yanzhong's house at that time.

When Gu Yanzhong saw Ye Chen's agreement, he said very happily, "Then we have a deal, when the time comes, before you leave for Yanjing, tell uncle in advance!"

Chapter 3133

The fact that Gu Qiuyi had left made Ye Chen feel a little forlorn.

The courtyard was silent at this time, and the weather was still a little chilly. Looking up at the moonlit sky, Ye Chen was even more saddened.

He had never imagined that Gu Qiuyi's concert would come to an end in this way. Thinking back to those old photos from the concert, Ye Chen's heart was filled with emotion and shame.

Although he had lived a hard life all these years, in the orphanage, with Tang Sihai's secret protection, he could actually be considered to be well clothed and fed, only that all kinds of material conditions were a bit tougher.

However, he had never thought before that during the years he suffered, Gu Qiuyi's whole family had spared no effort in searching for his whereabouts.

This love alone had moved him so much that he didn't know how to repay it, not to mention the fact that Gu Qiuyi had kept her promise of marriage to him for so many years and had waited for him for nearly 20 years with single-mindedness.

Therefore, the knot in Ye Chen's heart that he could not untie was how to repay the three members of the Gu family for their love.

The reason why he couldn't untie it was because he couldn't think of any good way to do so.

After all, he still had Xiao Churan, who had been married to him for four years and would never leave him.

When Ye Chen was sighing and sighing in his heart, Xiao Churan came out of the villa wrapped in a cotton coat and holding a down jacket of Ye Chen's in her hand.

She came to Ye Chen's side, gently put the down jacket on his shoulders and spoke, "Honey, why did you run outside and stand around? It's quite cold tonight."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "It was a bit stuffy inside, so I wanted to come out for some air."

Xiao Churan nodded and said, "Why don't we stop the floor heating in our house, it's already the middle of March, there's no need to keep the heating on."

Ye Chen said, "It's better to turn it on. It's the easiest time of year to catch a cold, so it's much better to have the heating on."

Xiao Churan didn't insist any more, but looked at Ye Chen and asked with concern, "Honey, why do I feel as if you have something on your mind? Have you encountered any trouble?"

"No." Ye Chen said against his will, "Around Qingming, a feng shui reading business is going to make a trip to Yanjing, and a big family wants to ask me to go there to help look at the feng shui of their ancestral graves, but it seems to be a bit tricky, and I'm trying to figure out how I should handle it."

The reason why Ye Chen said this was, on the one hand, because he didn't want Xiao Churan to think too much, and on the other hand, he also happened to give her a precautionary shot in advance, informing her about his trip to Yanjing before the Qingming Festival."

After saying these words, Ye Chen did not feel complacent because of an excuse to kill two birds with one stone; on the contrary, he felt a tinge of sadness in his heart.

Ever since Tang Sihai had reappeared, and ever since he had obtained the Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures, the relationship between himself and Xiao Churan had been filled with more and more lies.

Although many of these lies were made out of good intentions, the nature of the lies could not be concealed.

At this moment, when Xiao Churan heard that Ye Chen was preparing to go to Night View to read feng shui for others again, she did not suspect in her heart, but only asked him, "Husband, why did you take on the job of reading feng shui again?"

"Yes." Ye Chen said casually, "The money is quite a lot, so there's no reason to refuse."

Chapter 3134

Saying that, Ye Chen was afraid that Xiao Churan would repeat the same old tune, so he immediately added: "Moreover, wife, you should also know that this group of rich people have their own circle, if they offend people inside this circle, it is likely that they will be blocked by this circle, and they may even be targeted by this circle, so hubby is also riding a tiger now, it is impossible to say that he will cut off all It's impossible to cut off all business in this area."

Xiao Churan originally wanted to repeat the same old story, according to her idea, as long as her company gradually saw an improvement, Ye Chen could gradually reduce his feng shui reading business and stop touching this aspect as much as possible.

But now that she heard Ye Chen say that, she put away her set of words and said helplessly, "Honey, then you must pay more attention yourself."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and nodded, "Don't worry wife, I will."

Xiao Churan smiled gratefully and said, "It's getting late, hurry up and go back to your room and sleep."

"Good!"

Late at night, when Ye Chen and Xiao Churan were cuddling and sleeping together, a woman walked out gently in the large courtyard of the Song family villa.

It was already one thirty in the morning, but instead of sleeping, Ito Nanaeko came out to the courtyard alone, found a dry place and sat cross-legged in the courtyard looking up at the starry sky.

Gu Qiuyi's concert was very shocking to her, with so many details that she still hasn't gotten over it.

At the concert, she saw her idol Gu Qiuyi's infatuation and bravery for the first time, and at that moment, her admiration for Gu Qiuyi grew.

After the concert, she repeatedly pondered over this matter, always having a hunch that the person Gu Qiuyi confessed her love to on the spot should be Ye Chen, whom she had loved for a long time.

However, she could not think of any clear clues to support her intuition.

She had learned something about Ye Chen's background, but again, the specific information she knew was not that detailed. She only knew that Ye Chen had grown up as an orphan, had been raised in the Jinling orphanage, and had then joined the Jinling Xiao family, a life experience that seemed very ordinary, and even had a few sympathetic tragic overtones.

However, she could not figure out how Ye Chen had grown from a superfluous son-in-law to become the True Dragon Master Ye, who was respected by everyone in Jinling, and even more so, how Ye Chen could be so powerful and even have such a divine medicine that could be described as heaven defying.

One was the son-in-law of the Xiao family and the other was the True Dragon of the Earth, these two images were simply one day and one place, leaving Ito Nana-chan in a quandary for a while, unable to think of the connection.

Just as she was puzzled, Song Wanting walked into the courtyard and slowly came to her, smiling and asking, "Nana-chan, why are you still up so late?"

Ito Nana-chan looked back at her and smiled, "I couldn't sleep, how about you, sister Wanting?"

Song Wanting shrugged her shoulders and returned the smile with the same, "Me too."

Ito Nana-chan smiled heartily and sighed, "Sister Wanting can't sleep, it must be because of Ye Chenjun!"

Song Wanting was slightly stunned, then also smiled emotionally, "Aiya, it seems that we both have the same reason for insomnia."

Ito Nanaeko nodded and said without hiding anything, "I was wondering if that Prince Charming Gu Qiuyi confessed her love for at the concert tonight could be Ye Chenjun."

Song Wanting's eyes widened and she blurted out, "I'm thinking exactly the same thing as you! Although I don't have any evidence and can't think of any kind of possibility, I've been suspecting this matter too!"

Ito Nana-chan didn't expect that Song Wanting had thought of the same thing as she did, so she hurriedly said, "Sister Wanting, you've always lived in Jinling, and you knew Ye Chenjun earlier, can you tell me what Ye Chenjun's past was really like?"

Chapter 3135

Hearing Nana Ito's question, Song Wanting said seriously, "I actually know very little about Grandmaster Ye's past, I first met him last year in one of our family's antique shops, at that time Grandmaster Ye was not very famous in Jinling, just a superfluous son-in-law with a very low family status."

At this point, Song Wanting turned her words and said, "But Master Ye is young. Yet he mastered an antique restoration technique that had been lost long ago, this really shocked me a lot, and at that time I thought that this man must have some unknown story."

Nanae Ito nodded: "There are many shocking things about Ye Chenjun, but what I want to know most is Ye Chenjun's childhood! For example, where exactly is he from, how did he become an orphan, was he abandoned by his parents after he was born, or was he born without parents, or did he lose them at some point in time and that's why he became an orphan."

Song Wanting frowned and thought for half a day. Shaking her head, she said, "I'm not really sure about these to be honest."

Ito Nanaeko analyzed again, "Look, sister Wanting, Gu Qiuyi said her childhood friend, who disappeared when she was five or six years old, worked backwards by taking care of Qiuyi's age also Ye Chenjun's age. Ye Chenjun would have been seven or eight that year, and Gu Qiuyi was from Yanjing, so there is a very simple dialectical logic to this: if Ye Chenjun was a native of Jinling, then he couldn't have had any interactions with Gu Qiuyi when he was young, so naturally he wasn't Gu Qiuyi's Prince Charming, which proves that our intuition was all wrong."

"But, by the same logic, if Ye Chenjun is not a native of Jinling, then the likelihood of this matter is greatly increased!"

"If Ye Chenjun is really Gu Qiuyi's Prince Charming, then it proves that Ye Chenjun should have been a native of Yanjing when he was a child and, moreover, he should have been around seven or eight years old when he came to Jinling."

Song Wanting nodded in great agreement and said, "According to this, if Master Ye also happened to enter the orphanage when he was seven or eight years old, then the timeline would basically be able to match up."

"Right." Ito Nana-chan busily said, "Sister Wanting, you have connections and contacts in Jinling, can you ask someone to check the relevant records of the Jinling orphanage?"

Song Wanting thought about it and said, "Checking the records shouldn't be a big problem, but in case Master Ye knows that we are investigating him, will Master Ye have any misunderstanding about us? After all, Master Ye also has a wide range of contacts in Jinling, I'm afraid that I've just asked someone to check on my side. He'll know about it over there."

"It's true", Ito Nana-chan thought about it and busied herself, "By the way sister Wanting, didn't you make a deal with Ye Chenjun's wife to work with her on some projects?"

"Right." Song Wanting nodded, "What's wrong?"

Ito Nanaeko was busy saying, "Then you just need to meet with her when you meet with her. Find an opportunity to ask her how old Ye Chenjun was when he entered the orphanage, as long as you ask her subtly, she should not be suspicious, then this suspicion of ours will be cleared up!"

Song Wanting immediately agreed and said, "Then I'll ask Mrs. Ye to meet me at the group tomorrow to have a chat!"

After saying that, Song Wanting looked at Ito Nana-chan again with some confusion. Asking her, "But Nana-chan, what do you think is the point of us doing this?"

Ito Nanaeko said seriously, "Sister Wanting, the meaning of this matter to me is because I love Ye Chenjun unreservedly and deeply. Therefore, I can't control myself from wanting to know more about Ye Chenjun's past, and I know that this idea is very selfish, but I just can't control myself"

Song Wanting sighed quietly and murmured, "Who isn't like that I also want to know what kind of person Master Ye, who has repeatedly saved me from danger and haunted my dreams, really is"

After saying that, she sounded much firmer. Opening her mouth, she said, "Tomorrow I will try to ask for clues!"

Chapter 3136

The next day, early in the morning.

Ye Chen and Xiao Churan got up one after another, washed up and then went downstairs to have breakfast.

According to the procedure these days, Ye Chen was going to drive Xiao Churan to work after eating, but the place of work might be indefinite, it might be to the company, or to the construction site of the Dihao Group. Or maybe it was the old mansion that Du Haixin was shooting for.

However, after a flurry of work on her mobile phone while Xiao Churan was eating, she excitedly said to Ye Chen, "Honey! Miss Song Wanting of the Song family has asked me to go to the Song Group to talk about project cooperation!"

Ye Chen did not feel surprised because Song Wanting had already made this intention very clear yesterday.

In Ye Chen's opinion. The reason why Song Wanting did this was definitely because she also hoped to repay her help to Xiao Churan by helping her start her own business.

Therefore, Ye Chen didn't think much about it. So he asked her, "Then I'll send you to Song's Group after dinner later, or should I go somewhere else?"

"To Song's Group!" Xiao Churan said without hesitation, "Miss Song is now the chairman of Song Group, and she should be able to directly take the decision on this aspect of project cooperation, so I have to grab a chat with her and see if I can get the cooperation off the ground as soon as possible."

Ma Lan at the side couldn't help but exclaim, "Churan, you're working with the Song Group now? Boy! That's too impressive!"

Xiao Churan said, "Mom, I'm just going to have a chat with Miss Song to see if there's any possibility of cooperation."

Ma Lan laughed, "If the president of such a big group takes the initiative to invite you to talk about cooperation, what else do you need to think about? It will definitely work out! This way, your company will be on another level."

Xiao Churan said, "We'll have to find out after talking to Miss Song."

Without hesitation, Ma Lan said, "Don't worry, Churan, this will definitely work out. Don't forget, Ye Chen has done the feng shui for the Song family, and Song Wanting even came to our house to give us a gift before! For the sake of Ye Chen, how could she let you make a trip for nothing?"

When Ma Lan said this, Xiao Churan's mood darkened a little, she knew that Song Wanting wanted to cooperate with herself because of her husband's face. Even the previous cooperation of the Dihao Group, I am afraid that Wang Dongxue only gave it to herself because of her husband's face, which made the entrepreneurial enthusiasm in her heart more or less suffer a blow.

Ye Chen could see that something was wrong with Xiao Churan and smiled and said comfortingly, "Wife, in fact, many businesses are only obtained with the help of other people who help with the matchmaking, however, whether or not one can do the business well and satisfy the other party still depends on one's own strength, I believe that as far as this point is concerned, my wife's ability is top notch."

Xiao Churan smiled gratefully and said seriously, "Thank you husband"

After eating. Ye Chen drove the car and sent Xiao Churan to Song's Group.

He, on the other hand, drove off alone to the Dihao Group because he had an appointment with Su Zhiyu and He Zhiqiu to meet at the Dihao Group.

Xiao Churan was treated with extreme courtesy at Song's Group.

She had just mentioned her name to the receptionist when Song Wanting received the news and personally came down from her office to greet her, causing Xiao Churan to be somewhat flattered.

Song Wanting invited Xiao Churan to her office. She then opened the door and took out the planning plans for several construction projects of the Song Group and said to Xiao Churan, "Mrs. Ye, these are the projects we are preparing for and will soon start construction, and the design plans for the civil construction stage have all been released. However, the subsequent decoration design plans are still being tendered, so if Mrs. Ye is interested, all these projects can be handed over to your company to do."

Xiao Churan was speechless with shock, because these projects that Song Wanting had brought out. The total investment even exceeded ten and a half billion dollars.

According to the standards of the construction industry, the design cost of the overall architectural design generally accounted for about 3% of the total project cost, while the cost of the interior decoration design generally accounted for another 1.5% or less of the total project cost.

If this ratio is applied, the design fee for the interior decoration of these projects alone would amount to more than 200 million.

If we were to get the construction as well, the profit would be more than double!

Chapter 3137

However, Xiao Churan knew very well in her heart that with her current strength and ability, it was impossible for her to work with the Song Group on projects with a total investment of tens of billions of dollars in one breath.

Her current company's overall strength is still far from the scale of a large design company, plus she still has projects in hand for the Dihao Group. So the energy she could spare was even more limited.

Of the tens of billions of dollars of projects that Song Wanting had brought out, Xiao Churan estimated that she would only be able to eat at most one-fifth of it.

However, even if it was one-fifth, it was still a very big piece of cake.

The design fee alone would be almost forty million.

While Xiao Churan was excited about this, what Song Wanting, who was opposite her, was thinking about was how to lead the conversation to Ye Chen and not let Xiao Churan have any suspicion to ask the questions she wanted to ask.

So. She asked Xiao Churan: "Mrs. Ye, do you think that your company can cooperate with Song's group in these projects?"

Xiao Churan said seriously, "Miss Song. Our company can do all these projects, I'm just a bit unsure, are these projects of yours to be started at the same time?"

Song Wanting explained, "Basically, all of these projects have been prepared and launched one after another, but with so many projects, the time line should be stretched to half a year or even a year or so, so that it will be easier for you to arrange your time and energy, otherwise if all these projects are launched in a very intensive period of time, I am afraid that you will not be able to cope with them. ."

What Xiao Churan was originally worried about was that her company simply did not have enough manpower and energy to eat up so many cooperation projects in one go, but if, according to Song Wanting, these projects would be launched one after another within six months to a year, then she would have plenty of time to line up her troops.

In this way, it might not be impossible to take on all of these projects, or to take on a large part of them.

So, she asked Song Wanting, "Miss Song. Are you going to take all of these projects and work with us?"

"Yes." Song Wanting said very generously, "As long as you are interested, Mrs. Ye, all the projects can be given to your company to do, if you can do it over yourself. Then you can do it yourself; if you can't do it yourself, then you can totally subcontract it to others, and then you can earn a difference in price from the middle."

Xiao Churan really didn't expect Song Wanting to be so generous; in the past, for this kind of project, every B-party company would have to scramble for a share. It was like the Xiao Group in the past, in order to get the $30 million project from the Dihao Group, the whole family had to hold a mobilisation meeting. And deep down in everyone's heart there was still no hope.

However, Song Wanting had directly delivered such a large share directly to Xiao Churan, which made her a bit overwhelmed for a moment, after all, this was no longer a pie falling from the sky, this was a diamond falling from the sky.

So. She was a little overwhelmed and asked, "Miss Song, this big gift of yours is too heavy, I I am really ashamed of it"

Song Wanting smiled, "Mrs. Ye you and I must not be so polite, Master Ye has helped our family many times before and even saved my life, my grandfather and I owe him many favors. So as long as you feel okay with these projects, Mrs. Ye, I can leave them all to you."

Chapter 3138

Xiao Churan asked in astonishment, "Miss Song, you said my husband saved your life? How come I've never heard him mention it before."

Song Wanting explained, "It's like this. When I first listened to a charlatan from Hong Kong, I accidentally turned the feng shui of my house into a dragon trap and almost had a big accident. It was only thanks to Master Ye's advice that I was able to turn the danger into a success."

Song Wanting then told Xiao Churan the story of how she had been deceived by the fake Hong Kong Master Lai because of her bad luck, and how the man named Lai had been recognized by Ye Chen, and finally how Ye Chen had helped her break the dragon formation.

Xiao Churan was dumbfounded as she listened. She had originally thought that her husband's so-called feng shui practice was more or less a deception.

But now, after hearing Song Wanting's introduction, she understood. It turned out that Ye Chen's set of things was not just a false head, but really had practical effects.

Therefore, she could not help but sigh, "In the past, I was particularly worried that the nature of my husband's feng shui reading for others was a kind of being a charlatanism, afraid that those people would come back to settle scores with him again, but now after hearing you say so. I'm much more at ease."

Song Wanting smiled and said very seriously, "There is a big difference between Grandmaster Ye and those charlatans, Grandmaster Ye has real talent, and that is why everyone holds him in high esteem."

Speaking of this, Song Wanting's eyes flashed with a hint of essence as she said with a smile, "By the way Mrs. Ye, I have always been curious as to what Master Ye's origin and mastery is, he is so young. How could he be so proficient in so many profound skills?"

Xiao Churan seriously replied, "I'm not going to lie to you, Miss Song, as far as I know, my husband doesn't have any mastery, and he lost his parents at an early age and became an orphan. As for where exactly he learned these skills, I'm not too sure."

Song Wanting immediately asked in a smooth manner, "Mrs. Ye, you said Master Ye that he lost his parents at a very early age. Then it is possible that these skills were passed on to him by his parents before he lost them. If he is a natural talent, it is not impossible for him to learn something at a young age."

Xiao Churan had no idea what Song Wanting meant and said stupidly, "But Ye Chen had only just turned eight when he entered the orphanage, so even if an eight-year-old child was talented, he couldn't have learned any profound skills."

"Eight years old?!" Song Wanting's heart was appalled and she asked offhandedly, "Did Master Ye really enter the orphanage when he was eight years old?"

"Yes." Xiao Churan nodded with certainty and said, "He has told me about this many times before, according to him, his parents met with an accident when he was eight and he had no other family in the world, so he was adopted by the orphanage and stayed there until he became an adult."

Song Wanting thought back to the various details that Ito Nana-chan had analysed last night and exclaimed in her heart, "Now, the time Master Ye entered the orphanage and the time when Gu Qiuyi began her search for Prince Charming almost exactly coincide, then this is even more proof that Master Ye is that Prince Charming of Gu Qiuyi's!"

"This likewise proves that Grandmaster Ye is not from Jinling at all, but from Yanjing!"

"What's more, Gu Qiuyi is not just a star, many people know that her family background is very strong, it's the Gu family which can be ranked in the top five in China! And she is the only daughter of Gu Yanzhong, the chairman of the Gu Group!"

"The fact that Grandmaster Ye can be engaged to a rich white girl like Gu Qiu Yan from a young age only proves that Grandmaster Ye himself is also from a famous family!"

"And if we look at the country, there are not many big families in total that can match the Gu family, and within Yanjing, there are even fewer such big families, only the Su family and the Ye family"

Thinking of this, Song Wanting's heart thudded and the question deep inside her heart gradually became clear: "Ye family?! Master Ye?! Could it be that"

Chapter 3139

What made Song Wanting realise that something was not quite right was that after all these clues had been cleared up and all of them matched with Ye Chen, Ye Chen's surname was like the last piece of evidence that locked all the clues, making her instantly no longer have any doubts about her guesses.

She thought to herself, "So it seems that Master Ye must be the young master of the Ye family in Yanjing, and the Ye family must have been very close to the Gu family back then, so when the two children were still young. It was only in the middle of this that some changes happened to Master Ye, so that he fell into Jinling and became an orphan!"

As she thought about this, her whole heart was filled with mixed feelings.

In the past, she had felt that Ye Chen was a model of a man who came from a grassroots background, but had managed to make a comeback by virtue of his own abilities, and it was on the basis of this that deep down she had always felt that she was not inferior to Ye Chen in every way, at least, she had come from a better background than him and was born with a higher social rank than him.

Song Wanting did not mean to look down on Ye Chen in any way. She was just using this view to cheer herself up and make herself feel that she was not out of reach with Ye Chen.

But now she realised that not only was her own origin not better than Ye Chen's, on the contrary. Her own origins were simply a hundred thousand miles worse than Ye Chen's.

The overall strength of the Ye family in Yanjing was more than ten times stronger than the Song family!

If the base was small, ten times, did not seem to be too big a difference, but if the base was large enough, the difference was simply frightening.

To put it simply, if one child has one lollipop in his hand and another child has ten, the tenfold difference is nothing, and the parent only needs to give a few dollars to help the child catch up.

But if it's your family with one suite in the local area and another with ten, the gap is too big for many people to overcome.

What's more, we're talking about a hundred billion dollar level of assets here, and the gap between that and a trillion dollar level of assets is simply more than an order of magnitude worse.

It was also at this moment that Song Wanting's deep-seated sense of inferiority reached its peak in an instant, and now she felt that she had a huge gap with Ye Chen in every way, and that there was almost no hope for her with Ye Chen.

At this moment, Xiao Churan, unaware of Song Wanting's inner change, saw that Song Wanting did not say anything more, and thought that Song Wanting had little interest in the topic of her husband. He lived in an orphanage until he was eighteen, and then he came out to work to earn money, and he did all those dirty jobs. And only a very small portion of the money he earned from his part-time job was spent on himself, and almost all of the rest was donated to the orphanage to help those younger brothers and sisters there."

Song Wanting nodded gently and couldn't help but say with emotion, "To be honest, I really admire Grandmaster Ye very much, with a background like his, he can still suffer so much in silence"

As soon as Song Wanting's words left her mouth. Then she immediately regretted it.

She could tell that Xiao Churan did not know Ye Chen's true identity at all, so she was afraid that the sentiment she had just said would make Xiao Churan discover the end.

But Xiao Churan didn't even think in that direction.

She thought that Song Wanting had spoken out of turn. She hurriedly said, "In fact, the reason why Ye Chen has suffered so much is that he came from such a poor background and lost his parents at a very early age, if he could have had a complete family like ordinary people, then he would probably have a better life today."

Chapter 3140

Realising that Xiao Churan had not noticed her mistake, Song Wanting hurriedly nodded and agreed, "You're right, Mrs. Ye, I was the one who said it wrong."

After saying that, she hurriedly picked up the documents. She handed them to Xiao Churan and said with a smile, "Mrs. Ye, you can go back and take a good look at these three projects, these are the first projects we are going to start right now, if there are no problems on your side, we can sign the cooperation agreement first."

Xiao Churan nodded and said, "Yes, Miss Song. I'll take these materials back and read through them carefully today, then think of a feasible plan and we'll communicate in detail when the time comes!"

"No problem!" Song Wanting took out a card of her own. Handing it to Xiao Churan, she said, "Mrs. Ye, this has my contact information, so you can contact me anytime if it's convenient."

"Good!" Xiao Churan was busy standing up. She said, "In that case, then I will not disturb Miss Song's work, we will contact each other by phone if there are any problems."

"OK!" Song Wanting took the initiative to extend a hand to Xiao Churan and said, "Happy cooperation!"

Xiao Churan nodded: "Happy cooperation!"

Song Wanting also stood up and smiled, "Let's go, I'll walk you out."

After sending Xiao Churan out of her office and bidding her farewell, Song Wanting immediately returned to her office, took out her mobile phone and made a call to Ito Nana-chan.

At this moment, Ito Nana-chan was waiting for Song Wanting's feedback at the Song family villa, as she knew that Song Wanting was going to meet with Xiao Churan this morning. So she was also expecting Song Wanting to be able to extract some useful and crucial information from Xiao Churan's mouth.

Therefore, as soon as the call came through, she immediately picked up and asked, "How is sister Wanting?"

Song Wanting got straight to the point and said, "Cai Cai Zi, I suspect that Master Ye is, in all probability, the young master of the Ye family in Yanjing!"

With that, Song Wanting then repeated the conversation she had just had with Xiao Churan. Repeated it to Ito Nana-chan.

"The Yanjing Ye family?!"

After hearing what she had said, Ito Nanaeko's entire person was struck by lightning.

Some time ago, both the Su family and the Ye family had approached the Ito family one after another, hoping to start an ocean shipping cooperation with the Ito family, so Ito Nanaeko knew both the Ye family and the Su family relatively well.

She knew that the Ye family's strength had almost reached the tip of the pyramid in China, and that the Su family used to be slightly stronger than the Ye family, but now the Su family had divested the entire ocean shipping group to Su Zhiyu, so the overall strength of the Su family at present was probably on a par with the Ye family, and might even have been vaguely surpassed by the Ye family.

If Ye Chen was the young master of the Ye family, that would mean that Ye Chen was actually a direct blood relative of one of the top families in China. This was a far cry from his original background as an orphan.

For a moment, in her heart, Ito Nanaeko also felt a strong inferiority complex.

Originally, she, like Song Wanting, had that little feeling of superiority from her family background deep down.

She always felt that she might not be able to compare with Ye Chen in many aspects, but at least, she was still a grand girl from a big family.

But now it seems that. Not only was Ye Chen no worse than herself in this respect, but on the contrary, he was also a young master from an even bigger family.

In one fell swoop, he had crushed and overtaken his only advantage.

For a while. The two girls were silent over the phone.

After a long time, it was Ito Nana-chan who was the first to break the silence and spoke, "Sister Wanting, I had previously investigated the Su Family and the Ye Family when they wanted to cooperate with our family. After briefly investigating some of the circumstances of these two families, it seems that among the middle-aged sons of the Ye family in this generation, there is indeed one person who was lost to the world a long time ago. If Ye Chenjun is really the young master of the Ye family, it is highly likely that he is the son of this person!"
