

Ye Chen 3751

Chapter 3751

So, she immediately followed President Bae's words and said with a smile, "There is no need to rush, you and Vice President Xiao are still focusing on the cultural exchange that you two are organising recently, as for the art exhibition, it can totally wait until you two come back from Korea, because I am going to stay in Jinling for a long time when I return to China this time."

"Oh? Is that so?" President Bae said with surprise, "That's really great! After all, an art exhibition with a budget of fifty million dollars can be considered first-class in China in terms of scale, and an art exhibition of this magnitude definitely requires more time and effort to prepare if it is to be a success."

"Yes!" Fei Ke Xin nodded and smiled, "I'm not going to lie to you, President Pei, my grandfather actually wants to be able to return to his roots in the future, so I'm coming to Jinling this time to make a front stop for him, to get acquainted with the situation here in Jinling first, and then settle his residence, so that he can move back to Jinling with no worries."

President Pei asked curiously, "What does Miss Zhan mean by this, that she is going to settle down in Jinling?"

Fei Ke Xin nodded along and said, "That's right, I just bought a villa in the past two days, but I haven't had time to plan it yet, so I may have to find a more reliable feng shui master to help me look at it first, and there's nothing wrong with the feng shui, will there be any clashes with the old man."

As soon as Xiao Changkun heard this, his eyes lit up and almost without hesitation he blurted out in excitement, "Aiya Miss Zhan, you are looking for a feng shui master, then you have really found the right person today!"

Fei Ke Xin had talked to Chairman Pei for such a long time, just to bring Xiao Changkun into the picture and wait for him to say these words!

So, she suppressed her excitement and asked in mock surprise, "Vice President Xiao, do you still know feng shui?"

Xiao Changkun laughed and waved his hand, "I don't know anything about it, but my son-in-law knows a lot about it! He is a master who specialises in reading feng shui for people, and has very many clients in Jinling and even all over the country, and all of them are big and wealthy clients like you, Miss Zhan!"

"Is that so?" Fei Ke Xin said with a surprised look on her face, "If that's the case, that's quite a coincidence!"

Chairman Pei on the other side also couldn't help but agree, "Miss Zhan, Chang Kun is right, that son-in-law of his is indeed a Feng Shui master, just like the Heavenly Fragrance House Master Hong Wu, whom I just mentioned, respects his son-in-law and is very attentive to Master Ye. Fifth Master so convinced."

Fei Ke Xin was so excited that at this moment she could conclude that Xiao Chang Kun's son-in-law, Ye Chen, was the same Master Ye, and was the big man behind the healing of Xiao Chang Kun's paraplegia!

In that case, it would make sense that Ye Chen had the Spring Return Pill!

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said, "Vice President Xiao, then please speak to your son-in-law for me and ask him to try to take time out of his busy schedule to help me look at the feng shui of that villa!"

Xiao Changkun had always been good at saving face, so he was naturally very quick to take on the job and said, "Don't worry, Miss Zhan, my son-in-law has great respect for me, I'll tell him when I get back, he'll definitely agree!"

As he said that, Xiao Changkun's mind moved and he hurriedly asked, "Right, Miss Zhan, the villa you bought, is it new or second-hand? Is it finely decorated or rough?"

Fei Ke Xin had given the matter to Chen Ying Shan, so she did not know what kind of villa she was buying.

Chen Yinshan said, "Vice President Xiao, the villa our lady bought is a second-hand detached villa in the suburbs, and the interior is decorated, but the decoration is a bit old, so you are asking if there are any feng shui precautions?"

Xiao Changkun heatedly laughed: "Not feng shui has any precautions, mainly because my daughter has set up a design studio, mainly to do interior design, I want to say that if Miss Zhan needs to decorate this villa, you can find my daughter, she is very professional!"

Fei Ke Xin brightened up and said happily, "That's great! I happen to want to tear down and redo all the interior decoration, so I won't have to work hard to go out and search again!"

Chapter 3752

Xiao Changkun was oblivious to the fact that he had just inadvertently sold his daughter and son-in-law out.

On the contrary, he felt that he had done himself a great service today by getting his daughter and son-in-law a business deal each.

After all, how could he have known that the so-called 'Zhan Feier' in front of him was really Fei Kexin, the eldest daughter of a multi-billion dollar family?

Moreover, he knew even less that Zhan Fei'er had rushed to Jinling before the Spring Return Pill auction just to find Ye Chen.

As the meal proceeded, Fei Ke Xin was in a great mood.

During the subsequent meal, she did not mention feng shui or decoration again, and everything she talked about was closely related to the art exhibition, as if feng shui and decoration had really just been a random topic of conversation.

When the meal was over, it was Xiao Changkun who couldn't help himself and asked Fei Kexin: "Miss Zhan, are you sure you need the feng shui and decoration you mentioned earlier? If I'm sure, I'll talk to my daughter and son-in-law when I get home."

"Sure!" Fei Ke Xin nodded with a smile and said seriously, "How about this Mr. Xiao, you can first make an appointment for me with your son-in-law, so that he can have time to help me look at the feng shui, if the feng shui of this house is fine, I will then talk to your daughter about the subsequent decoration needs, if this house has more feng shui problems, then I will simply change the house, it is only a matter of tens of millions of dollars anyway.”

Fei Kexin did not deliberately show off, deliberately Versailles, buy a set of tens of millions, thousands of square feet of single-family house in Jinling, in the eyes of the local people in Jinling, almost to the head, but for Fei Kexin, as casual as ordinary people to the tourist attractions, casually buy a souvenir.

Moreover, Fei Ke Xin did not want to meet Ye Chen with his wife beside him, so he might as well line up the couple first, and if he could not break through to Ye Chen from the front, then he could flank him from his wife.

Xiao Changkun also felt that there was nothing wrong with what Fei Kexin said, that it was logical to look at the feng shui first and then decorate after the feng shui was in order, and that this logic was reasonable, justified and convincing.

So, he said with a smile, “Fine, fine, I’ll tell my son-in-law about it later and ask him to take a look at it for you!”

Fei Ke Xin nodded hastily, handed Xiao Chang Kun a business card and said with a smile, “Vice President Xiao, this is my business card, if your son-in-law is okay with it, please ask him to contact me as well.”

Xiao Changkun said with a smile, “No problem, I’ll talk to him when I get home!”

Back home, Xiao Changkun was in a good mood, parked his car and whistled all the way into the house.

Ye Chen, Xiao Churan and Ma Lan had just had dinner, and when Ma Lan saw Xiao Changkun enter the house, she immediately beckoned to him, “Xiao Changkun, come and put away the dining table!”

Xiao Changkun was stunned and said with a black face, “Why should I clean up the dinner you three ate? Why don’t you clean up?”

Ma Lan glared at him and said angrily, “You were out late and didn’t come back, isn’t it right to let you do some housework?”

With that, Ma Lan muttered with a dissatisfied face, “You’re out all day long, hanging out with that bullsh*t a*sociation, and you haven’t seen you come home with a few million dollars, what’s the point, you’re still a loser? What’s the point of being a loser? Besides, if outsiders don’t know about your level, how can I not? The old idiom of “a person who is incompetent” is a true reflection of you, how dare you represent Jinling and go to Korea for exchange? You’ll be lucky if you don’t disgrace Jinling!”

Ma Lan had been in a somewhat low mood recently.

The main reason for her low mood was that Xiao Changkun had told her last time about going to Korea for cultural exchange, which made Ma Lan somewhat jealous in her heart, and also somewhat inferior.

After all, for so many years, she had always been the one to criticise Xiao Changkun. After all, for so many years, Xiao Changkun had not been able to do anything and had been ostracised in the Xiao family, so whenever Ma Lan criticised him, she was always the one to do so.

It was also because of Xiao Changkun's lack of success that gave Ma Lan the strength to keep criticising him and mocking him.

But how could Ma Lan have ever imagined that Xiao Changkun, who had spent most of his life doing nothing, would suddenly have a new lease of life in his old age?

Chapter 3753

Although Ma Lan mocked him as the vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, he knew very well how much weight this vice president carried.

The top management of this kind of cultural Association had a very special cultural aura, and the city leaders had to give a few faces.

However, Ma Lan had been strong and dominant in front of Xiao Changkun all his life, so he could not let Xiao Changkun overshadow him at this time, so he deliberately mocked him.

Xiao Changkun was originally offended by Ma Lan's mockery and was about to retort, but when he heard her say that he was not up to par and that he had been abused, it immediately poked at his deepest humility and sensitivity.

Today, in front of He Yuanjiang, Xiao Changkun felt just like this.

He also clearly realised that he really did not have any real skills, and had managed to become the executive vice-president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association, but in the end, he was still a waterboy.

However, being so sarcastic by Ma Lan, it still deeply stung his self-esteem, and he immediately retorted, "Do you think I am a vice-president who eats rice? In this position, not only can I broaden my horizons, I can also enhance my network!"

He added, "By the way, I met an overseas Chinese today, and he's a very wealthy man! His family donated tens of millions of dollars worth of paintings and calligraphy to our painting and calligraphy Association, and they are willing to sponsor us with 50 million dollars to open a local art exhibition in Jinling! If we make such connections, we might be able to use them in the future!"

Ma Lan said, "What are you bragging about, according to you, they donated 100 million to your painting and calligraphy society alone? I don't believe anyone would have nothing better to do than to donate money to your calligraphy and painting society!"

Xiao Changkun blurted out, "What the hell do you know! There are a lot of rich people in this world, many rich people donate and sponsor everywhere, what's a little donation in the cultural field?"

With that, Xiao Changkun looked like he was taking credit and said, "By the way, it was because I met this overseas Chinese that I got Ye Chen and Churan a business deal each! If I hadn't joined the Painting and Calligraphy Association, would I have had such an opportunity?"

Ma Lan frowned and asked, "Get business for Ye Chen and Churan? What kind of business?"

Ye Chen also looked surprised, "Yes dad, I don't do business either."

Xiao Changkun was busy saying to Ye Chen, "Good son-in-law, haven't you been reading feng shui for people? The Chinese I met today has just bought a villa in Jinling, and when we were chatting over dinner, she happened to mention that she wanted to ask a feng shui master to take a look at it, and when I heard this, I had to help our own family members, after all, the water should not flow into the field of outsiders, so I recommended you to her."

Xiao Changkun said, "When you usually give feng shui readings to rich people, how often do you not get a million or two? This time, this overseas Chinese seems to have a lot of money, so if you ask her for two or three million dollars, she will definitely agree without hesitation."

When Ma Lan heard this, she was immediately overjoyed and said to Ye Chen, "Good son-in-law, this is a good deal, you don't even have to go overseas, just take a walk around our Jinling, you can earn a few million!"

Ye Chen laughed sarcastically, not knowing how to respond for a while.

Although he had always told his family that he was going out to read feng shui for clients, he had never actually taken any similar orders at all, they were all excuses for going out of town on business.

Originally, he thought that his excuse was reasonable and seamless, but to his surprise, his old husband, Xiao Changkun, had introduced himself to a client.

He didn't care about the few million, but the point was that he couldn't seem to refuse, otherwise it would be obviously a bit unjustifiable to use the excuse of reading feng shui for people in the future.

So he had no choice but to nod and said, "Okay dad, you can give me her contact information, I'll contact her tomorrow."

Xiao Changkun handed over a business card and said, "Here, this is this Miss Zhan, you can give her a call tomorrow and mention my name and he will know."

Chapter 3754

Ye Chen got the business card and casually glanced at it and found that it only had a name and a string of numbers on it.

The name was Zhan Feier, and the phone number was a domestic phone number starting with 159.

Moreover, the business card smelled faintly of ink, as if it had just been printed.

Ye Chen didn't think much of it, so he took out his mobile phone and took a picture of the business card, then returned it to Xiao Changkun.

He planned to contact this Zhan Feier tomorrow and give her a feng shui reading so that he could get rid of this matter.

The next day, after Ye Chen had breakfast, Xiao Changkun reminded Ye Chen, "Ye Chen, don't forget to give Miss Zhan a call."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I'll contact Miss Zhan after I drop Churan off at the office later."

Xiao Changkun was busy saying, "You don't need to send Churan, I will drive Churan to the company later, just as I also need to go to the association early, let Churan leave the car with you, in case Miss Zhan is in a hurry, you can drive there directly."

Xiao Churan also nodded and said, "Honey, this Miss Zhan has invested so much money in Dad's painting and calligraphy association, so she is also a valuable person to the association, so please take care of this."

She said, "If the workload is not too heavy, don't take money from her."

When Ma Lan heard this, she blurted out, "Chu Ran, what are you talking about?"

After saying that, she hurriedly said to Ye Chen, "Good son-in-law, don't listen to Churan, you must accept the money that you should receive, we don't do that silly thing that we don't even want the money for the sake of face!"

Ye Chen looked at Xiao Churan and said with a smile, "Don't worry about it, wife, I know it in my heart."

Ma Lan said, "Good son-in-law, you can't be foolish! We can't have a problem with anyone but money! And this is not a small amount, it can easily amount to millions!"

Ye Chen laughed, "Okay mum, I know, don't worry."

Saying that, Ye Chen quietly gave Xiao Churan a reassuring look.

It was only a couple of million, and Ye Chen really didn't care about it, so it wouldn't hurt to send a favor along with the water.

After eating, Xiao Churan planned to leave in Xiao Changkun's car. Remembering the amulets he had made earlier, Ye Chen took out two of them and handed them to father and daughter, saying, "Dad, Churan, these are amulets that can keep you safe in and out of the city, so you two should take one with you."

Xiao Changkun asked curiously, "Amulets? Where did it come from? Why does it look like it's made of seashells to me?"

Ye Chen laughed, "It's just made of shellfish, it doesn't really have any effect, it's just for good luck."

Xiao Churan took the small and delicate amulet and said in awe, "This luster is so beautiful! I'm afraid ordinary shells don't have such a good texture!"

Ye Chen laughed, "Who knows, it might be some kind of uncommon shell."

Saying that, he hurriedly said, "You guys often drive out, so carrying it with you is kind of a good idea to be prepared."

Xiao Churan nodded and smiled, "I'll put it on a string and hang it on my phone! It can also be an ornament!"

"Good." Ye Chen laughed, "I should have known that I would have threaded the cord for you guys first."

Behind him, Ma Lan said with some dissatisfaction, "Good son-in-law, why don't you give one of these amulets to mum!"

Ye Chen laughed, "Mom, this is to keep you safe in and out of the house, you don't go out these days, it's a burden to carry around, I think it's better to get you two gold bricks later, it can also be used as a dumbbell for fitness."

Ma Lan herself had no interest in amulets, but when she found out that Xiao Changkun and Xiao Churan both had them and she did not, she was a bit unbalanced, plus she was afraid that she would be treated differently by Ye Chen, so she complained.

Chapter 3755

As soon as she heard Ye Chen say that he was willing to give herself two more gold bricks, the original imbalance in her heart immediately dissipated.

Moreover, she even felt that amulets like that must have come wholesale from the small commodity market, and would only cost a few dollars or so, which could not compare to the value of two gold bricks.

Now she had made a fortune!

So she clapped her hands happily and said, "Oh, that's great! I'm not going to go out for a while as my legs are not yet well, and it would be a waste to give me an amulet of safety. Thank you, my good son-in-law!"

Xiao Churan, seeing her mother's money-obsessed look, shook her head helplessly and carefully put away the amulet given by Ye Chen, before she said softly to Ye Chen, "Honey, then Dad and I will leave first."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and said to Xiao Changkun, "Dad, remember to keep the amulet with you, don't lose it."

Xiao Changkun also put the amulet in his pocket and nodded, "Hey, don't worry, you can't lose it!"

As father and daughter drove away, Ye Chen stood in the courtyard and made a call directly to Zhan Feier, also known as Fei Kexin.

Fei Ke Xin had been waiting for his call since last night and hadn't even slept much all night.

She had asked her assistant Chen Yinshan to get a new mobile phone number and had also bought a new phone to hold the card. Since it was a new number, no one knew about it, so as soon as she heard the phone ring, she immediately became excited.

Holding back her excitement, Fei Ke Xin deliberately waited for the phone to ring twice before picking it up and asking very politely, "Hello."

Ye Chen opened his mouth and asked, "Hello, is this Miss Zhan Feier?"

Hearing Ye Chen's voice, Fei Ke Xin immediately concluded that it was the same voice she had heard when she had first met Ye Chen at Buckingham Palace.

She immediately knew Ye Chen's identity, but still pretended to be calm and asked, "May I ask who you are?"

Ye Chen then said, "Hello, my name is Ye Chen, and Xiao Changkun is my father-in-law."

Fei Ke Xin said with a sudden realization, "You are the master who reads feng shui, as Vice President Xiao said, right?"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, "I'm not a master, I just know a little bit about it, I don't know what specific needs does Miss Zhan have for feng shui?"

Fei Ke Xin then said, "I just bought a second-hand villa in Jinling, and I haven't started redecorating it yet, so I want to ask Mr Ye to help me see how the feng shui of this villa is."

Ye Chen smiled, "If it's to look at the feng shui of the house foundation, most people look at the feng shui first before buying a house, Miss Zhan's house has already been bought, if there are any problems with the feng shui of the house foundation, then it might be more troublesome to change it."

Fei Ke Xin smiled, "It doesn't matter, if the feng shui of this house doesn't work, then let's put it aside for the time being, when the time comes, I will have to ask Mr. Ye to help me choose another house with better feng shui."

Ye Chen saw that the other party was indeed rich and generous, so he didn't say anything more and asked her, "Where is Miss Zhan's villa located? If you see what time is convenient, I will go over and show you."

Fei Ke Xin was busy saying, "The villa is in Water Cloud Villa, I don't know if Mr. Ye has an impression of it, as for the time, I can go anytime, and it's no problem now."

Ye Chen thought, he didn't have anything to do in the morning, so he might as well just get this done, so he said, "I know the Water Cloud Villa, why don't I drive there now?"

"Good!" Fei Ke Xin hurriedly said, "Then I am also heading there now, let's meet at the entrance of the Water Cloud Villa later!"

"No problem, see you later." When Ye Chen finished speaking, he hung up the phone, turned around and returned to the villa, took the keys and drove Xiao Churan's BMW out of Townsend One.

The Water Cloud Villa was on the edge of the Jinling Reservoir in the suburbs, a few dozen kilometres away from the city, slightly remote. Ye Chen had been to the Water Cloud Villa twice before, as Qin Gang's family's villa was in this neighborhood, so he was familiar with it, and drove directly out of the city, and headed in the direction of the Water Cloud Villa.

Chapter 3756

When Ye Chen arrived at Shui Yun Villa, Fei Ke Xin had not yet arrived.

Ye Chen gave her a call and heard her say that she still had ten minutes to drive, so he simply waited at the entrance of the community.

Originally, he wanted to say hello to Qin Gang at his home, but thinking that there was not that much time left, he decided not to bother.

Ten minutes later, a low-profile Cadillac sedan drove up to Ye Chen's side.

As soon as the car stopped, the rear door opened and a young woman, who was only in her early twenties, stepped out of the car.

The first time he saw Fei Ke Xin, Ye Chen felt a little stunned because this woman not only had a delicate appearance, a tall and sexy figure, but also had a valiant demeanour in the whole person's aura.

Fei Ke Xin looked at Ye Chen, who was standing at the front of the car, and knew at a glance that this was the same Master Ye she had met at Buckingham Palace a few days ago. At this moment, her heart was completely at ease as she walked up to Ye Chen and said with a smile, "You must be Mr Ye, right?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said blandly, "Miss Zhan, isn't it? I'm Ye Chen."

Fei Ke Xin took the initiative to extend her hand to Ye Chen and said graciously, "Hello Mr Ye, I'm Zhan Feier."

Ye Chen nodded and shook her hand gently before getting straight to the point and said, "Miss Zhan, let's take a look at your villa now."

"Good!" Fei Ke Xin said with a smile, "Mr. Ye please."

At this moment, a man and a woman came down from the front row of the Cadillac, the man was Fei Ke Xin's bodyguard and the woman was Fei Ke Xin's assistant Chen Ying Shan.

Chen Ying Shan spoke up at this moment, "Miss, let's accompany you inside."

Fei Kexin waved her hand and said, "No, you two just wait for me in the car, I will go in with Mr. Ye."

The bodyguard said with a straight face, "Miss, the master has instructed me to keep you safe outside at all times, I will go in with you so that I will not affect you and Mr. Ye."

Ye Chen glanced at the bodyguard, and with just one glance, he noticed that the bodyguard was actually a martial artist as well, and his strength was considerable, having already reached the strength of a six-star martial artist.

This caused Ye Chen to be a little surprised and he thought to himself, "This Zhan Fei'er has a six-star martial artist as her bodyguard when she goes out, this is already at the level of the Four Battle Kings of the Dragon Palace. strength, must be extraordinary!"

Fei Ke Xin did not know that Ye Chen had seen through her bodyguard's strength in just one glance. The reason she did not want her bodyguard to follow her was that she thought there would be no danger here, and secondly, she thought that she was using another identity to contact Ye Chen after all, so she naturally had to be extremely careful in this situation so as not to reveal her footprints, so she should try not to bring others along.

So she said in a tone of voice that left no doubt: "The security in Jinling is very good, and it's broad daylight and in such a high-end community, there will definitely not be any danger, so you two don't need to say much, just wait for me in the car."

After saying that, she didn't wait for the two to respond and said directly to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, let's go!"

"Good." Ye Chen nodded, and then entered the gates of Water Cloud Villa with Fei Ke Xin.

And Fei Ke Xin's bodyguards and assistants, as expected, did not follow him anymore.

Once inside the Water Cloud Villa, Fei Ke Xin took Ye Chen straight to the lake.

The biggest selling point of the Water Cloud Villa was that it was located halfway up the mountain and on the shore of the Jinling Reservoir.

The environment and scenery of this place is excellent, and staying here is definitely a paradisiacal experience.

However, the only regret is that it is far away from the city, so if you really go in and out of the city during the rush hour, the traffic will be inconvenient.

If he had come here in the evening after work, the journey would have taken more than twice as long.

In this Water Cloud Villa, the most expensive buildings are the villas next to the reservoir, there are only five of them, two of which were bought by Qin Gang, and at great cost, they were added and converted into a set.

Chapter 3757

Seeing that the two of them were getting closer and closer to the reservoir, Ye Chen said with a smile, "The one Miss Zhan bought should be a waterfront mansion, right?"

"Right." Fei Ke Xin nodded and smiled, saying, "It is said that the best houses here are these ones facing the water, and I don't know if there are any precautions in terms of feng shui."

In fact, after Chen Ying Shan bought a house here, she didn't know the exact location at all, and she wasn't very concerned when Chen Ying Shan reported to her.

However, after finally making an appointment with Ye Chen yesterday, she had Chen Yingshan bring her over last night to familiarize herself with the interior of Water Cloud Villa and the location of her own set of villas.

At this moment, Ye Chen smiled blandly and said, "In feng shui, mountains are a symbol of power and influence, while water is a symbol of wealth and fortune, depending on the mountains and water, in feng shui it is important to have water in the front and mountains in the back, in this way, it means that there is fortune in the front and a mountain in the back, so it is naturally the best choice."

He said, "Moreover, the layout of the Water Cloud Villa is very good, the waterfront mansion is in front of the water bank, which is just low in the front and high in the back, and it is sitting in the north and facing south, with sufficient light, so it is definitely a feng shui treasure."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen couldn't help but smile, "If I had known that Miss Zhan was buying a waterfront mansion here, then I wouldn't have had to come here at all, there would definitely not be any problems with the feng shui."

Fei Ke Xin said with a smile, "No, Mr. Ye, you are a feng shui master, you must have a lot of unique insights into feng shui, I hope you can help me take a closer look to see if there is any room for further improvement in the internal and external structure and decoration of my house."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "That would indeed require a specific look inside."

As she spoke, Fei Ke Xin led Ye Chen to the door of a familiar mansion, the very same mansion that belonged to Qin Gang's family.

Before Ye Chen could ask her, she took out a magnetic card and swiped it at the access control outside the gate, and the gate automatically opened inwards from both sides.

Ye Chen couldn't help but stare and asked her, "Miss Zhan, did you buy this mansion?"

"Yes." Fei Ke Xin nodded and asked curiously, "Mr Ye is familiar with this mansion?"

Ye Chen was surprised in his heart, wondering why Qin Gang had even sold this mansion; he had not heard any rumours about this matter himself.

However, when he thought about it, Qin Gang was his friend and not his subordinate, so he couldn't have sold the villa and said hello to himself.

So, he said to Fei Ke Xin without showing his face, "I've heard about this mansion before, it's said to be a conversion of two single villas, and it can be seen outside that the area and floor space of this villa is much larger than other villas."

"Right." Fei Ke Xin laughed, "I heard from the original owner that it was indeed two sets of mansions converted, I heard that it was bought early in the past, and there was not much control over the villa conversion and addition at that time, but not now."

Ye Chen nodded with a smile and spoke, "Now the management department is very strict on the management of illegal additions and alterations, and technology is developing faster and faster, the means of survey is also particularly large, the villa area in Jinling now, will often engage in aerial photography mapping, there are illegal additions and alterations, aerial photography can be compared at once, once discovered, will be directly required to rectify, but these very long ago changed The fact is that it has long since become an established fact, so there will be no more requests for rectification."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen lamented, "This villa of Miss Zhan's is already considered an orphan, there are very few of them now, and it will be very difficult to find any more in the future."

Fei Ke Xin nodded and said, "The house as a whole is all right, but the two things that give me the most headaches are that it is too far away and too old, it is said that this villa is more than 20 years old, and although the original owner had renovated it a few years ago, it is still a bit dated, so if it were to be completely renovated, the amount of work would still be huge."

Saying that, Fei Ke Xin thought of something and asked curiously, “Mr Ye, I heard from Vice President Xiao that your lover is in the decoration business? I wonder if she is interested in taking over the renovation of this villa of mine?”

Chapter 3758

Ye Chen did not feel anything wrong when Fei Ke Xin mentioned his wife Xiao Churan.

After all, that old husband of his had told people all about the situation last night.

However, seeing that Fei Kexin had such a large mansion to renovate, Ye Chen immediately said to her, “My wife has a lot of projects on her hands recently, so I guess she is already running at full capacity, and if you redecorate the whole place, the workload will be too big, so I guess she won’t be able to take it on even if she wants to, so Miss Zhan can take a look at other renovation companies when the time comes.”

Fei Ke Xin gently nodded and smiled, “If you have the chance, I’ll go to your lover’s company to take a look, if she can take it then it’s best, it doesn’t matter if she can’t.”

Said Fei Ke Xin, fearing that Ye Chen’s heart would be disgusted, added: “Vice President Xiao even greeted me yesterday, if I directly approached someone else about this matter, I’m afraid that Vice President Xiao would have a weakness for me in his heart later.”

With one sentence, Fei Ke Xin put the blame on Xiao Changkun, and did so in a very natural and reasonable manner.

After all, it was Xiao Changkun who took the initiative to recommend Xiao Churan’s decoration company to Fei Ke Xin yesterday, so it was perfectly reasonable for Fei Ke Xin to meet with Xiao Churan for the sake of Xiao Changkun’s face and give priority to Xiao Churan for this project.

Hearing this, Ye Chen was somewhat worried in his heart.

What he was worried about was his wife Xiao Churan’s energy.

He knew that Xiao Churan could not be idle, which was why he suggested that Xiao Churan start her own business, but he did not expect that after she started her business, she would become a workaholic and work almost all year round.

It was because he saw that Xiao Churan was too busy working that Ye Chen did not want her to continue to take on new projects.

However, as Fei Ke Xin said, Fei Ke Xin also had to give face to Xiao Chang Kun, so she still had to go and have a chat with Xiao Churan.

Ye Chen also knew in his heart that if Xiao Churan really wanted to take on this project then, he would not be able to oppose it.

So, he said helplessly, “Miss Zhan, let’s just take a look at the villa first.”

Fei Ke Xin nodded and gladly said, “Okay Mr. Ye, please come in.”

Once inside the villa, Ye Chen found that most of the Qin family's furniture was still here, only that the more personal items had all completely disappeared.

While leading Ye Chen inside, Fei Ke Xin introduced to Ye Chen, "All these furniture and appliances were basically left behind by the previous original owner, but I plan to give them directly to the recycling company, so that they can empty them all out and then remove all the original decoration and renovate them."

In fact, Fei Ke Xin did not care about this villa.

The reason why she bought this villa was because she guessed that Ye Chen might be a feng shui master, so she bought the villa first, leaving a front to facilitate her approach to Ye Chen.

So she originally had no intention of renovating it or even living in it.

However, after knowing that Ye Chen's wife Xiao Churan had opened a decoration company, she moved to decorate it, but not to live in it, but to take the opportunity to get to know Xiao Churan.

After hearing this, Ye Chen said seriously, "Since Miss Zhan intends to redecorate it all, then actually the feng shui of the interior is not that important now, the overall feng shui of the house is not a problem, as for the future feng shui of the interior, you need to make specific adjustments according to the specific arrangements on the design plan after your side has finalized the design plan. "

Chapter 3759

Speaking of this, Ye Chen added: "However, since Miss Zhan is hoping that the elderly can live here to be healthy and get rid of diseases and disasters, then I can give you some directions and suggestions."

Fei Ke Xin was busy saying, "Mr. Ye, please speak."

Ye Chen said seriously, "The best room for the elderly is to choose a room in a house in the Yannian position, and arrange it on the ground floor as far as possible, so that it is more grounded in qi. If the room is too big, it will deplete the energy of the occupants, and the room must be decorated with less natural stone."

Fei Ke Xin asked in confusion, "Mr Ye, I can probably understand everything else, but why do we need to use less stone?"

Ye Chen explained, "In terms of feng shui, the word for stone is harmonious with the word for wealth, so it is naturally good for feng shui, but stone is cold and yin, so it is not suitable for the bedroom and will affect the body."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "The old ancestors' scientific means were limited after all, they could deduce that stone had an effect on the body through feng shui as well as the eight trigrams of the I Ching, but they could not make a scientific explanation."

"But I read a report some time ago that all natural stone is radioactive, and the radioactivity of stone produces a radioactive substance called radon gas, which is colourless and tasteless, and has been confirmed by the World Health Organization to be very carcinogenic to the human body, and is one of the main culprits in causing lung cancer, second only to cigarettes, and with more stone in the room, facing and The room is full of stone, living with people, it is like releasing chronic poison over the years, the impact on the human body is great, except that most people do not know anything about it, even if they really get lung cancer, they can not think of getting lung cancer is probably because of the natural stone at home.”

Speaking of this, Ye Chen could not help but sigh: “So from here we can see that our old ancestors were indeed still very wise, although they did not have scientific theories, and advanced technology, but they were able to understand a way of understanding everything in the universe through their remarkable ability, they were able to deduce the effects of natural stone on the body hundreds and thousands of years ago, after hundreds thousands of years later, scientists detected the culprit, and at the same time confirmed that our old ancestors were extremely ahead of their time in this matter.”

Fei Ke Xin also could not help but exclaim: “I usually focus on economics and management, I do not know much about science and technology, this is the first time I have heard about radon qi, but from what Mr. Ye said, the old ancestors did have extraordinary wisdom, which further proves that feng shui divination is indeed not nonsense.”

Ye Chen smiled and said, “Miss Zhan is so young, it is only logical that she should not care about feng shui.”

Fei Ke Xin shook her head very seriously and said, “I have actually always been very much in awe of feng shui divination as well as I Ching and Bagua, although I don’t know much about it, I really believe in it, and this might also be related to the fact that I was influenced by my grandfather since I was young.”

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, “These years, there are fewer and fewer young people in the country who believe in feng shui.”

Speaking here, Ye Chen added: “Miss Zhan, that’s basically all that can be seen at the moment, the exterior of this mansion has excellent feng shui, and with a little attention to the interior, it will definitely run smoothly.”

Fei Ke Xin nodded slightly and asked Ye Chen, “Mr. Ye, how do you charge for feng shui reading? Should I give you a cheque or is a direct transfer appropriate?”

Ye Chen waved his hand and said indifferently, “It’s not very troublesome, so Miss Zhan doesn’t need to be so polite, besides, my father-in-law’s painting and calligraphy association has also received a lot of help from Miss Zhan, so consider it a courtesy!”

Chapter 3760

Fei Ke Xin knew better than anyone that Ye Chen could not possibly care about the few million commission for reading feng shui.

After all, just one Spring Return Pill could be worth tens of billions, or even tens of billions of dollars, not to mention that there was a high possibility that Ye Chen was the owner behind Jiu Xuan Pharmaceuticals.

If that was the case, Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical’s annual net profit could be at the level of billions or tens of billions of dollars, so how could such a person care about a few million.

Therefore, Fei Ke Xin also quickly guessed why Ye Chen wanted to build up an image of a feng shui master in front of his family, since it wasn't for money, then there must be some other reason.

Most likely, it was to buy time and space for another layer of his identity.

So, she said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, I don't know how to repay you for such a big favour, but the future is long, so I hope we can have more courtesy in the future! If there is anything I need in the future, please don't be polite to me, Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and smiled, "Miss Zhan, since there is nothing more to do here, let's go back."

Fei Ke Xin busily said, "Okay Mr. Ye."

Subsequently, Ye Chen walked out of the Water Cloud Villa with Fei Kexin.

When they reached the entrance of the Water Cloud Villa, Fei Ke Xin asked Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, do you have time at noon? Why don't I treat you to a casual meal?"

Ye Chen smiled and politely declined, "No need, Miss Zhan, I have something to do later, let's eat together some other time."

Hearing this, Fei Ke Xin did not continue to fight for it and said with a smile, "Mr. Ye, I am definitely going to stay in Jinling for a while anyway, so I will invite you and your wife to have dinner together if I have the chance some other time."

Ye Chen smiled politely and nodded, "In that case, then I will leave first."

Fei Ke Xin nodded and said, "Take care, Mr. Ye."

After seeing Ye Chen get into the BMW and drive away, Fei Ke Xin then got into her Cadillac.

Once she was inside, she asked her driver and bodyguard, "Mr. Luo, did you see how strong that Ye Chen was just now?"

The person whom Fei Ke Xin called Mr. Luo was Fei Ke Xin's personal bodyguard, Luo Jiacheng.

Luo Jiacheng was 45 years old this year, but because he was very strong and his physical quality was even far beyond normal people, he looked like a middle-aged man in his thirties.

Luo Jiacheng has been with Fei Kexin for more than three years, and although he is very strong, he has a bit of respect for Fei Kexin, in addition to respect.

In Luo Jiacheng's eyes, Fei Kexin was the most outstanding one in the Fei family's generation, and following her side was an excellent choice for himself.

At this moment, while starting the car, Luo Jiacheng said respectfully, "Back to Miss, I can't tell the strength of that Ye Chen, he is either not a martial artist or his strength is just above mine."

Fei unfortunately said in surprise, "The possibility of being above you is very small, right? After all, he's only in his twenties, I haven't heard of anyone who can become a six-star martial artist at the age of twenty or so."

Luo Jiacheng said seriously, "After a certain level of cultivation, its age cannot be seen from the outside, my master is seventy-eight years old this year, but he looks like he is only forty years old."

Fei Ke Xin shook her head and said, "I've read all of Ye Chen's information, he is indeed only in his twenties."

After a moment's thought, Luo Jiacheng said, "Then it is more likely that he is not a martial artist, otherwise I would be able to see through his cultivation once he enters the gate of a martial artist."

Fei Ke Xin nodded gently and said, "Although this person is not very old, he gives me the impression that he is very mysterious, and it is hard to see through him."

Chen Ying Shan, who was sitting on the passenger side, said, "Miss, I just found something very interesting."

Fei Ke Xin asked curiously, "What is it?"

Chen Yinshan said, "The car Ye Chen is driving, the car length, wheelbase, tire width and headlight configuration, are all top of the line in BMW, I just compared it, this car is last year's top model BMW 760, but the sticker on the back of the car is BMW 520."
