

Young Lady 831

Chapter 831: When the door is three arrows, who shoots

The carriage of the three princesses was indeed walking slowly, walking casually, and stopping from time to time.

But the mutation happened like this, the carriage was walking on a slope, because the driver was not in a hurry to walk, and the coachman was lazy.

I was about to throw another whip flower, and suddenly felt that something was falling on my head, and I looked up to see it, but it was too late, and I was hit by something heavy on my forehead. The whip fell off, and the whip in his hand was thrown out.

"What's the matter?" The third princess' voice came coldly from the carriage.

As soon as the coachman touched his head, it seemed that nothing had happened to him. When he hit it, it seemed that it was just the thing on his head, but it was not the hard thing in imagination.

This settled down, just waiting to get up and talk, suddenly looking at the thing in front of me, jumping with a stunned scream, running on his legs, shouting his throat.

"Three princesses are horse honeycombs, you run away!"

Looking at the soft object in front of him, a large number of wasps flew densely. The coachman felt that the whole person was numb, but also knew to remind the three princesses in the carriage.

"What?" Because the coachman's voice was too frightened and so sharp that the three princesses in the coach didn't hear it clearly, couldn't help but ask again, and then ordered the palace lady on one side to lift the curtain.

At the opening of the curtain, before the three princesses could see what the coachman was doing, they saw a dense crowd of horse bees swooping in, and they screamed subconsciously, and then flung their hands to rush, but how can so many bees swoop? Just a few sips on his face, hands, and body.

There was a scream of pain for a while.

The two palace maids were also frightened, and watched the bee rush into the car with stunned eyes, and they all screamed in pain.

"Princess, get out of the carriage, get out of the carriage!" The coachman outside the carriage calmed down, and yelled outside in a hurry.

The range in the carriage was too small, it was inconvenient to hide, and it could not be avoided at all.

The princess's face had been siped several times, and it would only make her sore face numb. She could hear the coachman outside, but there was nothing else to do. She pushed away the two maids and jumped off. The carriage ran to the side, screaming screamingly.

Helpless, she was unhappy, and there were many horses. It took only a while for many horse bees to jump over.

The sound of screams kept coming and going ...

The screams on their side have long alarmed Wen Tianyao and others hunting in front, and everyone hurriedly turned to look for it.

On the other side, Wei Yuewu suddenly saw an arrow hitting her own carriage as the door opened. Yan Feng, who was driving the carriage, had a good skill. After avoiding it, she jumped off the carriage and turned it over in place. After rolling, I stopped.

When he overturned the carriage, two more arrows stood and shot at the door.

"Master!" The two girls ringing at the scene in front of them shivered.

If Wei Yue Wu was sitting in that horse, those three arrows would definitely cost her life, and the two girls would naturally be unavoidable.

Someone actually wanted the life of the master, and this recognition made the two girls' lips startled.

Almost, it's just a little, it's them and the master who will die in the car.

Wei Yuewu looked at the carriage below coldly, her eyes were cold, and she looked like this pond fish should be a dead pond fish in order to give the planner the best benefit.

Shooting himself is actually killing himself.

If it weren't for Yan Huaihan to take himself away early, he would have lost his life long ago, and his own body would have been weak, no matter where he shot himself, I am afraid he would not survive.

And these three arrows, she looked down from the mountain clearly, clearly pointing at the position of the heart of the carriage, must be to kill a blow, she is just a weak woman in a long time, but want to control It is needless to say that this is the third princess and the fourth princess.

And it looks more like the three princesses. The words before the third princess must have revealed the clues.

It's so vicious ...

There was a flash of suffocation in the eyes! That being the case, let's make this happen ...

When Wen Tianyao and others arrived, there were not many bees, but the three princesses had been suffocated, and the faces of several people could hardly see the original color, one was swollen and red. Even his eyes could not be opened, and his swollen head was about twice as large as others.

Everyone came over, letting a cloth bag enfold the horse honeycomb, and then directly picked the horse honeycomb into the fire, and the smoke billowed for a while.

Another person called the Taiyi over and looked at the injuries of the three princesses. The Taiyi shook his head: "His Royal Highness is a very poisonous wasp. The three princesses may not be easy!"

The three princesses who just woke up heard the words, only called "Wen Caiyu" with a resentment, and then passed out.

"What did the third sister call me?" The fourth princess heard a voice rushing over. When she heard that the third princess was in trouble, she immediately squeezed over, and happened to hear the third princess's sound of hate and blood, and she felt ecstatic. There was a panic on his face.

"Four sisters, where were you just now?" Wen Tianyao looked at the four princesses, his face moaned.

"I just rested not far away in front of me. I heard a screaming sound here. I hurried to see it, but my legs are a bit inconvenient, so I walked slowly!" The four princesses pointed at her legs, When she fell from the horse immediately before, she said that she might hurt her leg, so take a good rest.

In order to avoid suspicion, she also deliberately pointed away, for fear that the prince suspected that she was coming slowly. ,

"The four princesses are actually over there?" A chilling voice came from behind Wen Tianyao. Everyone looked back and saw Yan Huaijuan walking slowly, his beautiful eyes were snowing.

The talents were very messy, but when the four princesses came over, they looked at Yan Huaiyu first, and did not find Yan Huaiyu here. They became more and more happy, indicating that Yan Huaiyu did not put Wen Caidie in their eyes. Cai Die also thought she had won Yan Huai's favor.

I will listen to this, and immediately smile on my face, and nodded, "Yes, Shizi, I used to take a rest with my own person there, and it was really far away from here. Moreover, this situation I have now, also Can't leave! "

After the four princesses spoke, they took a special step, slightly a little bit careless.

"Since the four princesses are over there, they must have seen what happened over there!" Yan Huaiyin's voice was a bit faint and her eyes were cold.

The four princesses didn't feel well, but when it came to this point, they could only bite the bullet and said, "Yes ... there, but I didn't see anything!"

"Did you see anything? There is a * over there, and Wu's carriage is there ..." Yan Huaiyun said slowly, staring closely at the four princesses.

"What happened to the Lord of Jingde County over there?" Wen Tianyao asked sharply. "Assassination!" Escaped from Yan Huaiyun's mouth in the most faint words, but in the past his clear voice showed a gloomy coldness.

The three princes looked up at Yan Huaiyu.

"Who assassinated the Lord of Jingde County?" Wen Tianyao's face changed greatly.

"I don't know! There are three arrows facing the car door, the tip of the arrow is still poisonous, seeing the blood seal the throat!" Yan Huaiyu picked his lips, a smile appeared on his face, but this smile made everyone feeling cold in my heart.

The so-called elegant and high-definition absolutely does not mean that Yan Huaiyu is now, this will make him more like Shura King from hell.

"Isn't the four princess just over there? If you really can see who is there, and that position is exactly where the arrow is coming from, and even better ... the four princess of arrow Don't you feel familiar? "

With a wave of his hand, Yan Huai came over to a guard with three arrows in his hand.

Seeing these three arrows, the four princesses stepped on the air in a shock, and fell to the ground directly.

Those arrows were clearly her arrows.

The four princesses are different from other boudoirs. When there was such a hunting activity in the past, both the prince and several other princes took her. In order to separate her from others, Wen Tianyao also specially took care of her. Created some arrows, these arrows are different from others, especially a few flowers carved on the root, and stained with color.

The four princesses liked their own set of arrows, and they carried them whenever they came out, and tried to find them whenever they shot one.

However, sometimes the arrow could not be found because it was shot too far, so the arrow has actually been lost a bit.

"This ... this is not my arrow, this is definitely not the arrow I shoot ..." The four princesses would shake their heads again and again, the whole person trembling, "This is really not my arrow, it must be, it must be ... Yes"

She was anxious to find someone to come to the bottom. She was seeing the three princesses who were still on the side and screamed: "It must be Wen Cai Die, it must be this * who harmed me, it was she who stole it. My arrow, to shoot Jingde, must be her. She wanted to marry me. No wonder I felt strange when I came here today. It turned out that this * wanted to hurt me! "

These words were originally meant to drag a person to blame. The four princesses would be really panicked. If Weiyuewu was really shot, and the arrow is still his own, even if he is a princess, this time it can never be better.

Recently, my mother and I have repeatedly explained to myself the importance of Yandi.

And said that the father emperor did not want to seal Yandi as the king, but he had to seal it, because the assassination of Yan Huaiyu made Yandi very unhappy, and Yandi Chen Chen bordered for this, so the father had to compromise.

"Three princesses shot?" Yan Huaiyi stared at the four princesses with a strange look, as if to see something from her face, which made the four princesses more nervous, and stretched out her fingers,

"Yes Yes, it must be her. Otherwise, who else would want Jingde's life, and it is so cruel, this clearly does not want to give Jingde a chance to survive ... "

The more said the four princesses felt, the more reasonable it was. If anyone still wanted to die for Yue Yue, there was only Wencai butterfly besides herself!

He knew clearly that the horse honeycomb was his own arrangement, and the assassination was not himself.

Except for herself, it can only be Wencai Butterfly, but this cannot be said so directly. The four princesses can only kill the third princess in one bite.

"Is there something wrong with Jingde?" Wen Tianyao interrupted the explanation of the four princess impatiently, only to feel that her vest was sweating coldly.

Chapter 832: Fainted at the gate of the palace

"Brother Huang, it's really not me! It's really Wencai Butterfly. She came earlier than me, and she can arrange these!" The four princesses were also anxious, loudly.

"Is Jingde okay?" Wen Tianyao ignored her, staring tightly at Yan Huaiyu.

"I happened to let Wuer go to rest on the high slope, but I escaped!" Yan Huaiyu looked at the three princesses on one side, and the four princesses who were still resolving. The eyes seemed to contain extremely ice. Without a hint of warmth.

"I was assassinated before, now I am assassinating Wuer, but I don't know who must have killed me and Wuer so much that he repeatedly assassinated us!"

Wen Tianyao was okay when she heard that Wen Yuwu was relieved, and then she felt the headache in front of her.

The three princes on one side were also relieved, and their eyes also fell on the three princesses on the side, and the facial features of the whole person were swollen. Then look at the four princesses. Explaining this matter is nothing to her, Everything is pushed onto the three princesses.

But whether it is the third princess or the fourth princess, they are the daughters of the father.

Both represent royal decent.

The situation in front of them not only shows that the four princesses are suspicious, but even the third princess who can't move now is really suspicious.

The relationship between Yandi and Yandi was so delicate that it would be related to the relationship between Yandi and Beijing Central, which is really difficult to handle.

"Four sisters, don't talk nonsense, three sisters are still hurting!" The three princes had to come out to round the field.

"I mean it, yes ..." The four princesses thought they didn't believe it, and reached out and pointed out the three princesses loudly.

"Shut up!" Wen Tianyao yelled.

"The emperor ..." The princess's eyes rolled in her eyes. She felt really wrong. She didn't put a horse honeycomb on her own. She wanted to destroy their capacity and let them be bee poisoned for life. Suffering, I really didn't want them to die. This is the three arrows of the gate, which is really not my own.

"You go back first and check if your arrow may have been taken away or where it has fallen in the past. These are recorded. If you want nothing, check it out and report it to the father!" Wen Tian Yao shouted harshly.

The four princesses really did not endure such a slap and face, but they would look at the situation in front of them and know that there is only such an opportunity at present to wash themselves.

Now he stomped his feet hard, "Wow", turned and cried away.

Wen Caidie must be the * of Wen Caidie. She wanted to kill Wei Yuewu and then marry her. Apart from her, the four princesses really couldn't think of anyone else who was so vicious.

"Shizi, I'll find out about this, and I will definitely give Shizi an explanation!" Wen Tianyao gave a low cough and said to Yan Huai.

"Communication? What explanation? Can His Royal Highness guarantee that the murderer will be delivered? When I was stabbed that day, I also said that I would be given an explanation, but now there is no murderer coming out. Does this mean that it is a drag Procrastination, it will be gone in the future!"

Yan Huai's face also eased a little at this moment, but there was still no smile on her face, and there was a faint, deep way in her beautiful eyes.

This is actually very difficult to answer. Wen Tianyao is the prince of the prince. If he agrees now, it must be fulfilled.

"This matter ... is still under investigation, but the murderer was really cunning at the time, so I didn't find it for a while!" At first glance, Wen Tianyao was not able to cope with it.

Although he is also a prince, he must not be a prince. There are some things that the prince is difficult to say.

The entire court and the field knew that the three princes were idle princes, no matter what.

"It was difficult to check at the time, but now? There are just a few people present who should be able to check it right? Besides, the main thing is Wuer, a family lady like Wuer. If someone really wants to hurt her, It must have involved her from me, but I don't know who is so because I can't wait to see her!"

Yan Huaihuan said slowly.

If it is said that someone like Wei Yuewu is so unpleasant, except for the two princesses in the palace, it seems that there is really no one.

Everyone knows that both of them want to marry Yan Huaiyu.

"Seiko, rest assured, I will definitely investigate this matter. No matter who wants to harm Jingde, I will not let it go, even if that person is ... Princess!"

Yan Huaiyu mentioned this, and Wen Tianyao actually felt the same. He nodded and agreed.

It is needless to say that it must be one of the three princesses and the four princesses, or two of them together. As long as I think of my own sister, it is almost because Yan Huaihuan lost his life, and Wen Tianyao's heart is also a while Fear later, a moment of anger.

Both Wen Caidie and Wen Caiyu are too vicious.

Actually, she really started to hurt her younger sister, but at the same time, she became more and more pessimistic about Yan Huaihuan. Yan Huaihuan's side was full of danger.

Since Wen Tianyao mentioned the princess at the end, Yan Huaihuan couldn't help but sell his face, and now he stood aside.

Wen Tianyao ordered people to take the three princesses back to the palace, and then sent someone to inquire about the matter.

After such an inquiry, the most suspicious was actually the three princesses.

The carriage of Wei Yuewu was changed halfway. It was changed by the three princesses, and there was a conspicuous palace flower on the carriage, so the bright palace flower can be separated even a long distance. see.

In the eyes of the archery man, it becomes a good target!

An obvious target of that size is actually quite easy to hit.

But the four princesses were also suspicious. She was resting not far away at the time, but she was not sure of the exact position, but it seemed that they were the pair. At the time, the four princesses were carrying arrows.

I really don't know if the arrow was shot by the four princesses.

At that time, there were only two confidantes of the four princesses. Although the two confidantes repeatedly testified for the four princesses, she did not notice the carriage of the owner of Jingde County at the time, but the words of the two of them were certainly not accurate. of.

Therefore, it is still impossible to prove that the four princesses are innocent.

The arrow belongs to the four princesses. Although this has been done a little bit, it is not impossible to escape. If Weiyuewu really does happen, the four princesses also use eloquence to say that the four princesses will be considered Framed, although this seems to be incompatible with the temperament of the four princesses.

But people in the palace, what is really impossible!

After such a big incident, of course, we can no longer be in Zhuangzi. Everyone got on the bus and got on the horse.

And rushed directly to the palace, a look to make the emperor theory.

This matter is quite troublesome. The third princess is not trying to hide it now, and Yan Huaiyuan has no plans to make the matter private. Lu Yili, Qi Yunhao, and Chu Fangnan have always been with Yan Huaiyu. Although they didn't say anything, their behavior and Yan Huaiyu have been consistent, indicating that the four places are advancing together. .

The carriage stopped at the palace. The first few were off the horse. Yan Huaiyu sorted out her clothes a little and was waiting to walk to the carriage behind.

Suddenly I saw Yuyan leaning out of the car: "Shizi, it's not good, the master passed out!"

"What's the matter?" Yan Huaiyu strode over and asked.

"Maybe I was frightened. I would sit in the car and think about it, the master fainted!" Yu Yan shook her head, saying she didn't know.

"Into the palace, please take a look at the doctor ~" Yan Huaiyu frowned, looked at the palace door behind him, this will go back to the house, I'm afraid it is not enough, and I don't know when to go back.

In front of the carriage, Shu Fei raised the curtain, Yan Huaiyu reached out and took Wei Yue Wu out of the carriage.

Wen Tianyao couldn't help but looked at it, but only saw Wei Yuewu's pale face, and he jumped suddenly and suddenly: "Come here, let the Taiyi prepare, and send the Lord of Jingde County to Taitai Hospital go with!"

He and Yan Huaiyu thought the same way. At this time, it was obviously impossible for Weiyuewu to go back. At first, let Taitai Hospital treat the illness first, and then make a conclusion.

Yan Huaiyu then took Weiyuewu into the palace gate and went to the soft bridge on one side. The soft bridge took them to the Tai Hospital first.

The Taitai Hospital got the news early. Not only were several super doctors on duty, but also several super doctors transferred from outside the palace. When I heard that the Lord of Jingde County passed out again, no one dared to despise.

However, when they saw the three princesses who were sent together, several princes were shocked. They thought that it was just an ordinary wasp sting, but they were not so hurt.

But even if the three princesses are more powerful, they dare not take the responsibility of the Lord of Jingde County, and the person sent by the Prince, especially emphasized: "Be sure to wake up the Lord of Jingde County ~! Otherwise ..."

Let everyone be scared.

Compared to the three princesses, His Royal Highness the Crown Prince's first aid is the Princess Wang, which shows that the Princess Wang is much more important than the Princess Three. With this knowledge, several princes immediately felt that the Princess Three Injury is not a major injury.

At least not to kill her!

At the moment, I rushed to find some medicine for the palace girl to apply for the three princesses, and they all came around to study the condition of Weiyue Wu, but like the previous times, how to look at it was just frail and weak, but it was impossible to do so. Unconscious.

But the doctors didn't dare to take it seriously. The previous Jingde County master passed out, and every time it was a major event. If something was going to happen, they couldn't bear the responsibility ...

This medicine is really bad.

After discussing and discussing with several doctors, they carefully delivered a prescription and gave it to Wen Tianyao to read it before they dared to let Weiyuewu drink it.

The doctor in the Tai Hospital was afraid of accidents, and used the medicine carefully. Next to each medicine, there was a special note about which Tai Yi was asked to add it, so that the famous Tai Yi was trembling. The whole person felt bad. I didn't dare to leave after finishing the prescription, for fear of the slightest mistake.

Not to mention the hospital is a mess here, and the Emperor's Royal Study is also a mess. It's not that Yan Huaiyu is in trouble. Those who are in trouble will make the Emperor's Royal Study almost noisy ...

Chapter 833: The emperor has an accident ...

Of course, it was Tu Zhaoyi and Queen Tu.

This incident is really too big, no matter who it falls on, it can't help it.

As soon as the four princesses returned to the palace and told the queen Tu, the queen couldn't sit still, and immediately went to the emperor's royal study room. After walking halfway, she encountered Tu Zhaoyi who had the same news.

Everyone rushed to the emperor to sue in the first place. They met no one in the middle of the road and hurried to the emperor's study.

Then they quarreled in the Imperial Study Room.

The friendship that the two had decorated in front of people for many years also torn their faces because of this quarrel, and immediately said everything, leaving behind the so-called sisterhood.

There are a lot of people in the Royal Study Room. The sons of the princes of the four places and some important ministers have witnessed this battle between the queen and the concubine.

The women of the Tu family are famous all over the world, because of their respectable and noble reputation, but also because of the quarrel between the two of them.

The so-called daughter of Tu is actually not as good as the ordinary housewife. After a country, and the well-known Zhaoyi mother-in-law, she can actually quarrel in front of everyone, not decent, and not give the emperor a little bit of face, and even return faintly turned out that the reason why Queen Tu was at the back was the calculation of Tu Zhaoyi.

As soon as Tu Zhaoyi's mouth was spoken, it immediately caused a shock.

If this is just a dispute between the two women in the harem, it is really not a big deal. The past is long gone, but both Queen Tu and Zhao Zhaoyi are mothers with children.

Moreover, one is the main palace, a lower-order concubine.

If what Zhao Zhaoyi said is true, then the current prince may be the four princes, not the current prince Wen Tianyao.

Such a huge news came out of Tu Zhaoyi's mouth. How could he not shock the courtiers? Originally, the four princes had no reason to fight for the throne. Many people now think that the four princes are the orthodox heirs. When Queen Tu was stunned, she knew what Tu Zhaoyi said was true.

Some veterans also recalled the draft at that time. The original Tu Tuyi was Tu Zhaoyi. It seems that the appearance of Queen Tu was originally an accident, and even more unexpectedly, after the emperor who was the Queen at the time chose Queen Tu as the main room, Despite the opposition, Tu Zhaoyi was also brought in.

There may be no truth in this.

But before the courtiers thought about it, when the prince was orthodox or the four princes were orthodox, they saw the emperor trembling in the first seat shaking, reached out and pointed at Zhao Zhaoyi, and then pointed at the painted queen. Holding the table, it seemed to want to stand up and scold, but eventually did not stand up.

As soon as the whole person was soft, he fainted on the throne.

And after fainting, he spit out blood.

The white file that was spread on the royal case was sprayed with a bright red, which scared a group of people in the royal study.

The prince, Wen Tianyao, responded the fastest. While he was cleaning up the mess, he was passed on to the doctor. As for Queen Tu and Zhao Zhaoyi, he was also sent back.

As soon as the emperor looked like this, everyone knew that he couldn't be a council member, and one by one retired and waited for the letter.

The chaos in the Imperial Study Room was a big mess in later history, a stroke about the decline of the Zhongshan Dynasty.

No one had expected that the two princesses, Xiao Xiao, would be in the position of concubine of the King Yan Dynasty, which would cause such a disaster, and the entire Zhongshan dynasty would shake it.

Called Huangzhuang in history.

The emperor vomited blood, and Asano was shocked ...

Wei Yue Wu didn't know anything about Yu Shufang. After lying on the medicine, she lay peacefully and rested at Tai Hospital.

This is a small yard isolated on one side. Now it is a place for Weiyuewu to rest. The yard is very quiet. Only Weiyuewu and Shufei and Yuyan are here.

An oldest senior doctor in the courtyard stayed behind, watching a small housekeeper decoction, for fear of a slight error.

After being cooked well, the housekeeper was delivered to the room, and Yu Yan carefully put on Wei Yue's clothes.

Shu Fei went down the corridor and asked the Taiyi standing outside to inquire about Wei Yuewu's illness.

Seeing the embarrassment of this girl ring, Taiyi sighed in heart. She was also tired when she rested on her master. I didn't know when it was going to happen, she felt a sense of hopelessness.

It's not good for the master to be too fierce, but although the princess of the king of the king looks kind, he just faints from time to time, which is really worrying. Besides, the king of the king of the king knows that it is not good at first glance. In contrast, who knows that this concubine has an accident, will that person let the girl ring be buried for fun?

It was only for this reason that everyone was panicking.

This will see the book look awkward and quite sympathetic.

"Medical doctor, is there nothing serious about our master?" Shu Fei said worriedly.

"Should ... nothing serious!" The old lady doctor really couldn't say this. Although he was not the best doctor in the palace, he was obviously the oldest doctor who had the longest medical history. It's all white, but it looks pretty good.

The reason why he stayed with him was that he volunteered to see how all the juniors were scared one by one, and there were his sons and disciples inside, and he took the initiative to stay.

He is always the oldest, and if something really happens, it's irrelevant to be pushed out to pay guilt.

"Why is our master like this? It's the same last time, it's the same now. Is it really nowhere to be found? Taiyi you are so old and knowledgeable, have n't you seen anything like our master? Is it sick?" The book said urgently.

She is actually really worried about Wei Yuewu's body.

Even though this time is not true, the master did spit blood in the past. Then she was not in the palace. Later, when the master was sent out of the palace, she saw it at that moment, so she really saw it. Wanted to find out if something happened to Wei Yuewu's body.

The prince of Yan Wangfu's Tai Chi medicine is also very clever, but he can't say why.

Moreover, Shu Fei felt that the doctor who was too impressed looked very respectable, so he really wanted to ask.

"Is this an example ..." The old doctor hesitated for a moment.

"Is it really there? You talk about, what happened to that person?" At first looking at the old doctor hesitantly, Shu Fei's eyes lighted up and he immediately asked.

"Yes ... one or two ..." The old doctor said vaguely.

"What happened to them later?" Shu Fei hurriedly asked, eyes eagerly looking at the old doctor, eyes full of sorrow.

"Dead, all dead!" The old doctor sighed.

Shu Fei's body was soft, her eyes were black, and she could hardly stand. She reached out and grabbed the post on one side to stabilize her body.

"Dead ..." The words shuddered and couldn't go out, his eyes became red, his master was so young and so glorious, how could he disappear so early ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ It looks like the old lady couldn't help it. He sighed again and comforted: "Your master is still young, and one of you ... lives a long time."

"How long has that lived?"

"Thirty or so!" Taiyi groaned.

"And one more?" Shu Fei asked, gritting his teeth and squeezing his heart.

"Minors!" The old lady heeded sincerely, "So there is no absolute thing about this. Although your master is younger, he is actually older than he was ... but she is so young ... early It's gone! "

Having said that, the old lady doctor sighed again and shook her head.

That girl is a good person in the palace, or a human being. Unlike the other masters in the palace, she is so powerful that she can't wait to step on everyone's feet.

"Is that a small child?" Shu Fei's response was a bit murmurous, murmured, a look of a severe blow, his expression was very embarrassed, it looked really pitiful.

But think about the faint in the room from time to time. Every time she was scared to death, she was justified.

Looking at this girl-sized ring that is about the size of a granddaughter, the old lady could not help but said, "In fact, it was not very small, but she was so scared. In addition, she was anxious or afraid. Yes ... it was too late for Taiyi to pass. If it were earlier, there would be no such thing, she would have been delayed! "

"If it were that morning, this child would not die!"

Recalling the scene at the time, the old lady only felt that her heart was very dull. So cute girl, spitting blood like this, could not cure it. In fact, he was very helpless at the time.

It's just that she can't help it anymore, and that girl is powerless!

Time, in fact, as long as it is a little earlier, this kind of thing will not happen. Think about that girl, I feel really pitiful, even if the status is noble, in the end, it is only a cup of loess, and it even became an unspeakable thing in the royal family .

But this kind of thing can't be said beyond words. Whenever I think about my conjecture, the old lady doctor thinks that she is still a confused little doctor.

In this palace, there are many older doctors who are older than yourself, but this will leave you alone, not because your own medicine is not the best, and it is a bit old-fashioned.

The things in the palace can never be known too much, even if you guessed something, you must pretend to be unclear, otherwise it will definitely not live long.

People are old and have many ideas. You must tell your sons and apprentices when you go back. Do n't go forward if there is something. The Zhongshan royal family has a secret, and this secret cannot be known, otherwise the whole world will be chaotic. .

The old lady doctor kept to her own conjecture and never said it indiscriminately, but today she saw the flustered Shu Fei, but could not help but pity her.

"You can rest assured that your master's condition should be different from theirs." Jian Shufei still looked like a soul, and the old doctor couldn't help comforting her.

"Why?" This was almost a subconscious question. Seeing that Shu Fei was still stingy, the old lady doctor added another sentence, "There is no blood heritage between them! Your master is Hua Yanghou's daughter, It has nothing to do with the master in the palace! "

Immediately after saying this, the old woman doctor immediately realized that she had talked too much, and when she turned pale, she turned and left.

Chapter 834: Fearful bloodline heritage

In the room by the window, Weiyuewu was lying on the medication, and Yu Yan was carefully feeding her medicine, her body was mostly blocked by Yu Yan, and the housekeeper was only fainted when the Jingde County master was still dizzy. But in fact, Wei Yue Wu has been listening quietly to the question and answer from Shu Fei and Taiyi under the window porch, and there is a deep flash of light in her eyes.

Bloodline heritage?

Does it mean that the disease is passed on by blood?

My father is not ill, and my mother is not ill. Looking at Wen Tianyao, I know that he is not ill, and I have not had this ill in my maternal family for so many years.

If it is a blood-borne disease, it does not exist for me.

Then who has the disease inherited from the bloodline?

She didn't notice that the old lady doctor said that she could not live much, and her attention was another meaning implied in the old lady doctor's words. She thought that the old lady doctor should be the Lord of Qingyang County.

If there is anyone in the palace who knows the master of Qingyang County, Wei Yuewu guesses that the oldest doctor in Tai Hospital will definitely remember, this doctor, she asked Yan Huaiyu to enter the palace early, and in the palace The other elder doctors have had trouble one by one. Only he survived and became the oldest elder doctor in the hospital.

Although everyone said that the old lady doctor was a little confused, sometimes he could read the wrong condition very clearly, and what he said was even more outrageous.

But because he was optimistic about his mother-in-law's illness when he was young, he was always staying in the Taiji Hospital for the elderly.

It seems that in the memory of many people, the old lady doctor was confused and always confused, but the information that Yan Huaiyu sent to Wei Yuewu was displayed, and the old lady doctor had not previously transmitted the muddlehead. Reputation, this reputation has spread in recent years.

Everyone has said so since the word came out. The masters or the little masters in the palace were ill and did not dare to ask the old lady to seek medical treatment. I was afraid that this one would be wrong. I can't say anything by then. There is also a queen mother behind her.

At that time, something happened to Wei Yuewu in the palace, and the young lady and sister Qingyangjun remembered from Wei Yuewu's memory.

The complex expressions of the three princes when they first saw themselves still appeared in front of Weiyuewu. At that time, the three princes should also have complicated feelings for themselves. Is this because of the Qingyang County Lord?

The three princes should be very impressed by their mother-in-law, but they felt that the Qingyang County Lord died because of himself, so he wanted to be close to himself, but he couldn't get close.

After that, the three princes have always been kind to themselves, but they always separated by something.

It should be because of the Lord of Sunyang County, but did the Lord of Sunyang really have an accident? What happened in that abandoned palace ...

Sitting up slowly, holding her hands, she felt that she still wanted to see the troubled palace, or she could think of more things now!

Looking at Wei Yuewu, Yu Yan sat up blankly, panicked, and quickly turned to hand the medicine bowl to the side servant, who took the bowl and resigned respectfully.

"Master, you will lie down again!" Yu Yan whispered, "You just woke up after taking the medicine, it's not ... well!"

Wei Yuewu, who said this, could not help but laughed, reached out and touched his head, and lay down again. This would stand up immediately, and it was really doubtful that the medicine was good.

This time, she fainted. She was pretending to be too mad. The third and fourth princesses were too venomous. When Yan Huaiyu came over, Yan Huaiyu immediately agreed, so when she entered the palace, she "fainted" in the past, and went to the Tai Hospital.

And met the oldest doctor who wished.

Seeing Wei Yuewu lying down again, Yu Yan was relieved. She just gave Wei Yue Wu medicine intently, but did not hear what Shu Fei and the old lady doctor said outside.

There seemed to be some faint sounds, and she was shocked to see Wei Yue Wu suddenly sitting up, afraid to be found by the housekeeper.

Fortunately, the housekeeper kept his head down, and the master immediately woke up and lay down again.

"Master, how long are we going to stay in the palace?" Yu Yan asked, wiping off the liquid on the lips of Wei Yuewu.

"Not in a hurry!" Wei Yuewu smiled and said.

She also wanted to go to the palace for a look. Since she came in, she certainly didn't rush out.

"But ..." Yu Yan hesitated. "If the master wakes up, he will still be sent away!"

"Why?" With no outsiders in the room, Wei Yue Wu sat up a little, leaned on the cushion on one side, and asked with interest.

"Listen to Jin Ling and they said that the last time the master was sent back to the house after passing out, this palace should not let you stay any more!"

Yu Yan honestly said that this was what she heard when they heard Jin Ling and some of them before.

I heard Wei Yuewu's health was really bad since I was fainted in the palace, and I was married to the King Shiyan because of the willingness of the King Shiyan to please the Jingde County leader.

Such a reason seems ridiculous. Will the grandson and the great son of the king give a family a lot of money? But this is true, and witnessing Yan Huai's care for the Jingde County Lord, Yu Yan had already seen that this was not an occasional incident.

Obviously this is the king of the Yan king, pleased Jingde County!

It is not the strength of Huayang Houfu that is passed on by outsiders.

Regarding this rumor, Yu Yan can only sniff and see how Shizi treats the county master. There is as much tolerance as there is tolerance. The kind of indulgence revealed inadvertently is not just the strength of China Yanghoufu?

When his father appeared in Yan's Mansion, Yuyan was wholeheartedly loyal to Weiyuewu, for fear that something really happened to Weiyuewu.

Everything is centered around Weiyue Dance.

"Last time was the last time, this time this time!" Wei Yue Mai's lips were soft, softly.

The last time I fainted by myself, no one was to blame, and my father must take him away, always returning to Huayang Houfu.

But this time, his fainting was obviously related to this assassination.

And this assassination incident is inextricably linked with the third and fourth princesses. If something really happens, the two of them will never get away from each other, even if it is the respect of the princess. What about a princess when it comes to national events?

The murder of the princess of King Yan is enough to make the princess unable to eat and go.

Of course the third and fourth princesses will not admit it, so this matter will be peeled off, but no matter how peeled off, this matter is either related to the third princess or the fourth princess, and the royal family will never let it happen.

If nothing happens, it's easy to discuss everything! Something happened, and some things are no longer just scratching the skin and can be cleaned!

"The master means that he must live in the palace?" Yu Yan thought for a moment, and understood the meaning of Weiyuewu, but still asked.

"Stay for a few days before talking!" Wei Yuewu nodded.

She wouldn't be in a hurry to leave the palace. People in the palace were afraid she would be in trouble and would naturally leave her. Yan Huaiyuan said that she didn't have to rush to pick her up.

In memory of what happened in the palace, of course, you must find out in the palace. She hopes that this time, she can make clear the relationship between Qingyang and herself.

Although the three princes didn't say anything on that day, Weiyue Wu had already confirmed that the three princes must be the brother of Qingyang County's master, that is, the legendary son of King Bei'an.

It's just that the son of King Bei'an actually became the third prince in the palace, which is unimaginable to everyone!

King Bei'an, who had no children, would have rebelled, and his son and daughter had been sent to his elder brother's name, which is really unbelievable.

But Wei Yue Wu is convinced that this is a fact!

It seems that the so-called Bei'an rebellion is actually not what everyone said.

"Master ..." Shu Fei's voice rang at the door, his face looked pale as if he had seen a ghost, staring straight at Wei Yuewu, only making such a sound, then his voice was dumb.

Thinking of my good old master, I do n't know when he really fainted and woke up, and the eyes of the book were red again.

Seeing the appearance of Shu Fei, Wei Yuewu understood the meaning a little while, and laughed: "Is it really dizzy or fake dizzy, don't you know? Why should I make it happen? It's passed, and I do n't think I have this so-called blood lineage! "

If the so-called blood lineage of the Taiyi is inherited, Wei Yuewu does not think it is related to her.

The people in his house are all healthy, including those in the second and third bedrooms. He has never heard of anyone who has this disease, and he still inherits it.

"Bloodline inheritance?" Yu Yan heard this clearly and immediately exclaimed low.

"What's the matter?" Wei Yuewu blinked and asked, in response to Yu Yan's response.

"The bloodline is inherited ... the disease is hard to heal!" Yu Yan's face was also a little pale, "The slave is still listening to my father, and it is difficult to detect it!"

Thinking of Wei Yuewu's illness, Yu Yan's face also changed greatly.

"It doesn't matter, it's not me, it has nothing to do with me. Don't worry, think about where there is such a person in our house. This so-called bloodline inheritance cannot be only one person." Wei Yuewu shook He waved his hand and smiled relaxedly.

This word opened the topic, and then looked at the appearance of Weiyue Wu, but it made Shu Fei feel very likely, his face eased slightly, and he walked in, saying: "Master, does the master of Qingyang County have a blood heritage? ... "

This remark was abrupt, and for a while no one expected that this remark would lead to it.

"Shut up!" Wei Yuewu's complexion changed suddenly, and she suddenly yelled lowly. Yu Yan first realized what it was, and then she recovered slightly and turned pale and pale.

Seeing Wei Yuewu's and Yu Yan's reactions, Shu Fei was surprised at first, but he was surprised by what he was holding, subconsciously covering his mouth tightly, and the whole person shivered.

Chapter 835: Almost three days

"Shu Fei and Yu Yan have forgotten all about the Lord of Qingyang County today!" Wei Yuewu settled down, and coldly instructed the two girls to ring.

"Yes, slaves know!"

"Slaves know!" The two girls nodded again and again.

"You can't say you killed!" Wei Yuewu's face was severe, and a delicate little face was a little nervous, even those things she did not dare to think about.

"Yes, I don't want to kill you!" The two girls ring nodded in unison, knowing that Wei Yuewu was also for their good. This kind of thing was discovered, and the two girls ring had only one dead end.

Regarding the secrets of the royal family, isn't that what their two little girls can guess.

Shu Fei has the deepest feelings. She would even think that the old lady had just left in a hurry. Is it because of this reason? Is it because he lost his mouth?

No wonder the good old doctor who just said turned around and left, not even saying goodbye to herself.

Whoever knows such a thing will bring trouble to anyone!

And it can hurt the whole family ...

Wei Yue Wu was really ill this time, but she pretended to be dizzy. With the two previous times, she didn't make anyone doubt this time. After taking the medicine, she lay down and rested for a while. meeting.

It was only a short time before lying down that Yan Huaiyu came here, which surprised Wei Yue Wu. How could the Queen Tu and Zhao Zhaoyi bother for a while, and it was clear how quickly.

Looking at the * the bed with a pair of confused eyes, flickering at her appearance, Yan Huaihuan laughed and waved her hands, and the two girls hung out quietly.

He walked to the bed himself, leaned against him, and lay down beside Weiyuewu, holding one hand at Weiyuewu's white face, couldn't help but reach out and squeezed.

Before Weiyue Wu was half asleep and awake, he was a little confused, and the reaction was a bit slow. After he squeezed his face a few times, he reacted. He reached out and patted away his messy hand. "How so fast?" "

"The emperor vomited blood and passed out!" Yan Huaiyi smiled casually.

"What?" Wei Yuewu was startled, and she wanted to sit up, because she was in a hurry, and her forehead happened to hit Yan Huaiyu's chin, and she could not help but whispered.

"What are you in a hurry? It's not you who made him faint!" Yan Huaiyu smirked, reaching out and rubbing her forehead gently.

"Noisy? Is it Queen Tu and Zhao Zhaoyi?" The news from Yan Huaiyu was so horrified that Wei Yuewu couldn't care less about this meeting and looked straight at Yan Huaiyu.

"Yes, these two Tu women are really eye-opening. The noisy sky in the Royal Study Room is dark. If I were ... I will also faint!" Yan Huai laughed lazily, and He was also grateful. "Fortunately, I only have one dance, otherwise this will really faint, so in front of so many courtiers!"

"It's just the third princess and the fourth princess?" Wei Yuewu directly ignored Yan Huai's cheeky behavior, and she really flaunted herself all the time.

But think about the emperor should not be so fragile. Even though the third princess and the fourth princess have secretly calculated themselves, but they are still breathing here, it means that there is nothing else that can happen. As long as they don't have an accident, this is not a major event. The emperor's side didn't faint so quickly.

"Tu Zhaoyi secretly said that she was the one selected by the emperor as the main room at that time, but she stole her main room for the queen!"

Yan Huaiyu put down her hand very gracefully, sat up, took the tea set aside for Weiyue Wu.

After Wei Yuewu took it, she took a few sips before handing it back to Yan Huaihua. Yan Huaihua took it very naturally and placed it on the side table.

"If it is this ... Does that mean that the four princes are going to compete with the prince for this future king?" Wei Yuewu frowned.

Tu Zhaoyi told this in front of so many people, of course, not just looking over the old account, in order to check his mother-in-law's affairs, Wei Yuewu also checked the Tu Zhaoyi by the way, and found that Tu Zhaoyi was in peace with It seems that nothing happened to her mother-in-law's relationship, and she was innocent, but she had almost everything.

This is a very strange phenomenon.

If you look at the charity in front of the three princesses and the vicious look behind them, Wei Yuewu can hardly believe that Tu Zhaoyi is really innocent.

If you position Tu Zhaoyi as the other three princesses, then her words can't just be sent out for no reason!

"The four princes must have thoughts, and this time or someone will clearly support the four princes!" Yan Huaiyi smiled leisurely and said unhurriedly, "the four princes should also miss the throne of the prince!"

Wei Yue Wu was silent for a while. This kind of thing had nothing to do with her at all. Of course, a boudoir woman in her backyard didn't care about this kind of thing, let alone she was married to Yan Huaiyu, and she would eventually leave the capital. Back to Yandi, the ups and downs in Beijing, whoever succeeds to the throne has nothing to do with her.

But now I know Wen Tianyao is her brother!

"Do n't worry too much. Even though the four princes have been supported by this move, but the prince has been in business for so many years, how can it be easily overthrown? I think the prince is acting decently, and more decently than others After the emperor fainted, everything he handled was well-organized! "

Yan Huaiyuan narrowed his eyes for a moment, and then the wind turned: "Wuer want to stay in the palace for a few days?"

Yan Huaiyu was unwilling to involve Wei Yue Wu in this kind of political affairs. Wei Yue Wu's body is still rest. This kind of family affairs is changing rapidly, and it is still too heavy for a boudoir girl.

Although Wuer was smart, Yan Huaiyuan was very reluctant to press this kind of thing onto the shoulder of her beloved woman, so she directly opened the topic.

Listening to Yan Huaiyu 's praise for Tianyao 's decent behavior, Wei Yuewu was slightly relieved. This attention was drawn to the past, and he thought, "How about three days?"

"It's almost three days! Wuer thinks like me." Yan Huai smiled and nodded.

"Why are the three days almost the same?" Wei Yuewu's bright water eyes were a little confused, watching Yan Huai yell, she just said casually, but she didn't really think much.

"Wuer can wake up tonight, but the situation is still in the wait-and-see stage, so it is not appropriate to move. Take a day off tomorrow and you can get up and walk. If the day after tomorrow is fine, you can go out to the palace and return home!" Flash, revealing a stream of crickets and enchanting.

"But there is Wei Yan ..." Listening to what he said, Wei Yuewu's heart was a little calm, but suddenly she remembered another thing, and hesitated for a while.

"The matter of Wei Yan is not in such a hurry!" Yan Huaiyu knew what she was worrying about, and said, "You fainted these days. Where can I still have such a thing!"

"Do you still care about this?" Wei Yuewu raised her eyes and looked at Yan Huai with a stunned voice.

"Why don't I care?" Yan Huaiyu raised his eyebrows and laughed ridiculously. "You ... is the King of the King, this kind of inner court thing, but also the inner court of Huayang Houfu House, do you reach out like this ... don't you really feel lost?" Wei Yuewu was speechless for a while, before she could do it. Baba's way.

"I have something like this with my concubine, shouldn't I have to take care of it? What about the backyard of Huayang Houfu?" Yan Huaiyun took a natural look and glanced at Wei Yuewu quite contentedly. The smile on the corner of his mouth grew deeper.

That enchanting and frivolous appearance made Wei Yue Wu speechless again.

Is this really the prince of the king of the world who is famous all over the world?

I bit my lip, but I felt sweet in my heart. I didn't say something myself. Yan Huaiyu always wanted to be in front of himself, which would be more in front of him, although he said that a big man was involved in the inner courtyard. And it was a matter of the inner court of Beppu, which was out of place, but Wei Yuewu felt a soft heart when he did so.

So when Yan Huaiyu reached out and held her in her arms, she didn't struggle at all.

Leaning against his chest, sensing his powerful heartbeat, Wei Yuewu's long eyelashes flickered twice, and suddenly felt relieved. The immediate consequence of this relief was that after a while, she breathed gently and evenly. Up.

Actually fell asleep!

Looking at the petite girl in her arms, she held her placket with one hand and put her other hand on her chest, sleeping peacefully, and Yan Huai's eyes were soft.

Looking at Wei Yuewu's face, she lowered her head, and dropped a kiss on the corner of her pink lips. Then she put Wei Yuewu on the bed gently, and carefully covered her with a quilt.

Standing in front of the bed, I once again looked at the sweet and peaceful face of Wei Yuewu, and she couldn't help showing a look of petting, and then she lowered her hand and touched her face before she stood up and turned away. .

The fainting of the emperor will inevitably cause the entire court and the field to shake, which will cause Chen Bing over Yandi to wait for his decision ...

Outside the door, Shu Fei and Yu Yan stood respectfully outside the door and saw Yan Huaiyu coming out, saluting respectfully.

"Be careful about Wu'er's body. If something happens, upload a letter! Remember to take Wuer's safety as the most important thing!" Yan Huai's handsome face was somber that she hadn't seen the tenderness before.

Nothing else is important on Wuer's side. Only Wuer's safety is the most important. Since these things are the heart of Wuer, let her check it.

But everything should be the safety of the dancers.

"Yes, slaves understand!" The two girls ring nodded.

Wei Yue Wu is very fragrant, if not awakened, she really doesn't know when she will sleep.

There was a quarreling voice in the ear, sometimes far away and close, Wei Yuewu frowned, rubbed, and then sat up and looked around subconsciously.

I didn't see Yan Huaihuan, I was quite disappointed.

"But the master is looking for Shizi? Shizi waits for the master to fall asleep," Shu Fei said with a laugh.

This statement is extremely reasonable. Wei Yuewu thought about it and couldn't help but smile gently. So big a thing happened. Where would Yan Huaiyu always be with him at this time? I just came here, but I do n't know when I was so dependent on him.

"Who is arguing!" The voice still faint in his ear came, Wei Yuewu subconsciously asked, this is the palace, so noisy, isn't anyone to control it?

It seems that somebody is crying ...

Chapter 836: The queen mother-in-law's shot ...

"The three princesses and the four princesses are making trouble!" Shu Fei answered Zhang Zhang outwardly.

"How come here to make trouble?" Wei Yuewu asked.

The third princess and the fourth princess will make a noise, which was originally expected. Before and after, the tender veil will be maintained, but the queen Tu and Zhaoyi Yi have bothered. How can the two of them not be troubled.

This is really a big deal.

None of the three princesses and four princesses is willing to take this responsibility.

And this matter is getting worse because of the emperor's coma ...

"Three princesses were also sent to the Tai Hospital before. This should be awake. It seems that when they wake up and find out what they are now, they are all mad. This will happen to the four princesses, and then they will fight very hard!" Yan remembered a scene she had just seen secretly in the crack of the door, and couldn't help laughing.

Are those two really honorable princesses?

Neither the third princess nor the fourth princess is decent at all.

"No more noise?" The noise and cry outside stopped suddenly, Wei Yuewu blinked.

When Shu Fei and Yu Yan listened, they really couldn't hear it. The whole world seemed to be quiet all of a sudden, and suddenly there was no sound.

"Slave go look!" Yu Yan said, turning around and going out, but only when he got to the door, he heard the knock on the door and rushed forward to open it.

Wei Yue Wu looked out of the window and saw a puppet in the palace standing at the door. She was 40 or 50 years old, and she was so old.

"Did the Lord of Jingde County wake up?" The old lady stood at the door, looked up at Yu Yan, and looked at her twice before asking.

"Our county master just woke up!" Yu Yan replied. When Yan Huaiyu had gone before, they had ordered them. If someone came to ask later, she would wake up.

It will be too late.

"Take me to see your master!" The old lady nodded solemnly and stepped in.

"Yes!" Seeing Lao's stance, Yu Yan nodded hurriedly, and then led the way.

When the door was reached, the old lady stopped and Yu Yan entered the door and reported to Wei Yue Wu.

Wei Yuewu had already seen the old lady clearly in the window, and now she narrowed her eyes and said, "Please come in!"

Shu Fei put a pillow on her, and Wei Yue Wu leaned on it. She would wake up now, quite lazy.

Yu Yan returned to the door and led the old man in ...

"Slave see the Lord of Jingde County!" Laoyu came in first, and gave Weiyue Wu a gift.

"You're welcome!" Wei Yuewu waved her with a smile and motioned for her courtesy.

The old lady stood upright, looked up at Wei Yue Wu and looked up and down. Then she said, "Slave is a lady in the Queen Mother's Palace. Come to the Lord of Jingde County to see the Lord's body instead of the Queen Mother. Judging by the appearance of the county master, shouldn't it be a big deal? "

"I don't think it's a big deal either. This will make people feel weaker!" Wei Yuewu replied softly with a little girl's concubine, "Thank you Mother Queen for your concern."

"The queen mother-in-law is also worried about the body of the county master. Since the county master has nothing serious now, then it is best!" The old lady answered scrupulously, and then said, "Since the county master is fine, the slaves retire!"

Turn around and leave.

"Well, please walk slowly!" Wei Yuewu began.

"What else is there for the county master?" The old lady turned around again, stood still, and watched Weiyue dance calmly.

"I want to ask you, if I want to get up, can I just walk in a quiet place in the palace?" Wei Yuewu smiled, "I'm sore all over lying here."

"The lord of the county can walk, but try not to go far. There are many places in this palace, and you can't just go there casually." The old lady thought slowly, then said slowly.

"Yes, I will pay attention!" Wei Yuewu smiled.

The old man didn't speak this time, only glanced at Wei Yuewu slightly, then turned to leave.

Yuyan took the person to the gate of the courtyard instead of Wei Yuewu. When she opened the door, she also looked at the side. Before, the three princesses were in the yard on the side. When the four princesses came to trouble, the three princesses took the person. Blocked at the door, the two sides were fighting and making a mess.

But this would be a quiet person.

Watching the old lady leave, Yu Yan closed the door thoughtfully, and the courtyard door next to it was also tightly closed. There was no sound, unless Yu Yan knew the three princesses clearly. Living in the yard next door, I really mistakenly think that it is an empty yard next door.

"Master, is it because of this old uncle that the third princess and the fourth princess did not make trouble?" Back to the room, Yu Yan asked skeptically.

Is it just that an old lady in the palace has such great power?

The four princesses are not someone who can listen to persuasion, and the third princess should be on the verge of losing control.

"The queen mother-in-law next to her! Or the queen mother-in-law brought it from outside the palace!" Wei Yuewu smiled slightly, and a flash of coldness flashed in the water eyes.

The queen mother-in-law was skeptical of her and actually sent her confidant to look at her.

The puppet sent here didn't have much respect for himself. He stared directly at himself, and there was no place to dodge, which was probably why the third princess and the fourth princess were really quiet.

The Queen Mother has stepped in!

It seems that the queen mother who lives in the deep palace rarely intervenes in affairs, and the affairs in the palace are all under the control of the empress Tu, but this will intervene, but it makes people feel strong.

It can be seen that this queen mother-in-law is actually not a weak person, otherwise it would be impossible for even the people around her to give such a strong feeling.

The queen queen mother, who has always been hidden behind the scenes, looks very aggressive.

And since it's been intervened, it's not just that ...

Sure enough, Weiyuewu just sorted it out a bit here, and four pediatricians came over from Taitai Hospital, saying that she was going to treat Weiyuewu again.

Wei Yuewu is not worried about this so-called re-treatment.

Let the book non-drop the veil, please come to a few doctors, one pulse.

The attitude of the Taiyi who came before is completely different. The attitudes of these couples are very careful and they are very clear. From time to time, they will also ask about the living and diet of Weiyuewu.

There is an hour in this vein.

The several doctors looked at each other, nodded, and wanted to pick up the medicine box and go to the side room.

"Medical doctor, please stay away!" There was a sweet and waxy voice in the hanging gauze, but it was not high, but they held their footsteps.

"How many doctors will discuss my condition?" Wei Yuewu looked at the doctors slowly through the gauze account.

"Exactly!" One of the doctors seemed to be the leader, stepping forward, respectfully dancing to Weiyue.

"How about talking here? I also want to know my condition, this is already ... the third time! In the past when I was at Jiangnan's ancestral home, I never fainted!"

Wei Yue Wu narrowed her eyes and said softly.

"This ..." A few doctors looked at each other, and said that the patient's condition was always a little bad in front of the patient. Moreover, the body of the Lord Jingde County was actually a bit weak, and her fainting came without trace. If this faints and then faints, even though a few princes have a queen queen behind their backs, they still feel irresistible.

"The lord's body is not a big deal, but it's mainly meditation recuperation, but for this prescription, we still have to think about it." The leading Physician refused with a smile.

"Actually, I can bear it, you can just tell the truth!" Wei Yuewu sighed softly, but still her sweet voice revealed a twilight helplessness.

The tone was very light and calm, and the calm seemed to be a stagnant water with a wave of waves.

This kind of tone often does not appear on young girls like Wei Yue Wu, but only on the kind of old people who almost know their own life and death.

But the sound of talking was actually such a sweet girl.

The age is just right, but I have to see through my life because of the illness. For a time, the doubts of some senior doctors have disappeared.

Although it seems that the pulse is only a little weaker, and there seems to be no serious illness, the young Jingde County Lord obviously has suffered more than one day or two.

The last time I fainted in the palace did vomit blood.

"The lord of the county is really not seriously ill, but it is inherently inadequate and weak physically, so this medicine is difficult to use, and the tonic medicine must not be used. The ward's body is also inexhaustible." Consoling Weiyue dance.

There was no sound coming out of the flying palace tent, and when the outside doctors and other doctors frowned, only the exhausted voice of Wei Yue Wu was heard from the gauze: "Some doctors have labor. What 's bad, please also make it clear that I ... actually want to know why I always faint!

"Yes!" The doctors nodded.

Wei Yuewu didn't embarrass them any more, so Shu Fei took them to the side of the box to open the pharmacy, and showed them the prescriptions prescribed by the previous doctor.

Although these princes also belong to the tai hospital, they usually treat the queen mother-in-law and treat the other lords in the palace with no burden. Therefore, when they were treated in the past, they were not there.

These few looked at the previous pharmacy in detail, nodding their heads, and taking the Yueyuewu body, this kind of conservative rule is indeed the best.

As for Wei Yuewu himself, I didn't see anything else wrong. The princes didn't formulate any prescriptions. They just said that the previous prescriptions were good. Let me just use a few stickers.

After telling Shu Fei a few words, several elder doctors said goodbye, and then carried the medicine chest back to the queen mother's Jingchen Palace.

The queen mother-in-law in Jingchen Palace is waiting for a reply.

The others went back to rest first, and Zhang Taiyi, the leader, followed a puppet and entered the hall.

In the hall, Mrs. Tai sat glumly. The glass of water in front of her had cooled down, and there was no heat left, but she still looked at the glass of cold water, her face was in the light of the lights, showing a burst of light Dull and bleak.

Without Gong'e and Cai Nu, who are surrounded by her, the queen mother looks gray ...

Chapter 837: Something happened again, the third princess is gone

"Is it really dizzy or fake dizziness?" After Taizhang Taiyi's courtesy, the queen mother-in-law asked coldly, and she finally lifted her eyes from the tea cup.

"Yes ... really!" Zhang Taiyi hesitated and replied.

"Is it true or false?"

"It's true!" Zhang Taiyi said with certainty this time, remembering that young girl who was just right, hesitant to say something in general, Zhang Taiyi felt that she could see clearly.

"It's true!" The queen mother snorted coldly. This time she didn't speak any more. The hall was quiet, and there was even a kind of quiet and boring dullness.

Zhang Taiyi didn't dare to say much, but only bowed his head respectfully and waited for her queen's command.

"How is the emperor's condition over there?" It took a long time before I heard the queen mother's slow voice.

"The emperor's ... the body is not very good!" Zhang Taiyi said very lowly, and his voice trembled unconsciously.

"Can't it last?" The queen mother's voice was extremely cold, as cold as ice, without a trace of temperature. In such an empty hall, Dr. Zhang Tai was even a little timid.

"This ... subordinates dare not speak!" Zhang Taiyi gritted his teeth. Such a thing, how dare he say that the emperor's health was not good, but he kept hiding it.

Sometimes the empress came to the queen's palace and said that it was for the queen's queen. In fact, she also gave her a few symptoms. Compared with those doctors at the tai hospital, the queen of the queen's side was more trusted by the queen mother and the emperor.

But the more this trust, the more afraid Zhang Taiyi felt.

Zhang Taiyi clearly understood that the more he knew, the faster he died, especially this kind of thing about the life of the emperor.

"How long is the most?" The queen mother's voice flickered in the candlelight.

"It's only a few years at most!" Zhang Taiyi bowed his head, sweating slightly at the center of his eyebrows. He actually said more, but he didn't dare to tell the truth.

The truth is true, but it's easy to fall off your head.

"Is it okay for at least half a year?"

"No problem!" Zhang Taiyi gritted his teeth and said.

He had to say this, and he had to think of making the emperor live for half a year, otherwise let alone him, even a member of his family would not be able to do well.

"That's good, you go down, don't let others visit the emperor too much, and talk about the emperor's need to quietly raise her body." The queen mother-in-law ordered.

"Yes, but if the queen maiden ..." Seeing the queen mother no longer asked the emperor's condition, Zhang Taiyi was relieved.

"She was so troubled by herself that she almost fainted the emperor, and came to see the emperor, so that she could settle down in the palace herself, and the thing to take good care of this harem is to mourn the family But whether or not she is a daughter of Tu. Daughter of Tu? Really thought that she would be supreme in the future! "

The queen mother-in-law said sharply.

"His Royal Highness ..." Zhang Taiyi asked again.

"His Royal Highness has to manage the former court more for the emperor. If His Royal Highness asks, he only says what the emperor said, let him use snacks more than state affairs, and said that the emperor's health is good and slowly getting better."

Speaking of Wen Tianyao, the queen mother-in-law did not have the talent to be talented, and thought about it.

"Yes, my subordinates understand!" Zhang Taiyi nodded.

The queen queen waved her hand, and Taiyi Zhang saluted the queen mother again respectfully, and then stepped back out of the palace door.

When I got the outside of the hall, the cold wind blew, and I immediately shivered. I just felt that the hair on my whole body was shaking. I looked at the lights in the dark outside when I was outside the hall, and smiled bitterly. Sweat, but still cold hands.

Does the world of Zhongshan have to change ...

Wei Yue Wu took an early rest after having dinner on the day.

Sleeping on the bed in Tai Hospital seemed to be a little sleepy. He hadn't fallen asleep for a long time, closed his eyes and listened to the sound in the courtyard next door.

The courtyards here are relatively small, mainly for the rest of the palace.

Everything rests and rests.

Compared to the large palace room, it is quieter and more convenient for medical treatment, and it is also safer for some masters in the palace.

So I've been sick for a while, and I've always been bad. I often live here.

Now there is the third princess living next door. The third princess now has a very irritable temper, and from time to time I hear the screams and beatings of the palace maid.

Although the three princesses closed the courtyard here, the two courtyards were so close together that Wei Yuewu closed her eyes and heard them clearly.

The three princesses can be considered to accompany the wife again this time!

Poisonous schemes secretly failed, but instead let the four princesses secretly plan, the so-called horse honeycomb who did not know where to come from needless to say, the four princesses must rectify.

She would stay alone to do it better.

Of course, the fourth princess may not be just to deal with the third princess. In fact, no matter whether it is herself or the third princess, the fourth princess will never be soft-hearted.

It's just that the fourth princess couldn't get away this time, and the third princess shot her with her arrow.

These two princesses are really the same vicious, but this time, the incident is a little bit big, even if they are princesses of a country.

Opening his eyes slowly, looking at the dark air, the corners of his lips silently evoked a mockery.

Even the emperor fainted. The cause was the dispute between the three princesses and the four princesses. Even if they woke up here, there was nothing serious, and the two of them could not really hide the matter again.

I want to cover the sky with one hand and make the big things small and the small things small.

Queen Tu 's hand is not so large, let alone Zhao Zhaoyi, it must not be a fair queen, so the two of them will rush to go to the emperor to sue, but it is expected that they will cause even greater trouble, and make the emperor confused Already.

The three princesses don't seem to be people who catch quickly. This will make such a big noise in the middle of the night. I heard it here really, and I don't hear it elsewhere ...

What do the three princesses want to do ...

There was nothing to say overnight, and Weiyuewu finally fell asleep in the middle of her dreams, and finally woke up early the next morning. Fortunately, I didn't sleep well last night, and I didn't feel tired this morning.

I woke up so early because I was awakened by a fierce knock.

Hearing the sound outside, Shu Fei hurried to the gate of the courtyard, opened the courtyard, and saw the two palace ladies standing anxiously at the gate. When they saw Shu Fei, they asked, "Have you seen our princess?"

"Three princesses?" Shu Fei stunned for a moment, but immediately reacted, reaching out and gesturing next door.

"Yes, do we see the three princesses?" The palace woman's head was full of sweat, even in the early morning, when the air was still a little bit cold.

"I don't see, what's wrong?" The book said in confusion.

"How could you not see it? Some people say that you saw our princess coming to your house?" A palace girl's face changed drastically, and she pointed at Shufei angrily. "Say, where did you hide our princess?"

"Why did you hide the third princess? Why should we hide the third princess?" Shu Fei looked blank, looking at the two maids in front of them inexplicably.

"Who knows what your peace of mind is, yesterday our princess was killed by you like this, and today you actually hid our princess." Another court maid also marched forward and martyred.

Wei Yue Wu helped Yu Yan to stand up and asked Yu Yan to open the veil of the window, stood in front of the window, and looked coldly at the two court ladies at the gate.

This is going to get into trouble first ...

Yu Yan got the meaning of Weiyue Wu, and said loudly outside.

"Shu Fei, the master asked you to bring someone over!"

"Yes!" Shu Fei gave way, and the two maids could not wait to get in, and looked around as they walked, as if they could really find the three princesses here at Wei Peng Wu.

This situation made both Shu Fei and Yu Yan's faces angry.

Although the status of the three princesses is noble, the identity of the owner is not bad. The two maids not only neglect the owner, but also do not take the owner at all.

But Weiyuewu didn't say a word, and the two girls only had to endure the bad breath. Shu Fei took two steps, grabbed the two of them when they got to the door, stopped them first, and then Weiyuewu in the room. Respectful Xu reports: "Master, here comes!"

"Bring in!" Wei Yuewu said coldly.

Shu Fei's body moved to the side, and the two looked stunned, but in fact the rude court woman entered.

These two are obviously not the maids who the Three Princesses brought to Huangzhuang before.

"Jingde County Lord, our princess was gone in the middle of the night. I heard someone came to you. Please ask the Jingde County Lord to allow us to search and find our princess!" He spoke first, and his eyes were still moving around the house, which was extremely solemn.

"You looking for the third princess?" Wei Yuewu smiled slightly.

"Yes, our princess is gone!"

"Come here! I know where!" Wei Yuewu hooked her fingers at her, her eyes narrowed slightly, showing a weird meaning.

But the palace maid didn't notice it, she was overjoyed, and said, "Thank you Lord Jingde, after you find our princess, please ..."

He didn't say a word, took a slap on his face, covered his face subconsciously, and screamed.

Wei Yuewu suddenly hit someone, startled another palace maid, and stepped back in alert, staring at Wei Yuewu angrily, "Jingde County Lord, why did you hit someone?"

Wei Yuewu took a seat on the chair behind her, and Pa, who had passed Shu Fei, wiped her hands, and sneered at the corners of her lips: "Why can't I hit you?"

"I ... we are the three princesses?"

"Three princesses want to murder me again? So I sent you to calculate?" Wei Yuewu narrowed her eyes and fluttered her long eyelashes twice. This is very casual, but in fact the thick suffocation made the two maids Speechless for a while.

"Say, who sent you to harm our master?" Shu Fei also yelled.

"Yesterday wanted to harm our master, and today came to harm our master again. Where did our master offend your princess, let her do this to hurt our master so many times, walk around, we will now see the prince, let the prince His Royal Highness commented on why your princesses have not let go of our master so much. "

Yu Yan was also a clever man, immediately understood the meaning of Weiyue Wu, and stared at the two women's roads.

For a time, the two maids were dumbfounded ...

Chapter 838: Misty, who is in the layout

To frame the Lord of Jingde County, or to frame the concubine of the King of Kings, no one can afford this responsibility!

Not to mention them, even if the third and fourth princesses quarreled with the emperor for this matter, it was not because they could not afford this responsibility.

But now this thing actually touches both of them.

The two palace ladies began to sweat coldly on their foreheads. After looking at each other, "Flop" and "Flop" all knelt down: "Jingde County Lord, we are really looking for the third princess. Some people said that they saw the third princess enter. It 's because of your yard, that 's why I came to ask you. "

"Entering the courtyard, there is no rudeness, it's your reason!" Wei Yüewu sneered sneerly.

"Slave ... the slaves are anxious! I hope the county master will forgive me!"

"I'm anxious, so I can search my yard at will? Not to mention that the third princess has nothing to do with me, even if the third princess has something to do with me, even the two of you don't want to search my yard!" Weiyue dance coldly.

"Yes ... it's the slaves who are more courteous!" The maids' heads became more and more severe, which would be really scared. They used to think that the Lord of Jingde County was a weak temper.

I heard that when I was in the house with Miss Lin who hadn't been through the door, she was always weak.

Whatever thought of this is not only weak, but also strong, let alone them, even if her own princess is present, it may not be able to stop it.

The two court ladies regretfully came here.

"Would you like to make the matter bigger?" Wei Yüewu saw the two palace ladies have been calmed down and slanted two humanities.

"No!" There was sweat in the vest too. The weak Jingde County Lord, who seemed to be blown down by the wind, had bright eyes as if he could see through the heart. Stuck twice.

"If you want to make a big noise, it's actually possible. Just two of you climb up the wall of my courtyard and then jump down from there, then you can say something to you!"

Wei Yuewu's eyes fell on the feet of the two court ladies.

The shoes worn by the women's feet are very heavy and look balanced. They are not like the most worn shoes in the palace of the past. They are very beautiful, but they are much thinner.

"Don't dare!"

"Slaves don't dare!" The two court ladies were uneasy in their hearts, stiffened their heads, and the other purpose they came in was indeed to cause trouble. No matter what it was, they just had to make things bigger, but the situation at the moment was not what they thought. You can make it big.

"Is someone trying to hurt me again?" Wei Yuewu's face calmed down.

"No. No." The two court ladies hurriedly said in unison.

"Who asked you to come here to make trouble?" Wei Yuewu said in a calm expression, without any delay.

"The lord, no one ..." a court woman hurriedly explained.

Wei Yue Wu has turned her head, "Shu Fei went to the East Palace and asked His Royal Highness what happened? Why is our matter still unresolved? Someone has brought it to us. Is it necessary to drive us away? , Then I won't stay in this palace either, and my body is restless. "

"Yes, the slaves will ask right away!" Shu Fei understood and turned to leave.

Seeing that the book had to leave, the two maids were in a hurry.

The matter is to cause trouble, but it does not mean that it is necessary to cause the trouble to the Prince of the Palace Wen Tianyao.

"The lord, someone really told the slaves that the three princesses have entered your yard!" The palace maid said anxiously.

"Who?"

"Slave ..." The palace girl hesitated.

"Shu Fei, go!"

"Yes ... it is the second concubine of the second prince and the second concubine of the second prince." The two court maids were about to be true when they heard Wei Yuewu, and they dared not hide it, anxiously.

Second prince side concubine?

Wei Qiufu?

Wei Yuewu sneered, and it turned out that someone was making troubles in it, but it was Wei Qiufu who did not expect this person. It seemed that Wei Qiufu had entered the second prince's palace and did not intend to be healthy.

However, if you think about it, the second prince is not an Ansheng, plus a Wei Qiufu two people can't survive even if you want to Ansheng.

But would Wei Qiufu want to secretly count on himself, is it silly? At present, when this situation is wrong, whoever comes in, Wei Qiufu will not think so.

"People of Wei Qiufu? Have you seen the second prince side concubine?" Wei Yuewu smiled with a hint of embarrassment.

The book had to stand still, and didn't rush out.

Seeing Shu Fei no longer going out, the two court ladies were relieved. This conversation has already been said, and there is nothing that can't be exported, so they told Wei Yuewu one by one.

The third princess is indeed missing. Last night, the third princess quarreled in her yard for a while. The reason why she lost her normality was because the doctors said that the face of the third princess who was stung by the wasp is very difficult to take care of. Maybe To return to normal, and there may be sequelae.

Hearing this news, the three princesses lost control on the spot, hit several palace maids in a row, and cried and made a lot of noise for half a night. Everyone was trembling.

After all, the three princesses had no sound and fell asleep, and a few maids and housemaids were exhausted to sleep.

What would you like to sleep until dawn, but found that the three princesses are gone, which is an anxiety to the maid and housekeeper in the yard over there, everyone is anxious to go out to find someone.

The two palace ladies happened to be in a group. The two of them didn't originally come to Weiyuewu. How could the three princesses run to this Jingde County lord.

After looking for a way, the two of them saw the master and slave in the pavilion in front of them. They were overjoyed, but when they drew closer, they found that they were not the three princesses at all.

Just before they were disappointed and wanted to leave, a palace maid came over to stop them and asked them what they wanted to do with the second prince's concubine. It turned out that this was the second prince's concubine who followed the second prince into the palace.

People in the entire palace know that the queen queen mother's favorite is the second prince, and the second queen is also the closest to the queen queen mother. As long as he is not sick and can't get up, he will always enter the palace to please the queen queen mother. Come, the second prince is the most filial piety, so the second prince is also the most talked about.

At this moment, the second prince accompanied the queen mother-in-law to speak, and the second prince side concubine was sent out, so she rested in the garden.

Knowing that the master over there is the second concubine's side concubine, the palace maid is actually inconceivable. The second prince takes good care of himself, and a side concubine is even more inconceivable.

So I just asked casually if I saw the three princesses and planned to leave.

There is no plan to get news from the second concubine.

I didn't expect that the palace lady said that she had really seen it, and said that the third princess had entered the house of the Lord of Jingde County, as if to go to the theory, I wonder if anything would happen.

As soon as this sentence was heard, the two maids were in a hurry, turned around and came back to look for it.

The palace lady held them again and said, I'm afraid the Lord of Jingde County is unwilling to let people know about it. I can't ask it if I ask, so I must make the matter bigger, and the Lord of Jingde County is scared. Speaking of the whereabouts.

The two maids felt that the method was good.

The court lady over there also repeatedly told them that they could not name the second concubine, saying that the second concubine had a bad relationship with the Lord of Jingde County before entering the second concubine. The so-called sisters are actually worse than an enemy. If the second concubine is spoken, the Lord of Jingde County will be angry, and she will not tell the whereabouts of the three princesses.

Regarding the words that the sisters are comparable to the enemy, the two maids still understood, but looking at the black eyes of the three princesses and the four fighters, they knew that this was not true.

Immediately nodded and came knocking on the gate of Yueyuewu.

I thought the weak and weak Jingde County master was actually very scared. I did n't know Wei Yuewu gave a slap to a maid, interrupted their arrogance, and then pressed harder and harder. Of the two court ladies had to be honest.

Now remembering that the second concubine was the victim of the concubine, where would she hide it for her at this time and tell the original story.

"You see the palace lady coming from the second concubine's side concubine?" As soon as the matter was finished, Weiyuewu groaned slightly and asked.

"Yes, the slave saw her coming from the second prince. It seemed that she was still talking to the second prince, and the second prince was also very happy. Then she came over and stopped us!" Answered.

"Have you talked to the second concubine?" Wei Yuewu lowered her head, picked up a palace fan on the side, and twiddled the tassel at random, and asked.

"No, the second prince is a little farther away, just seeing it from a distance, but didn't catch up!" Another palace girl also grabbed the words and shook her head.

They are all afraid of Weiyuewu getting angry, and there is nothing to say.

I didn't talk to Wei Qiufu, I just saw Wei Qiufu from a distance, and this maid was just talking to Wei Qiufu, which doesn't mean that this palace girl is Wei Qiufu's person!

Sakura's lips are slightly flaky, and a smile is evoked by the corners of her lips, which is becoming more and more interesting.

Someone not only knows Wei Qiufu and his hatred, but also wants to use Wei Qiufu and himself, but what benefit does he want to get from it?

Or, if this matter is really upset as he meant, who is the best?

Definitely not Wei Qiufu, the mouths of the two maids are not tight. If it is really big, eventually they will tell the truth. Wei Qiufu can't eat and walk away.

Is that yourself? Of course not. I made such a scene yesterday, and I was made this day again today. It seems that the disturbance is too powerful. The queen mother yesterday wondered if she was really fainted. There must be more.

It's so fierce that it doesn't look like a frail person.

Yesterday's incident will not be caused by my own imagination. Who do you want to frame?

The person who was least likely to doubt was suspected. Then, in turn, does it mean that the person who is most likely to doubt has become an innocent person?

As soon as my heart moved, the cold eyes of the water eye appeared. It turned out to be so. No wonder the more and more weird and the more mysterious this matter, the original was not just today's business, but also related to yesterday's business.

It's not just you, or Yan Huaihuan who is connected ...

Chapter 839: Wait, we can afford

"The three princesses are gone!" The news spread to the palace not long after.

Accompanied by more is the performance of the three princesses who were irritated and out of control yesterday, and the words spread more and more mysterious, and the more people misunderstand.

It is said that the three princesses had the most short-term rumors because they could not think for a moment.

Tu Zhaoyi, who was originally in the Splendid Palace, also got the news. Regardless of the fact that he was still being banned, he took a few people in his palace, and found the three princesses in the palace full of men, and the whole person was crazy.

Seeing that Tu Zhaoyi, who has always been delicate because of his pets, became like this, everyone felt pitiful when they saw it.

In the past, where there was such a thing, Tu Zhaoyi was always well-mannered and well-mannered in the past. In the past, there was a concubine who was not allowed to paint the queen's heart. When the queen tried to punish them, Tu Zhaoyi still helped out These new concubines.

This will look more and more sympathetic.

Some people who had Tu Zhaoyi's help before, although they didn't say anything clearly, helped secretly Tu Zhaoyi to find someone.

But the three princesses still could not be found.

Of course, the situation of Tu Zhaoyi was reported to Queen Tu. After thinking about it, Queen Tu could not hold the foot restraining order to restrict Tu Zhaoyi. It must be that the foot restraining order is actually not so important at this time.

And speaking of this ban, Queen Tu himself also has a ban on foot. This order is still given by the queen mother-in-law. The emperor suddenly fainted, something that no one had expected. The queen was really scared. This would be very safe, just thinking how to get the four princesses out of the way.

Compared to the three princesses, the situation of the four princesses is considered good.

When the third princess is in an accident, she must not be around. As for those arrows, who would stupidly shoot at someone with their iconic arrows and be left with evidence.

After the trouble of Tu Zhaoyi, after the queen Tu was stunned, she didn't care much. Just watch how Tu Zhaoyi makes trouble.

She and Tu Zhaoyi have also been sisters for so many years. Of course, she also knows well about Tu Zhaoyi's temperament, and knows that Tu Zhaoyi cannot be so crazy.

Although the three princesses are important, they are not important enough to make Tu Zhaoyi crazy.

Therefore, Queen Tu did not intend to care about this matter, and this matter had nothing to do with her, but this idea was immediately left behind after she received a letter.

The letter was thrown into the backyard of the palace, picked up by a puppet, and presented to the back of the emperor Tu. After the empress Tu looked at it, he turned a few circles in the same place with a gloomy face, and then sent his confidant mother-in-law Out.

She is also in a period of footbath, even if she is also in her own house, she really has to go out.

The reason why Zhao Zhaoyi was able to go out was that her current state seemed to be crazy.

Queen Tu has no reason to be crazy ...

Zhao Zhaoyi has been looking for the three princesses. There are many people in the whole palace who are helping to find them. Following this increasingly weak search, some rumors have become more and more intense.

The first is to say that the three princesses are extremely innocent.

Yesterday, what happened in Huangzhuang had nothing to do with the third princess. Not only did it have nothing to do with it, but also someone wanted to assassinate the third princess. The third princess was thrown away by a horse honeycomb, and was finally stunned because of being framed. .

As for the assassination of the Lord of Jingde County, it has nothing to do with the third princess.

The arrow is the arrow of the four princesses. After returning, it was not found when the arrow of the fourth princess fell into the hands of the third princess. This arrow has nothing to do with the third princess. As for the Lord of Jingde County, there is nothing, so-called Fainted, it may just be that the Lord of Jingde County was frightened.

At that time, there were only three princesses and four princesses, as well as the Lord of Jingde County, but only three princesses really happened. Isn't it enough to explain that the truth of the facts is not previously legendary.

Can't this person be the four princesses? The fourth princess and the third princess confronted each other for a day or two. Everyone knows that the fourth princess has been anxious to remove the third princess. In order to grab the son of the king of swallows, the four princesses will know what to do at a glance.

As for the weak and weak Jingde County Lord, he is actually a difficult person.

It will never be as simple as it seems on the surface, otherwise how could it be possible to have settled in Huayang Houfu as an orphan girl, and before Huayang Hou returned to the house, he had already Stand firm.

Therefore, in the Huangzhuang incident, the Lord of Jingde County was also the most suspicious person.

If there is a reason why the Lord of Jingde County should deal with the three princesses, there is actually a reason. The Lord of Jingde County is now married to the King of the King Yan, and also knows that the King of the King Yande originally went to Beijing to marry a princess. Marrying the King of King Yan was also caused by mismatches.

She was also worried that King Shiyan would have a tender and dignified third princess.

What's more, there are rumors that in the Huangzhuang Village, the King of King Yan's affection for the three princesses, but he ignored the Jingde County Lord and ignored her at all.

The Lord of Jingde County must have sensed this idea of King Shiyan, for fear of losing his status, he thought of such a vicious plan, and wrote and directed this farce. Of course, the purpose was to make the third princess dead.

The part of the rumors about the four princesses and the Lord of Jingde County came out later, but after the word came out, everyone felt more reasonable. Whether it was the fourth princess or the Lord of Jingde County, it was possible for the third princess to kill the princess.

Think of the three princesses who are leaning on the jade, so dignified and gentle, and still so honorable, but they end up so much. People who stand on the side of the three princesses for a while have become more and more important. The suspicion grew deeper, and for a while this suspicion slowly poured out of the palace and dispersed.

Only half a day later, it was also faintly heard that the Lord of Jingde County and the fourth princess were harming the third princess.

The three princesses, who have suffered so many injuries to their hearts and bodies, must not be able to survive until they have the idea of rebirth. It is estimated that something has happened.

With the disappearance of the third princess, more and more people believe that the third princess is innocent.

In front of the courtyard where Weiyuewu was, a group of palace ladies and housekeepers walked by. Although they didn't come in, they pointed far away. Some people even stood angrily not far from the courtyard door.

Shu Fei would still read it at first, but she would not go to the door to look at it anymore, she would no longer care about these things, and took the medicine pack before she got her hands. She entered the house and waited for Wei Yue.

In the room, Wei Yuewu was very leisurely, leaned on the bed, and flipped over a book at will.

Her black hair was not combed, but just combed casually, and let the three thousand troubles hang down for a long time, tied with a white belt behind her, the whole person looked clean and pure. , More and more look young and delicate.

Hearing Shu Fei's steps in the door a little, Wei Yuewu could not help but smile slightly. He reached over a page of books and asked without raising his head: "What's wrong? Unhappy?"

"Master, they're almost kicking their noses on their faces. The housekeeper who gave us the medicine said yin and yang strangely, the medicine will let us fry it ourselves, anyway, the master's body is not a big deal!"

Shu Fei put down the medicine in her hand and said with anger.

The medicine was prescribed yesterday, and I had to take a few notes. The people in the hospital yesterday were still panicked, for fear of getting the wrong medicine, and I sent a decoction of the housekeeper. This would be good. This housekeeper is completely a pair. When looking for something, he threw the medicine at Shufei and ran away.

Qi Feifei wanted to throw the medicine pack out on the spot. Fortunately, Shu Feifei was also intelligent. Knowing that she must not be swayed at this time, she had to grit her teeth and close it.

"They don't fry for us, we fry it for ourselves, maybe we really don't fry." Wei Yuewu smiled leisurely, and said in a hurry, as if not affected by outside things at all.

"Master, you are really good-tempered. You actually let those two people out, if you are slaves ..." Shu Fei felt really mad, apparently his master was so ill in the yard that he was sick, and he did n't even go anywhere. Come down from the sky.

The more Su Fei thought, the more he felt wronged.

"Did you feel particularly aggrieved?" Wei Yuewu looked up and glanced at Shu Fei, and couldn't help laughing.

"Master, you are still laughing!" Shu Fei felt that his whole body was exploding, and partial master was so good-temperament.

"So what am I going to do? Are you upset? That will only make me feel like I have a premeditated plan!" Wei Yuewu put down her book, leaned back lazily, and narrowed her bright eyes.

Originally thought that yesterday's thing had passed like this, I did not expect that there would be a more surprising follow-up ...

It should be Tu Zhaoyi's part!

It has long been thought that Tu Zhaoyi is not simple. Now it looks that Tu Zhaoyi is more simple than Tu Huang later.

No wonder it has been a favorite for so many years, and it also stood out in the draft at that time. After that, the emperor forced her into the house regardless of the rule that the first woman cannot enter the second daughter.

The reason for the mistakes later, I am afraid that I did not expect that Queen Tu was born because of a marriage error!

In this way, Tu Zhaoyi doesn't seem to have so much kindness to her mother-in-law.

Queen Tu does n't like her mother, so how can Tu Zhaoyi like it? How could she really have nothing to do with her mother and be good ...

"Master, can we really just wait like this?" Yu Yan on the side stopped talking, but couldn't help saying it in the end.

"Yes, we wait!" Wei Yuewu smiled slightly.

"Which time will you wait, but the words will get worse and worse, and more and more people will believe!" Shu Feiji said.

"Are you in a hurry?" Wei Yuewu raised Liu Mei and asked with a smile.

"Of course it is anxious, can you be anxious, it's all about the master and the son!" Shu Fei muttered.

"Tell me about it, so we are in a hurry, but it's not just us, isn't it just us who are in a hurry?" Wei Yuewu smiled more and more as the wind and light wind lightened. They are in a hurry, we will not be in a hurry. Moreover, although there is a lot of hiding places in such an imperial palace, there are not many places that people really look for! "

"Master, what are we waiting for?" The book was somewhat incomprehensible, but still incomprehensible. He blinked and looked at Wei Yuewu in wonder.

"Yes, we can afford to wait!" Wei Yuewu pointed out, picking up the book at hand, and looked up quietly.

Sure enough, Wei Yue Wu didn't wait too long. By lunch time, the whole palace was boiling again ...

Three princesses found!

Chapter 840: Peak circuit turns, conspiracy breath

The finding of the three princesses was indeed a very exciting thing, and there was a feeling of finally saving the third princess.

However, the three princesses were found out of Tu Zhaoyi's Splendid Palace, but they suddenly pushed the three princesses and Tu Zhaoyi to the top of the incident.

According to the four princesses who found the three princesses, when she took someone to the Splendid Palace to find someone, she also encountered people in the Splendid Palace who tried to stop them, and she looked very guilty. Then she entered the Splendid Palace. , No one found the first time, the four princesses reluctantly returned.

But remembering that there was a place in the middle of the walk, I didn't go to check it, so I shot a carbine again.

No one had expected that his temper would not be calm, and that the wise four princesses would not return to the carbine once, so they found the third princess from Tu Zhaoyi's palace.

The three princesses were hiding in Tu Zhaoyi's dormitory, but Tu Zhaoyi went crazy looking for the three princesses all over the world.

This may not sound like a shield, but when you think about it, it's extremely strange.

There are many palace people in the Splendid Palace. The three princesses want to mix in without being discovered by Tu Zhaoyi. That is impossible. Besides, the three princesses disappear first, and then Tu Zhaoyi looks for someone. After sorting the sequence, I felt a strong conspiracy in it.

If it weren't for the fourth princess rushing into Tu Zhaoyi's dorm room, no one would have found that the third princess was actually alive here.

Looking outside, rumors are full of sympathy for the third princess, which in turn means that the fourth princess and the Lord of Jingde County are the culprits, but the fact is that the third princess hid it with ulterior motives.

When this happened, it was another big wave.

Queen Tu refused to give up there either. This would go directly to the queen mother's house to cry, and it was said that she was also pulling Prince Tianwen together.

After that, the four princesses also passed with a swollen face instead of a face, and a nose other than a nose.

Tu Zhaoyi was not crazy this time, and followed the past. The queen mother's Jingchen Palace was once again comparable to the emperor's royal study.

But obviously, the queen mother-in-law who lives deep in the harem is a strong one. It is polite to make Tu Zhaoyi and the three princesses play three boards each, and then bring them back to her palace to heal them. It also shows that the matter is not over yet. Well over there, handle the harem yourself.

This is obviously the case where Zhao Zhaoyi and the three princesses wanted to frame the four princesses, and the Jingde County lord who was said to have been blamed entirely by the two princesses.

Of course, the four princesses are not innocent themselves, and yesterday's matter has not been resolved, and her own suspicions have not been cleared up.

As for the queen, Tu was also not good. She was severely scolded by the queen queen, who called her weak in charge of the harem. To the extent that Tu Zhaoyi dared to do such a thing, but also caused the concubine to hit, so that the troubled emperor was sick there.

To this end, let Queen Tu and the four princesses kneel in front of Jingchen Palace.

The news spread outside and everyone shook!

No one dares to move any more. Does the queen mother-in-law do not like the performance of Tu's daughter?

Someone suddenly remembered an early rumor that the righteous choice of the queen mother-in-law to her son was not actually the sister Tu, but the biological mother of the second prince, but she had no choice but to compromise. So much so that the Queen Mother has been unhappy for so many years.

The queen queen also gives special favor to the second prince.

The emperor was ill, the queen queen was angry, the queen was punished by kneeling, and the pet concubine was beaten. All of this shows that the whole palace is not very peaceful.

The harem is an extension of the former dynasty. Does the meaning in it really mean only the dispute between the queen of the harem and the concubine ...

Regardless of whether they understand it, many people think that it is better to wait and see at this time. One accidentally gets caught up in it and doesn't know how to die.

And becoming the core of the eyes of the former dynasties, Tu Taishi's house was still intact, as if he did not know that the two most honorable daughters in his house had made up for the penalty.

Master Tai is now almost half-dead.

He rarely goes to the dynasty, and the emperor also considers that he is old, and allows him to look at his own body.

When the news in the palace spread outside, it was said that Mr. Tu was visiting friends outside the city. He did not respond to the news and still enjoyed the mountains and the water outside.

It was a cloud of water for everyone to watch.

In such a situation, Mr. Tu is really so calm, and no wonder he is called a veteran!

The palace is very quiet now, and the princesses now dare not to toss anything else, even the queen and queen are kneeling in Jingchen Palace, they are even more afraid to do anything.

It used to be said that no emperor could protect them, but this would make the emperor still ill.

After Wei Yue Wu had finished his lunch, he said to the doctors in the Tai Hospital that he took the two rings to the Royal Garden at random, saying that they would appreciate the scenery, and then scattered the food.

She is not well, and she should not lie down after eating.

Before, everyone still felt that the Jingde County Lord had a bad heart, but now with the finding of the third princess, everyone feels that the Jingde County Lord is not only innocent, but also generous.

There is no word on the matter of the three princesses. It is said that even the two deliberately provocative court ladies treated each other with courtesy and did not oppose the third princess's harem, making the two princes regret their time and feel ashamed, quietly retreating.

This kind of behavior is more satisfying than the strong bully behavior of the four princesses.

The doctor in the Tai Hospital was also very fond of her. When she heard that she was leaving, she agreed immediately and told her that she should not walk more. It is better to let it go. When you are tired, sit down and rest. No need to force her. If you are not in good health, you need to seduce slowly.

Wei Yuewu thanked the doctor for her instructions before leaving.

As for the Royal Palace, she is not so strange now. She walked casually and found the Buddhist temple where the three princesses and four princesses prayed before. The palace allows other people in the palace to attend the Buddha.

But now it is very quiet. People in the palace will feel the wind and rain, and there is still the intention to attend the Buddha. Wei Yuewu didn't stay in the temple for a long time, and then went down the road and found the palace.

No one is outside the palace.

Walk around the palace in memory to the holed palace wall, frowning silently.

Shufang Palace

Watching Yueyue Wu silently, Shu Fei and Yu Yan did not dare to speak, but stood quietly behind Weiyue Wu.

After a long period of time, Weiyuewu exhaled heavily, began to move, and turned to the palace door.

The thick palace door was tightly closed. At first glance, I knew that I had closed it. I did n't know how many years. Almost all the palace door had been embroidered. Without the master's palace, the gate would not open, but there was a small side door on the side. But it was slightly closed, the book was pushed forward, and the door squeaked open.

"Who is it?" An old voice came from inside.

Weiyuewu walked in, and immediately saw the concierge, an old puppet came out, the puppet that I saw when I came here.

"Niangniang?" Laoyun's eyes were not good. She looked at Weiyuewu and screamed again.

Wei Yuewu, who was saying this, could not help frowning. When an old woman saw herself, she always recognized the wrong person, but it was not only the maiden and princess in this palace.

It's not more appropriate to call your princess by your age.

"Our lord is not the maiden in the palace, but the Jingde County lord whom the queen maiden kissed!" Yu Yan stepped forward and explained.

I didn't think it would be okay to say that, when the old man was scared, he almost couldn't stand. He took two steps back and hugged the post on one side. His face was pale: "The lord ... the lord ... You ... aren't you dead? This thing ... this thing really has nothing to do with slaves ... it has nothing to do with slaves, it's ... it's a mother ... "

"When will our master die!" Said Wei Yuewu's death, and Shu Fei was unwilling, angrily.

Wei Yue Wu waved his hand, looked at the old woman with a horrified expression, and walked up.

Seeing Weiyue dancing over, the old uncle became more frightened, and his voice was not consciously hesitant. He did not pay attention to what the previous book said: "The county master ... you ... your business really has nothing to do with slaves, slaves. ... Slaves also acted on their orders. "

"Who's your order?" Wei Yuewu stood softly in front of the old woman and asked softly.

"You ... your grandmother ordered the slaves, it was ... the lady-in-law ordered the slaves, county master, you ... you, the slaves were reported to the lady-in-law early."

The old man was terrified, and what he said was even more incoherent. Looking at Wei Yuewu's eyes straight, the whole person was shaking.

So, this old lady sees herself as the owner of Qingyang County?

The so-called virtuous concubine is of course the biological mother of King Bei'an, that is, the grandmother of the Qingyang County master!

However, there seemed to be something in this old uncle's words, allowing Wei Yuewu to groan for a while, thinking about where he should start, in order to find out what happened that year.

Raised Shuimu, looked at the scene in front of him, his eyes fell into one of the palaces.

That palace is a main hall, it looks no different from the main hall you saw in the past, and it appears to be much smaller. It should be when some ordinary princesses lived in the palace. Not be gorgeous.

But it is such an inconspicuous palace that makes Wei Yuewu feel creepy.

Pa Zi's hand trembled slightly, and his fingers were cold.

did you find it? It should have been found. The palace room in my memory, and the palace where the Lord of Qingyang last happened, should be the one in front of me!

Some of the images seemed to flash, but they didn't catch it all the time. Wei Yuewu reached out and supported the pillar on one side, only feeling that there was cold sweat on her forehead, but even so, she was still gritting her teeth to prevent herself from passing out.

Here, is this the place where the master of Seongyang fell?

It is also the place where Qingyang vomited blood and looked at her tenderly in her memory. Whether it was the cousins in the house or the cousins in Jiangnan's ancestral family, it seemed that Qingyang did not feel strong to herself.

That's the feeling that my sister takes care of my sister.

Very heartwarming, but now I think of it with deep despair ...

Qingyang-already dead!
