

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1325

Ren Zhiyuan was so angry that his face turned red and his neck was thick. "Stupid girl! Shut Up!" "Uncle Ren, there's no rule that says you can't speak in this competition. If you want to say it, you can say it. I didn't stop you." Yun chujui curled her lips and said. Ren Zhiyuan was so angry that he increased the intensity of his attacks. However, not only was Yun chujui agile, but every time she was about to dodge in time, her body would flash with light, and her spiritual energy attacks would be blocked by the spiritual energy barrier. "TSK tsk, Uncle Ren, I'm really sorry. I usually like to collect defensive spiritual tools, so I have at least ten thousand defensive spiritual tools on me, so you can attack me all you want. See if you run out of spiritual power first or if my defensive spiritual tool runs out first." Yun chujui kept provoking him. Ren Zhiyuan was so angry that he gnashed his teeth. "Stupid girl! I don't believe that you can't run out of defensive spiritual tools. I must kill you today." "Who doesn't know how to Talk Big? I even said that I would kill you! Tsk!" Yun chujui rolled her eyes and said disdainfully. Ren Zhiyuan was so angry that he attacked Yun chujui crazily. Yun chujui was delighted. I spent so much effort just to completely anger you. Very good. Only when you are so angry that you lose your mind, Can I find a chance to counterattack. Yun Chujui was once again forced to the edge of the ring. Ren Zhiyuan was afraid that Yun chujui would use the spiritual energy shield to block his spiritual energy attack, so he directly jumped forward and prepared to kick Yun chujui out of the ring. The moment he raised his leg, Yun chujui suddenly threw several purple needles at him. Ren Zhiyuan revealed a cold smile. Want to sneak attack me? What wishful thinking! Although your materialization of spiritual power is a little strange, I just need to set up a spiritual energy shield. Ren Zhiyuan thought of this and set up a spiritual energy shield. He still kicked at Yun Chujui. Unexpectedly, Yun Chujui rolled on the ground and threw a stack of talismans at him! Ren Zhiyuan was so scared that he quickly dodged back. Yun Chujui threw another talisman at him. The loud explosions continued, and several deep pits were blasted on the ground. With Ren Zhiyuan's cultivation, it was not a problem for him to dodge, however, it was impossible for him to not get out of the ring! The moment Ren Zhiyuan stepped out of the ring, Yun chujui clapped her hands and laughed, "Uncle Ren, I told you to admit defeat, but you didn't. Now You've lost, right? Haha!" Ren Zhiyuan said in a flustered and exasperated manner, "This, this doesn't count! You're cheating!" "Cheating? How did I cheat? Did I say not to use the talisman? Besides, don't you know that war is never blind to cheating? Dharma Protector Tao, since you've lost, Let's fight to the death in ten hours!" Yun chujui said to Dharma Protector Tao with a smile. Dharma protector TAO's expression was extremely unsightly. He glared at Ren Zhiyuan and thought to himself, what a waste. Although he was very unwilling to keep his promise, he could only act according to the agreement after swearing the Devil's oath in his heart. He ordered everyone to only surround and not attack., they would launch the attack after ten hours. Yun Chujui returned to the palace master's wife's side and was chatting and laughing. There was no trace of nervousness at all. In fact, this fellow was very worried. Even though he tried his best to stall for time during the competition, this little bit of time was simply not enough., there was still no progress on Xiao Hei's side. Even if they could destroy the formation's eye within ten hours and spread the news, they were afraid that they would not be able to wait for the Pretty Boy to come to their rescue. They had to think of a way to save themselves. It would be best if they could stall for at least two days.
