

ZONGWU: SIGN IN AN ARMY OF 100,000 AT THE BEGINNING

Chapter 15

Duan Yu was surprised when he heard the general called the little girl the princess. He didn't realize that the little girl was actually a princess.

This time he knew he was in serious trouble. If the little princess refused to give up this time, he knew he might not be able to leave this time.

Qiao Feng also looked at this little girl in surprise. He did not expect that this little girl was actually a princess. Now Qiao Feng was somewhat impressed by this little princess.

This little princess was calm in the face of danger at such a young age, which reminded Qiao Feng of the Princess Zhao Min of Dayuan, who was also a smart woman with a sharp wit.

Qiao Feng thought that if Su Yan's little princess grew up, she might not be weaker than Dayuan's Zhao Min.

Commander Gu Changfeng looked at these people with weapons and ordered, "Prepare the crossbows. If you don't put down your weapons, you will be killed."

Zhu Wanli and the others are in a bit of trouble now. Now that they are being pointed at by military crossbows, even if they have good martial arts skills It is impossible for high-powered people to avoid these crossbows. If they dare to act rashly now, they may be shot into a hornet's nest in an instant.

Zhu Wanli looked at Zhu Zidan next to him and said nervously, "Brother Zhu, what should we do now?"

Zhu Zidan looked at these soldiers and said in embarrassment,

"We can't resist if we put down our weapons. The Crown Prince is here now. If we resist, we may bring harm to the Crown Prince."

Zhu Zidan knew that they were in trouble this time. If they don't put down their weapons and surrender now, I'm afraid these soldiers will shoot them directly.

"Well, we can't resist anyway"

"we hand over our weapons"

"Tie them all up."

Commander Gu Changfeng ordered when he saw these people put down their weapons. He knew that these were martial arts masters, so they could not take it lightly at this time.

"Yes."

Seeing those people put down their weapons, Su Yan pointed at Duan Yu and said,

"Gu Changfeng and Xiao Li's eldest son also tied him up and imprisoned them in the Xuanwu Legion first. They should be watched carefully by me. If they dare to escape, they will be executed directly.

Duan Yu now said to Su Yan in panic, "Little Princess, I am the Crown Prince of Dali, you can't do this to me."

Duan Yu wanted to escape now, but when he came to the window, he found that the outside of Songhe Tower had been surrounded by a large number of troops.

Now even if he has great martial arts skills, it is impossible for him to escape. If he dares If you use Qinggong to escape, you will probably be shot down by those crossbows.

Su Yan looked at Duan Yu who wanted to escape and smiled shamelessly and said,

"Haha, why, weren't you just about to jump off the building and escape? You can jump off the building and escape now.

Duan Yu looked at Su Yan in shock and said," You.....You actually went out with so many troops?

Su Yan now said a little arrogantly,"Is this much?" This is just an army of a thousand men, which I think is too small. In the future I will go out and lead an army of tens of thousands. Only then will I be truly majestic."

"If you arrest me now, aren't you afraid of causing a war between Dali and Song Dynasty?" Duan Yu said to Su Yan with some threats.

Now Duan Yu can only threaten the former princess with war. As long as the little princess is afraid of causing a war, he will let them leave.

Su Yan said to Duan Yu without caring. ,"Why should I be afraid? You are a small country like Dali. If my father gave me an army, I could destroy you Dali right now."

Duan Yu didn't expect that this little princess would dare to threaten them, Dali.

"You dare, I have great masters in Dali, and there are even many great masters. If you dare to launch a war against our Dali, our great masters in Dali will come and kill you."

Su Yan said mockingly after hearing Duan Yu's words,

"Hey, it sounds like we don't have a great master in the Song Dynasty. Prince Xiaoli, you have to know that you are not Han people after all."

"If your grand master from Dali dares to come to the Song Dynasty, do you believe that the grand master from the Song Dynasty will take action to intercept your grand master? Gang Leader Qiao, if a martial arts master from Dali comes to the Song Dynasty, your Beggar Gang won't stand idly by and watch, right?"

Qiao Feng smiled and said when he saw Su Yan asking him,

"You little girl, you actually want to drag me into the water this time."

Su Yan smiled and said to Qiao Feng,

"Haha, you are a master master, and you are also the leader of the Beggar Clan who understands righteousness. I think you will not help our Song Dynasty, right?"

Qiao Feng patted his chest and said loudly,

"Of course I will help the Song Dynasty. Our Beggar Gang will not let martial arts masters from other countries attack and kill the generals of the Song Dynasty."

Su Yan happily said to Qiao Feng after hearing what he said,

"Gang Leader Qiao is still loyal enough. From now on, if Gang Qiao needs my help, he can come directly to Wu Xiangjun's Mansion. If I can help, I will definitely help Uncle Qiao."

"you? Isn't your Song Dynasty a country of benevolence and righteousness? You cannot send troops against our Dali"

"Gu Changfeng, take them down"

"Yes, princess."

When Duan Yu and the others were taken away, Su Yan sat down again, but now the other guests in Songhe Tower looked at Su Yan with admiration.

They did not expect Wu Xiangjun's daughter to be so They were very curious about this little princess who was so smart since she was young.

Qiao Feng took a sip of wine and asked doubtfully, "Little princess, you don't really want to send troops to Dali, do you?"

Qiao Feng is also afraid that this little princess will directly send troops to Dali. Although Dali's army is not very good, Dali is a small country after all, and there are still many troops.

Moreover, the Song Dynasty is surrounded by enemies on all sides. If something happens to Dali now, I am afraid that other countries around the Song Dynasty will take advantage of the war, and the people of the Song Dynasty will probably be devastated again. This is not what Qiao Feng wants to see.

Su Yan smiled when he saw Qiao Feng's serious look and said,

"Haha, I was just scaring that stupid prince. I don't have an army now. It took me a few days for my father to agree to give me this thousand troops. Qiao Feng breathed a sigh of relief after hearing Su Yan's words, "Haha, you are really a clever guy. I'm afraid Mr. Wu Xiang can't control you anymore."

Su Yan clenched his fist and waved it a few times and said, "Of course my father can't control me, but he can't beat me."

Su Yan thought that if the Zhu Guo that Su Chen had given him had not been used to condition her body, Su Yan might be an innate master now.

Qiao Feng was a little speechless after hearing Su Yan's words. He did not expect this little princess He was not afraid of his father. It seemed that Wu Xiangjun loved her daughter very much.

At this time, Wang Yuyan also came to Wu Xiangjun's mansion. She was a little afraid to go there when she saw the heavily guarded Wu Xiangjun's mansion.

Wang Yuyan now doesn't know if Su Chen still remembers her sister, whom she has never met. After all, they had written letters when they were children, but they have stopped for many years now. Su Chen doesn't know if Su Chen still remembers her.
