

Chapter 252

Janet shuddered when she heard his words.

She grasped William's hand, her eyes sparkling with rage!

"Oh, so this is what you are up to, William!" she thought.

Janet was wondering why he promised the shareholders he would resign as the director in their bet earlier.

At first, she had thought that he was just plain stupid.

Who knew he would've dug a grave for her instead!

Since he was now the company's biggest shareholder, he would leave all the dirty hard work to her.

What a bloody brilliant genius he was!

He literally killed two birds with one stone!

Janet had assumed that after making his last move, she would be able to leave and bid farewell to all this mess.

How naive of her! He practically traded off all his responsibilities as the director and became a dictator of the company.

Just how evil he was!

William looked at Janet and said with a serious expression, "When are you going to get the doctors to check your mood swings? I should really treat you!"

She shoved William's hand away angrily and murmured viciously, "Just wait and see! I'm going to kill you!"

Flavia looked at Janet with amusement. The rage she saw on Janet's face was all too familiar.

Just a while ago, Melissa was, too, shaking with red fury.

It looked like the Avengers was going to have a new member soon.

"Clean up my office once the meeting is over. I might drop by anytime." William left the meeting room gleefully after saying what he had to say.

Janet was left behind with a bewildered look on her face.

Janet was so irate that she was almost choking on her rage.

He wasn't treating her like a human being, wasn't he? Why was he making her do something as trivial as tidying his office?

She composed herself and then quickly adjourned the meeting. After arranging everything for Flavia, she left the conference room dejectedly to tidy up

William's office.

His entire desk was piled with documents.

While tidying the table, she cursed at him. However, a document caught her eye.

Her heart twitched!

The document wasn't the one that she promised to give William.

It was the medical records from the system.

And the one on top was Frandick's!

She couldn't believe her eyes. She flipped through it and discovered that these medical records were exactly the same as the list of experts she had given to William.

For a moment, she felt dizzy.

She couldn't tamp down her anger any longer. She grabbed everything on the table and went to look for Melissa.

At that moment, Melissa was in her office enjoying her orange juice. Seeing Janet storming into her office, she quickly greeted, "Janet, what brought you here?"

Janet threw the document onto Melissa's desk. She rubbed her head, feeling befuddled. "I think my head is going to explode! I don't want to use my brain to comprehend all this mess anymore! Otherwise, I'm going to start having a nosebleed. You're smarter and you've been trained by him for a while now. You sort through his sh*t!" Although Janet could tell the intentions behind most of William's actions, there were still certain things where she found suspicious and was still dubious about.

She told Melissa everything including her assumptions.

Both of them sat on the floor and started picking each other's brain with intense focus.

They finally had a lead two hours later.

An earth-shattering lead, if they might add!

They figured out when this brat started putting his plan into action.

It should be since the day he stepped foot into Lunanica Media. He must've had the idea to reshuffle the management team in the company all along!

Flavia should have already promised William that she'd come over to Lunanica Media about the same time.

Everything started on the day when they signed that absurd agreement.

He had played his cards well by buying over the copyrights of the film, just to avoid any subsequent conflicts with Henderson Media. That way he would enjoy the exclusive rights to edit the movie.

The move was to make the shareholders upset during the shareholder meeting.

At the meeting, he had wagered his directorial position in order to sustain the meeting. Besides, he even dragged Janet into this mess.

The granting of sponsorship was to guarantee Baxter's appearance in the meeting earlier in the day. At the same time, he could make the shareholders become even angrier.

On the surface, he didn't allow Laura to play the leading role because he planned to use that to threaten her and to warn her that she would have a huge setback. At the same time, he set up another trap by letting Linda capture the photo of him hugging Laura on purpose.

After firing Linda, he got Darren to be left at the underground carpark on purpose, leading to their encounter. As they had a common enemy, the chances were high that they hit it off right away.

It was through Darren that Martin got involved. That was how he got the three of them together.

As for the filming issue, he deliberately proposed the idea to conduct the shoot themselves during the meeting to irk the shareholders once again.

He then proposed to modify the script, which was his most important move.

He altered it by inserting a medical journal that came from god-knew-where.

If someone was not detailed and observant, there was no way to discover this piece of earth-shattering news.

It was also worth mentioning that William had directly asked Janet to gather a list of medical experts just to set up a trap for Martin.

Martin thought that William was going to bribe these experts, therefore he secretly sent out invitations to the movie premiere based on the list.

There was only one reason why the invitation managed to get Frandick's attention!

William got his hands on Frandick's and other experts' medical records through Vinson. This allowed him to get hold of their respective health histories.

And, he knew very well that there would be one prescription out of ten that could sustain Frandick's life!

Everything was within William's control!

When Martin informed William that they didn't have the funds or actors available, William had long expected it. He used the company's own actors and promised them a high price in exchange if they terminated the contract prematurely. William even sent them off on vacation!

As for Martin, in order to lead William to his demise, he didn't look for any good actors. He chose some useless ones on purpose. Little did Martin know that he had already fallen right into William's trap!

It was those rubbish actors who helped William earn 1.1 billion yuan!

After the filming was completed, William edited it himself. He had deliberately cut and edited several scenes involving the prescriptions, making the movie look like a horrible mess, all for the sake of getting the experts' attention.

The movie was received badly when it was released. In addition to the past incidents, William naturally took the blame and resigned. Nobody suspected anything when Janet took his place.

William just walked away from all of it happily, leaving behind the four pouches to Janet so she could continue his plan.

During the second shareholders meeting, William had predicted the onslaught from the shareholders as well as Martin's betrayal.

Using his power as a shareholder, coupled with the fact that the embezzled money was in his hands, William snatched away a big portion of the company's shares, thus taking full control of Lunanica Media!

On the other hand, William also learned that the people from the Medical Association weren't as honest as they seemed. He knew that they would use other means to get the prescriptions. In addition, they didn't have much time, hence they would definitely make their move before Frandick.

There were only two ways for them to get their hands on it, one was through the actors' script, and the other through the original copy of the movie.

By editing the movie, William used this tactic into leading them toward the clues he had left for them to identify.

Yohan and the rest had been played by William's perfect plan. They had even lost so much money to Janet.

William just needed Frandick to appear before he could wrap it all up.

Finally, it was the finishing touch.

He took advantage of Martin's, Linda's and Darren's crimes to send the three of them to jail.

Not forgetting, he also used the clip he had prepared ahead to clear Laura's name.

He took advantage of Flavia's arrival in the company to save Lunanica Media that was hanging by the thread.

After Janet and Melissa completed their analysis, they couldn't help but gasp in amazement.

They had used so much brainpower to wrap their head around it.

How could that little brain of William generate such a marvelous plan?

His main motive for shooting a movie wasn't the movie itself. It was the reason that he wasn't bothered when the movie turned out terrible.

He only had two objectives in mind!

Firstly, it was to sell off the ancient prescriptions to earn money!

Secondly, it was to completely reshuffle Lunanica Media's entire structure and gain control of the company.

Why did he have Janet to work for him? Why did he let Martin and the rest pay for their crimes? Why did he even bother to vanquish the people from the Medical Association? Well, that was just something that naturally fell into place in order to achieve his scheme.

There was still one part that Janet and Melissa still couldn't understand.

What was the conditions that Frandick promised William?

Presumably, this brat was going to cause another bloodbath in the annual meeting of the Pharmaceutical Association that would take place in three days.

It took a long time for the two to come back to their senses. Janet looked dispirited. "Melissa, you've suffered a lot because of him. That little b*stard isn't humane at all!"

Because of Melissa, Janet had been addressing William as a little b*stard too.

Melissa felt uneasy. She took out her phone and said to Janet with a somber face, "Janet, scan this QR code and join this group chat. I'll show you a whole new world!"

@vamp20works

Chapter 253

Janet was taken aback.

Melissa had invited her before to join a group chat.

At that time, Janet didn't think too much about it.

Since Melissa brought it up again, this group sounded rather mysterious.

"What group chat?" Janet asked while scanning the QR code.

Melissa's face showed faint resentment. "This is a group chat, especially for that little b*stard. For us to badmouth him. You'll find joy and peace in it."

Melissa then discreetly told her that William's wife, Felicity was also inside the group chat. However, she didn't know that the group was for dissing William.

When Janet heard this, she was immediately intrigued.

Melissa sent a voice recording to the chat group, "Guys, let's welcome a newcomer. Newcomer, remember to put your alias."

Janet scrolled through the chatbox before she had a lightbulb moment. She changed her name to Hammer Holder.

When Melissa saw her name, she gave Janet a thumbs up!

"Well, I'll be d*mned!" Melissa thought.

She felt like nothing could hold back an angry Janet, not even the strongest man on earth.

Everyone in the group responded immediately, but Melissa found it odd that Felicity remained silent.

Normally, if any one of them started a conversation in the group, Felicity would be the first to respond eagerly.

She didn't live up to her alias that day, The Cheerleader.

Felicity finally responded after ten minutes.

Her message made both of them frown.

Her message read, "Something happened to my sister, I'm not really in the mood to chat, I'm sorry."

When Melissa saw this, she said to Janet with great disappointment, "Looks like you're not in luck today. You can't experience the joy that Felicity usually brings to the group. Maybe some other day then."

Janet felt slightly disappointed.

At the same time, Qena City and all the online portals were bustling with chaos.

The first shocking news was that Flavia had joined Lunanica Media without anyone noticing it.

The other news was that Flavia would collaborate with Lunanica Media in releasing two videos, clearing Laura's name.

The one that rattled the entire city was the second one.

Everyone turned silent while watching the two videos.

The only decent actress in the movie Lunanica Media produced was probably Laura.

Such a beautiful and hardworking woman had been misunderstood. She even received a lot of disgraceful comments online.

All of a sudden, those who had insulted Laura before felt guilty.

They instantly flocked to the websites to post their apologies to her.

Laura's reputation changed overnight; she was even more well-received than before.

Reading all the apologies online, Laura's eyes became red.

She couldn't help it anymore; she raced to William's place.

It was already nine that night.

William was at home waiting for Felicity to return when he received an unexpected call from Laura.

He stepped out of the house and saw Laura standing beside her car.

Her eyes shifted toward William; there were thousands of thoughts on her mind but she couldn't even get one out.

"What's wrong?" William asked.

Laura shook her head. Out of nowhere, her face started turning red. "Nothing, I just came to see you."

When she said this, she felt shy.

Laura was already thirty years old.

She felt as though she had fallen in love for the very first time.

Seeing how well William handled all the responsibilities that came with his position, Laura had a sense of admiration.

It felt like William was her Prince Charming who travelled across the seven seas to bring her back to his kingdom.

Looking at Laura's blushed face, William understood what was going on at once. He said, "Well, I owed you a favor."

Laura nodded. All of a sudden, she felt this wave of courage sweeping over her. Laura took a step forward and hugged William tightly.

While feeling William's warmth in her embrace, tears rolled down her face.

William instinctively wanted to push away Laura; he didn't want to give her any false hope.

But as soon as he stretched out his hand, he hesitated.

Laura was the one who had suffered the most from all the chaos.

No matter how perfect the ending was, the humiliation she suffered from this debacle would remain etched in her forever.

William was in a daze for a while.

Had he crossed the line just to achieve his own goals?

"Thank you," Laura said through choked tears.

William didn't speak for a while.

She then let go of William. Seeing how awkward and rigid he was, she chuckled.

Her laughter sounded as delightful as the flowers blooming in spring.

Looking at how silly he looked, Laura couldn't help but feel proud.

No matter how great this brat was, she had finally managed to take him by surprise.

He was just like any other boys out there.

Laura smiled and said, "Don't worry. With this hug, we no longer owe each other any favors. However, I did not have any ulterior motive when I hugged you just now. And no, there are no cameras around."

William chortled slightly. "Thank you."

Laura's face turned red again. Then, she ran back into her car. Stepping on the gas pedal, her car disappeared in the dark.

William shook his head at her as he saw her leaving.

He hoped that after experiencing these ups and downs, she would be more kind to the world and others.

William walked into the house. Felicity returned much later that night with a stench of alcohol on her entire body.

William frowned. "Were you drinking?"

Felicity looked tired and dejected as she answered, "Yes, I had a drink with Xena."

"What's wrong with Xena?" William asked.

Felicity shook her head and said bitterly, "She refused to tell me, but I'm sure she is into some trouble. She also mentioned that this had something to do with you and her."

William's eyes dazzled with bewilderment. What could that be?

Could it be...

He was silent for a while before he continued, "You should go wash up first. I'm sure everything will turn out fine. Don't worry. I'll make sure nothing happens to her."

Felicity looked at William with gratitude. "Well, she is my only sister. You have to help her this time no matter what happens. Yes, we'll help her together."

William nodded and didn't say anything more.

Meanwhile, Xena was completely drunk. When she reached home, she buried herself under the blankets and wailed her sorrows.

During the day, Xena received an unexpected call from Steven.

Steven insisted that she met him, otherwise she would have to bear the consequences.

From the way he spoke, she could tell it had something to do with William.

After hesitating for a bit, she headed over to Steven's.

Seeing Xena, Steven was obviously delighted.

"You better tell me now why you called me over," Xena demanded with a cold face.

Steven just sneered at her. He got straight to the point and showed his iPad to Xena.

After taking a good look at it, Xena's whole face turned pale.

She looked at Steven in disbelief. "Where did you get this?"

Steven had reminded Xena of a memory she would never forget!

14:49

It was a video showing William with a machete in his hand. He was heading to the place where Fernando stayed. In the next second, he lifted the knife in his hand and brought it down at the speed of light before a human head was seen falling off from its master!

A murder scene!

What a frightening sight it was!

@vamp20works

Chapter 254

When Xena saw the video, her face turned pale with fright.

There was William and her in the video.

She looked at Steven in disbelief. "Where did you get this?!"

Steven chuckled and thought to himself, "Where did I get this? That is a good question!"

When William wielded the knife at Fernando's house, Steven happened to be at the scene.

It was just that William had asked Henry to wipe off his memory.

Henry had therefore used the acupuncture techniques to trigger a series of reactions in Steven's brain and cause a temporary memory loss.

But Henry's acupuncture skills were clearly not effective.

In the previous few days, Steven had suffered from splitting headaches that even the doctors couldn't cure him.

There was a night after he fell asleep, he started to have flashbacks of memory on what happened that day.

All he saw was blood everywhere. It was definitely a gruesome scene.

It was all so frightening that he awoke from his sleep.

He tried to recall the random bits and pieces of flashbacks. The more he remembered it, the more he shuddered in fear.

Steven managed to track down a few old CCTVs located halfway up the mountain after pulling some strings before he got hold of some footage.

The footage was enough to take down that sc*mbag, William forever!

At that moment, Steven's first thought was to use this video to blackmail William.

But after thinking about it, he brushed aside the idea.

That sc*mbag would never have yielded. If Steven threatened him, Steven might end up losing his own life instead.

Moreover, even if he managed to take down this brat, it would only give him a short-lived pleasure.

Didn't William always listen to Felicity?

Felicity was on the other hand very close to Xena.

He pondered on the possibility of using their relationship to take advantage of Felicity.

He could perhaps use this tactic to defeat William indirectly and made him suffer until he was at his wits' end.

On top of it, he could also reap some benefits from Felicity along the way!

She held great authority after all!

"Don't worry about where this comes from but I assure you that it is unedited footage. Xena, oh, Xena, I never thought you'd do something so brutal with that sc*mbag. Think about it, if I disclose this footage to the media, then the best-case scenario for you and your brother-in-law is that you both will spend your entire life in prison," Steven stated triumphantly.

Part of his memory was still not intact. In fact, he had no recollection of who else was at the crime scene or what actually took place.

However, this video was enough.

Xena was shaking like a leaf at this moment. Her tone immediately softened, "No, Steven, you can't disclose this video. It will ruin William. I beg you, seeing how we're family, please destroy the footage, and I'll repay you in my own ways in the future."

At that moment, Xena only had William in mind. It didn't cross her mind at all that she would also be punished.

Seeing that Xena was beseeching him, Steven burst into laughter.

Oh, he felt so good!

It felt amazing!

"I will not disclose this video for the time being, but that depends on how you behave. If you listen to me, I may destroy it when I'm in a good mood," Steven said as though he was a king. On the couch, he swirled the glass of wine in his hand.

God knew how conflicted Xena was at this time. She could only ask bitterly, "What do you want me to do?"

"Well, first, it seems like Grandma is planning to have a family meeting tomorrow. I want you to tell Felicity that I will chair tomorrow's meeting and she will do as per my instructions!" Steven demanded bluntly.

Xena's face became stiff. "No, Felicity shouldn't be dragged into this!"

"Then, please leave." Steven was up for a negotiation.

Xena's eyes turned moist and her tone softened again, "No, Steven, I beg you. I can promise you anything except this!"

However, Steven just turned away, not giving her another glance.

In the end, Xena chose to give in. "Okay, you have my word, but you have to live up to the end of your promise."

Xena's heart had already shattered into a thousand pieces at this moment.

"William, what should I do now?" she thought. Steven sneered. "Then let's keep our promises. As long as Felicity listens to me tomorrow, I'll destroy the footage."

After Xena left Steven's house, she felt as though her soul was leaving her body.

After a long hesitation, she asked Felicity out.

She gulped down lots of wine, struggling to think of a way to tell Felicity about her promise with Steven.

It was till late that night, Xena was completely wasted and Felicity was about to send her back home.

Xena suddenly burst into tears and knelt down in front of Felicity. "Felicity, William and I are in trouble, you must help us."

Felicity was shocked, she quickly helped Xena up.

But Xena seemed to be glued to the ground. All she did was to cry non-stop.

Guilt cut through her heart like a knife.

The only reason why William had committed the murder was that Xena was the one who had asked Felicity out to go shopping that day, which led to her being kidnapped.

It all started with her, and she had dragged William into it.

It was her fault again this time. She did not want to bring Felicity into it.

However, Xena had to think of the big picture. If the video was released, William would be doomed.

"Felicity, can I ask you for a favor? We're going to have a family meeting tomorrow..." Xena told Felicity about Steven's request.

Felicity was stunned. She demanded more details but Xena refused to tell more.

How could Xena tell Felicity that William had murdered someone?!

In the end, Felicity had to agree to Xena's request.

The next day, Felicity was sound asleep when she was suddenly awakened by her phone.

She picked up the phone and saw that it was Steven.

She immediately answered the call, "Steven, what did you do to Xena?"

Steven cackled. "Didn't she tell you? Oh yeah, I'm sure she wouldn't have. You don't need to worry about that. I'm just calling you on Grandma's behalf, come over now."

"Oh, by the way, bring along that sc*mbag of yours. Doesn't he like to follow you around? Hahaha." Steven made that additional remark before hanging up.

Felicity's face turned pale; she could tell something was going to happen at Yasmine's house that day.

She quickly woke William up and left for Yasmine's house.

As soon as they entered the house, William saw Steven looking at him slyly. There was an unspeakable jest in his eyes.

As for Xena, she was sitting in a corner looking very guilty and apologetic.

William and Felicity walked to the round table and sat down. Felicity just glared at Steven without saying a word.

The house went into a complete silence.

Steven spoke at that moment.

There was arrogance in his words. "Felicity, can I make a request before the meeting begins?"

Felicity knew that he was plotting something, but she had given her words to Xena. She said while frowning, "If you have something to say, just say it. I'll agree to it no matter what."

Xena could feel her heart drumming inside. She didn't know what Steven would want.

Steven suddenly rose from his seat and sat in the seat that belonged to the Head of the Bai family. He declared in a steady and condescending tone, "How about I become the Head of the Bai family from today onwards?"

Chapter 255

Upon hearing this, the Bai family broke into an uproar!

Everyone stared at Steven in disbelief.

It was common knowledge that Steven had always had his eyes on the head of the family.

However, no one thought he would bring it up during that point!

If Yasmine were the one who was the head of the house at this moment, it was still acceptable for Steven to make such a demand. After all, she was getting pretty old, so her retirement would be just around the corner and soon she would give away the position to her children and grandchildren.

But Felicity was the current head of the Bai family.

She was still young and had a lot of potential!

Steven's words clearly showed his intention to dethrone her!

Yasmine immediately shouted, "Steven, what are you talking about?!"

But Steven just sneered and stared at Felicity.

Xena, who was sitting at a corner, took it all in and couldn't help feeling very guilty.

How would she have known that Steven would be so bold to snatch away Felicity's position?!

Everybody knew how much humiliation and challenges Felicity had overcome in order to become the head of the family.

She deserved it rightfully!

Steven was no match for her!

How could he make such an audacious request?!

Xena was about to rise from her seat, but immediately, Steven glowered at her.

She was so terrified that her body suddenly froze.

A cowardly feeling washed over her. Yet, she was reluctant to give in!

If she didn't relent, then their lives in the Bai family would never be peaceful ever again!

However, Felicity would have to suffer for it.

Felicity was trembling with anger!

She wasn't hankering after for this position and the power that came with it.

What bothered her was the fact that William was the one who had her appointed as the head of the family.

Felicity truly treasured the effort and price William had paid to get her that position.

If she gave in, it would essentially mean that she had let William's hard work go to waste.

But if she didn't yield to Steven...

Thinking of this, Felicity looked at Xena.

She saw the pain in Xena's eyes, as well as the pity and plea on her face.

Felicity's heart jolted. She then looked at William again.

William had already foreseen it happening; he squeezed Felicity's hand under the table and said, "It's okay, give it to him."

Felicity was a little hesitant. "But, that's all your..."

William interrupted Felicity and looked at Steven with his cold eyes. Even the tone in his voice was equally chilling. "You'll pay for snatching my wife's belongings."

Felicity was touched; she gently squeezed William's hand. She had made her decision. "Okay, you want the position as the head of the family? I'll give it to you."

There was an uproar again!

Felicity was a stubborn person; she could pull through multitudes of struggles and challenges which she had encountered time and time again in the past.

Yet, she was actually surrendering to Steven at that moment.

She had given her throne away!

Yasmine immediately revolted, "Felicity, don't be so reckless."

Felicity retorted with a cold face, "I'm not being reckless. I am just weary. Let him give it a try. However, I also have something to say now that everyone is here."

Everyone could see a noble, domineering aura exuding from her at that moment, looking exactly like William.

"Something that belongs to me will never be stolen!"

Steven sneered, thinking that Felicity was just putting on a show. He immediately took out the contract he had prepared ahead and asked Felicity to sign it.

As Felicity was the head of the Bai family, once she signed the contract, it would mean the agreement was a valid one. Even Yasmine wouldn't be able to do anything about it.

Steven looked at the contract with satisfaction and cackled.

The head of the Bai family!

He had worked so hard over the years, and yet he hadn't gotten anything in return.

But he didn't expect that he could use a simple footage to help him get to this position.

It was too easy!

Wasn't Felicity supposed to be more resilient?

Wasn't she the one who took away his company?

Well, look at her now. It seemed that Steven would always have the last laugh!

It was him, Steven who would always rise to the victory!

Tears rolled down Xena's face and she buried her head into Felicity's arms. "Felicity, I'm sorry."

Seeing her crying, Felicity felt her heart ache. She gently stroked Xena's head and said, "It's fine, I gave you my word. I didn't want to be the head of the family anyway. Leave everything else to your brother-in-law. I trust that he'll do right by us."

Xena raised her head and looked at William. Seeing William's comforting eyes, her heart suddenly felt less painful. She said to William in tears, "William, I believe in you too."

William smiled slightly. "Yes, Felicity, I promise I'll give you something better."

Steven looked around triumphantly, cleared his throat, and stated, "Now, as the head of the Bai family, I will host the first family meeting."

"I'm sure everyone knows that in two days, there'll be a major event in Qena City, which is the Pharmaceutical Association Board Election. Since our family is in this field, we should build a good relationship with the Pharmaceutical Association. We should therefore plan things out carefully."

Everyone nodded in agreement. Needless to say, everyone knew about this.

At that moment, Yasmine trailed after Steven, "Five years ago, we had to pull a lot of strings to get us an invitation to their board election. It is the same for this year. I know that some of the other enterprises in Qena City have already received an invitation over the past few days. Even though our family's fame has grown recently, we are still no match for the bigger companies. We need a plan to get ourselves an invitation."

Everyone nodded.

The Qena City Pharmaceutical Association Board Election was a grand ceremony that happened only once every five years.

Usually only the rich and powerful were invited.

Attending the event would be a symbol of power and glory.

Only the upper class in Qena City had the honor of attending the event.

The Bai family had worked hard over the years, however they were still not successful in gaining the status.

So how could the Bai family let an opportunity like this just pass by?

At that point, someone frowned and squealed, "I heard that it's even harder to get an invitation this year than in the past. The number of participants this year has been reduced by half, so you could only imagine how hard it is to get an invitation."

"More importantly, Bernard is coordinating the board election personally this time. It's literally impossible for our family to get an invitation from him."

When Bernard's name was brought up, everyone froze.

They all turned toward William.

It was William who had offended Bernard previously in public.

They had finally received their retribution!

Bernard was a vengeful man after all.

Steven had been waiting for the moment. He tittered and spoke, "We haven't even given it a shot, how would we know it wouldn't work?"

Yasmine also nodded and suggested, "I think we should send Bernard a gift to get him on our side. We might have a chance at getting an invitation."

Inwardly, Yasmine couldn't help agreeing that their chances were slim.

Steven then said sarcastically, "I think William should be the one to visit him. After all, he's the one who offended Bernard, so he has to be the one who sends our apologies."

Chapter 256

Felicity stopped breathing for a moment.

Everyone looked at Steven with confusion.

Yasmine said in a low tone, "Steven, how can you get William to settle this? This kid causes trouble wherever he goes! He's completely hopeless. We need to look at the bigger picture now. We need to get the invitation!"

Others also chipped in with comments, "If someone finds out we sent that moron to pay a visit to Bernard, aren't we just embarrassing ourselves? He's not qualified to represent the Bai family. There's no way we can allow this to happen."

The air was filled with protests, making Felicity distraught.

William just sat there calmly, as if none of it had to do with him.

Steven knocked on the table to get everyone's attention. He emphasized, "Since I'm the head of the family, then we're going to do what I say. Let William go. Since it all started with him, he should be the one to patch things up. It's decided then."

Felicity wanted to rebut but William held her back gently.

She knew deep down inside there was no point reasoning with a scoundrel like Steven.

William nodded lightly and squealed, "Okay, I'll go."

Steven flashed a teasing smile at William. "Alright. It's for the best."

Everyone around them was in a daze.

They had never expected such a ridiculous proposal from Steven. It was clearly that Steven intended to embarrass William.

Who could have thought that William would accept Steven's request so easily?

However, everyone quickly recovered from shock and came to their senses.

Being embarrassed must be something normal to a dingus like William!

For the sake of the Bai family, he would just have to tolerate being embarrassed!

Steven continued coldly, "Since we've decided that William will represent us, then we should discuss what to give Bernard. Does anyone here know Bernard well? Do you guys know what his hobbies are?"

Everyone shook their heads.

How could they be close to someone as famous as Bernard?

The meeting came to a halt.

Breaking the silence, Steven hissed arrogantly, "Hmm, since nobody has any idea what to get him, then leave it to me. Don't worry, I'll make sure it's something nice."

"However, allow me to remind you, William. When paying a visit to Bernard for apologies, I hope you will control your temper. After all, you'll be visiting Bernard on behalf of the Bai family; all of your actions will represent the Bai family's reputation. I hope you settle this well and don't disappoint us," Steven chimed in again.

Felicity squinted her eyes and she couldn't take Steven's nonsense anymore. She slammed her hand on the table and shot back at Steven, "Steven, what do you mean by that?! You should know how difficult it is to get that invitation itself! Let me ask you, even if Grandma pays Bernard a visit, what are the chances of us getting the invitation? You're clearly just making things difficult for William!"

Steven looked at Felicity, feeling very amused by her uproar. "He is the one who agrees to this, isn't he? So why are you fighting for him? Besides, no one else has anything to say, right, Xena?"

As Steven spoke, he looked at Xena.

Xena's eyes turned teary and lowered her head silently.

Felicity felt a pang of pain in her heart. She grabbed William's hand and muttered softly, "William, I'm sorry..."

William shook his head. "It's okay, don't worry."

Steven felt good to see William conceding to everything he said.

He assumed that William had finally realized that he was no match for him.

With every step Steven took, William would have no choice but to give in.

At this moment, Steven decided that he would not stop until William was defeated completely by him!

"Also, we can only give you one day to do this. By this time tomorrow, you need to get the invitation. Otherwise, the Bai family can no longer accept you as part of our family," Steven declared, making things even harder for William.

Felicity's eyes instantly turned bloodshot.

Everyone held their breath as they stared at Steven.

What was going on?

They couldn't help wondering why everyone was behaving so weirdly.

Normally, Steven would never have the balls to make such an imprudent demand!

Additionally, Felicity should have rebutted Steven to put an end to this.

William would never be so obedient. But none of them did!

Could Steven really have the potential to lead the Bai family?

Did he really possess the capabilities of controlling all the Bais?

Out of the blue, Yasmine nodded and said coldly, "Steven is right, we need some time to come up with a backup in case William fails to resolve this. We need to think of another plan."

William kept silent the entire time. His face showed no trace of emotion. After hearing this, there was a hint of amusement twinkling in his eyes.

"Well, then that's all for today. See you here at the same time tomorrow, William. I look forward to your good news," Steven stated ruthlessly.

He then got up and left.

Felicity and Xena immediately followed William.

Both of them had tears welled up in their eyes; there was a look of guilt in their gazes.

"William, I'm sorry for causing all these. I really can't tell you why. I'm sorry," Xena said through choked tears.

William nodded and responded, "It's okay."

He had something else to say but he held it back. Actually, he could more or less guess why Xena was doing this.

After all, Felicity had given him a clue the previous night; she said it had something to do with William and Xena.

There was only one thing that Steven could threaten the two of them.

It must be about him taking out the Lin family.

William snickered at the thought of Steven using it to blackmail them.

This jerk Steven didn't realize yet who William was.

Inside the house, Steven tapped on the table, feeling proud of himself.

The meeting thrilled him.

Not only did he manage to snatch the throne that he had always wanted...

But he also managed to make the three of them submit to him.

He really enjoyed the feeling of being the one in command.

He would have to think carefully about the gift.

It had to reflect well on him!

It must be something to make Bernard yield to him too!

As Steven thought about it, he burst into laughter. At noon, Steven called for another meeting to announce the gift he had prepared.

Steven presented the gift to everyone.

It was a golden box with a red silk ribbon.

The packaging looked extremely expensive and exquisite.

Steven handed it over to William personally, wanting to see the reluctance in William's eyes.

However, William took the gift from him mutely without any expression.

How could Steven just like let William go that easily?

"Why don't you take a look? I took a long time to pick it out." Steven chuckled.

William shook the box slightly and smiled. "There's no need for that."

It truly wasn't necessary.

William didn't give a f*ck what Steven had prepared.

But Steven snatched the box, opened it, and asked triumphantly, "Look, doesn't this precious gemstone look beautiful?"

When everyone saw what was inside the box, a dubious look flashed in their eyes.

There was indeed a gemstone in the box.

But it wasn't a precious gemstone!

It was clearly just a regular pebble!

Even worse, there was some moss covering the top of the pebble.

Chapter 257

Felicity was so angry that he wanted to smash the stone on the spot, "Bai Steven! What do you mean! Is it interesting to frame my husband with a broken stone!"

Xena also looked at Bai Steven with complicated eyes.

His hand is too much.

It was already difficult for William to find Bernard.

Now let William take a broken stone, wouldn't this add fuel to the fire!

Bernard must have thought that William took the pebbles to find fault and teased him!

Don't even think about invitations.

Bai Steven listened to Felicity's words, but he smiled: "What do you know about this stone? I have asked a professional to appraise this stone. It doesn't move Akashi, it doesn't move like a mountain. It's good. You don't know the goods. That's it."

"You obviously want William to die. If he really took this stone to find Bernard, it would be considered light to be blasted out in public!" Felicity said angrily.

"Well, I believe in Steven's eyes." At this time, Yasmine jumped out and said.

Yasmine saw that Bai Steven became the head of the Bai family as a certainty, and had no opinion at all.

Now that Bai Steven is dealing with William, she is even more delighted to hear and hear, wishing to be a little bit more involved at this time.

Felicity's head was about to explode with anger.

A bunch of bastards!

Take advantage of the danger!

But William put the pebbles away, and walked outside, saying: "Okay, I'll put it away first."

Felicity stamped her foot severely, glared at Bai Steven, and went out to chase William again.

Behind him, Bai Steven's relentless laughter came.

Xena finally couldn't help it.

She pulled Bai Steven aside, and said with a cold face: "Bai Steven, you are too much!"

Bai Steven said leisurely: "Why, do you feel distressed when you see your brother-in-law being humiliated?"

Xena is indeed distressed.

Every humiliation he endured today was indirectly imposed by himself!

"Behave yourself well, you can still save the lives of both of you, otherwise, I'll be really ruthless." Bai Steven finished laughing, his face was stern, and his eyes showed a murderous intent!

The humiliation of this kid today is nothing compared to the humiliation of this kid before!

My Bai Steven is absolutely absolute, and I won't let the kid go!

Xena looked at Bai Steven sadly, and finally nodded and walked outside.

driven to distraction.

When William returned to the Genuine Care Medical Center, he immediately took out his mobile phone and called Janet.

Let Janet meet Frandick and send a few invitation letters.

Janet immediately agreed.

William was peeling the orange absently, while Melissa was watching him by the side.

If it was normal, Melissa would naturally take the orange peel and throw it into his cup.

But today, she did not dare to reach out her hand.

do not know why.

She wanted to ask, but William closed his eyes at this time.

Melissa thought to himself, forget it, anyway, this kid has a heart, and it doesn't matter what annoying things happen to him.

Worried about what he did.

In the evening, William got six invitation letters from Janet.

Of the six invitations, five are pink and one is vermilion.

When William thought about it at random, he knew that this special red color should have been given to him by Frandick.

And the other five pink invitations all have Baijia Jingqi written on them.

That night, Xena was drunk again.

There was a lot of alcohol on her body.

There is an extra knife in her bag.

She looked at the knife with teary eyes, as if she had made some terrible decision.

One night passed, and the next day everyone gathered at Bai's house.

Seeing William's delay in coming, everyone couldn't help complaining.

"What's the matter with that kid! Actually let a lot of us wait for him! What is he!"

"I think he can't handle things well, so he has no face to come over and see us."

"Hehe, maybe it's more serious, but he took a broken stone as a gift, maybe he was beaten to walk last night hahaha."

Felicity came here first because of something.

When she heard the malicious speculations of these people, she felt a fire in her heart.

She kept looking at the door.

Xena said at this time: "Shut up! One by one, I didn't dare to go, let my brother-in-law go. Now instead of talking coldly here, have your conscience eaten by the dog!"

The crowd was about to get angry when they saw William walking in.

He is empty-handed.

Bai Steven's eyes were full of immense pride.

Sure enough, I didn't get anything.

However, this is normal.

This matter, as everyone said, is difficult to reach the sky.

It's simply not something that William can do.

Seeing this, Felicity couldn't help but said to Bai Steven, "Bai Steven, you also know how difficult this thing is. It's not that William didn't work hard, but it was simply difficult to go to the sky. How can we blame William? We can only think of other ways."

At the end, Felicity's tone softened.

Now, who else in this room is willing to speak for William.

I'm afraid it's only myself...

Bai Steven said coldly: "The rules are the rules. If you can't do it, don't say anything, let alone agree. Did we force him yesterday?"

Felicity looked at Bai Steven sadly.

When the Bai family went up and down, they immediately watched William with amusement.

Now, let's see how he confesses this matter!

Felicity thought, pulling William's hand to walk outside, "William, let's go! They are clearly trying to make things difficult for you!"

But at this time, William said faintly: "Go? It's too early."

Bai Steven said arrogantly: "What? Did you forget what you promised yesterday? Or do you want to cheat now?"

"Since you didn't get the invitation letter, don't blame me..."

"Don't blame you?" William suddenly took out something casually and threw it on the table with cold eyes.

Everyone looked at the table together.

Upon seeing this, someone suddenly exclaimed in disbelief, "Invitation! It's an invitation!"

A pink invitation letter, lying quietly.

Bai Steven's eyes widened.

It's really an invitation!

how is this possible!

How could he get such a noble invitation letter!

There must be something wrong in it!

He grabbed the invitation letter and opened the envelope on it.

Open it, and the invitation letter says the word Baijia!

His head banged!

wrong!

It's abnormal!

He has a low status and offends Bernard.

How could Bernard send him the invitation letter!

"I see, this invitation letter is fake! Boy, I think you just found a shop and printed a fake invitation letter, wanting us to rush over and be stopped and humiliated in public, right! You mean it! So sinister!" Bai Steven said viciously.

@vamp20works

Chapter 258

When everyone was told by him, they immediately thought it was too possible!

Because they didn't believe it at all, how much face could William, a Bai family dog, get the invitation letter!

With regard to this invitation letter, Yasmine went out to ask Bernard in person, but he might not get it.

Could it be that this waste has more face than Yasmine?

It's impossible.

So there is only one answer, this invitation letter is fake!

Everyone's spears were aimed at William instantly.

But at this time, William looked at the people at the scene sympathetically, and said: "There is a number on the invitation, and the seat is written in the invitation. There should be a phone number for the conference affairs group of the Preparatory Committee of the Pharmacy Association General Assembly on the Internet? Call me and ask. It's not clear."

Everyone was taken aback.

Yes, the preparatory committee of the General Assembly of the Pharmaceutical Association announced the telephone numbers of the various groups a few days ago. If you don't ask, it will be clear.

However, this kid, where's the confidence, why he said so confidently!

Is this invitation letter real?

Bai Steven was the first to not believe it. He personally found the conference team's phone number from the official website of the Pharmaceutical Association, and then dialed it.

He also turned on the voice.

"Hello, this is the affair group of the Preparatory Committee of the Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association General Assembly. What can I do for you?" There was a sweet voice on the phone.

This call was checked on the official website, and it is certainly not fake.

Bai Steven immediately asked the lady on the phone to help inquire about the number of the invitation letter in her hand and the seating arrangement on it.

"Wait a minute, I will check for you right away." The young lady said on the phone and went to check.

Less than ten seconds later, there was another voice on the phone, "Mr. I've been waiting, I've found it for you. The number and seat of the invitation you provided are the same. They belong to our guest this time, Bai Jia ."

Bai family!

As soon as these two words came out, everyone at the scene became numb!

Bai Steven didn't even know how he hung up!

The invitation letter is actually true!

This surprised the people at the scene!

This waste, actually got the invitation letter!

Achieved something that no one at the scene could do!

How did he do it!

This huge mystery stayed in everyone's hearts!

Felicity looked at William with horror.

She had known for a long time that William had a relationship she didn't know.

But she didn't expect that William's hands and eyes could reach the sky, and the relationship was so hard!

Actually got an invitation letter!

Infinite joy breeds in her heart.

William, the same William!

What a man can do!

Xena's mouth was wide open.

She is the one who knows William's identity best among this group of people.

William is the curator of Genuine Care Medical Center.

However, this level of identity is not enough for William to get the invitation letter from Bernard.

Because Bernard also hates Genuine Care Medical Center.

Could it be that brother-in-law has any other terrifying identity?

Thinking of this, she was full of excitement.

William's words came to her mind again.

He said he wanted to give Felicity better.

Having lost the position of Patriarch of the Bai Family, what could be better than this?

Now it seems that in William's eyes, the choices are unlimited and the future is bright!

Brother-in-law, sorry.

I don't know how much you paid.

I know that you have been concealing your identity and you have difficulties.

But now, because he wanted to protect me, he had to force out the strongest you.

I seem to force all your secrets and strengths out.

Everyone looked at William blankly, and was completely speechless.

The anger in Bai Steven's heart is about to gush out!

After finally setting up a game to make this kid humiliated, he did not expect that he could escape the catastrophe without a problem!

What is going on with Bernard!

Can't handle even a small waste!

Let him be so successful!

Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association, but that's all!

No way!

If this kid gets the invitation letter, everything he has painstakingly laid out will be wasted!

Anyway, everyone already knows that I'm making things difficult for this kid.

Don't be afraid of a bad end!

Thinking of this, Bai Steven said in a deep voice, "The invitation letter is really correct, but William, what do you mean? As the Patriarch of the Bai family, I should naturally attend the conference, and my grandmother is highly respected and should go forward. Go and join in the grand event. You only brought me an invitation letter, let me go or her?"

When these words came out, everyone's eyes narrowed!

What a strong word!

Tell right and wrong!

Sure enough, Felicity was angry on the spot, "Bai Steven! You shamelessly look, I am really eye-opening! How precious an invitation letter is, you know better than me! Now William got one. The invitation letter is out, you are still not satisfied! Instead, blame William! Are you still a human!"

Felicity was also anxious, and her words were hard to hear.

Everyone's face changed.

Bai Steven was a bit too much.

The one in previous years has already made the Bai family very happy.

Now he is still not satisfied, obviously he is going to completely drive William out of the Bai family.

Bai Steven looked at William strongly, "I'm just seeking truth from facts and telling the facts. Since you are so capable, there is still one day left anyway. Instead of playing around here, it's better to ask for another one."

Bai Steven spoke, but suddenly saw William walking towards her step by step.

He couldn't help being timid, "What are you going to do?"

William smiled, cruelly but compassionately.

Suddenly he took out another invitation letter from his pocket and threw it directly on his face, "Are two enough?"

When everyone saw that William actually took out another invitation letter, their eyes went wide!

How terrible!

An invitation letter was enough to shock everyone to William.

Now, he actually has another one!

Moreover, how arrogant his tone is!

It seems that the change of Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association was handled by him alone!

Obviously it's just a waste, why make amazing moves again and again!

In the Bai family, everyone who discriminated against William felt hot pain on his face at this time!

Slapped in the face by a trash!

William was indifferent and ruthless, and said coldly, "Do you want to verify the authenticity?"

When these words came out, Chi Guoguo was mocking Bai Steven.

Bai Steven's face was blue, he was obviously shocked by the two invitation letters in front of him.

By now, he has no room to look back.

He could only insist on his tone, colder than William, "Two, right? You know how to do things, but two..."

Before he finished his words, William took out three more invitation letters from his pocket, one by one!

Slowly thrown to Bai Steven's face!

"Two are not enough, right?"

"Is this enough!"

"If it's not enough, I still have it!"

"As much as you want, just speak up."

"If you can't get the invitation letter, count me as losing!"

Chapter 259

On the table, five invitations were neatly arranged.

The Bai family was completely shocked and speechless!

crazy!

This lunatic actually came up with five invitation letters at once!

One is worth a thousand dollars, but what about five!

Immeasurable!

Think about it, if the five members of the Bai family appeared in the meeting place during a live meeting, what a shocking scene would it be!

I believe that in the entire Qingcheng, no family can attend as many as five people at this conference!

Qingcheng is the best!

Bai Steven's mouth was wide open.

An extremely strong unwillingness emerged in my heart!

How can this waste be like a Xiaoqiang who can't be beaten!

No matter how hard he tried, he was still alive and kicking!

hateful!

He didn't directly threaten him with that video, and he still couldn't stop him!

William glanced contemptuously at the speechless Bai Steven, and walked back to sit in the chair faintly.

Felicity was trembling all over, and there were stars in William's eyes.

Amazing husband!

Sure enough, there is nothing he can't do!

Only he wants to do it!

How much surprise do you have to give me!

Bai's house is quiet.

At this moment, everyone did not dare to ask William to add one more, because five of them would definitely be the family with the largest number of participants in Qingcheng.

It doesn't make sense anymore.

And they clearly want to verify whether the following photos are true.

There was no one who dared to move.

"William, how did you get these invitations! I don't believe you can get so many invitations for your face!" Bai Steven woke up and started shooting the case!

You must not weaken your momentum at this time.

William said lightly: "President of the Pharmaceutical Association, I have to drop three points too!"

Everyone's pupils shrank!

How arrogant!

Actually said that the chairman of the Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association would lose three points when he met him!

If this arrogance is spread out, it will definitely be laughed at by the whole city!

"Hahaha, don't pretend to be fools with us here! Do you think we will believe it? I see. Look, these invitations directly say our Bai family, indicating that they must be from the Pharmaceutical Association. The one given to our Bai family just happened to be in the hands of this kid. Because as far as I know, the invitation letters received by others are usually written directly with their names, and only our Bai family is extremely special." Bai Steven Suddenly sneered.

Everyone was stunned, and after a careful thought, it really made sense.

The invitation letter usually writes directly inviting so- and- so, rather than inviting the Bai family to participate.

So this invitation letter was given directly to the Bai family, but it happened to be cut off by William.

Maybe he found it in the mailbox outside.

Seeing that everyone had an epiphany, Bai Steven couldn't help but continue to proudly say: "Look at the invitation letter again, everyone, have you found anything?"

Everyone looked around the invitation letter again. At this look, everyone suddenly became excited, "Damn! The seat above us is actually next to the main table!"

There is such a tradition at the banquet, the main table is the honor, and the others are second.

The closer to the main table, the more prominent the position.

Now, Bai's seat is right next to the main table!

Doesn't this represent the status of the Bai family!

Doesn't this mean that the Pharmaceutical Association attaches great importance to the Bai family?

This attention can be won by the waste?

So the invitation letter must have been given to the Bai family by the Pharmaceutical Association from the beginning.

Yasmine was so excited that her old face was squeezed into orange peels, "God bless my Bai family! The glory of our Bai family is finally coming! This is the face of the Pharmaceutical Association for us!"

But Zhang Rebecca immediately flattered: "Grandma, it's a bit wrong for you to say that. This face, no one can give us the Bai family! We won it ourselves! Last time, Felicity signed a contract on behalf of the entire Qingcheng pharmaceutical industry. He is already a leader in the pharmaceutical industry, so based on this alone, the Bai family is enough to attract the attention of the Pharmaceutical Association."

Others agreed and said: "Yes, we can't belittle ourselves, who dares not give us the face of the Bai family!"

"The Bai family's becoming a wealthy family in Qingcheng seems to be just around the corner! Congratulations to grandma!"

After hearing these words, Yasmine became even more proud, and repeatedly said, "Good, good! With everyone's auspicious words! It seems that with this opportunity, our Bai family can fly into the sky!"

Everyone nodded and said yes.

But at this time, a sneer rang out, "What status is the Bai family in Qingcheng, don't you have any compelling points in your heart?"

William!

Change the norm!

Breakthrough!

Crazy to the end!

The scene was full of joy.

After William said a word, this kind of hypocritical compliment was instantly torn apart by him!

The faces of everyone were embarrassed and angry, staring at William!

"What do you mean! What happened to our Bai family!"

"You are in the Bai family, but you can't help A Dou if you say such things!"

At this time, Bai Steven, who had been silent, said, "Okay! Don't worry about him in general. The urgent matter, we have to discuss who will participate in this event."

Felicity's words instantly diverted everyone's anger.

Everyone's eyes were shining brightly, one by one raised their hands, "I'm going! I'm going to see the world too!"

All of a sudden, the scene became a mess.

Felicity on the side saw this scene and couldn't help laughing.

This group of people, when they let them charge into battle, one by one hides farther than anything.

Now, I'm going to show my face, one by one is more fierce than anyone else!

"Forget it, I'll just call it." Bai Steven looked around and suddenly said loudly.

The scene suddenly became quiet.

Several elders heard Bai Steven say this, although they were upset, they did not dare to speak.

Bai Steven had just taken office yesterday, and he was obviously planning to have three new officials take office.

Who wants to offend him now?

Bai Steven rubbed his temples, glanced at Felicity deliberately or unintentionally, and said, "Felicity signed the proposal on behalf of Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Company a while ago. She is meritorious, so she has a place."

Everyone poked their lips and did not speak, because this was what they expected.

This time, the Pharmaceutical Association gave the Bai family five invitation letters, in which there might be Felicity's face.

Bai Steven continued: "As the head of the Bai family, I have one quota, and my grandma needs to be present with high respect. In this case, there are two places left."

Everyone's heart raised their throats, and Bai Steven's father, Barnes, blinked at Bai Steven frantically.

Bai Steven understood, and said: "My dad has been working hard for the Bai family day and night for the past few years, and he is also eligible to attend. The last one, considering that Xena is a rising star, the Bai family will rely more on her to help in the future, so she accounts for Take the last place, and that's it."

The reason why Bai Steven wanted Xena to go with him was simply because he felt that he wanted to hold this little girl tightly in his own hands.

The people on the scene shook their heads one by one, not daring to speak.

But at this time, Felicity suddenly looked at Bai Steven forcefully, "Where's my husband! He is the chief hero of the five invitations! He has no share?"

Chapter 260

"Your husband? Hehe." Bai Steven suddenly laughed when he heard this.

The faces of other people also showed schadenfreude.

"Your husband is just a dog of our Bai family. His status is low. What qualifications is there to attend such a grand meeting? He used to make people laugh at our Bai family for not knowing the rules and not being on the stage? Besides, these five invitations Letter, it is clearly given to us by the Pharmaceutical Association, what is his business!" Steven said righteously.

After the others listened, they also laughed and said nothing.

Felicity's face turned pale, but she sneered, "Hehe, what a fair and just Patriarch of the Bai family!"

Xena below was shaking all over.

Her eyes burst out with endless killing intent.

Her hand, reaching into the bag, was shaking.

Her patience has reached a limit!

My brother-in-law, is you a villain who can insult wantonly!

My brother-in-law is a scholar hero now!

Wendang fairy guides the way to win the spring and autumn!

Millions of blood flowed into the river of Wu Yi's dead body!

Bai Steven, sooner or later, I will smash you into pieces!

At this time, Bai Steven's mother Helen couldn't help standing up and said: "Jingsheng! Have I done little for the Bai family in recent years? Am I not eligible to attend? I need a reasonable explanation!"

Bai Steven didn't expect his mother to jump out to ask for a spot at this time, and was a little embarrassed for a while.

His mother is a complete housewife of the big five and three rough.

Normally, he didn't participate in the business of the Bai family at all.

But her character is the typical middle-aged female character who likes to take part in the fun.

Now that her son is the head of the house, and her husband has gone to the White Auditorium, how could she give up and miss this rare opportunity to show off.

However, now I have five invitation letters, and I've talked to this point.

What else can I do?

The people at the scene looked at Helen in a daze.

This woman, isn't she okay to find trouble?

Usually let her help a little bit, as scared as seeing a ghost.

Why are you so rushing today?

What qualifications does she have to participate in the General Assembly of the Pharmaceutical Association?

Thanks to her so thick-skinned, she dared to say it in person.

Helen didn't care about it, and she was a little bit going to be a rascal.

She continued: "In the past few years, I have been so tired of the Bai family that all white hair has come out. Without my quota, I am unwilling! The Bai family treats me unfairly! If I did not go this time, I will do nothing in the future. Now! Just eat, drink and have fun, who can't! And your son of a white-eyed wolf dog, I have raised you for so many years!"

For a time, the scene was extremely ugly.

Bai Steven was forced by his mother to have no choice but to look at William.

And when he saw William's indifferent appearance, his heart suddenly moved!

He couldn't help but walked up to William and shouted coldly, "You stand up for me!"

Everyone was at a loss, wondering what difficulty Bai Steven was making towards William at this time.

William stood up lightly.

Bai Steven was caught off guard by everyone, and suddenly a hand was put into William's pocket.

Then, quickly took out an invitation letter!

When he saw the invitation letter, he burst into laughter, "Sure enough, I didn't expect it! I am surprised, you kid, are you willing to not go? It really is that you have hidden an invitation letter privately!"

Everyone suddenly exclaimed.

That invitation letter is different from the other five.

It is scarlet.

Unexpectedly, he really hid one privately, which is disrespectful!

Bai Steven raised the invitation letter and looked at William triumphantly.

When William took out invitation letters from his pocket before, Bai Steven was wondering how many copies he still had.

Give it a try now, and I got another one!

And it seems that this invitation letter is even more extraordinary!

This kid, I've caught it now!

Hahaha!

It's like me, you can't fly with your wings!

The people at the scene stared at William viciously.

William didn't change his face, and said lightly, "This invitation letter belongs to me, not from the Bai family."

However, Bai Steven's face became cold, "You speak wild words! What are you! People from the Pharmaceutical Association will send you an invitation letter! Besides, don't you lie and write drafts! Look for yourself, on this, Do you have your name!"

Bai Steven opened the invitation letter while speaking, and the name column above was blank!

William did not speak.

Haha, I didn't write my name because Frandick didn't know my name!

Bai Steven was even more proud of seeing William's silence.

When he read the invitation letter again, his heart suddenly beat!

Seats for this invitation!

It's the main table!

This kid actually hid an invitation letter for the main table!

This invitation letter is definitely for the head of the Bai family, maybe it is for Felicity.

Because she previously signed a proposal on behalf of a pharmaceutical company, and she is still the head of the Bai family.

But because Felicity is in front of me now, he has to lower his head.

and so--

"I accept this invitation letter." Bai Steven took this special invitation letter into his bag leisurely.

Seeing him so proud, William smiled and said, "Are you sure you want this invitation letter?"

This invitation letter is not something ordinary people can afford!

It should be that Frandick didn't know who I was, so he played a trick on the invitation letter.

Mark a special seat with a special invitation letter.

As soon as he takes his seat, Frandick can match himself up.

If he wanted to change the crown prince of this reckless thing, the consequences would be disastrous.

Bai Steven laughed and said, "Nonsense! I haven't pursued the crime of private possession with you yet!"

"Okay, then these six invitation letters are arranged like this. If nothing happens, let's end the meeting." Bai Steven finished speaking, pretending to be kind and caring in William's ear, "Oh, sorry, your invitation Letter, I took it away, and now you can't go, what can I do?"

William smiled faintly, "I will go, we will meet again."

Bai Steven's face stiffened, but he recovered immediately and laughed, "Oh, don't you give up and want to get in? If this is caught by someone, tut tut, I still advise you to stay obediently. At home, anyway..."

When Bai Steven said this, he walked forward triumphantly.

"You don't have many days at the Bai family, so cherish it."

Everyone dispersed, and William returned to the Genuine Care Medical Center.

Wang Qingmian couldn't help it anymore, and came over and asked: "Tomorrow you should also go to the General Assembly of the Pharmaceutical Association. What do you want to do tomorrow, can you spoil it in advance?"

Wang Qingmian is really fed up with his analysis behind the scenes every time after the event is over.

William rubbed his temples at this time, and said lazily: "It's too much brainstorming for a while. I don't want to use my brain tomorrow."

Wang Qingmian's eyes widened, "Your weird head doesn't move anymore, what's the use of you?"

William smiled strangely, "If you don't plan, you will be brave! Go ahead! People stop killing!"

"Tomorrow, run over."

Chapter 261

Wang Qingmian was heartbroken!

This little bastard has grown in!

Do not use your head to play conspiracy.

Are you ready to crush your opponent simply and rudely with absolute strength?

Tomorrow, what a bloody storm.

"Before that, you can do something for me first." William confessed Wang Qingmian's incident casually and left.

In the evening of the next day, the setting sun was golden.

William went out and went to the Pharmaceutical Association Building alone, where the General Assembly of the Pharmaceutical Association was held.

The Pharmaceutical Association Building is located in the center of the city. A white building stands tall and looks impressive.

The Pharmaceutical Association Building at this moment is even more beautiful.

I don't know if it was to welcome this conference. The outer wall of the building, from top to bottom, was covered with vermilion lanterns.

It seems that the entire Pharmaceutical Association Building is antique and unique in the city center.

And downstairs of the Pharmaceutical Association Building, luxury cars gathered, obviously today is the most grand occasion in Qingcheng.

William frowned when he walked into the building.

The ceiling on the first floor of the building is also covered with such small red lanterns.

This kind of lantern is very elegantly crafted and elegant and elegant.

And what made William frown was the smell of these red lanterns.

A faint scent is refreshing.

William asked about a faint smell of blood.

The fragrance of blood?

William looked at these little lanterns for a while, then shook his head without thinking about it.

But at this time, he saw a group of porters in overalls carrying lanterns.

The headed one, wearing sunglasses and a mask, is burly in shape.

William recognized this person at a glance.

"Brother Tigger?" William walked over.

Liu Tigger, who was wearing a sunglasses and mask, was also taken aback when he saw William. He took off his sunglasses and said, "You can recognize me like this?"

William looked at the things they were carrying, a pile of folded lanterns.

Now that I approached the lantern, this refreshing blood fragrance became clearer.

William had an urge to sniff more.

"Why are you carrying lanterns here?" William said amused.

Dignified Qingcheng Yihu actually works as a porter here?

Who can believe this?

Liu Tigger's face showed a bit of bitterness, hard to know.

He looked at the beautifully crafted lanterns, his eyes filled with endless pity.

"This kind of lantern is called the Cinnabar Hundred Years Lantern. We have a small village in Qingcheng that specializes in making this kind of handmade lanterns. The price is very cheap. Does it look good?" Liu Tigger asked William instead.

Cinnabar Lantern.

William tasted the name, only to think that it was elegant and pleasant, with infinite beauty.

"So?" William asked again.

Liu Tigger touched the lantern lovingly, and said inexplicably, "In this world, there are always things that are worthless in the eyes of others, and they are worthy of the lives of others to guard."

William stared at Liu Tigger.

I don't know if he is guarding this lamp or the person behind it.

William didn't say anything, patted Liu Tigger on the shoulder, "After a while, go up and have a drink."

Liu Tigger nodded.

Just as William was about to leave, Liu Tigger suddenly stopped him and handed him a black mask, but said nothing.

William glanced at the cinnabar century lamp, and put on a mask.

He got on the elevator and headed for the box on the top floor.

Outside the box, the lights are brilliant and peaceful.

The staff is carefully and carefully facing the invitation letter of each guest who enters the venue.

William took out his cell phone and was about to call Frandick when the elevator dinged.

A group of people walked out of the elevator together, headed by the sound of white town in suits and leather shoes.

Everyone in the Bai family was dressed brightly.

The wind and snow are in it, beautiful and pure and moving.

She naturally recognized William at a glance, stepped up and gently took William's arm.

"Oh, really cheeky and want to get in? That's not bad." Bai Steven said with a smile on the side.

Zhang Rebecca and the others also walked out and surrounded William with eyes full of disdain, "What? People dare to come, what kind of mask do they wear? Are you afraid of embarrassment? Since you know that you are ashamed, don't you go back? , And less tarnish the reputation of our Bai family here."

Felicity's face became stiff, and she couldn't help saying: "William is here, what's the point of saying this now!"

"Then I want to see, how would he get in?" Bai Steven sneered.

William shook his head lightly, too lazy to pay attention to these people.

But at this time, two more people walked out of the box.

Seeing Felicity, someone suddenly shouted: "Oh, isn't this my old classmate, Felicity?"

When everyone looked back, they saw a gorgeously dressed woman walking over with a cynical man's arm, her small waist twisted and twisted.

Felicity frowned slightly.

The person here is actually Chen Li who hasn't seen him for a long time.

The last time I saw Rachel was at that alumni meeting.

At that time, William, Felicity, and some old classmates headed by Rachel broke up unhappy.

I didn't expect to meet Rachel here today.

When Rachel saw Felicity's youthful and lovely appearance, she couldn't help but rise in anger.

The humiliation that these two people inflicted on her last time is unforgettable.

However, this time, another time!

I am no longer the same Chen Li!

Rachel took the cynical man, walked over, and laughed softly: "We really have fate, come, I will introduce you my boyfriend, Hu Henson, he is the grandson of Frandick, president of the Pharmaceutical Association. "

The Bai family's eyes widened, and they couldn't help looking at the man.

This person is actually Frandick's grandson!

This identity, placed today, can be described as brilliant!

Felicity did not expect that Rachel actually climbed to the top.

Bai Steven immediately walked up with a pleased look, and stretched out a hand to respectfully said: "Young Master Hoo, hello. I am the Patriarch of the Bai family, Bai Steven, I am lucky enough to meet."

The man named Hu Henson didn't even look at Bai Steven, but fixed his gaze lightly on Felicity, his eyes full of evil fire.

But in front of Rachel, he didn't dare to act too much. He just nodded, "How are you."

"Hehe, today we are half the master here. Meeting is fate, let's go, let's go in together, and I may even offer you a glass of wine to your husband and wife later." Rachel said strangely to Felicity and Lu. Ye said.

The Bai family looked at each other.

Bai Steven couldn't help smiling and said: "Hahaha, Shao Hu, you show your love, let's go in together. As for the trash, he doesn't have an invitation letter, and he has to rely on Shao Hu, and ask someone to stare at him later. Don't let him sneak in."

Felicity's little face froze on the spot.

Bai Steven didn't leave any face to William!

However, Rachel's eyes were cold, full of jokes, and then there was a little bit of fooling.

She suddenly said softly to Hu Henson: "Henson, they are my old classmates. Give me a face, make a call and let this kid go in together?"

@vamp20works

Chapter 262

Everyone was taken aback.

Unexpectedly, Rachel would want William to enter.

Even Felicity couldn't think of it.

But Rachel was very proud of herself.

When she let William in, she came to show off the status of the boyfriend she had finally hooked up with.

On the other hand, I finally met these two dog men and women here, how could I let them go so quickly!

Of course, I want to be inside and humiliate them happily!

"It's wrong to do this! I heard that today's seats are already full, and they are either rich or expensive. He is just a dog of our Bai family. Putting it in really reduces the style of the entire venue." Zhen Sheng quickly said to Rachel.

But Rachel looked at Bai Steven proudly, and continued: "Hehe, my boyfriend is the grandson of President Hu, a seat can be called a hard-to-find place for you incompetent families. , But for our family Henson, it's just a phone call, right? Henson?"

Hu Henson showed a trace of embarrassment on his face, but in front of everyone, especially in front of Felicity, Hu Henson didn't know why, so he wanted to show himself well.

He immediately nodded and said: "Naturally it is a trivial matter. Wait, I will call right away."

With that, Hu Henson went to the side and made a call.

But in a minute, he came back and said with a smile: "It's done, you can go in."

Rachel immediately took Hu Henson's arm intimately, and said coquettishly: "Henson, you are still good, you can do it with a single call."

Hu Henson looked at William jokingly at this time and said, "But the VIP seats inside are indeed full, so I can only assign you to the staff table. I hope Mr. Lu doesn't mind it."

Hu Henson did make a call just now, only to remove a staff member directly and let William fill it up.

After listening, everyone showed a weird smile.

Rachel even directly kissed Hu Henson's face.

Hu Henson's move, I don't know if it was intentional or unintentional.

Humiliated this kid on the spot!

Haha, staff table!

See if this kid wants to go in!

Felicity was about to persuade William, but when she saw William say thank you softly, she walked forward alone.

Behind him came Bai Steven's mouth-to-mouth laughter, "Oh, I'm so ridiculous, I don't even need dignity in order to eat a meal, it's an eye-opener!"

Felicity's face flushed red, and he caught up with William in one step.

Although she didn't know why William insisted on coming over, she trusted William very much.

Regardless of everyone's ridicule, she took William's arm again, wanting to pass on to William some gentleness within her ability with this small action.

Rachel behind her, looking at William's back, felt very happy!

This kid, isn't he a dog in front of me now?

What you have is only a one-time power.

As for me, what I have now is lifelong glory and wealth!

This is something you can never match!

Rachel thought, leaning on Hu Henson's shoulder proudly, and said with a grin: "Henson, you did a great job! You really give me a face! Don't worry, I will meet Grandpa for the first time later. Behave yourself well."

Hu Henson beside him heard that his face was a little embarrassed.

He and Rachel didn't have much feelings in it.

After the two had a few contacts, Rachel told Hu Henson that she was pregnant.

This forced Hu Henson to stay with her temporarily.

Especially today, Rachel even threatened Hu Henson to see Frandick.

Hu Henson had a big head when he thought of showing Rachel to his grandpa later.

And when he saw Felicity intimacy holding William's arm, a nameless anger burned in his heart.

How can flowers be planted on cow dung!

After entering the arena, William sat down at the position closest to the door.

However, Felicity wanted to stay with William, but was called by William to go with the Bai family.

In the scene, everyone was full of red faces, as if they had participated in some amazing event.

The Bai family looked even more curious. When passing by the crowd, they all listened to their discussions with their ears.

They are discussing two major events today.

The first major event is that this year's presidential competition is fierce. Frandick doesn't seem to want to step down, and Bernard, the vice president, is already clamoring.

Today, between these two people, there is bound to be a strong conflict.

And another incident made the Bai family dumbfounded.

It is said that a very young vice president will be added on the spot today.

Until now, no one knows who this additional quota will be given.

After hearing this, Yasmine was stunned and couldn't help but exclaimed: "This position of vice president of the Pharmaceutical Association is enough to call the wind and rain in Qingcheng. Each vice president has an area in charge. This reputation can be improved. It is unprecedented to think that a young man will be the vice president this year."

Bai Steven also swallowed, his eyes filled with infinite envy, "Yes, it seems that the vice president in charge of this area of our house has been vacant. It seems that this newly added vice president will definitely take charge of ours. In the area, we have to treat this new vice president well later, after all, we have to do things under the breath of others in the future."

Bai Steven's mother, Helen, screamed at this moment: "Oh, what do you envy? Maybe this vice president will be born from our Bai family. After all, our Bai family has so many people here. The probability is Isn't the biggest one?"

This sentence immediately caused countless people around him to cast their eyes on the Bai family.

The faces of Bai Steven and others turned white on the spot!

He was really scolding his mother in his heart.

What a special occasion!

Is there such a nonsense!

The Bai family is a fart in today's field!

Moreover, can the number of vice presidents be divided according to the number of people?

ignorance!

But of course Bai Steven didn't dare to tell his mother these words.

Yasmine couldn't help cursing: "Helen! Shut up! Don't talk if you can't speak! Don't be embarrassed here!"

Helen pouted, taking it for granted, "Am I wrong? We have so many people from the Bai family. If it weren't for the Pharmaceutical Association to value our Bai family, how could we give us so many places to participate in the conference? You must think so in your heart, right? If this vice president falls into the hands of our Bai family, that will be a big matter for the ancestors of Guangzong."

Everyone is almost crying by Helen!

This shameful pen!

Everyone is right in their minds, but when they say it, they are quite wrong!

At this time, Bai Steven's eyes drenched and saw a group of people approaching!

Chapter 263

"Dare to ask which company you are from?" Among the few people, an old man asked in a deep voice.

Bai Steven bit his scalp and said, "We belong to the Bai Group."

"The Bai Group?" When everyone heard this, their eyes suddenly showed full of disdain.

After all, the Bai's group in Qingcheng can only be regarded as a small fish.

There have been numerous disturbances a while ago, but they are all notorious.

"Hehe, it seems that the Bai family is determined to win this vice president, then we will have to learn from you in the future." The old man said without a smile.

Bai Steven's face stiffened, and he quickly bid farewell and took Helen and others to find his place.

What a shame!

Bai Steven helped Yasmine and the others find a position near the main table. After placing them, they looked at the position of the main table eagerly.

His position is at the main table.

But now, the main table is empty and there is no one.

Bai Steven hesitated for a moment, and finally couldn't help the temptation to stand out. He walked quickly to a chair by the main table and sat down.

After sitting, the eyes of the audience were naturally attracted to him again.

The old man who had been questioning before had an incredible look on his face, and the look in Bai Steven's eyes became weird.

After Bai Steven sat up, he immediately heard shocking whispers from around.

"Hey, this young man is the noble son of which wealthy family? Why haven't I seen it before?"

"He is actually qualified to sit at the main table? He must be very distinguished, right?"

"Have you never seen such a big man in Qingcheng? No, when the meeting is over and the banquet begins, you must go to him for a glass of wine."

Upon hearing this, Bai Steven felt a sense of pride in his heart.

This is the respect that a superior person deserves.

He couldn't help but waved at the group of people talking about him, with a calm look.

And Yasmine, who was at the next table, was very excited when she saw Bai Steven grabbing the attention of the audience as soon as she came on the court.

The Bai family can finally attract attention on such occasions!

She couldn't help but said to those discussing: "That young man is the head of our Bai family, Bai Steven."

Those few people were dumbfounded, "The Bai family? Which Bai family?"

However, they took a closer look. At this table, there was a pretty beauty sitting all over the country, and they suddenly came to their senses.

There has never been only one such face in Qingcheng.

Bai family, Felicity.

"It turned out to belong to the Bai Family Group. I didn't expect you to be here today. Have a good chat later." Seeing Bai Steven sitting at the main table, those people quickly said to Yasmine politely.

Yasmine was naturally very happy, her entire face flushed.

Only Felicity, looking at everything around him coldly, found a place that was unusually inconsistent.

Everyone who came to this conference seemed to be over-excited, their faces all red.

As for being so happy?

On the other side, William was closing his eyes wearing a mask, as if thinking about something.

At this time, there was an extra person in front of him.

It was Hu Henson who had gone and returned.

Hu Henson looked at William with a grim look, "Hey, I let you in, doesn't it mean anything?"

William opened his eyes and said lightly, "What do you want to show?"

Hu Henson looked at this person and got angry for no reason.

He confirmed from Rachel that this kid is the famous waste son-in-law of Qingcheng.

I really don't know where such a lowly status person can speak to himself like this!

"Hehe, I sincerely urge you to say, that Felicity is not something you can hold with such waste." Hu Henson said coldly.

"I have guarded her for ten years, you don't need to worry about this." William said indifferently.

"That's because I didn't show up." Hu Henson's eyes flashed coldly, "You may not know my methods."

"You may not know my method, but today, you will know." William said softly, closing his eyes again.

"You!" Hu Henson was about to get angry. At this time, a pretty figure appeared at the door.

He fixed his eyes, isn't this the beautiful queen Qingmian from Genuine Care Medical Center!

The evil fire in his heart that was evoked by the white wind and snow came out again, and he wanted to talk to Wang Qingmian as soon as he stepped up.

But Wang Qingmian turned a blind eye to him, instead, under his surprised gaze, walked to William, "Why are you sitting here?"

Wang Qingmian's tone was very rude, obviously a little angry.

What is William's identity?

In the presence, who can compare with him!

Unexpectedly, actually sitting in the closest position to the door!

This is not to humiliate William!

This is humiliating Genuine Care Medical Center!

Humiliate Wang Qingmian!

William raised his head and glanced at her. Niu Tau said in a nonchalant manner, "Remember to wear a mask."

Wang Qingmian was taken aback for a moment, but didn't take it to heart. Instead, he pulled William's hand and said, "Go, follow me and sit in front."

Wang Qingmian's position on the other side of the main table is mainly due to her being Harper's granddaughter.

But William shook his head, "Everything in the seat is the situation, just go."

Wang Qingmian glared at William bitterly, "You want to piss me off! I have two positions there, I will leave one for you, and you will go over by yourself later."

After speaking, Wang Qingmian twisted his waist and walked away angrily.

As he passed by the dumbfounded Hu Henson, he gave him a vicious look.

Hu Henson was a little overwhelmed on the spot.

What kind of world is this?

Why can a waste, become Felicity's husband, now, it seems that another delicate flower in Qingcheng is also held as a treasure in the palm?

How good is he!

As for me, Hu Henson, with a distinguished status, I just played with a few women, but I was threatened by a bitch like Rachel!

A huge sense of injustice breeds in his heart, and he rushes to William in one step, "What is your relationship with Wang Qingmian!"

William didn't bother to answer this question.

At this time, Rachel appeared behind Hu Henson and asked disdainfully: "Henson, what are you doing here? Many people over there want to see you."

When Hu Henson saw Rachel, his face became stiff, so naturally he didn't dare to ask the previous topic again.

However, he suddenly asked Chen Li in a low voice: "Are you sure this kid is just a trash and has no other identity?"

Rachel looked at William and nodded confidently, "That's not nonsense? His notoriety is well known in the whole city, so let me say it? What do you expect from him who is brazenly coming over to eat? Identity failure?"

A trace of hesitation flashed in Hu Henson's eyes.

Judging from Wang Qingmian's attitude towards William just now, it seemed that he was obedient to William's words.

That's Wang Qingmian!
Did you feel wrong just now?

vamp20works

Chapter 264

But also, the name of this kid's abandoned son-in-law has been rumored for three years, and he almost bluffed him.

Thinking of this, Hu Henson's face was fierce, and he said to William: "Hey, now you are here too. Our staff is in short supply. You should be a staff member. Otherwise, I will drive you away on the spot!"

After Rachel listened, there was a rustle on her face.

Hu Henson did a great job!

Since this kid is sitting at the staff's table, he naturally has to be a staff.

Simply perfect!

This face is slapped and crackled!

I just look at this kid, how shameless he is!

William looked at Hu Henson amused, "Want me to be a staff member? I'm afraid, no one can afford it."

Hu Henson stretched out his hand to grab William's clothes, and his words became vicious, "Hehe, otherwise, just get out of me!"

"Get off? Who do you want to get off?" A majestic voice suddenly came from behind Hu Henson.

Hu Henson turned his head instinctively, but was frightened by the scene in front of him, his legs were a little weak.

Two people stood in front of me!

Standing two supreme people in Qingcheng!

One, Harper!

Another one, Hugo!

These two big men who turned their hands for the clouds and rain for the rain in Qingcheng unexpectedly appeared together!

Hu Henson reacted immediately after waking up, hunched forward, and said with a smile: "Old Wang, Elder Li, you are here, Pengxiu is shining, Pengxiu is shining!"

Harper said with a cold face: "I never knew that Frandick's grandson is so big."

Hu Henson felt that his hairs were standing up. He quickly pointed to William and said: "Wang Lao, you have misunderstood. I am not letting you go. I am talking about this kid. This kid is sneaking in and eating. I want to eat. He drove away."

Hugo's expression became cold when he heard this, "Shoot him away? You have to be qualified too!"

Hu Henson looked dumbfounded and said aggrieved: "I am also half of the master here today. How can I lose the qualifications to drive away a piece of trash."

The more he said, the more ugly the faces of the two big men became!

"Okay, drive him away, right? Then drive the two of us away together." Harper said proudly, turning around to leave.

Hu Henson was so scared that his face turned pale!

Did Harper and Hugo eat explosives?

Why doesn't it ignite?

I just drove away a waste, why are they both so careless!

However, if I let my grandfather know that because of his momentary careless words, let the two big men leave the scene, this crime, I can't bear it at all!

Thinking of this, Hu Henson gave William a vicious look and whispered, "You are lucky!"

After that, he hurried to catch up with Harper and Hugo, and said in every way, "Wang Lao, Hugo, I'm really sorry, you are right, today is the great event of our Pharmaceutical Association, the visitor is the guest, we can't just chase people, I'm not chasing people anymore, you two are great guests, so you can't leave."

Hugo and Harper glanced at each other, slowly turned around, and walked in toward the box.

Hu Henson followed them, bending over and saying flatly: "Your seat is at the main table, I will take you there."

"No, let's sit here." After Harper finished speaking, he stretched his finger to the position beside William.

Hu Henson's head seemed to be blown by thunder!

The most distinguished guest on the court, go to the staff table!

Isn't this to shame the entire Pharmaceutical Association!

"Never!" Hu Henson hurriedly shouted.

"William can only sit here, so how dare we sit high!" Harper said indifferently.

No matter how stupid Hu Henson was, he felt wrong when he heard this.

The two big guys just wanted to leave because they wanted to drive away William!

These two big brothers have something to do with William!

Thinking of this, a chill rose from the soles of Hu Henson's feet, and he looked at William in amazement.

William's eyebrows were indifferent, with a calm look.

Even the arrival of Harper and Hugo, the two big figures, didn't mind.

This kind of tolerance, this kind of mind.

Is it a waste?

He immediately stared at Rachel, who had been stunned a long time ago, and whispered: "Don't you say that he is a trash!"

Rachel was also frightened, and quickly waved her hand and said innocently, "He is indeed a trash!"

After speaking, Rachel suddenly thought of another thing, and immediately said: "Oh, yes, I forgot to tell you one thing. This kid seems to have helped Mr. Li in any way. Mr. Li lent his personal Taoli Tianxia Card. Him."

"What!" Hu Henson's face changed on the spot!

Peach and plum world card!

William has a Peach and Plum World Card!

This can be called waste!

Hu Henson was so angry that he wanted to slap Rachel!

This little bitch is going to be killed by her today!

With Tao Li Tianxia Card, you can walk sideways in Qingcheng!

Rachel doesn't even look at such nobles!

However, halfway through his hand, he felt the gazes of Harper and Hugo suspended again.

Beating people in full eyes is shameful after all.

He closed his hand in a slanderous manner, and said sincerely to Hugo and Harper: "Lao Li, Harper, please sit down, otherwise I really can't explain."

Hugo and Harper were indifferent, looking at William.

Upon seeing this, Hu Henson was so depressed that he was about to cry.

Seeing that the people around him were getting more and more, he finally bit the bullet and walked over to William and said in a low voice: "Hey, you can quickly invite them to the main table, otherwise, you will have good fruit! My grandpa It's not annoying."

Hu Henson directly moved out of his grandpa's reputation, intending to suppress this kid.

But William gave Hu Henson a playful look, and said to the two big guys: "You go and sit there first, I have my own arrangements."

Harper and Hugo looked at each other, their eyes filled with suspicion and wonder.

Can they not be surprised?

A few days ago, Cangyue Company's earth-shaking hand came back to life. The two of them had insomnia and talked all night!

Especially Harper was shocked by the young master's methods.

He and William have a betting agreement. As long as Cangyue Company can earn 3 billion yuan this year, the company will belong to William.

Harper thought it was difficult to get to the sky.

However, William made a direct profit of 2.1 billion yuan. Then, as long as he manages properly, even if he doesn't use any means, three billion yuan a year is a certainty.

In other words, Harper lost, and he lost less than two months after signing the gambling agreement.

And all of this was done by William alone, no one could beat him.

He said he had his own arrangements today, but what would he do?

However, the two still followed William's advice and went to the main table.

As soon as the two of them took their seats,

Bai Steven on the side was excited!

vamp20works

Chapter 265

This is the first time that Bai Steven has come into contact with the two heroes of Qingcheng so close.

There are just three of them at the main table!

Bai Steven once again attracted the attention of the audience.

Can you keep pace with the two heroes of Qingcheng, can they be ordinary people?

The people around him uttered another admiration.

Young people are promising, big things are possible!

Bai Steven held back his excitement, and greeted them both: "Elder Li, Mr. Wang, how are you, I am Bai Steven from the Bai family. I had a relationship with you before. Do you remember? "

What Bai Steven said was that the two heroes gathered at Felicity's birthday party.

It's just that the Felicity family dominated at the time, and now things are different.

Now, but sitting next to them.

Hugo and Harper glanced at Bai Steven, their brows frowned.

They didn't know why Bai Steven appeared here.

However, the words of the Bai family...

The two of them scanned the audience, and immediately fixed their gazes on a beautiful figure at the next table.

The two looked at each other, then left the table and walked towards Felicity.

Bai Steven's head boomed!

by!

Elder Li and Elder Wang simply ignored them!

This is going to find Felicity!

I am the master of the Bai family now!

Bai Steven was so angry that he didn't dare to burst out.

And Felicity suddenly saw the two heroes coming in front of her, and immediately started to tremble, "Elder Li, Old Wang, how are you."

"Niece Felicity, let's meet again, have a few words?" Harper said kindly first.

Where did Felicity dare not agree, she quickly got up and went to chat with them.

As for the Bai family present, the expressions of all of them became ugly.

This Felicity is obviously no longer the head of the Bai family, so why is it still favored by the duo!

Moreover, since the two heroes favor the Bai family, why should they deliberately walk away.

This obviously doesn't put our other white family members in the eyes!

Good, Felicity, do you want to monopolize grace!

A group of people from the Bai family and Steven gritted their teeth with anger. At this time, another person walked out.

Bernard!

Bernard had been in the backstage lounge until he heard the two heroes appear before he walked out.

However, when I came out, I saw Bai Steven on the main table at a glance.

The chill in his eyes came out.

Bai family, Bai Steven.

These people were not invited by Bernard.

Bernard immediately thought that this was the old man Frandick invited.

Okay, you are so old and immortal, you are about to abdicate, and you still want to defeat you?

Bernard is an old fox after all. He immediately put on a smile and walked to Bai Steven, "If I remember correctly, you are the Bai Steven of the Bai family, right."

Last time they met in the Seven Love Hay Incident.

Bai Steven didn't expect Bernard to come out to receive him personally, and immediately became excited again, "Mr. Hsu, hello!"

Bernard looked at Bai Steven with complicated eyebrows, and suddenly lowered his voice and said, "You can come today, so you must know the situation today. I, Bernard, are not a person who bears grudges. We can wipe out the past, but how to do it, you know?"

Bai Steven was taken aback.

Bernard's situation should refer to today's presidential election.

This is also a hot topic in the audience.

Then Bernard's remarks meant that our Bai family should stand in line?

Thinking of this, Bai Steven immediately said respectfully: "Mr. Hsu joked, you don't care about us, of course we can't be grateful enough. Mr. Hsu can rest assured that you are elected chairman, our Bai family, hands and feet Yes!"

In Bai Steven's view, it was Bernard's credit that they were able to get the invitation letter. Isn't it a good time for them to reciprocate?

After hearing this, Bernard nodded in satisfaction and patted his shoulder, "The person who knows the times is a good man, you are good, I will pay more attention to you in Qingcheng in the future."

When Bai Steven heard it, his face flushed with excitement!

This is a great opportunity to soar!

I caught it by Bai Steven!

As long as Bernard can climb the big tree, will the Bai family still need to work hard in the future?

It's so cool under the big tree!

Thinking of this, he immediately went to find Yasmine and others, and informed them of Bernard's vague mentions.

The Bai family suddenly smiled and praised Bai Steven as the great hero of the Bai family.

There was only Xena who was silent on the side, clutching her bag tightly with her hands, and she was totally lost and she didn't know what she was thinking.

"Ruoshuang, why, are you unhappy to see the rise of our Bai family?" Bai Steven suddenly looked at Xena jokingly.

Xena's heart shuddered, and his head buried lower.

"Be obedient in the future, I promise you will drink spicy too." Bai Steven suddenly walked over and whispered in her ear.

Xena didn't know where his courage came from, and raised his head and whispered to him: "You promised me before that you will destroy that thing! Your words don't count!"

Bai Steven laughed exaggeratedly, "It is ruined? How can I be willing to ruin such a good thing, but as long as you are obedient, I can't bear you in jail. But what about that kid, hehe..."

While Bai Steven spoke, he looked at William not far away, his eyes were cold.

Xena's eyes suddenly turned red.

The hand gripped the bag tighter.

By now, his grievances are nothing.

Brother-in-law...

Sorry.....

I may do something bad today.

I feel that I can't stand it...

There were more and more people in the venue, and the tables gradually filled up.

All of them blushed and beamed with joy.

One by one also talked loudly and acted arrogantly.

On the top of the box, the cinnabar century lamp was bright red, like a flourishing age.

Outside the box, Liu Tigger took his men and began to install the lanterns on this floor, all busy.

Liu Tigger looked up at the red lights in the room, his eyes filled with pity and compassion.

Harper and Hugo also returned to the table. They looked at each other and smiled together.

"Grandson Turtle, why are you blushing?"

"I don't die, I think you too."

At this time, a host said on the stage: "The meeting is about to begin. Please take your seats and don't walk around."

Under everyone's eyes, an old figure slowly walked out from the background.

Seeing this person at the scene, there was a burst of applause.

Frاندick!

The well-deserved chairman of the Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association.

Reputation spread far, prestige is hard to reach!

Bernard frowned when he heard the shouts from the audience.

And Frاندick waved his hand and walked towards the main table.

When he arrived at the main table, Frاندick noticed that an unknown young man was sitting there with a smile on his face.

Frاندick saw Bai Steven, his eyes burst violently, and under everyone's attention, he held Bai Steven's hands tightly!

"You are here, okay! okay! I'm relying on you today!"

Chapter 266

When Frandick saw Bai Steven sitting in that position, he immediately thought that Bai Steven was the mysterious Mr. Lunanica from Lunanica Company.

After all, he personally sent the invitation letter, vermillion, only this one.

What he didn't expect was that Mr. Lunanica on the phone was so young.

Really awesome.

However, Frandick also knew that the world had changed.

Whether he can stand up today and continue to lead the trend of the Pharmaceutical Association depends on this little guy.

After all, with ten ancient medicines in his hand, he can not only renew his life, but also renew his position as president!

But Bai Steven was suddenly stunned by Frandick holding his hands so enthusiastically.

He has never known a big man like Frandick.

Not so loved by the big guys.

Now, in full view of everyone!

Yasmine and others on the side laughed even more triumphantly when they saw that Bai Steven was so admired by Frandick.

The opportunity of the Bai family is here!

This is not Bai Steven's hand that Frandick is holding!

What he holds is the destiny of the Bai family!

"Zhen Sheng, what are you doing in a daze!" Yasmine shouted from the side.

However, Bai Steven reacted with an excitement, and he immediately said respectfully: "Mr. Hoo is joking, and today you are the master."

Speaking of this, suddenly a cold stare swept around.

Bai Steven saw Bernard with an unhappy expression on his face.

Bernard was furious!

This ignorant thing!

I just patted my chest with my front foot to make sure I would stand in line. Why, my back foot turned ruthless?

Bai Steven felt his hands cold for a while, and pulled away a little awkwardly, and said again: "Chairman, the meeting has started, let's have a meeting first."

Frandick didn't realize that Bai Steven was wrong, but he still said enthusiastically, "Okay, okay, no matter it is today or in the future, I will thank you for your care."

This promotion shocked everyone even more.

"What's the origin of Bai Steven!"

"Why is Elder Hu being so enthusiastic about him? Is there anything that the Bai family doesn't know is not strong enough?"

"I will definitely have a drink with this Bai Steven later, and see if I can get some information out."

Bai Steven sat down, feeling like a big dream.

It's so exciting.

Today is definitely the pinnacle of his life!

Look at the table present. It is not a bigwig like Harper and Hugo, or a president-level figure like Frandick and Bernard.

Such a character, in normal times, would never look at himself.

Now so many people are paying attention to themselves.

Not to mention, there are still thirty tables of people on the scene, which is so exciting.

After today, my Bai Steven made an instant hit in Qingcheng!

Bai Steven was incomparable. At this time, the host on the stage began to speak, "Dear leaders and guests, welcome to the general meeting of the Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association. Today's general meeting has four main agendas, the first one. On the agenda, please invite our President Hu to give a welcome speech, applause welcome!"

Amidst applause, Frandick stepped onto the stage and gave a simple welcome.

However, this welcome speech was in the ears of everyone, but it was a different taste.

In the welcome speech, a sense of domineering and domineering of the martyrs who have ambitions for thousands of miles and the courage of the martyrs in their old age was fully revealed.

Everyone looked at each other.

Everyone knows that there is a high probability that Frandick will be replaced by Bernard in this re-election conference.

The main reason is that Frandick's body is not as good as the day. He is seriously ill and has no cure.

Does he still want to fight Bernard again with his remnant?

Everyone couldn't help looking at Bernard.

Bernard was extremely unhappy, but smiled faintly on his face.

Good old man!

He did not hide it!

How old are people who are dying, what are they doing here?

This is clearly an incitement to the scene!

Sure enough, after Frandick finished speaking, there was warm applause below.

After all, his prestige is still there. If he wants to continue to be the president, there will definitely be many people supporting him.

The reason why everyone agreed to support Bernard before was because of Frandick's frail body.

And Bernard's biggest reliance is that Frandick is dying to enjoy the blessing.

The situation was full of gunpowder from the beginning.

Even after Frandick stepped down, he realized how sharp and overbearing his speech just now was.

He couldn't help but smile. He was never a sharp-edged person. What happened today?

Is it because the atmosphere at the scene is too warm?

"Thank you very much for President Hu's arrogant speech. Next, we will proceed to the second agenda. I think many people have heard of it before. Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association and Cangyue Company signed a contract worth 1 billion yuan. Contract. First of all, thank Cangyue Company for its supreme trust in our Pharmaceutical Association. We hereby promise that we will carry forward the ten ancient prescriptions provided by Cangyue Company to benefit the people of Li people!" The host was on stage Said enthusiastically.

There was a round of applause at the scene.

Everyone knows a little bit about the signing of the Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association and Cangyue Company. After all, there is no way to hide it.

And this is even more about a century of struggle between the Pharmaceutical Association and the Medical Association.

Frاندick can be said to have snatched this big piece of fat from the mouth of the Medical Association.

Everyone admired Hu Qiu Ventures.

There is no doubt that he is the biggest contributor to this contract.

The atmosphere at the scene made Bernard even more uncomfortable.

He also knew about this business for a long time, but he did not expect that Frاندick, the old man, would actually put the matter of handing over prescriptions today!

Put it on the previous agenda for the election of the president!

Isn't it clear to make a profit for yourself?

Old thief!

"Now, with warm applause, we invite President Hu to come on stage again, ready to hand over ten ancient medicine prescriptions!" said the host.

Frاندick once again appeared on stage, blushing.

Obviously this time, he also worked hard to win this president!

There was enthusiastic applause.

The host shouted again: "Now, let us use more enthusiastic applause to welcome the people of Cangyue Company to the stage!"

Everyone applauded desperately and began to search for the people of Lunanica Company.

Some people turned their attention to Harper.

After all, Cangyue Company had always been Harper's industry before.

However, Harper shook his head with a smile, and his gaze fell to a position at the door, intentionally or unconsciously.

The applause went from madness to gradually disappearing.

Everyone was confused with applause. Is this Cangyue company such a big name?

So welcome to not come on stage?

Bai Steven also cast his eager gaze around, trying to find this mysterious person.

But at this time, Frandick's eager voice sounded on the stage.

"President Bai, come up soon!"

vamp20works

Chapter 267

"President Bai?" The people on the scene were shocked.

Who is Bai always?

Is there a person named President Bai at the scene?

Everyone, look at me, and I look at you, looking puzzled.

Even Bai Steven felt a thud in his heart!

Mr. Bai.

If I were this President Bai, that would be great.

You can stand on the stage and share the glory with Frandick under the situation of more people's attention.

Unfortunately, I am not.

Not fate with others.

Bai Steven was feeling sorry, and saw Frandick rush off the stage, grabbing his hand, and eagerly said: "Mr. Bai, what's the matter with you? Come up soon."

There was an uproar at the scene!

President Bai, it turned out to be Bai Steven!

The Bai family's eyes widened from top to bottom.

When did Bai Steven have such a big handwriting?

Sign a billion dollar bill with someone?

No way!

First of all, he would not hide such a large order from the Bai family.

What's more, Bai Steven is not someone from Cangyue Company at all.

Bai Steven was pulled onto the stage with a dazed expression, and a feeling of anxiety suddenly appeared in his heart.

It was as if he had been forced to Liangshan and there was no turning back.

"Mr. Bai, you told me before that, today I handed over ten ancient prescriptions. My money has been given to you in the past two days. Why didn't you receive it?" Frandick said beamingly.

Bai Steven buzzed his head.

what money?

What did you say?

What are you talking about?

He wanted to ask clearly to see if there was any misunderstanding inside.

However, there was warm applause from the audience.

Those present were all supporters of the Pharmaceutical Association.

Cangyue Company supports the Pharmaceutical Association while supporting the Pharmaceutical Association. In the eyes of everyone, this representative on the stage has made great contributions.

Only Harper and Hugo glanced at Bai Steven lightly, as if they had understood something.

This is what William said. Is there another arrangement?

While Wang Qingmian was below, holding a smile, his face flushed.

Okay, you little bastard, is there anyone who is as sullen as you!

Who is on stage now, how can he step down?

However, this is what Bai Steven deserved!

Deserve it!

When Frandick saw that Bai Steven hadn't spoken for a long time, and didn't take out the medicine, his face gradually became cold.

He grabbed Bai Steven's hand and said in a deep voice, "Mr. Bai, are you planning to cheat in public, or are you going to turn your face and deny it? Frandick respects you as a dignified man. I have it ready for you, why, now do you want to hand over the prescription?"

The atmosphere on the scene suddenly became serious.

Everyone stared at Bai Steven.

In this Qingcheng, anyone dares to play with Frandick?

I really don't know what a madman Frandick was when he was young!

Bernard, who was on the side, showed a slight smile.

Good guy, not bad, this kid.

If there is faith, say that you stand on my side and stand on my side.

Dare to risk the world!

It's worth helping, of course, after you get out of this place safely.

Bai Steven felt the eyes of the crowd, his face collapsed!

He couldn't pretend anymore, and shouted innocently: "President Hu, what are you talking about, I don't understand a word. I just came to attend the meeting. Where can I sign any agreement with you? What ancient recipe is there."

Frandick's face looked ugly on the spot!

This is not a matter of losing one billion yuan all at once!

You know, Frandick has to rely on a prescription inside to continue his life, and even more so, he has to firmly hold the position of chairman in his hands through this contract!

Now, this kid really turned his face!

Before I lost myself, I thought he was a good man with passion!

Wandering.

Frاندick's face was pale with anger, and he said to Bai Steven in a deep voice, "Okay, I have evidence here. If you come, call the police immediately!"

Everyone in the Bai family panicked.

They feel like they are riding a roller coaster, all of a sudden heaven, all of a sudden hell!

"Mr. Hoo, there must be some misunderstanding in this. You wait for the police!" Yasmine couldn't help it anymore and stood up and said loudly.

"Haha! Misunderstanding! I ask you, did you sit in that position!" Frاندick shouted coldly.

Bai Steven nodded.

"That's right, this position is specially reserved by me for the person who will be handed over today. Why would you sit in this position!" Frاندick shouted again.

Bai Steven's head buzzed!

The position of the main table is actually reserved for the handover!

Now, I'm sitting by myself.

No wonder Frandick misunderstood that he was the one who took over the prescription.

However, that invitation card clearly...

Thinking of this, he looked at William at the door in amazement!

A horrified guess suddenly appeared in his head!

Before, this invitation letter was in the hands of William.

He kept saying that this invitation letter was his own.

But at that time, who would believe it!

When he took away this invitation letter, he jokingly said: "This invitation letter is not for everyone."

At the time, everyone thought this kid was just bluffing!

Unexpectedly, it was discovered that this position is really not a place to sit casually!

A position worth a billion!

The Bai family can't afford to lose their fortune!

All this is done by that kid!

He wants to discredit our Bai family!

Thinking of this, Bai Steven immediately said to Frandick: "President Hu, I know what's going on. I admit that this invitation letter is not mine."

There was an uproar at the scene!

Everyone looked at Bai Steven's eyes, suddenly full of contempt!

It's not your position, and you have to sit on it.

Shame now!

However, where Bai Steven would consider the issue of face at this time, all he wanted was to throw this pot away quickly.

"Not yours? Then how did you get the invitation letter!" Frandick frowned deeply.

Bai Steven looked at William and said viciously: "I was framed! Someone wants me to sit in this position. He wants to deliberately tease me, you, and everyone in the venue!"

In a word, he created a big hat that is extremely sinful.

Frandick's face was cruel, and he was especially prone to anger today, "Who! Speak out! I want that person to die without a place to die!"

When Bai Steven heard this, he felt relieved, and immediately walked towards William!

Everyone's eyes followed Bai Steven's voice!

Bai Steven walked in front of William, saw William smile leisurely, his heart was cruel.

Boy, you want to fuck me!

Don't blame me for being ruthless!

He suddenly pointed to William and said grandiosely: "I took this invitation letter from this kid! He wants to play with all of us! President Hu, I am also a victim, and you must call the shots for me. what!"

Chapter 268

Following Bai Steven's finger, the eyes of the audience were all locked on William!

Everyone's eyes are full of resentment!

Today is the day of resignation!

Unexpectedly, someone would dare to break ground on Tai Sui!

Such a rebellious thing has been done.

But a few people watched the play leisurely.

Harper, Hugo, and Wang Qingmian.

However, Felicity was frightened by this scene. She ran over with a vigorous step, stopped in front of Bai Steven, and said in a crying voice: "No, no, my William will not harm people. Yes. You obviously snatched this invitation letter from him! How can you blame William!"

Felicity was more and more aggrieved as she talked about it, she was so sorrow and distressed, tears rolled in her eyes.

A warmth came from her shoulder.

It was William who gently hugged her shoulders.

"William, tell them quickly that you didn't play with them on purpose." Felicity looked at William, his eyes even begging.

The people around him immediately surrounded William Tuantuan.

Xena was also standing beside Felicity carrying her bag.

She looked at the miserable wind and snow and William's tenderness, as if she had been hit by a rock.

She felt like she was about to stop breathing.

She even felt that there was a rush of blood, rushing to the top of her head!

She looked up and her eyes were red.

The eyes are full of blood.

"It's not you, then you can explain it clearly to me! Do you know? This rubbish is a famous rubbish in Qingcheng, and it is a shameful shame to our Bai family! Can you believe that this invitation letter belongs to him? Slip the world! I'm sure he didn't know where he stole this invitation letter, so he deliberately gave it to me in order to embarrass all of us!"

"Today is our re-election meeting. Now the scene is so angry and people are angry, the meeting can't go on, it's too bad!" Bai Steven said loudly.

When everyone heard that the person wearing the mask was actually a waste of the famous Qingcheng, all of them suddenly showed contempt.

No one believes that a rubbish will hold Frandick's expensive invitation letter and claim to be himself.

Because he is not worthy!

"Yes, grandpa, I can testify that this kid sneaked into the venue and wanted to come and eat." Hu Henson behind Frandick, seeing the wind and snow protecting William, immediately became angry and bloody, and desperately vilified. .

"Well, I can also testify!" Rachel also stood up, aggressively.

Frandick was taken aback and looked at Rachel, "Who are you?"

At this time, Rachel took Hu Henson's arm and said with a smile: "Hello grandpa, before I have time to introduce myself to you, I am Henson's girlfriend, Rachel."

Frandick immediately glanced at Hu Henson dissatisfied.

"Mr. Hoo, you have also heard this kid's evil deeds. It must be the invitation letter he stole. You can't breathe. The shame of our Pharmaceutical Association will always be there! I suggest that you kill him!" Steven said. Shouted again arrogantly.

"Enough!" At this moment, there was a sudden scream of anger!

Everyone looked at it, but it was Xena!

Xena lowered his head, shaking all over!

"My brother-in-law is not such a person! He is not! Bai Steven, you are simply not a human! You did something wrong by yourself! You want to blame my brother-in-law!" Xena didn't know where his courage came from, raised his head and looked at Bai Steven. The eyes are red.

When Bai Steven saw that Xena dared to speak for William at this time, his blood also came up, "Xena, you're going to die! Believe me or not!"

As Bai Steven said, his pupils suddenly shrank!

He looked at Xena who rushed over in disbelief!

In Xena's hand, he actually took out a sharp dagger from his bag!

The shimmering dagger, in front of everyone, is about to penetrate Bai Steven's chest!

Everyone was stunned by this scene.

Fortunately, Bai Steven was dying, and he actually burst out instinctive desire to survive.

His body fell backwards, and he crawled around and escaped the fatal blow!

The eyes of everyone looking at Xena were straight.

Where did this little girl come from!

It's white and delicate.

One shot is ruthless!

But Xena watched Bai Steven escape the knife, and suddenly all the blood in his body seemed to have been squandered, and his body softened.

She was sitting on the ground with a duck, her dagger fell aside, and she cried so much that she wow!

Can you not pierce your heart!

She has been threatened by Bai Steven these days, and she has long been intolerable.

Bai Steven is not reconciled to let her sister be wronged and let her be the master of the monk!

Instead, she broke her promise and continued to threaten her!

Now, my brother-in-law is humiliated in public!

Her resentment couldn't be restrained in an instant, and the dagger that had been hidden in her bag for a few days was finally out of its sheath at this moment.

She just wants to kill Bai Steven a thousand times!

To vent my anger!

Even if everyone is in full view!

Even if you go to jail!

She also recognized it!

It's a pity that this knife was hidden by him.

Xena was crying on the ground and fainted. At this time, he felt his head warm.

A warm hand pressed against her head.

She looked up with difficulty, and suddenly saw a cold and gentle face.

William reached out and touched Xena, and said softly, "Fool, why bother? Didn't you say it? Your brother-in-law is there."

Every time Xena saw Felicity being killed by her brother-in-law, she was envious in her heart.

Now, with her brother-in-law being so gentle, Xena's emotions seemed to have found a catharsis, and she immediately hugged her brother-in-law, crying too hard!

Everyone was stunned by this sudden situation.

Is this today the general meeting of the Pharmaceutical Association or their white soap opera!

Bai Steven was on the side, his whole body was shaking, life and death were in an instant!

He couldn't help but annoyed and said: "Xena, okay you! Since you are unkind, then don't blame me for being unrighteous! Believe it or not, I will..."

"Ruoshuang, what did you want to do to that person?" William suddenly interrupted Bai Steven, and said to Xena gently.

Feeling William's warm hand, Xena felt as if he had found an eternal support, and couldn't help but blurt out, "I want to make a few holes in him! See if this person's blood is red or black!"

Grit your teeth!

Cold heart!

Everyone couldn't help but be speechless.

What exactly did Bai Steven do that made such a beautiful little sister so murderous.

But at this time, William gently touched Xena's hair, and handed her to the nervous Felicity's arms.

Then, in full view, William picked up the dagger on the ground.

He casually played a knife, and then, step by step, walked towards Bai Steven.

"Ruoshuang, as you wish."

Chapter 269

Everyone's eyes widened when everyone saw that William actually took a knife in public and wanted to kill Bai Steven.

This person is so crazy!

When Bai Steven saw William walking slowly, he was even more scared to fly.

He was looking at William.

A pair of eyes, but as if seeing a bottomless abyss.

Dim and deep.

It's full of inaudible horror and horror!

He was full of excitement, and tremblingly shouted: "You, what do you want to do! I tell you, so many people here are watching!"

William walked slowly, playing with a knife in one hand, and smiled slightly, "So many people, so what?"

so what!

The four words, like thunder, exploded in everyone's heart!

Under the world, there is such a confident and arrogant person!

Of those present, which one is not rich!

Now, in the eyes of this kid, there is not even anything!

When Xena watched William lift the knife towards Bai Steven, he suddenly felt like a world away.

She seemed to have seen the massacre again.

William was also carrying a knife and killing someone!

That time, hatred soared!

This time, an understatement!

But what remains unchanged is William's domineering ambitions despite thousands of people!

Brother-in-law, can do the same for me...

Thinking of this, Xena's tears fell on the spot again.

Felicity hugged Xena tightly.

The shock in her heart was no less than Ruoshuang.

Although he knew that William did a heinous crime.

But Felicity did not stop William.

It seems that all this is his mission and his destination!

He is suitable for a killing!

Born to be king!

As William walked, Bai Steven stepped back.

After a few steps in a row, no one in the surroundings dared to step forward to help Bai Steven.

Even Yasmine and other Bai family members, at this moment, under William Sui's eyes, they all flinched.

They just looked at William spitefully, and shouted from the side: "You bastard! You are still not the Bai family! Do you dare to try our Bai family!"

William snorted coldly, "The Bai family, it's ridiculous."

Bai Steven was forced by William to retreat step by step, and he actually retreated directly to the root of the wall!

No refunds!

Lu Yehan had a knife in his hand, his eyes were ruthless.

He was only five steps away from Bai Steven.

Bai Steven looked at the shimmering knife, suddenly as if thinking of something, he immediately shouted: "You bastard, you don't know, you have a handle in my hand! If you dare to do it to me, Believe it or not, I'll release that thing right away, so that you will never be born again!"

"Handle? Oh yes, is it the handle you are threatening Ruoshuang with?" William took a step forward and asked leisurely.

Bai Steven was taken aback, and immediately nodded, "Yes, that's the thing! It seems that Xena has already told you! If you dare to do it to me, your life is gone!"

"It's ridiculous, it's ridiculous, what you thought of as the handle, in my William's eyes, it's just a raise of your hand." William smiled as he walked.

Raise your hand?

Bai Steven's face flushed!

How can this be!

That's killing!

And killed more than one person!

How could this kind of thing be done with a hand up!

"Don't pretend to be a fool with me here! Believe it or not, I'll be right now!" Bai Steven shouted again.

At this time, William's body moved.

His sword fell in the cold!

Bai Steven didn't even have a chance to hide!

He felt a sense of death enveloping him and screamed directly!

That's it!

This desperado!

Really can do anything!

I'm dead!

Bai Steven suddenly felt a burst of heart-wrenching pain in his hand and took a closer look!

The people on the scene let out an exclamation after Bai Steven!

William didn't directly kill Bai Steven with this knife!

Instead, it was the hand that held Bai Steven in the air and nailed it to the wall!

The dagger directly pierced Bai Steven's right hand and firmly nailed his right palm to the wall!

The blood lay down drop by drop along his palm.

Bright red, with the magical red lanterns on the ceiling, it seems to be a bloody banquet in the flourishing age, opening ceremony!

Everyone just felt that their hearts were pumped fiercely, gasping for breath one by one!

Is this young man in front of him really the three-year trash son-in-law of the Bai family!

According to the rumors, he is weak and incompetent, and he is useless!

But now, move the knife in public!

There is no fear!

It's like a hero in the world, he is the only one!

A madman!

Bai Steven felt the tearing pain, and Dou Da's cold sweat continued to flow out of his forehead, "William, you bastard! You dare to move me, I will let you today!"

"I pin you here for nothing else, just to let you watch a scene quietly." William interrupted Bai Steven and shook his head. "A man, even threatening. People have to hesitate and talk for so long, the thunder is heavy and the rain is small, sad."

William's words made the people around him in a daze.

This guy is not only a lunatic, but also a crazy!

The other party was about to threaten him, and he even laughed at how slowly the other party threatened him.

Bai Steven was also choked by William's words for a long time.

At this time, William smiled again: "Forget it, I'll do you a favor, right? I'll help you announce it for everyone to see."

Bai Steven's eyes turned round.

What the hell is this William doing!

Is he really not afraid of ruin and imprisonment for a lifetime!

What is his confidence!

When Xena heard this behind her, her face suddenly showed anxious expression, and said to Felicity: "Sister, go and stop brother-in-law, this thing can't be released! If you let it out, brother-in-law will be finished!"

However, after Xena finished speaking, he realized that Felicity's eyes were wrong.

At this moment, there is no anxiety, no tension, no anxiety.

The expression in her eyes when she looked at William was filled with warm love and worship.

She didn't look at Xena, but just smiled and said, "Don't worry, your brother-in-law promised me before and leave everything to him. And me, I had an agreement with this fool earlier."

When Felicity said this, he paused and stood up. For a moment, he felt deep and righteous and confident.

"If he is full of evil, I will accompany him forever."

In a word, Xena was shocked and speechless on the spot.

She looked at Felicity foolishly and smiled bitterly.

She finally understood why her sister and brother-in-law were so deeply in love with each other.

This is a kind of trust and perseverance carved into the bones.

On the field, Wang Qingmian finally stood up and took the initiative to walk to the center of the stage, as if he was already ready.

She placed her mobile phone under a projector and played a surveillance video.

Seeing this surveillance video, everyone seemed to be frozen. The scene was terribly quiet!

And William said leisurely: "Is it this? If not, I still have several paragraphs. You can slowly pick one that you feel satisfied with and then threaten me."

Chapter 270

Deathly silence at the scene!

Everyone looked at the big screen in disbelief, and some even covered their mouths.

The eyes are full of shock!

Is this making a movie!

No, this is surveillance video!

In the video, William held a long knife in his hand.

Unbelievably crazy!

In the video, there are still many people helping William!

The video is silent.

But at the scene, only a violent heartbeat can be heard!

kill!

Chi Guoguo's murder!

Who is this William!

How dare to do such a damaging thing!

Moreover, it was even more fearless, and released it in front of so many people!

What is he thinking!

Yasmine's face turned pale when she saw this video.

She even backed up a few steps before she could stand firmly with the support of everyone.

She couldn't believe it!

The waste who had lived in the Bai family only for ten years, dared to kill with a knife, and it was impossible!

She suddenly felt a deep fear!

In these ten years, people like them have made things difficult for William.

If William acted like this in surveillance!

The Bai family was going to be slaughtered by him overnight!

The Bai family hides such a hungry wolf!

Bai Steven's face turned pale even more, and he even forgot the pain in his palm.

He stared at William in a daze, his eyes full of disbelief!

It took him a lot of effort to get a small fragment of the video.

But now William's video is clearer, and the evidence of the murder is more obvious!

Is he going to fight with himself?

When Felicity saw this video, she covered her mouth, tears bursting into her eyes!

In her mind, what happened before was instantly thought of.

Lin!

This is the mountain road to Lin's house!

that time.....

Xena said quietly beside him at the right time: "Sister, this is a secret between my brother-in-law and me. I'm sorry, I have never dared to tell you before, because I am afraid that you can't accept such a brother-in-law. But what I want to say is that my brother-in-law is really right. If you love him to your bones, he will become a demon and be mad for you. Don't blame your brother-in-law, let alone be afraid of him."

Felicity did not answer, but she answered loudly in her heart.

What are you afraid of?

This is my husband!

This is William who is so angry as a beauty!

Felicity also completely understood her position in William's heart for a moment.

For himself, William did such a crazy thing. What reason does he have to blame him, to be afraid of him...

I'm afraid that the more you love, the deeper you love yourself.

"Come on, call the police! Everyone has seen it, this guy is committing a crime!" Bai Steven yelled out on the spot.

However, no one moved at the scene.

Everyone is scared silly.

In the peaceful and prosperous age, has there ever been such a sin.

Could it be that Shura was reborn to dare to trample on the king's law like this!

Everyone dared not move, and the two people on the main table showed wry smiles.

Harper and Hugo.

Harper didn't know about this, but when he saw the video, he felt a sense of pride that he had never had before!

Harper already knew that William was so wise and close to a demon!

However, in order to avenge his grandfather, Duo Zhi is far from enough.

Must have a certain strength and courage!

Now, isn't it the evidence of his courage and strength!

In his heart, he respected the young master a little bit more.

There was even an impulse to let go of all the restraints and restrictions, kneel at the feet of William, willing to be a slave!

Seeing that everyone was afraid to call the police, Bai Steven burst into tears with anger.

"William, you have to die! If you don't kill me today, I will never let you go!"

Bai Steven planned to burn the jade and the stone.

However, William Senran smiled.

"You know, why would I dare to release these videos?" William suddenly asked Bai Steven.

Where does Bai Steven know.

William glanced across the crowd at this time, fixed on Xena who was choking on the ground, and said softly: "The first reason is to reassure Ruoshuang and let her know that her brother-in-law believes and can do everything."

Xena was moved for a while, is it worth it for this reason alone?

But William looked at Felicity again, "The second reason is to let you know, my baby Felicity, but he can't move."

When everyone heard this, they fought a cold war.

How crazy is it to be so angry!

This kid, the love for Felicity might have been morbid!

He is swearing Felicity's sovereignty to everyone on the scene!

Hu Henson on the side was even weaker in his legs.

He thought that he was threatening William just now.

Let William leave Felicity.

He also said that people like Felicity could not be protected by him.

He even threatened him, saying "That's because I didn't show up, you don't know my methods."

Thinking about it now, this sentence is simply ridiculous!

At that time, William replied, "I'm afraid you don't know my methods, but you will know later."

Now I finally know it!

Everyone in the room knows that this is a lunatic who is crazy about his wife!

If at that time, this kid got angry, could his life be saved?

Thinking of this, Hu Henson couldn't help being frightened for a while, and stared at Rachel shivering beside him with even more resentment.

Rachel was obviously stunned.

William looked around silently, and snorted coldly, "The last reason, listen carefully, I will let it out. The audience knows what can I do!"

As soon as this was said, the scene suddenly became restless.

Everyone is a person with a head and a face.

Now, even being threatened by a lunatic!

This is the Pharmaceutical Association!

One of the greatest forces in Qingcheng!

This kid dared to say such things, obviously disrespectful!

Even Bernard snorted coldly, "It seems that today our Pharmaceutical Association is going to punish evil and promote good!"

But at this time, Frandick shouted, "Watch all!"

Frandick's eyes had never left William since just now.

He faintly felt a familiar smell on this kid.

But for a while, I couldn't tell.

I can only keep watching.

When Bai Steven heard this, he burst into laughter and frantically stirred up the anger of everyone, "Have you heard? You guys, who claim to be famous and famous every day, but now in the eyes of a lunatic, you are not a shit. Come on! You are the most embarrassing!"

The faces of everyone suddenly became extremely ugly.

"Okay, if you want to ask the crime, if you want, then please ask the crime yourself. You can't let go of these people in the video." William saw a slight movement at the door and chuckled. Tao.

Bai Steven suddenly said grimly: "Like you group of wicked scum, I will naturally not let go of them!"

William nodded, "Really? Then you compare it carefully. Are the people in the video the same group of people walking by the door?"

Away from the crowd, a group of tiger and wolf teachers came slowly!

@vamp20works

Chapter 271

There were silent sounds all over the room.

Only the rustle of footsteps.

A group of people had already stood in front of Bai Steven.

This group of people wear sunglasses and masks one by one.

He was dressed dirty, obviously the group of people who were installing lanterns outside.

When Bai Steven heard this, he couldn't help laughing, "What are you special? There is no cure! Just find a group of migrant workers and ask me to blame! Are you a fool or I am a fool!"

The headed person suddenly took off his mask and sunglasses.

The people behind took off their masks and sunglasses together.

One by one, the eyes are like blood, it's not an exaggeration to fight in all directions!

And seeing the person in front of you clearly, the scene suddenly sounded full of exclamations!

Everyone, I can't even believe that the person who was carrying the lantern just now turned out to be!

Tiger of Qingcheng!

Liu Tigger!

The underground king, even carried things himself!

It's weird!

Liu Tigger looked at Bai Steven coldly, and suddenly his sleeves flicked, and a long knife appeared in his hand abruptly!

The people behind him did the same, with long knives, as if to illuminate the whole scene!

The temperature at the scene seemed to have dropped several degrees!

Bai Steven's mouth is wide open!

"Look now, do you look like the group of people in the video?" Liu Tigger said.

The voice is a bit hoarse, but it doesn't change its heroism.

Bai Steven looked at the sharp light of the knife, and suddenly his lower body was jerked, and he was scared to pee on the spot!

He doesn't even need to watch the video!

His head was stabbed by this long knife, and he suddenly remembered everything before!

At Fernando's house, William and Liu Tigger led the team to fight all the way!

It's Liu Tigger, yes!

Thinking of this, Bai Steven's legs were trembling, and his body wanted to fall down, but because his palm was nailed to the wall, the fall made his hands tear like pain again!

He howled frantically.

I also regretted it to the point where it could not be added!

why!

Why did I just think of Liu Tigger now!

If I remembered it earlier, how could I use this video to blackmail William!

This is Liu Tigger!

Qingcheng kills like hemp!

Sleeping Tiger Underground!

To threaten him is simply too long for his life!

It's a pity that it seems that the overwhelming is hard to harvest now.

Bai Steven couldn't say a word.

The scene was also silent.

Wherever Liu Tigger goes, he is a powerful force!

Even the Pharmaceutical Association did not dare to offend Liu Tigger.

Because Liu Tigger can be rude and lawless!

The Pharmaceutical Association cannot.

Everyone looked at Liu Tigger blankly, and then at William, they understood for a moment.

Liu Tigger participated in this killing.

It's no wonder that William is confident, who dares to tell the world about this killing.

Isn't it looking for death!

I'm afraid it's this killing, I'm going to shut up here tonight.

No one dared to mention it again.

"You, you are like this, after all, it is against the law! Heaven is intolerable!" At this time, a woman rushed out and shouted at everyone fiercely.

It was Bai Steven's mother, Helen.

Helen is a silly grandma at all, so how could she care about the Xiao Jiujiu inside.

She stood in front of Bai Steven, pointing righteously at the crowd and cursing.

Bai Steven was so angry that he couldn't help it anymore, and slapped Helen's face with his left hand.

"Mom! Shut up, OK! Do you want to kill me!" Steven shouted angrily.

But Helen was beaten up and splashed all at once, "Oh, you son of a bitch! You even beat your mother! I'm trying to stand up for you!"

Everyone was speechless. Where did this woman come from, she even scolded herself when she was so cruel.

"These people deserve to be taken to prison! You still indulge them so much! You are accomplices! You are all guilty!" Helen pointed at everyone angrily.

At this time, a wry smile rang not far away.

"This woman is right, then even the old man will ask the crime together."

Everyone followed the prestige, but saw Hugo stood up and walked over.

Seeing Hugo coming, everyone's heart raised their throats again!

Hugo has mixed in!

This seems to be a big trouble!

The Bai family recklessly!

Hugo hadn't said anything just now, obviously because he didn't want to cause trouble.

Unexpectedly, they actually forced Hugo out.
court death!

Helen still knows Hugo, and when he sees him coming, he can only respectfully said: "Elder Li, you are joking, how can you confuse you with this group of murderers."

Hugo stood beside William and said with a wry smile: "You are exalting the old man, Tigger is my subordinate, and this matter was approved by me, and I sent someone to clean the scene afterwards. , Now, am I an accomplice in your mouth?"

Everyone's hairs rose up.

Hugo was so deeply involved!

He was such a respected person, he helped William clean the battlefield!

What's the matter with William!

The eyes of everyone looking at William changed.

He is not a worm!

He is Wearing Cloud Dragon!

What can make Liu Tigger hold a knife is not a dragon!

Can Hugo deal with the queen, not what a dragon is!

Terrible young man!

Those who keep saying that this kid is rubbish are really rubbish!

Smart eyes do not know beads!

Felicity and Xena looked at William standing side by side with Hugo, Qi Qi dumbfounded.

Even Liu Tigger dare not stand side by side with them!

This seems to be the first time William showed his most hideous fangs in front of everyone!

If you don't call it, it's a blockbuster!

If you don't fly, you can fly so fast!

From then on Qingcheng, who would dare to look down upon William!

Thinking of this, Felicity suddenly felt a kind of cruel relief!

It's so fun!

I have always said that my family William is incompetent!

Now let the whole city take a look, my family William can pick up stars!

William looked at the trembling Bai Steven, "Do you have anything else to say?"

While William was talking, he drew off the dagger, and Bai Steven suddenly slumped to the ground!

"William, I'm sorry! I kowtow to you! I shouldn't offend you! Thousands of mistakes are my fault! Will you let me go!" Steven said with tears and kowtow to William.

The Bai family was silent.

Who dares to speak.

William dominates alone, and the Bai family is in front of him. What a!

"There is nothing to say, is it? Then, please poke two holes in your body." William suddenly smiled and threw the knife on Bai Steven's body.

Bai Steven's eyes widened when he heard this!

What a cruel person!

Want him to harm himself!

"But Ruoshuang said, I want to make a few holes in you to see what kind of blood you shed. A hole is not called a few." William smiled, his eyes were as cold as frost, "If I do it. If you do, the next cut is not as simple as the palm of your hand."

"Choose it yourself, I'll count three seconds."

@vamp20works

Chapter 272

The scene was silent, no one spoke.

Everyone looked at William blankly, their eyes filled with shock.

Who can imagine that this kid can be even more cruel!

Actually forced Bai Steven to harm himself in front of everyone!

Bai Steven's face was even more distorted. He looked at William angrily, and suddenly got up from the ground, and said viciously, "William, don't go too far!"

"Excessive?" William smiled, eyes full of coldness, and took a step closer to Bai Steven.

Bai Steven was so scared that he backed away several steps, his body trembling.

At this time, Liu Tigger's knife suddenly knocked slightly on the ground.

"Ding!" A slight sound of gold and iron sounded.

The men behind him did the same.

The sound of "Ding Ding Ding" lingered in an instant.

This sound is like a magic sound in everyone's ears!

Liu Tigger also took a step forward.

Bai Steven's heart beat fiercely, and his eyes showed endless regret and sorrow.

"Okay! I'll do it myself!" Bai Steven picked up the blood-stained dagger with trembling hands, his brain was full of cold sweat.

If you don't do it yourself, it won't work.

Waiting for him will be Liu Tigger's butcher knife!

Everyone looked at Bai Steven holding a dagger in his hand, but the atmosphere did not dare to make a sound.

Bai Steven tremblingly pointed the knife at his shoulder, and slowly increased his strength.

"Ah!" Bai Steven screamed in pain the moment the knife plunged.

Everyone watched as the knife pierced slowly, and the blood slowly leaked out.

This is far more shocking than going down with a knife.

Torture!

The blood stained Bai Steven's white shirt, and the cold sweat on his face grew more and more.

Knife, only half way down!

In the end, Bai Steven couldn't help it anymore, gritted his teeth, suddenly shouted, and slammed the knife into his shoulder!

Then he quickly pulled it out and stabbed again!

This time, as fast as lightning!

These two knives seemed to pierce everyone's heart, and they all shivered.

And their faces, under the shining of the red lights all over the field, looked even more red.

"William! You can't die! I will never forget today! You wait for me!" Bai Steven reluctantly stood firm with the support of Bai Auditorium, and looked at William viciously.

He has been completely discredited in this venue today.

He has nothing to lose.

Even now, he feels that this life, if you want to take it away, take it away!

Better than being so tortured and humiliated now!

Yasmine also glanced at William viciously, snorted and took the lead to leave the scene.

The Bai family left one after another, Xena's footsteps instinctively moved.

But seeing Felicity staying still, she suddenly gave a wry smile.

Yes, for a long time, to endure the people of the Bai family, I seem to have accepted it.

Only if I think about my sister and trust William wholeheartedly, maybe I will have a new life.

Thinking of this, Xena stopped, and stood firmly beside Felicity, staying.

Everyone looked at the blood on the ground, one by one was speechless.

Is this kid William wrong?

Of course there is!

And it's a real evil.

But as he said, who can do it!

Behind him, but standing Liu Tigger!

Not to mention that behind Liu Tigger there are big men like Hugo.

Who dares to mess with!

Everyone looked at William and wanted to know what this demon would do next.

William turned around and looked at Liu Tigger, "Brother Tigger, thank you."

What a coincidence today, Liu Tigger happened to be there.

William had previously guessed that what Bai Steven used to threaten Xena was the original murder video.

So earlier he told Wang Qingmian to obtain those surveillance videos by means.

He originally expected that Hugo would come on stage, standing beside him.

But I didn't expect that Liu Tigger happened to be here, so that Brother Tigger was charged with a full crime.

But who is Liu Tigger?

Born to fight, has long been notorious, so why are you afraid of it today!

Liu Tigger patted William on the shoulder and smiled, but he raised his head and looked sadly at the red lantern on the ceiling. Without speaking, he walked outside.

William suddenly thought about it, and said behind him: "Brother Tigger, just now downstairs said he would buy you a glass of wine, and I owe you a glass of wine."

Liu Tigger turned his back to him, raised his hand and waved, "There is a chance."

William also raised his head and looked at the Cinnabar Hundred Years Lantern, then nodded, "Well, there is a chance."

With the departure of Liu Tigger, the underground tiger, the atmosphere in the venue gradually eased.

The host on the stage looked at Frandick helplessly, completely confused, and didn't know how to host next.

Frandick was also very aggrieved. Today was the day when the Pharmaceutical Association changed its term.

However, seeing blood on the day of rejoicing is clearly too taboo to be taboo.

Just as he was depressed, William suddenly said: "I'm sorry, let your venue settle some personal grievances, then continue the process."

Frandick felt bitter when he heard this.

Dare to be angry but dare not speak.

Continue the process!

Continue to fart!

This was the second agenda, originally meant to hand over the ten ancient prescriptions to the people from Cangyue Company.

Now, the people from Cangyue Company haven't come, and they are still handing in a fart.

And if you want to skip this agenda, you have to directly elect the chairman.

I have already lost this greatest advantage, how can I win Bernard!

Bernard, who was on the side, was so happy that his mouth turned crooked.

Although he hated William, he kept clapping in his heart.

Wonderful!

This kid made trouble, and in a matter of time, Frandick's advantage was wiped out.

The matter of these billion orders will inevitably be held on Frandick's body.

Even if he can negotiate with Cangyue Company later and continue to complete the handover, at least today, Frandick has no advantage at all.

Frandick sighed at this time. Obviously, he was ready to accept such a helpless fact.

He is about to speak out and ask the host to skip this second agenda.

But at this time, William slowly stepped onto the stage and stood shoulder to shoulder with the host.

The beautiful host just saw William's ferocity, and could not help but move a few steps to the side, obviously not daring to stand with William.

"President Hu, why, aren't you on stage yet?" William said calmly on stage.

Frandick was taken aback, his face turned pale.

This kid, what's going on!

Who is the master of this scene!

How do you feel that he controls the audience, these few meanings!

Moreover, is he preparing to embarrass himself in public!

Looking at Frandick's ugly expression, William suddenly took a sheet, and a few yellowed papers appeared in his hand.

"I am Mr. Lunanica in your mouth."

@vamp20works

Chapter 273

: "Mr. Lunanica? What Mr. Lunanica?"
Everyone was confused.

Xena and Felicity heard this, but they all felt the same goose bumps.

They glanced at each other tacitly, and their eyes were shocked.

Xena asked in a low voice, "Sister, isn't my brother-in-law a small security guard of Cangyue Company? How did he become a Mr. Cangyue? When I heard this name, I felt like a very powerful person in Cangyue Company."

Felicity was also speechless, this William.

Seems to have done something extraordinary...

Good or bad, this person always hides everything from himself!

Mr. Lunanica, who is he in Lunanica Company!

Xena was confused when he saw the wind and snow, and suddenly thought.

It seems that my elder sister doesn't know, either. My elder sister still doesn't know that William is the curator of Genuine Care Medical Center.

Brother-in-law is a hero in the world, and he does all major things. It is normal for him to be superior in Cangyue Company.

Thinking of this, Xena had stars in her eyes.

After hearing this, Frandick, who was originally full of despair, trembled as if he had received an electric shock, looking at William in disbelief!

Mr. Lunanica?

This kid, could it be Mr. Lunanica who was strategizing and winning a thousand miles before on the phone?

As soon as this idea came out, it seemed as if it had opened up Frandick's two lines of Ren and Du, the more he thought about it, the more he felt it was possible!

Yes, you can know from the previous words of the Bai family that these invitations were all taken from William.

Then he is most likely Mr. Lunanica!

Just now, I saw that he was unremarkable, and I couldn't believe in my heart that Mr. Lunanica would be so young.

Thinking about it now, there is endless confidence and domineering in his voice, isn't it the voice on the phone?

Everything is right!

Frاندick's face was full of excitement, he almost trot to the stage and stood in front of William.

He looked at William, and the more he looked, the more he admired it.

Looking closely at the stack of yellowed paper in his hand, his heart beating wildly!

These photos should be ancient prescriptions!

"It's really you!" Frاندick couldn't help shouting!

William smiled and nodded, "I believe it."

The people below were in an uproar.

Although they didn't know what Mr. Lunanica meant, looking at the excitement of Frاندick, it was obvious that William was performing the contract on behalf of Lunanica Company.

This kid, the method was so harsh just now.

Now that Cangyue Company had to show his love again, President Hu was so admired. Obviously, his identity was even more mysterious in everyone's hearts.

Bernard looked at William with incredible expression!

This kid again!

Nowhere can I escape this brat!

The last time the seven love hay happened, this kid slapped himself in the face severely in public!

Even more so today!

The president himself was already at his fingertips!

This kid came out halfway again, holding ten ancient prescriptions!

Completely ruin your own advantages!

hateful!

"Hurry up, everyone! Hurry up! The second process will begin immediately!" Frandick stubbornly endured his excitement, but he yelled out of the host's microphone.

Everyone woke up like a dream, and quickly took their seats one by one.

And Felicity and Xena were sitting in their positions, suddenly a little embarrassed.

Originally this table was neat and tidy, and there were other people sitting there.

But now there are only two of them left at this table.

Others would rather squeeze with others than sit with them.

In everyone's eyes, the Bai family has become a dead star.

Xena looked at Felicity bitterly, and said, "Sister, it seems that we have become the plague god, and everyone avoids us."

Felicity smiled gently and said, "My husband is a killer, so it's not bad for me to be a plague."

Xena looked speechless and didn't know what to say about this nymphomaniac sister.

Should she say that she has a big heart, or should she say that she is mentally disabled.

"Everyone, Mr. Lu, came to fulfill the contract and hand over ten prescriptions on behalf of Cangyue Company. However, my old man's ugly words are the first. If anyone dared to spread the matter today, I will not be the first to spare him!" Hu Qiu Feng said this first.

But everyone knew it well.

There was already a big boss behind William, and everyone had to consider the consequences of talking too much.

Now that this kid has revealed his identity under the loss of Frandick's superiority, it is tantamount to pulling Frandick from hell to heaven.

How could Frandick not appreciate him.

It seems that what happened today, including those videos I saw, can't be told outside because I was killed.

The ten ancient prescriptions were handed over smoothly.

Frandick himself is a pharmacy expert. After checking the prescriptions one by one, his face was red.

Especially when I saw one of the prescriptions, I almost jumped up with excitement.

That one is his prescription for life extension-Carmine Bovine Prescription.

The prescription is verified and accurate.

As Frandick and William shook hands heavily, there was a warm applause.

The value of these ten prescriptions is clear to everyone present.

This will not only gain the upper hand in the contest with the Medical Association, but also make the reputation of the Pharmaceutical Association reach a peak.

inestimable.

Frandick contributed a lot.

And a large number of people were watching William quietly.

They were already weighing this former Qingcheng abandoned son-in-law and how they would re-examine him in the future.

William stepped down, but walked towards Felicity and Ruoshuang, and sat beside Felicity.

Feng Xue smiled, but said with a grievance: "Mr. Lunanica, why are you here? Our little chair here wronged you."

William heard the sadness in Felicity's words, touched her little head, and smiled: "What is Mr. Lunanica, your husband?"

Felicity rolled his eyes directly.

"Husband." Xena with the stars in her eyes could not help her feelings, faintly shouted.

Felicity cast another roll of eyes to Xena, "It's not big or small, don't shout, this animal belongs to my family."

After speaking, Felicity looked at William again and whispered, "William, thank you for today."

"Then how do you want to thank me?" William smiled.

Felicity suddenly blushed, and whispered in his ear: "Go home and kiss you."

"Dear?" William asked naturally.

Felicity poked William's forehead with a black line, "Here! Where else do you think!"

William smiled, "All right, but, thank you, don't say it too early, I'm afraid you won't be able to bear the price for a while."

Felicity sighed: "Why can't I afford to kiss your forehead? You helped Ruoshuang, and I helped her to repay you."

Xena blushed and mumbled: "Sister, you don't actually have to repay my brother-in-law for me. You can kiss me personally."

@vamp20works

Chapter 274

William glanced at Xena strangely, did not answer, looked at the stage, "Keep on looking, Felicity, you can first think about where to kiss me while watching."

On the stage, the host said with a smile on his face: "Next, we will proceed to the third agenda and elect the new president of our Pharmaceutical Association!"

The people at the scene were shocked and finally came!

Today's biggest highlight!

Today's presidential election is about the future development path of the Pharmaceutical Association!

It is closely related to the interests of everyone here.

The host held a hand card and said with a smile: "There are three candidates for the presidential election today, namely Frandick, Bernard and Nelson."

The three people stood up and nodded to the people below.

The old man named Nelson was not sad or happy, because he knew he was here to make up the soy sauce.

Candidates will only come from Frandick and Bernard.

"We will adopt a secret ballot, and the members of the on-site Pharmaceutical Association have one vote." The host continued.

But at this time, Bernard suddenly interrupted the host's words, "Wait, I have a few words that I don't know should be said improperly."

Xena below couldn't help but sipped, "If you don't say it properly, don't say it. Those who say this on TV are not good things."

The host glanced at Frandick awkwardly, and Frandick nodded.

Bernard looked at Frandick humbly and said, "Mr. Hoo, I am not targeting you, I am completely sympathetic to you, so I hope you don't take it to heart."

Frandick motioned to Bernard to continue.

Bernard cleared his throat and said, "Everyone knows that President Hu has been worrying about the development of the Pharmaceutical Association over the years, and we all have extremely lofty respect for him. However, the overwork has dragged down his body. Perhaps everyone knows that President Hu has a stubborn illness and it is no longer suitable to do it personally. If President Hu continues to be the president, I am afraid that his body will be overwhelmed. Would you all bear to look at our President Hu? Will you continue to burn your lives? This is why we all understand President Hu, what do you think?"

The people at the scene suddenly became embarrassed.

Bernard was right.

Frاندick's biggest disadvantage is that he suffers from a stubborn illness that cannot be cured for many years, and he has become more and more embarrassed.

Everyone wanted Frاندick to continue as the president.

But now according to Bernard, if everyone chooses Frاندick, then everyone is forcing Frاندick to contribute his life.

If Frاندick fell to his job, everyone who voted for Frاندick today would be a sinner.

And Frاندick also knew that Bernard would make a fuss about his body, he suddenly laughed loudly, "I would also like to thank Mr. Hsu for his concern. If it were before, my body would indeed be incapable of being the chairman, but It's different now."

Everyone lifted their spirits, and then looked at Frاندick suspiciously.

But Bernard frowned, wondering what tricks the old fox was going to do.

Frاندick suddenly pulled out a prescription from the ten prescriptions just now, and said with a smile: "I couldn't be cured for many years. It is precisely because I did not find a prescription for my stubborn illness. I have been trying my own formula, and the effect is endless. It is satisfactory, but today, I discovered that this Taohong She Niu Recipe is a good cure for my stubborn diseases! As long as this prescription is available, I believe that my stubborn diseases can be completely eradicated in a short time."

All the people at the scene were suddenly in an uproar.

Everyone looked at Frاندick in disbelief.

What a coincidence?

Among these ten prescriptions, one prescription is for his condition?

No matter how it sounds, it sounds like Frاندick is fooling everyone and doing nothing.

After Frاندick finished speaking, he gave William a secret glance.

One of the ten prescriptions is specifically for his condition.

At first, Frاندick couldn't believe that there was such a coincidence under the sun.

Now I see William, but I feel terrified to think carefully.

This was clearly a move that William had played very early on, ready to draw himself into the bait.

Obviously, William succeeded.

Bernard looked at everyone present with an ugly expression, and felt completely lost.

This old Frandick is sick, and everyone knows what it is.

However, he is the only one who knows how to cure his disease.

Because this is his life, he must devote himself to research.

Now, he speaks so loudly...

Is it such a coincidence?

That Taohong She Niu Fang can really cure him?

Frandick had long expected that everyone would not believe it, so he randomly ordered the names of a few people and said, "You are also experts in pharmacy. You can prove whether this prescription can cure my stubborn illness. , I will not cheat, let alone make fun of my life."

Whispers suddenly sounded at the scene, and some people were excited at the scene, "Great! President Hu, if your body gets better, then you can definitely continue to lead our Pharmaceutical Association to flourish. This is a great thing!"

Bernard's face suddenly became serious!

by!

Was shamed by this old man!

No wonder this guy is going to sign ten prescriptions. It turns out that the deeper willingness is to extend his life!

Isn't this just Chi Guoguo's use of power for personal gain!

Damn it!

I didn't expect that, this old guy secretly kept his life-saving hand!

Seeing that the situation at the scene was wrong, Bernard immediately said with a smile: "Congratulations to President Hu, but today is a formal presidential election after all, and we can't just keep you as the president based on your words. If the prescription doesn't work in the future and you are sick, we can't afford it."

The people below nodded suddenly.

"Huh! What do you want to do!" Frandick's face suddenly became cold.

Bernard also changed his face in an instant, "How dare you! It's just that President Hu said so, naturally you have to show evidence that everyone can see and trust. As long as you can prove on the spot that your body can get better right away, we will naturally trust you. Otherwise, I'm still in that opinion, a person with physical problems is not suitable to continue serving as the president!"

The atmosphere of the scene suddenly rose.

Hu Qiu was so angry that his beard was blowing!

I know my illness best!

Years of stubborn illness, how can it be cured on the spot and be alive and well on the spot for everyone to see!

Da Luo Shenxian can't do it!

What's more, this prescription is Chinese medicine!

Traditional Chinese medicine pays attention to conditioning, and it is impossible to have immediate effect!

This Bernard is brazenly making things difficult for people!

But watching everyone at the scene, it was obvious that they were too worried about Frandick's body, so they didn't dare to gamble.

Frandick is suffocated to death!

Is it going to fall short of success!

How can the villain be rampant!

And Bernard was very happy to see Frandick suffocated!

He just wants to laugh!

This thing is done!

As long as I live here, the chairman's position is my own!

"Ha ha....."

When the scene was deadlocked, there was a sudden indifferent laughter.

Everyone followed the prestige, and it was William who got up slowly!

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 275

When everyone saw William stand up, their eyes widened.

This kid, what are you going to do?

"What are you laughing at! Do you have any doubts about what you said to me?" Bernard looked at William angrily.

William shook his head slightly as he walked, and said, "Mr. Hsu is right. I don't have any doubts. President Hu has been stubborn all year round. It is true that at this time there is no visible proof."

Bernard was relieved when he heard this.

Doesn't this kid provide any proof?

That would be easier.

But at this time, William said again: "Even, I agree with what you just said, especially the sentence, people with physical problems are not suitable for chairman."

Frاندick's brows furrowed deeply, and the expression he looked at William gradually became cold.

This kid, why suddenly turned back!

He stood directly at Bernard's end.

And Bernard laughed loudly, "Okay! I agree

well!"

William suddenly showed a weird smile, "But sometimes, when thinking about things, you can't just think about it. This kind of thinking won't work. Let's change our thinking, maybe we can break the game faster."

Breaking?

Everyone's heart is stunned!

What is the meaning of this other way of thinking?

At this moment, the speech is a mystery or a foresight!

Bernard looked at William, "What do you mean by this?"

"I mean, we still can't prove that President Hu's body will get better soon, but if you think about it, can we immediately prove that Mr. Hsu will have problems with your body immediately? "

Everyone's scalp is numb!

What a special change!

You know, the position of the president will only be created among Frandick and Bernard.

Since Frandick couldn't prove that his body would get better right away, this kid actually tried to prove that Bernard's body would be ill immediately?

This is simply!

Reverse thinking at the level of Flying Fairy!

Are you planning to burn all the jade and stone, so that you can't choose the president today!

Bernard was trembling with anger!

This kid is obviously spitting blood!

However, after Bernard thought about it, he immediately laughed, "Okay, I want to see, how can you prove that my body is faulty?"

Bernard is a healer himself, can he still not understand his body?

Although there have been some minor problems over the years, on the whole, the body bones are still strong, and it is the year of the fight.

How could this kid say that if there is something wrong, there will be something wrong!

Frاندick was completely confused by William.

Is this kid on his side or Bernard's side?

Everyone in the audience was at a loss. They only felt that no one could understand the situation today.

As if all in the grasp of this kid.

William walked towards Bernard slowly, "Your body is fine now, but you will have it soon."

Just as Bernard was about to laugh, he suddenly felt two cold lights shining from William's hands!

He was about to yell at him when he suddenly felt as if his knees had been cut off, without feeling at all.

His legs softened, and he fell to his knees straight!

This scene scared everyone into screaming!

What's wrong with Bernard!

Kneeling in public means several things!

Everyone looked intently at Bernard's knees, and at this time they all took a breath of air-conditioning!

On Bernard's knees, I don't know when, each of them had a weird silver needle inserted!

This silver needle has a section of vermilion on the needle, as if this vermilion is competing with the century-old cinnabar lamp on the ceiling!

The blood slowly seeped out from Bernard's knees.

And these two red needles seem to be drinking blood!

The red section of the needle was shining with a strange red light!

Bernard was so scared that cold sweat broke out. He wanted to stand up forcibly, but found that his legs were completely out of control!

He struggled for a while, staggered and fell directly to the ground.

He suddenly looked at William on the ground, and cursed fiercely: "What did you do to me! Do you dare to hurt me!"

Everyone also looked at William with sharp eyes, and the ghosts could see that it was William's move just now.

And William smiled, "Now your legs are broken, is this considered as what you said, something wrong with your body?"

This sentence, like a bang, smashed everyone's heads!

What an overbearing method!

It turns out that there was something wrong with what he said just now, and that was it!

He actually abolished Bernard's legs in front of so many people!

There is no way to see it!

Wang Qingmian's body below couldn't help fighting a cold war.

What a little bastard, Wang Qingmian never knew what William meant by running over today.

Now she finally knows!

This little bastard planned to use his domineering strength to forcefully crush Bernard!

Not reasonable!

No mercy!

Regardless of the consequences!

It's really unstoppable!

It's just that, it will definitely arouse public anger!

His performance here today is really too arrogant. He is challenging everyone's tolerance.

Sure enough, everyone's complexion was flushed, as if they had completely lost their senses, and roared at William: "You bastard! How can our Pharmaceutical Association allow you to fool around twice!"

"The security guard! The security guard! Get this kid up for me!"

"This kid deserves to die, I want to kill him!"

A group of security guards rushed in at the call of the crowd, intending to arrest William.

But at this time, Frandick suddenly shouted coldly: "Stop it all! With me, who dares to move William!"

Looking at William, Frandick felt extremely entangled in his heart!

This kid, why is he so crazy!

However, he did this entirely to help him continue to be the president. Now, can he watch this kid be arrested!

A multiple choice question was placed in front of Frandick.

Or, together with everyone, catch this kid.

If you do this, you will sacrifice this kid alone, and then you can win the hearts of the people.

In addition, Bernard's legs are abolished at this time, and he has a greater chance of becoming the president.

Another option is to resolutely keep this kid.

But in this way, the anger of the people was committed and the popular support was lost.

No matter how you look at it, the first choice is good for you.

But how can Frandick be lonely and upright throughout his life, how can he do something inferior to a beast!

If you do this, what is the difference from that Bernard!

Therefore, Frandick weighed again and again, and finally decided to make a single bet and choose to believe in this kid!

Since he is Mr. Lunanica, since he is omnipotent!

Then why can't I believe that he is here today and can perform a miracle again!

Sure enough, the faces of the people at the scene had completely flushed.

William suddenly clapped his hands gently, looked at Frandick, and said two words indifferently.

"well."

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 276

The scene has been deadlocked.

No one dared to move anyone.

But no one can tell that William and Frandick are already in extreme weakness.

Both Xena and Bai Fengxuexin mentioned their throats.

Xena looked at her elder sister with a wry smile, "Sister, you live with such a brother-in-law, every day is in dire straits."

Felicity looked sad, but infinitely infatuated, "Who said no, but do you dare to change your mind?"

Xena's scalp is numb, what's the situation with this young couple?

Always ask people to change their minds!

Sister, I have no idea at all!

Felicity sighed and said quietly, "Every day is very hot, but every day is also a surprise."

What this said made Xena completely unable to refute.

Yes, this surprise is enough to shake the world.

Sister, I just said something casually, but I didn't know that I had another mouthful of dog food.

Xena suddenly discovered that the relationship between her sister and her brother-in-law was stronger than Jin.

Don't talk about getting in, even your toes can't get in.

On the other side, Bernard was on the ground, suddenly showing a strange sneer.

I don't know if it was intentional or unintentional. The situation on the court is already very beneficial to him.

I am a victim and have received sympathy from everyone.

The other party, already angry and resentful, completely lost his competitiveness.

Then, as long as you hold them back, you will win today.

How to hold them?

A bold idea suddenly appeared in Bernard's mind!

Fight!

Suddenly, Bernard said loudly: "You see, this kid is in the same group as Frandick! They want to kill our Pharmaceutical Association! And I have a bold guess! Frandick must have colluded with the Medical Association!"

As soon as these words came out, the faces of the people in the audience changed!

Collusion with the Medical Association!

The Pharmaceutical Association and the Medical Association have been fighting for a century, and they have long been deadly enemies.

Both of them hated the traitors!

Did Frandick really collude with the Medical Association!

When Frandick heard this, his heart became furious, and he couldn't help but cursed: "You or he, don't spit people here!"

Frandick, who is usually calm, didn't know why he completely lost his sanity at this moment. He just wanted to die with Bernard.

And Bernard was even more proud when he saw Frandick's plan, "Look, everyone, he was pierced by me and became angry. Is this still the usual Frandick?"

Everyone looked at Frandick with amazement.

This irritable Frandick is indeed very different from the previous Frandick whose face had not changed since Taishan collapsed.

Is there really any inside story?

"Bernard, in order to compete for the position of the chairman, you can say anything. You frame me and show me the evidence!" Frandick couldn't help cursing again.

But Bernard calmed down completely, and smirked: "I said so, there is a reason. Do you remember that the people of the Medical Association had to compete for these ten prescriptions before? They have more financial resources and act better than us. Earlier, why did this prescription fall to our Pharmaceutical Association at a lower price? Don't you think it's strange?"

Everyone looked at a loss, but they thought carefully and were terrified!

As Bernard said, the medical association has a greater advantage in this competition.

Everyone was surprised that the Pharmaceutical Association got the prescription this time.

"So I suspect that this William is also a member of the Medical Association! In this case, it makes perfect sense. William and the members of the Medical Association performed a big show in front of the whole city, just to get our Pharmaceutical Association hooked. They want to completely hollow out our Pharmaceutical Association, and then support Frandick to stay on top. In this way, the entire Pharmaceutical Association has fallen into the palm of the Medical Association! What a ruthless method!"

This seemingly reasonable deduction actually won the unanimous noise of everyone!

Everyone is usually an old fox, but at this moment, everyone only feels qi and blood churning, and their minds are blank.

I just want to kill all the spies!

"You fart! Why did you show evidence! This is entirely your own words!" Frandick shouted loudly.

William raised his head and glanced at the ceiling when he saw that Frandick had completely lost his mind.

He shook his head secretly.

The smell of blood is overflowing, is the good time coming?

"Hehe, I can't produce evidence for the time being! However, I propose that you investigate these ten prescriptions immediately after the meeting, maybe they are also fake! Also, Frandick, I will ask you, you said you two are not spies, then You show evidence to convince us!" Bernard sneered again.

Frandick's beard is about to blow away!

"Well, you villain! Since ancient times, whether there is evidence or not! Why should I prove this fictitious crime!" Frandick shouted.

However, the eyes of the people on the scene looked at Frandick even more weird.

Among them, nine out of ten were persuaded by Bernard's reasonable inference.

Bernard was even more proud.

This is exactly what he wants to achieve.

As long as this Frandick was framed, he would definitely not be the president within today.

Even if the prescription is proved to be true later, so what?

The election of the president is only today.

If you want me not to be the president, then I will also ruin you.

Everyone die together!

"William! Talk quickly! Are you just letting him slander you like this?" Frandick said loudly towards William.

But at this time, William smiled softly.

"What's wrong with me in the dispute between the Medical Association and the Pharmaceutical Association? I never seem to be the one here, right? What do you want me to say? Okay, what you want me to say, then I admit that I am the spy of the Medical Association. Is this all right?" William said indifferently.

These words detonated the audience again!

Frandick looked at William in disbelief!

Unexpectedly, at this time, this William would turn against him again!

It's really a person to Qin Muchu!

Today, just now, he has changed three positions in a row!

What is he going to do!

Bernard was also taken aback when he heard this.

He never expected that his casual slander would make this kid directly confess his guilt.

Did he see that Frandick's momentum was gone, so he changed his position and stood on his side?

It must be so!

Hahaha!

God helps me too!

Frandick, I think what else you can say!

"William! What the hell are you going to do! How can you open your eyes and talk nonsense!" Frandick only felt that a mouthful of old blood was about to spray out.

William looked at Bernard, who was very proud of him, and smiled, "I am a spy, and I have received 1.1 billion yuan from the Medical Association. It is all with me, why? Do you want to take it away?"

Speaking of this, William touched his pocket intentionally or unconsciously.

@vamp20w0rld

Chapter 277

When Frandick heard this, he could only feel a basin of cold water pouring from the top of his head.

The whole body is cold!

He looked at William in amazement, with deep despair and disappointment in his eyes.

Lost the bet!

I failed.

I thought this kid could turn the tide.

Unexpectedly, this kid is a spy.

Holding the sharpest dagger, at the last moment, he stabbed himself to the ground!

Could it be that before, William really performed a scene with people from the Medical Association.

Waiting for today!

That's right, otherwise, why didn't this kid hand over the prescription in the first place, so he had to wait until today to hand it over.

I'm afraid this is all for today's big show!

Originally, Frandick admired William with all his heart.

Now, Frandick regarded William as an enemy, only to realize how deep this kid's scheming was.

Bottomless!

It's chilling!

Frandick sat on the ground like a concubine, his head blank.

When Bernard saw that Frandick had lost his fighting spirit, he burst out laughing.

Won!

It's so fun!

If this kid pleaded guilty like this, then Frandick would definitely not escape the charge.

Who made him have to stand with this kid?

Next, I just have to make one more contribution.

This president is in my bag!

Thinking of this, he laughed wildly and looked at William, "Boy, you received 1.1 billion yuan from the Medical Association, but it caused our Pharmaceutical Association to suffer a loss of 1 billion yuan. Today, I am going to be the vice chairman. The right to seek justice for the Pharmaceutical Association! The 1.1 billion yuan should be used as compensation for the Pharmaceutical Association!"

All the eyes in the audience were red.

They are convinced of the identity of these two spies.

In the early days, there were rumors in the Pharmaceutical Association that there were traitors in it.

But at that time, everyone's spearhead was faintly directed at Bernard.

Unexpectedly, there has been a shocking reversal now.

It's Frandick and this William!

Everyone shouted in unison, "Give me the money!"

For a while, the scene was angry with the enemy.

And Bernard was completely overwhelmed. With the help of others, he struggled to get up, and suddenly pointed at William, shouting loudly: "Here you come! Bring me the 1.1 billion yuan check from him! As compensation from our Pharmaceutical Association!"

Several people rushed out of the scene and surrounded William Tuantuan.

Felicity was shocked to see below, such a surprise, I really can't bear it!

William, William, what are you doing!

It provokes such anger.

How can this clean up the situation?

When everyone was about to do it, William suddenly laughed again.

William's smile was given to Bernard.

Bernard's scalp numb when William smiled, "What do you want to do again! Give me the money!"

William, with infinite banter, suddenly asked, "Mr. Hsu, I didn't seem to say that the 1.1 billion yuan is a check, right?"

With this question, the scene suddenly became quiet.

Bernard's heart thumped!

A kind of chill rushed from the soles of his feet, which caused him to fight a cold war out of thin air!

check.....

Yup!

Oops!

Bernard secretly shouted bad!

However, it was too late.

William pushed aside the crowd and walked towards Bernard.

Taunting.

"Just now, did you hear that? I just said that the money is with me, did not say that the money is a check? However, our Mr. Hsu did not hesitate to say that the 1.1 billion yuan of money is a check. That's right, it is indeed a check, and Mr. Hsu is right." William said, reaching into his pocket, taking out a stack of checks, and shaking them in front of everyone.

Everyone was in a trance for a while.

Is there any mystery in this?

Frاندick, who was stunned on the ground, suddenly got up from the ground as if he had been given a heart attack.

The eyes suddenly burst into endless hope!

This is a kind of escape from the dead, and the light of the Jedi counterattack!

And Bernard's face turned pale all at once!

He finally knew what a stupid mistake he had made while forgetting himself!

This mistake was enough to make him beyond disaster!

"It's just that, how did Mr. Hsu know that the money is a check? As far as I know, I know that the money is a check. Only me and Janet, the president of Cangyue Company, are the only ones who know People who are right, then there is only —" William smiled sorrowfully when he said this.

Spit out two words lightly.

"Medical Association."

These two characters are like the brain of magic sound.

It made everyone shiver.

Medical Association!

Frandick's face showed an incredible and crazy smile!

The Jedi fought back!

William started to fight back!

He did not betray himself, betrayed the Pharmaceutical Association!

Instead, at the most desperate time, I have to help myself again!

"Janet and I will definitely not disclose it in advance. People from the Medical Association, in the process of signing the contract with Cangyue Company, everyone knows that they have suffered some humiliation, and they will not treat this kind of self. Make more noise about face slaps. Then I'll ask you, Mr. Hsu, how did you know that the money was a check? Who told you? And, did you collude with people from the Medical Association?" William asked again .

Three deadly questions!

The people who asked were dumbfounded!

Bernard's face is earthy!

Frandick who asked was overjoyed!

A big counterattack!

In a blink of an eye, Bernard was accused of being a traitor!

Moreover, the words are sharp!

unambiguous evidence!

People at the scene looked at Bernard.

Bernard's cold sweat came down his forehead.

William continued: "Such a large sum of money, in the subconscious of most people, will be done through company transfers, and will never think of checks, Mr. Hsu, don't tell me you guessed, you say Will everyone believe it when you come out?"

With a single word, William blocked all the excuses Bernard was going to make!

The whole audience was shocked, William was right!

For large transactions, transfers are the most normal and safest.

Why did Bernard say the word cheque exactly the first time!

Inside, the mystery has gone.

There is only one reason, Bernard is the one who really colludes with the Medical Association, so he will know that the 1.1 billion yuan is a check!

Bernard limp on the ground again, looking at William in amazement.

It was counted.

Completely hit!

By this kid, walking by the nose!

He scrapped his feet at the beginning to make himself angry and lose his mind!

And below, actively admit that he is a spy, and take the initiative to put him and Frandick in a position of verbal criticism, just to paralyze oneself and make oneself overjoyed!

Then, when he said whether he should take the money back in his hand, he slapped his pocket intentionally or unintentionally. This was a psychological hint to himself!

No, it's not a first floor!

Bernard suddenly shrank his pupils and covered his head in pain!

It's two floors!

Chapter 278

The first level is to let yourself beg for money!

The other layer implies that the money is on him!

The extreme sadness and joy will make oneself finally blurt out the word cheque, leading to a miserable ending!

What a terrible person!

Outstanding wisdom!

Brutal means!

Speculation is so wonderful!

Play with people's hearts at your fingertips!

Compared with Bernard's shock, Frandick was ecstatic!

Counterattack again!

He rushed to William's side and reprimanded Bernard loudly: "Bernard! Good! It turns out that you are in collusion with a member of the Pharmaceutical Association! See what else you can explain!"

Everyone at the scene looked at Bernard and their eyes became angry.

Bernard was isolated and helpless, and instantly felt like he had entered hell.

However, when he was alive and dead, his head turned frantically!

No, you must not plead guilty!

If you confess your guilt now, you will definitely not be able to get out of this venue!

Look at each one, like a wolf like a tiger, as if to devour oneself alive!

By the way, these words are just a side word of this kid, he has no evidence at all!

He is cheating me!

He can't help me!

Thinking of this, Bernard calmed down a bit. He bit his head and bit back: "You two, you have to have evidence for framing someone! Just now it was just your guess. The reason why I said cheque was just casually. Once I said, I guessed it right. If you want to slander me, you have to show evidence!"

The people at the scene heard a sense of familiarity blowing over their faces.

These words...

Sure enough, William smiled and said: "Really? Then, according to Mr. Hsu's words just now, we also ask you to show yourself that you did not engage with the Medical Association to prove yourself."

Everyone awakened!

by!

Isn't this what Bernard said before when he slandered Frandick?

Prove it or not.

Now, this guy deserved it, and the retribution came so quickly.

When Bernard heard this, his whole body trembled with anger.

He wanted to refute William's ridiculous remark, but found that there was no way to refute it.

Because he had already used this trick to force Frandick before.

Now it feels like lifting a rock and hitting myself in the foot, it's terribly uncomfortable!

Bernard was aggrieved, but thought, perhaps, it would be better for the situation to remain stalemate like this.

This is the smallest price for yourself.

The big deal is to quit the president today, anyhow he is also the vice president.

When you come back, you must kill the bastard in front of you!

Thinking of this, Bernard said sincerely again: "Listen to me, what is the point of our quarreling and fighting in this way? It will only make people in the Medical Association see jokes. The most important thing for us now is to work together to treat us. Let's do it well. Rather than scolding me and I scolding you here. Since neither of us can produce evidence, I suggest that we should not quarrel."

"Since President Hu wants to continue to be the President, Bernard and I am not a stingy person. With President Hu sitting in the chair, I naturally agree with one hundred. Therefore, I am the first to support President Hu to continue to serve as President."

After Bernard's words came down, he won everyone's admiration.

Judging from the scene just now, it is true that neither of the two sides can produce tangible evidence.

Bernard has shown a good mind, focusing on the overall situation.

Many people couldn't help but nod their heads, "Mr. Hsu, this is the right thing. We have to twist into a rope now and deal with the people of the Medical Association together."

"Well, that's right. Doing these unnecessary disputes will only make people look at jokes. I suggest that the election continue as soon as possible. No one is allowed to talk about things today, otherwise I will be the first to settle accounts with him!"

After Frandick listened, his heart was extremely complicated.

He looked at William's eyes, full of guilt.

This kid, he didn't trust him just now, and thought he had rebelled.

It turned out that he was narrow-minded and treated the gentleman's belly with a villain.

He is helping himself from start to finish.

What's more, he is not a member of the Pharmaceutical Association, even if he is on the side of the Medical Association, what right does he have to blame him.

Hey, I owe him another great favor.

Thinking of this, Frandick said sincerely to William: "William, just now I..."

William looked at Frandick, and suddenly said inexplicably, "Thank you, let's talk about it later, it's not over yet."

Frandick was taken aback, what is not over yet?

It's already the best result to become the president by himself.

What else does he want to do?

As Bernard next to him listened to everyone agreeing with him, his heart finally fell back.

He couldn't help touching his forehead, the scene just now was really thrilling.

If it hadn't been for the eagerness to develop wisdom and retreat to advance, I would really be overshadowed by this kid today.

It seems that this kid will never stay!

Just as he was thinking about it with lingering fears, he suddenly glanced at William inadvertently.

At this glance, his heart was raised again.

I saw that William was looking at him leisurely, as if watching a beaming clown.

"You!" Bernard couldn't stand the look in this kid's eyes anymore, and couldn't help but said, "I think this kid is clearly trying to provoke a fight within our Pharmaceutical Association so that he can read the jokes. What qualifications does this kind of person have to stay? at the scene!"

Everyone looked at William blankly, but William smiled and said, "Didn't Mr. Hsu just ask for evidence? I didn't say that, I have no evidence."

After a few words, the scene was quiet again.

Bernard also looked at William with horror, really didn't know what he was going to do!

Who can guess the mind of this kid!

However, Bernard did collude with people from the Medical Association, but he usually acts very carefully and will never leave any evidence such as phone calls or messages.

What is the evidence this kid said?

Frandick also asked William blankly: "What is the evidence you said?"

William looked at the beautiful host and said, "Lend me your cell phone."

The beautiful host was stunned by William a long time ago, and then handed the phone to William stupidly.

William took out his mobile phone, then read the phone number, then picked up the beautiful woman's mobile phone, and started typing.

As he typed, he said, "Didn't Mr. Hsu say you didn't hook up with the medical association? I'll know if I try it right away."

The people at the scene, hold their breath and concentrate!

I don't know how this kid will try!

And Bernard is even more like a dog.

The unknown is always fearful!

At the scene, I waited quietly for three or four minutes.

At this time, the beauty's phone suddenly vibrated.

William turned on the phone, glanced at it, and then smiled.

"Now, the evidence is solid."

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 279

As William said, he threw the phone to Frandick next to him.

The people at the scene were still waiting for William to solve the mystery.

At this moment, everyone couldn't help it anymore and flocked to Frandick together.

After a dozen or so people, Qi Qizha pointed to the phone, trying to find out.

And when they finished reading their mobile phones, they suddenly made shocking shouts one by one!

Bernard looked at these people with a pale face, feeling uneasy inside.

What did they see!

"William, you must be fooling around with mystery! Do you think I will be afraid of you!" Bernard couldn't help but throw out a scene to embolden himself.

But at this time, Frandick suddenly pushed everyone away and walked directly in front of Bernard!

Kick!

Kicked hard on Bernard's heart!

Bernard didn't expect that Frandick would dare to beat people in public, and he was so angry that he wanted to return on the spot!

However, his feet had been abandoned by William, and he could only roll two laps on the ground at the moment.

"President Hu, what are you doing! Are you crazy too!" Bernard shouted.

At this time, a mobile phone was thrown into Bernard's arms.

Frandick looked at Bernard coldly, "Look for yourself, now, what can you say."

Where did Bernard believe in any evidence, he glanced down at the phone.

At this look, the pupils dilated for a while.

After a glance, he seemed to have completely lost his energy and spirit, and he collapsed to the ground.

On the phone, William sent a message to someone.

Yohan!

Yohan of the Medical Association.

Lu Yefa said, "I am Bernard, and I was elected as the president."

Just a few words.

The scary thing is the following one.

Yohan replied!

"Congratulations! We can achieve our plan!"

A big deal can be done!

What a big deal!

You know with your toes that the medical association wants to overthrow the medical association.

This reply categorically explained that Bernard had colluded with people from the Pharmaceutical Association!

Now, even if Bernard has a hundred mouths, he can't argue.

"You, how could you send a message to..." Bernard was already disheartened on the ground, looking at William miserably.

Everyone nodded in unison, and couldn't wait to know what the mystery was.

William just chuckled softly: "Common sense can't be simpler. If Bernard colludes with the medical association, it must be Yohan. That kid is also an old fox, and he is the external spokesperson of the medical association. Bernard maintains this. This kind of shady collusion will inevitably not use one's daily mobile phone number to contact, but use other unknown mobile phone numbers."

"And I guess that for safety's sake, his mobile phone number will inevitably be changed frequently. So I just found a mobile phone and sent it to Yohan. Yohan has no suspicion. It shows that my guess is correct. They have been in collusion for a long time."

After listening to the crowd, they suddenly realized one by one and clapped their hands together.

There is a feeling that listening to your words is better than reading ten years.

Bernard closed his eyes and smiled bitterly.

Lost, it was a terrible defeat!

Don't even give room to struggle!

"Come here, take Bernard with me! After a while, I have to ask him carefully!" Frandick said coldly.

Suddenly several people came in and took Bernard away.

And Bernard struggled reluctantly, turned around, and smiled sadly: "Haha, I lost today, but I didn't lose to the Pharmaceutical Association! Not to Frandick! Instead to this kid! William, a member of the Medical Association Sooner or later I will settle the account with you!"

William was silent.

I have already offended the Medical Association once, are you afraid of the second time?

Soldiers come to block, soldiers can't live!

When the water comes to cover the earth, all the water is destroyed!

that is it.

When Bernard was taken down, the eyes of the people at the scene were all on William.

This person today is radiant!

Wu Yongzhen Quartet!

Wisely plan the audience!

Just now everyone was quite dissatisfied with William's abolition of Bernard's legs, but now, one by one feels that it is very pleasant!

He was already benevolent without killing Bernard directly.

How did this kid come out?

It's like a god descending from the sky, shaking the sky!

Frاندick also looked at William, and finally understood what William had just said before it was over.

Today Frاندick owes William countless personal feelings!

William supported Frاندick as the chairman.

It is to remove a traitor for the entire Pharmaceutical Association!

This credit is absolutely unique to the Pharmaceutical Association.

Just imagine, if Bernard really succeeded in becoming the president today.

Then the entire Pharmaceutical Association will be completely ruined in today's general meeting.

William is simply the supreme benefactor of the Pharmaceutical Association.

This kind of kindness, even Frandick felt that it was nothing in return.

But after William finished what he should do, he handed the phone to the beautiful hostess who was in the circle, and said casually, "Thank you for your phone."

The beautiful host stupidly took the phone, her entire hand trembling.

The voice trembled even more, "No, you're welcome..."

Then, William returned safely to Felicity's side, sat down, picked up Felicity's juice and drank it.

It seems to have done a trivial thing.

Felicity and Xena looked silly.

Felicity thought to herself, my husband seems to be going to heaven.

After really seeing William's powerful side, I only felt that he was radiant and overwhelming the audience!

Felicity felt that in front of her husband, she was a scum.

"William, I am a little scum." Felicity said to William quietly.

William touched Felicity's hair casually, "I like you too."

Xena, who was drunk the juice, almost squirted William after listening.

She was speechless.

Don't you just drink the juice yourself!

Another mouthful of dog food for no reason!

Enough for you guys and dogs!

At the scene, the beautiful host had already begun the process of hosting under Frandick's signal.

However, she couldn't help but keep aiming at William while bumping the host.

Like the host, everyone in the audience was secretly watching William.

is not that right?

The biggest light in the audience today is William, the shining pearl.

Harper and Hugo looked at each other and laughed bitterly.

They vaguely understood the reason why William was so sharp today.

Like a young phoenix crying!

Open your eyes like an angry dragon!

William was about to start swallowing the world.

That being the case, he will definitely let go of his hands and feet and prepare to do a big fight in Qingcheng.

Then the whole Qingcheng seemed to be locked in his hands by this kid.

Hugo picked up the wine glass, touched Harper, and whispered, "Old guy, how about let's make a bet? See which one of us has a stronger temperament, can we not let this little guy be subdued."

Chapter 280

After drinking this glass of wine, Harper glanced at Hugo strangely.

Grandson tortoise, I'm afraid you don't know yet, I, Harper, has long been a minister of William.

Just keep stubborn and see how long your ethics can survive.

When William reached out to you, it was when you Hugo became my little brother.

After all, being a little brother also pays attention to first come first.

After Hugo drank the wine, there was a faint understanding in his heart.

Judging from the relationship between William and Liu Tigger today, it doesn't seem like they met for the first time.

It seemed that Liu Tigger was also within William's calculations.

Forget it, just abandon the car and take care of it.

I am quite old, and I just want to be safe in this life.

William, that kid, please don't come to me.

While the two of them were talking, the election had already begun on stage.

This election went very smoothly.

With full votes, Frandick continued to serve as the chairman of the Pharmaceutical Association.

The audience all congratulated Frandick in unison.

But Frandick looked at William who was at ease on the side, knowing in his heart that all of this today is due to this kid's gift.

I owe him countless personal feelings, it is better to pay a little bit first.

Thinking of this, Frandick suddenly said loudly: "Everyone may know that the relationship between me and William is extraordinary. He is my distinguished guest, my lifesaver, and now even the benefactor of the entire Pharmaceutical Association. So I am now I want to ask about one thing, one thing that I couldn't understand just now."

Everyone in the audience looked at Frandick in surprise.

Frandick suddenly pointed to the staff table at the door, his expression stern, "When the meeting first started, I saw William sitting in the staff's seat! He is my great benefactor, who is it, dare you? Let my benefactor sit in that position! Stand up for yourself!"

Frandick didn't know that William was Mr.

Lunatica before, let alone that his magical powers were so great.

So he didn't pursue why William was sitting there.

Now, it has to be investigated!

If the benefactor suffers humiliation today, there will be too many books!

And everyone in the audience, you look at me, I look at you, everyone is talking about it.

"Yes, at first, William was sitting in the corner of the corner. How could he be arranged there with such a distinguished status?"

"I think someone wants to humiliate him, who is it!"

"This person seems to be a traitor to our Pharmaceutical Association, otherwise he wants to be an enemy of our Pharmaceutical Association and stand up!"

The audience scolded.

At this time, two people stood up tremblingly.

Hu Henson and Rachel.

Hu Henson's expression was hard to see the extreme.

Had it not been for the crowds, he would have wanted to cry.

When he humiliated William before, how could he think of it, William would slaughter the whole audience today.

How could he think that William would become his grandfather's great benefactor!

The entire Hoo family, the entire Pharmaceutical Association, will honor William as a guest!

Now Grandpa is starting to pursue it, and I cannot escape the blame!

"Grandpa, I'm sorry, it was me who missed..." Hu Henson said tremblingly.

When Frandick saw his grandson stand up and admit it, his eyes narrowed and he said coldly, "Is it you?"

Hu Henson nodded tremblingly.

After Frandick listened, he was so angry that he didn't know what to say!

Never imagined that it would be his grandson who humiliated his benefactor!

Fortunately, William was broad-minded and didn't care about Hu Henson.

If you really care about it, he won't help today.

The position of his own president, his own life!

Thinking of this, Frandick couldn't help it anymore, and rushed directly, slapped Hu

Henson's three loud slaps.

Hu Henson was slapped so that the corners of his mouth were bleeding.

My intestines were blue with regret.

Thousands should not, absolutely should not, should not look down upon others!

What's more, you should not believe the words of Rachel, this little bitch!

Take the initiative to offend William!

Thinking of this, Hu Henson suddenly turned to look at Rachel who was at a loss.

Rachel was glared by his scary eyes, and she took a step back in fright.

Hu Henson also slapped Rachel's face fiercely. "It's all caused by you little bitch! Grandpa, she wanted to humiliate William! I was so obsessed with her that I believed her."

Frاندick looked at Rachel, "You said before, you are Henson's girlfriend?"

Rachel was crying and nodded, "Grandpa."

"Huh! I don't have this blessing to be your grandfather! Hu Henson, if you continue to pester this woman, in your whole life, don't even want to step into my Hu's house!"

"Yes, yes! I broke up with her right away, and I don't know each other!" Hu Henson said immediately.

Rachel, as if losing her soul, collapsed on the ground.

The dream of a wealthy family was completely broken.

If it is today, don't embarrass William.

Will the ending be different...

It's late, now it's too late to say anything.

"Go to William and confess!" Frandick said again.

How dare Hu Henson walk towards William, and respectfully kowtow to William three times, "William, I had no eyesight before. I'm sorry, I was wrong."

William didn't say anything, he didn't pay attention to this kind of person at all.

Hu Henson finished kowtow, pulling Rachel savagely: "You come out for me!"

After finishing this matter, Frandick signaled the hostess to continue the last process.

The host came back to his senses, recovered a little energy, and continued: "Okay, next, let's move on to the last agenda and add a vice president!"

The people at the scene suddenly became enthusiastic.

They had heard before that a vice chairman will be added today.

But I don't know who it is to add.

This is the vice president of the Pharmaceutical Association.

Whoever can become one is soaring.

Finally, everyone turned their eyes to William.

Today's William is fully qualified to be the vice president.

The vice president must be him.

Even Felicity said excitedly: "William, isn't it you! If you become the vice president, I can follow you in the future and drink spicy food."

Xena also added strongly, "Bring me one."

William smiled and said, "It's not me."

"Not you?" Felicity was taken aback, suddenly disappointed.

William will not lie to her.

If it's not him, then it's definitely not him.

"It's a pity, I still want to hold your thigh, now my dream is broken." Felicity said depressedly.

William rubbed her head.

On the stage, Frandick took over and said: "In order to further optimize and adjust the age structure and gender structure of our Pharmaceutical Association leadership team, after full consideration, we decided to add a vice president, she is..."

When Frandick said this, he paused on purpose.

The audience held their breath.

Only Felicity frowned, and said softly, "Gender structure? Is it necessary to add a woman? That's amazing, this woman."

William chuckled suddenly, reached out his hand and touched Felicity's little cheeky face, and said, "You will wear the crown."

On the stage, Frandick said loudly!

"She is!"

"Felicity!"

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 281

As Frandick's voice fell, the scene immediately set off a big wave!

Felicity!

This mysterious vice-chairman, who is highly anticipated, will fall on Felicity's head!

It's like Felicity walking on the road and being hit by gold from the sky, it's incredible.

Everyone stared at Felicity at once.

One by one, strong envy burst into his eyes.

Before Felicity, everyone at the scene saw her beauty and prosperity, but she was still a little invisible to her status.

Now, following Frandick's words, it is like putting on Felicity the most noble crown.

Her status suddenly became incomparable.

More noble than most of the people present!

Moreover, there is a more terrifying established fact.

Since Felicity became the vice chairman, what about afterwards.

Felicity is the youngest vice president of the Pharmaceutical Association in a century.

Which vice-chairman was not in his forties and started.

Felicity's youth instantly became her biggest capital.

As long as she doesn't make serious mistakes, then the position of the president of this medicine association is to survive, and it can also survive Felicity.

What's more, what does Felicity need?

Behind her, there stood the dragon and phoenix, William, among the most shining people in the audience tonight!

In time, Felicity will clear the city!

And when Felicity below heard her name, at that moment, her whole person was completely stunned.

How could it be yourself?

It's not your turn!

Did President Hu call the wrong person?

Her head was completely blank.

Until Frandick on the stage continued to explain: "Felicity's character, I believe everyone has already known it after the last seven love hay. Last time, she led the signing of the proposal on behalf of the city's pharmaceutical companies. Therefore, this vice chairman deserves Felicity's name! Starting from today, she will be in charge of the pharmaceutical companies in the southern city area, and I will personally deliver it to her home tomorrow."

At the scene, there was a warm applause.

Congratulations Felicity!

No one thought it would be Felicity.

However, no one is against Felicity.

Beauty is justice.

What's more, if someone else is elected, the other party will definitely have an opinion.

It is better to let Felicity, everyone is in peace.

After Felicity confirmed Frandick's words again, tears burst into her eyes.

She turned her head and looked at William.

Four eyes face each other.

The tenderness in William's eyes seemed to melt Felicity's whole person.

Felicity couldn't help herself, she understood.

She understood everything.

The reason why I was able to fall through everyone's spectacles, to become this vice president, was William supporting him!

Maybe, his sacrifice is bigger...

Felicity couldn't help thinking that when she was threatened by Bai Steven to give up the position of monk, William said that she would give herself better.

At that time, Felicity didn't care at all.

Thinking about it now, this better one turned out to be the vice chairman of the Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association!

This is too good too!

One is the Patriarch of the Bai family, who can only stay in the house. Outside, who recognizes the Bai family?

A truly famous vice president of the Pharmaceutical Association, with great power, comparable to the ancient princes!

One is in the sky and the other is on the ground.

Moreover, this vice chairman happened to be in charge of the Chengnan District where the Bai family was located.

In this case, what can the Patriarch of the Bai family do.

When I met the vice-chairperson, I would welcome it with humility and reluctance!

All this was given to him by William.

How can I make William sacrifice so much.

Felicity looked at William with tears in her eyes, and she had the urge to hug William into her body.

Xena on the side was even more envious and drooling.

People sit next to them, and dog food comes from the sky.

Haha, I'm full of dog food today.

Brother-in-law, you are a bit too much!

The gifts to my sister became more gorgeous and shocking every time!

With you like this, how will I find someone in the future!

This is the vice president.

With this vice president here, why do you still want the Patriarch of the Bai family to do!

Not on the table at all.

"Hehe, now, it's my turn to hug my wife's thighs and drink spicy food. I don't know if my wife is not allowed to hug them?" William said jokingly, looking at Felicity's move.

This vice president was indeed bought by William at a great price.

Two hundred million.

When Frandick negotiated with William, William used the two hundred million in exchange for a condition from Frandick.

It was to make Felicity the vice president of the Pharmaceutical Association.

Nowadays, money and goods are in trouble.

Felicity stretched out her hand instinctively, like a child begging for a hug, and said in a choked voice, "Well, hug."

William was taken aback, then showed a gentle smile, stretched out his hand and hugged Felicity tightly.

The tears of the wind and snow wet William's clothes in an instant.

At this time, the host on the stage was handed over to the beautiful host.

The host looked at Felicity with envy, and then said: "Then, next, we have to invite the new vice president of the Pharmaceutical Association, Felicity will come on stage and say something."

The applause from below became more enthusiastic.

Frاندick even stretched out his hand, humbly greeting Felicity to come on stage.

Felicity covered her small mouth and suddenly panicked, "Ah? I don't know what I'm going to say? I'm totally unprepared."

"It's okay, just say whatever you want in your heart." William Haosheng comforted, "You are not prepared, and everyone is not mentally prepared."

Felicity's face blushed, and with William's encouragement, she finally got on the stage.

She looked around and suddenly felt dizzy.
Harper, Hugo, Frandick.

There are other celebrities.

These people can only look up, but cannot reach them.

Now, they are on stage, they are off stage.

There was a sense of turmoil in her heart suddenly.

changed.

Everything will change in the future.

Starting today, my identity is different.

My pattern is different.

Felicity's heart gradually calmed down.

The scene also fell silent, waiting for Felicity's speech.

Felicity took the microphone and made her first voice as the vice president.

"Thank you my husband, husband I love you."

After speaking, Felicity bowed gracefully to the audience and walked off the stage.

The audience is quiet, is that the end of the speech?

Felicity returned to William and said slyly: "Is my speech sharp?"

William sweated, "I hit the nail on the head."

Felicity wrinkled her nose triumphantly, "You'll get cheap and sell well."

Xena next to him already knew exactly what to say.

It was as if she had already sewed her mouth.

The pair of dog men and women in front of her just tore her mouth open and forcibly fed her a bite of dog food.

Will your young couple's conscience hurt?

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 282

The host on the stage forced the host in embarrassment, "Hehe, Miss Bai's speech is really a blockbuster, well, in the simple and powerful speech of Miss Bai, today's general meeting ended successfully. Next we carefully arranged. A delicious dinner, please stay and enjoy, and talk about friendship."

When the meeting was over, William stood up, pulling Felicity just about to leave.

Frاندick hurried over to William and said, "William, stay and have a meal together?"

William smiled and refused, "You don't have to eat, let's look for opportunities later and go back first."

William walked halfway, suddenly raised his head and glanced at the ceiling, and said casually to Frاندick: "These red lanterns..."

Frاندick looked up and asked suspiciously, "What's wrong with the red lantern?"

What happened to the red lantern?

The biggest problem today is this cinnabar century lamp.

Although I don't know how these lights are made.

But the red paint of the lantern has a faint smell of blood.

If this kind of blood is inhaled in a small amount, it will make people feel relaxed and happy.

However, as many red lanterns exude the fragrance of blood, it will make the people excited and irritable.

He even made a very different behavior from usual.

William had actually used this weird characteristic of the cinnabar lamp just now to make Bernard happy and completely lost his reason at the last moment.

William shook his head, "It's nothing, take these red lanterns down after the meeting."

Frاندick was stunned.

Felicity, as the vice chairman, showed extremely irresponsible as soon as he took office, and immediately left with William.

This scene can put Frاندick upset.

What's the matter with this vice president?

Is it typical to marry a chicken with a chicken and a dog with a dog?

On the road, William drove and Felicity sat in the passenger seat.

She is still reminiscing about the scene when she was on stage.

Glory is unlimited.

At this time, William asked coldly, "How do you think about kissing me? Where did you kiss me?"

"Huh?" Felicity was asked suddenly, instinctively.

Then, as if thinking of something, his face slowly turned red.

Yes, William said before, don't say thank you too early, for fear that you won't be able to bear the price later.

It turned out that he meant this.

It is far better to let yourself be the vice president than to wash away the shame for Ruoshuang!

I was planning to kiss the forehead before.

Now...

Felicity's head drooped in an instant, and her face was red and beautiful.

"I said you two, it's enough! Isn't it good to be self-respect? Pay attention to a bitter woman sitting in the back row!" Xena, who was sitting in the back row, couldn't help but said quietly.

This pair of dog men and women is really too much, is it a dog food machine that spreads dog food all the time?

Felicity's face turned red.

In the car was silent for a while, Xena said quietly again: "Sister, if it were me, I would agree with him."

A hint of joy flashed across Felicity's face, but he was too shy to speak.

"Think slowly, go home." William said, and then concentrated on driving.

When I got home, the house was completely dark.

It seems that Zhang Rebecca is not at home.

When the two returned to the room, the atmosphere suddenly became glamorous.

Felicity said quickly: "I'll take a shower first."

After speaking, he hugged his clothes, a little bit like running away.

William just looked funny.

As for? It's like seeing a ghost.

When taking a bath, the water rushed, but Felicity's heart was pounding.

Keep jumping non-stop.

When she returned to the room after washing, William looked at her.

Felicity is now wearing white silk pajamas, which outlines a perfect figure.

Her hair was wet and dripping with water.

There was a faint fragrance of flowers in the whole room.

The taste is refreshing and the picture is pleasing to the eye.

She slowly walked towards William.

The body was trembling slightly.

His face was flushed with water vapor.

Her eyes were sentimental, and there seemed to be a lot of anticipation in her, and there were three points of fear, and a hint of helplessness.

William was making his bed. Felicity stopped talking, and finally said softly, "You, you don't have to hit the floor."

William looked at Felicity in surprise.

Felicity lowered her head and said shyly: "You go to bed."

Felicity felt very strange when she said it.

Obviously they have been a couple for three years and ten years of relationship, but they are still so shy.

William showed a hint of joy.

After all the hard work, I can finally sleep in bed.

Not easy.

William went to bed as soon as he turned over, and his movements were like a thousand tempering, just for this day.

Felicity walked slowly in front of William and sat on the head of the bed with his hand.

His eyes are eye-catching.

"You, you close your eyes." Felicity whispered, as if he was a thief.

William closed his eyes after hearing the words.

Rao is that William's mentality is not as tough as his age, but in the face of Felicity's seductiveness, his heart still jumped wildly.

Did she decide where to kiss?

William was thinking, suddenly feeling a warmth in his lips.

Like a piece of white jade tofu, it gently touched his lips.

Faint fragrance, warm and soft.

William only felt as if his body was about to explode. He stretched out his hand and hugged Felicity in his arms.

Felicity was shocked immediately and let out an exclamation.

When she saw the deep love in William's eyes,

she felt a burst of joy.

However, she gently pressed her hand against William, as if she had done something to sorry William.

"What's wrong?" William asked suspiciously.

Felicity looked eager to cry without tears, and said, "No."

Naturally, William knew it was impossible, because Felicity's body was still too weak.

Just as William wanted to understand, Felicity said shyly, "I'm here."

William couldn't help but laugh out loud.

What a coincidence.

It turns out that she looked guilty just now because of this.

William quickly waved his hand and said, "It's okay, it's okay."

Felicity suddenly misunderstood William.

I just feel that his smile is full of endless bitterness.

Think about it, I have been married to him for three years.

But even the reality of husband and wife has not been achieved.

How difficult it is for William.

After all, he is a man and has normal needs.

And since this time, William has always been standing behind him.

What a price it took to support himself to the noble position of vice chairman.

If you don't repay him, you will be upset.

Thinking of this, Felicity seemed to muster the courage, grabbed William's hand, and weakly said something that made Lu Yexin lift it up.

"Why don't you touch it?"

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 283

Seeing Felicity's cute look at home, William couldn't help but smile.

This fool, how much psychological struggle he had to say so ashamed.

It was really difficult for her.

William hugged Felicity lightly, and Felicity closed his eyes all at once.

Intentionally or unconsciously, he straightened his chest and raised his head.

It seems to be saying, come on, I am not afraid.

However, she suddenly felt a gentle rubbing of her head.

William rubbed her head and said softly, "What do you think? There is a chance. Let's go for a long time. Okay, let's sleep."

Felicity opened her eyes and looked at William in surprise, "You, you don't..."

William smiled and shook his head, "You are mine, you can't run."

There seemed to be regret flashing in Felicity's eyes, and William was already lying down.

Felicity's heart was suddenly moved.

Everything William wanted to do was from my perspective.

Well, we have a long stream...

Felicity figured this out and was in a good mood. He took out his cell phone and said, "You go to bed first, I'll have a while."

William felt his scalp numb instinctively, "What are you doing?"

"Hehe, I was in a bad mood the other day, and I didn't care about the sisters in the group. It seems that a new sister has arrived. Hehe, now I am going to get dry." Felicity said triumphantly.

William was full of black lines.

Sooner or later, the ancestral grave squad will be blown up.

It exploded until those little bitches smashed their ancestral graves and smoked.

And Felicity pointed her fingers sharply and called her friends in the group, "My friends, I'm here, everyone!"

The little friends in the group have not slept yet, and are bubbling one by one at the moment.

"Oh, come on, this is the rhythm of full blood resurrection."

"Who added fuel to your body?" Comrade Lydia drove for no reason.

"Sorry everyone, something happened the other day, but now it's finished perfectly, I'm returning to the team to report." Felicity said fiercely.

Everyone in the group knows what happened at the General Assembly of the Pharmaceutical Association tonight.

Staring at the phone screen one by one, the acid in his eyes overflowed.

That little bastard is as cold as winter to other women.

She is deeply infatuated with Felicity.

As if to pit all the women of the world to complete the white wind and snow.

Thinking of this, the rhythm in the group suddenly moved towards the theme of the group.

Everyone started to scold Xiao Wangbazi for having no conscience and not knowing how to pity and cherish jade.

Felicity looked at the picture and curiously asked, "Is that little bastard your boss?"

Everyone sent a nodding emoticon.

Felicity immediately sent out a laughing emoji, "Then you are really pitiful. I really feel wronged for you. My husband is kind to me."

A sack of dog food was thrown into the group, and the group suddenly couldn't control it.

A group of people in the group scolded them with joy.

Out of humanitarian considerations, Felicity said in the group: "Okay! I won't cheer you on today. I personally go into battle and help you scold this little bastard. Let me come!"

Then she burst into inspiration, swiping the screen quickly in the group, and her curse was more severe.

Until the end, Felicity cursed, "I wish you a single dog for a thousand years, and a virgin!"

The group suddenly became quiet.

Wang Qingmian laughed on the bed so that the phone was about to fall.

Felicity is so ruthless.

He even scolded himself when he was ruthless.

Thousand-year single dog, ten thousand-year-old virgin...

so amazing!

Felicity watched how the group calmed down, and asked a little embarrassed: "Why there is no sound? Is it because I didn't scold you hard enough? I'm sorry, I only curse this kind of thing. ..."

She also made an expression of apology, bowing down.

Wang Qingmian immediately returned: "No, no, no, you scolded too hard, and we were all shocked by you. You are really arrogant and righteous to kill your relatives."

Felicity didn't notice that there was something in this sentence, and suddenly the sea rose again.

Janet put down the phone, and a beautiful arc was drawn at the corner of his mouth.

Sure enough, this group is the gateway to the new world, with unlimited charm and a great mood.

And at the moment, in the hospital.

Bai Steven was still bandaging the wounds in the operating room, while several members of the Bai family were sitting on the chairs outside, all with hatred.

Especially the White Hall!

He almost died from the injury, but his son!

"No! Mom! I can't stand that dog anymore! Steven almost died today! You must seek justice for him! If you don't drive that bastard out of the Bai family, I promise not to be a man!" White Hall said in a deep voice.

Yasmine's face was also ugly.

At the general meeting, a dog of the Bai family was in the limelight, and stepped on the Bai family's boundless scenery!

I thought that by attending this meeting, the reputation of the Bai family would increase.

Now, notorious!

"Not only that, that Felicity will also be driven away together! Zhang Rebecca, if you don't drive them out of the house, we will never get together in the future!" Helen also said angrily.

Zhang Rebecca frowned and said nothing.

Instead, Yasmine said sadly: "Everyone has seen that kid's power and methods. He seems to have a little background. If we drive him away so aggressively, maybe he will jump the wall in a hurry..."

At this time, the door of the operating room opened.

Everyone lifted their spirits and hurried over.

Bai Steven has come out, he is covered with a thick bandage.

His whole face is hideous.

Everyone quickly told Bai Steven what they had just thought.

Bai Steven spit on the ground viciously, and said weakly: "Grandma! I am your grandson! What are you still hesitating? Are you willing to endure the anger of a dog?"

"Our Bai family went all out and used the whole family's strength to drive him out. After a hundred, we don't have to worry about this kid's methods and worry about it."

"However, if you dare not leave them, our Bai family will live in this kind of fear for the rest of our lives!"

"Also, grandma, do you think everyone in the city says that our Bai family depends on a dog's charity to make a living? How to choose, you should know!"

"I put my words here, if I don't drive them away this time, I'll break with Bai Jiaen!"

Bai Steven's righteous words, both soft and hard, made Yasmine's face white suddenly.

Bai Steven said her weakness!

William is a dog of the Bai family, and everyone has a deep-rooted concept.

Now a dog is riding on everyone's head, and even if this dog is capable of being superb, the Bai family being crushed is a thousand-year shame!

The Bai family is famous!

How can a dog bastard make trouble!

Moreover, from the Bai family to this generation, only Bai Steven is left.

If Bai Steven made a clear distinction with the Bai family, then the Bai family would definitely fall into the palm of the dog.

This is absolutely impossible!

Thinking of this, Yasmine slapped the chair and said fiercely: "Okay! This time, I will fight with this dog! Let him know the confidence of the Bai family!"

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 284

Everyone was full of blood!

Bai Steven showed a delighted smile, "Grandma wise!"

Since Yasmine had made up his mind, there was no turning back at this moment.

She said in a deep voice, "Since we have decided to do this, we must think of a sure way so that the two people, especially the dog, can't do it in person, or we will be bitten by the dog."

Everyone even claimed that the shadow of William's murder remained in their hearts.

"The previous video involved Liu Tigger, so Liu Tigger would support William face to face. As long as the big guys are not involved, the kid shouldn't dare to do it, right?" said Kaleb, who had been standing next to Zhang Rebecca.

Kaleb has been living in Zhang Rebecca's house ever since he severed his father-son relationship with his son Darren.

At this moment, he seemed to be himself as the Bai family.

But Yasmine said: "Whether he dares to do it or not, we must be prepared to prevent him from doing it. Do you have any good solutions?"

Everyone, you look at me, I look at you, and didn't speak.

In the end, Bai Steven had an idea, and said: "Haha, I thought of a great trick! Be sure, that kid wouldn't dare to do it in person!"

"Say! What way?" Yasmine asked.

Bai Steven said fiercely: "When we are looking for them for a showdown tomorrow, we invite a live broadcaster to come over and broadcast live in front of the entire network. At that time, if that dog dares to do something nasty in person, it is in the presence of the entire network of people! Everyone knows how strong the masses are in public opinion. As long as this is the case, I can conclude that he dare not do anything!"

Everyone clapped their hands after hearing it, this trick is absolutely perfect!

Actually can think of the trick of live broadcast showdown, Bai Steven is really not the cover!

In this case, people from the entire network are supervising, but when William does something to hurt someone, then what awaits him is a prison disaster!

"Okay! This method is good! Just do it!" Yasmine laughed.

Bai Steven nodded with a smile.

He was extremely proud.

Is this trick really to deal with William?

This trick is more critical, is to force the Bai family to make a decision!

When the time comes, the Bai family will break with those two people in front of the entire network, and that is a matter of ironclad matter, and there is no room for remorse!

Isn't the position of the Patriarch of the Bai family even more solid!

Bai Steven couldn't help but admire his wisdom.

Actually thought of such a trick to kill two birds with one stone.

When everyone applauded, Bai Steven continued: "I'll sort it out. It's probably like this. I'll contact a small, well-known live broadcast network celebrity soon, and then I'll go to them tomorrow morning to draw a clear line with them. How about chasing them up where they live?"

Everyone nodded in unison.

Only Zhang Rebecca frowned and said, "But our house is no longer owned by the Bai family. Although I don't know why the owner has not come to collect the house, I am afraid that they will not move out if they play tricks..."

Bai Steven had an idea again, "This is simple!

Anyway, no one knows who bought the house. We forged a real estate certificate, saying that at the last moment when we were going to sell the house, my grandma was kind and soft-hearted. After getting out of the house, this can just explain the fact that the owner of the house has not come to take the house, how?"

Everyone was stunned, and clapped their hands again, "Okay! Steven, you really have grown up over the years! The Bai family really can't live without you."

Yasmine also nodded with satisfaction.

This trick is great.

Not only took the initiative of the house in his hand, but also gave a perfect explanation. Most importantly, it demonstrated Yasmine's respect and compassion as an old man.

Everyone deliberated on some details. Bai Steven patted his chest because of his interests. He went straight out of the hospital with injuries, went to the Internet celebrity overnight, and falsified the real estate certificate.

Zhang Rebecca was still a little upset. Kaleb on the side looked at it and immediately comforted him: "Rebecca, don't think about it, think about it, this is a good thing! The two of them completely offend the Bai family, and they will be finished sooner or later. We want to Stand a good stand so as not to be miserable by them. Besides, think about it again, as long as they leave, the house will be ours, and we can live in the two-person world."

His words coaxed Zhang Rebecca into a daze, and finally agreed.

William slept particularly peacefully this night, hugging the wind and snow, like hugging a bunch of cotton, soft and undesirable.

And early the next morning, William got up first. He ran a lap in the morning, then went home to cook, then settled down and concentrated on studying the "Impermanent Medical Classics".

It is strange to say that Lu Yexiu has reached the second chapter of "Impermanence Medical Classics", and he has always had a strange feeling in his heart.

It seems that this second chapter is about to break through, but I have been stuck there and cannot break through.

He finally sighed, it should be because of a lack of opportunity.

In this case, you can only go with the flow.

William made the meal, picked up the sleepy wind and snow, and asked her to wash and eat.

When the two were eating, the door opened suddenly when the two were in the world.

A bunch of people rushed in.

It was Yasmine and Bai Steven who took the lead.

William frowned when she saw Bai Steven.

This kid, what conspiracy and tricks he wants to play.

Bai Steven was still wearing a thick bandage. Seeing William and Felicity eating breakfast in your country, he couldn't help but laughed weirdly, "Hehe, this little day is pretty moist. "

Felicity stood up directly and asked coldly: "Bai Steven, what are you doing? This is my home, you are not welcome!"

"This is your home? Haha, it's really shameless! You'll know later, if this is your home." Bai Steven said confidently.

"What do you mean!" Felicity's face also became cold.

This group of Bai family members, like flies, stayed in the shadows all day long.

It's nasty!

I can't even eat a breakfast!

Yasmine looked at William and Felicity coldly, and the more he looked at it, the more unpleasant he said, "You two, yesterday made our Bai family embarrassed in front of the whole city. Are you convicted? Today, we are here to show you a complete showdown. ."

Felicity was taken aback, embarrassed?

Yesterday, I clearly shined in the conference...

But she immediately thought that Frandick asked everyone to mute yesterday, presumably the news that he became the vice chairman hasn't come out yet.

At this time, a fancy-dressed woman was holding a selfie stick in her hand. As she came out, she babbled at her mobile phone and said, "Good morning, my little brothers, there is no oil in the cream. Today, I want to live with my brothers." It's a good show. If you're happy to watch, remember to give someone a small gift."

@vamp20w01

Chapter 285

Seeing this fancy woman, Felicity frowned again, "Who are you? Why are you here?"

The woman named Cream No Oil smiled and said to the camera: "Brothers, look, this is the beautiful Felicity from Qingcheng. Who is more beautiful than her?"

Felicity flushed with anger, and was about to stop, when the woman screamed again: "Oh, the beauty of the wind and snow is so fierce, people are so scared, brothers, please protect them."

William grabbed Felicity and shook his head gently.

"She is live streaming, you can't lose your image." William whispered.

Felicity's face became stiff, and she could only give up in the end.

Seeing Felicity deflated as soon as they met, the Bai family smiled triumphantly.

The thumbs of praise were given to Bai Steven.

This live broadcast break is really wonderful.

Felicity was stopped at the beginning.

Let her not act rashly.

Next, the show begins.

"What are you doing?" Felicity asked in a deep voice again.

"Why? I tell you two, we are here today to drive you out of the Bai family! Friends in the video, hello, everyone, I am Bai Steven from the Bai family, please be your witness today, we The Bai family must be here, clear the door, and drive these two people out of the Bai family completely!" Bai Steven said righteously to Cream's phone.

Because Butter No Oil is a famous anchor in Qingcheng, most of her fans are local in Qingcheng.

The message in the video just flew up.

"Oh, the Bai family is going to stage a Gongdou drama today!"

"My little bench and melon seeds are ready, please start your performance."

"666! Lao Tie is okay! Be gentle on the beauties."

Felicity's face turned red all of a sudden, she looked at Yasmine, "Grandma, is this what you mean?"

Yasmine nodded, "Our Bai family never needed traitors and double-faced guys!"

Felicity laughed out of anger when she heard this.

"Traitor? Two-sided and three-cut? Why did Felicity have two-sided and three-cut? I asked my grandma! Who was before, kneeling at the place where you stand now! Begged me not to leave! He even vowed to never follow me William drive away!" Felicity said angrily.

With this, the atmosphere at the scene will freeze.

Because it is indeed true, when the Bai family was almost sued by the Genuine Care Medical Center, Yasmine came over and knelt down and begged Felicity to ask her to go out to the Genuine Care Medical Center to intercede.

She did say at the time that William and Felicity will always be members of the Bai family and will never drive them away.

Yasmine's face turned white all at once.

Bold!

This Felicity is getting less and less of my grandma's eyes!

Actually dare to speak out such a ugly family in front of the entire network!

Just as they were so embarrassed that they didn't know what to say, the live broadcast room exploded in an instant.

"Oh, there are such awesome past events, I want to listen, I want to listen!"

"The beauty of the snow wind said in a little bit more detail, vaguely smelling a hint of big melon."

"Little cream, I will give you a 666, you let them fight, I like to watch action movies hahaha."

The live broadcast room became more and more intense, and the little anchor's face suddenly became uncontrollable.

She accepted Bai Steven's money.

She hurriedly hinted that Bai Steven was trying to get the mess over.

Bai Steven understood, and said coldly: "Huh, now, then! Back then, it was because you still had a little conscience that I didn't drive you away! But now, you don't read the Bai family to you. It's good, you slander the reputation of the Bai family everywhere, what else do you have to say."

With a word, he splashed dirty water on Felicity's body in an instant.

The people who eat melons don't know the ins and outs of the matter, so they look like a wall of grass and enjoy it.

The number of onlookers in the live broadcast room was also increasing, and within a while, it exceeded 10,000.

Bai Steven saw that this trick was effective, and once again caused troubles, referring to William and said, "Look, this is the famous waste son-in-law of Qingcheng. He didn't accomplish anything. He eats our Bai family's soft rice every day. , Eat inside and out, can you bear this kind of man?"

The live broadcast room was refreshed again.

"It's the first time I saw a man who is not a man when I grew up. It's amazing."

"Why can such a useless man marry Qingcheng Yizhihua, I am so handsome but still single, it's not fair!"

"This trash man is public enemy, the identification is complete. Bai Steven, feed him shit for me."

Seeing the beloved man being slandered, Felicity couldn't help it anymore in front of the camera.

She was about to yell at Bai Steven, but was stopped by William again.

William said indifferently: "We have nothing to explain. Let's break if we break."

The live broadcast rooms began to curse that this kid was really not a man, he was really persuaded.

Just admit it?

Don't dare to fuck with Bai Steven!
Even Felicity is more spine than him.

Felicity and William looked at each other, their eyes full of determination.

This time, cut the robe and cut righteousness!
Fight to the end!

"Well, now you can go." Felicity said coldly.

The Bai family was caught off guard by the two of them. Is it that simple?

Just so direct?

Finished?

But Bai Steven laughed and said, "Whatever you go, you are going to go! Get out of Bai's house for me!"

Felicity said angrily, "Is this Bai's house! This is my home!"

William was really angry seeing Felicity this time.

Because Felicity has feelings for this house.

Her long-lost father told her when he left and asked her to wait here for him to return.

So Felicity will never leave this home.

"This is your home? You are optimistic. Netizens will also help comment and recognize, what a shameless little bitch this is." Bai Steven took out the fake real estate certificate he had prepared and broadcasted it on the live broadcast. The room shook, and he said in a deep voice, "Everyone, see, this house is clearly my grandmother Yasmine's, this little bitch, what's the face of saying that the house is hers!"

When Felicity heard this, her entire face turned pale as if she was drinking.

She looked at Bai Steven in disbelief, and cried out: "Impossible! How could this house be hers! We obviously sold the house back then! It was definitely not grandma's!"

She snatched the real estate certificate and saw Yasmine's name written on it, as if she had been emptied, almost unable to stand.

She would never have thought that there would be such a dramatic reversal.

William gently supported her, glanced at the real estate certificate, and suddenly showed a sorrowful smile.

"Interesting, interesting."

Chapter 286

At this moment, in the live broadcast room, the pot was exploding again.

"Damn! What the hell is going on! Why can't I understand?"

"I know I know, let me say! This house belongs to the Bai family, but this woman Felicity refuses to admit, shamelessly, and refuses to move out of this house."

"Oh, what a pity, a big beauty, why is her character so bad? Just now she said decisively to break up. I thought she had a strong personality, but I didn't expect to be a snob again."

"If it's me, it will be completely broken if I want to break it. What does it depend on other people's house?"

"William, how could this be, why is it?" Felicity looked at William helplessly.

William touched her hair and comforted: "I'm here, don't worry, the house must have been sold, and certainly not to Yasmine."

However, Bai Steven sneered on the sidelines: "Old irons, you must be at a loss as well, I'll explain it clearly to everyone."

As Bai Steven said, he talked about the original sale of the house, and finally said, "Grandma really couldn't bear the displacement of the two of them, so she secretly took out the private money and bought this house."

"Gong Yu, she was the head of the Bai family at the time and had to take on the life and death responsibility of the Bai family, so she had to make a decision."

"Yu Shi, she is an old man who has a heart to not see the suffering of our younger generations. The little coffin that she has worked so hard to save secretly bought this house. In order to prevent them from psychological pressure, she did not tell them so that they could live comfortably."

"So, think about it, everyone, if someone else bought the house, would it not come to collect the house after so long? Does everyone say what I said makes sense?"

After listening to Bai Steven's plausible explanation, the people in the live broadcast room spoke up again.

Because Bai Steven's rhetoric is not only reasonable.

Moreover, talking about Yasmine's money as a coffin has aroused everyone's sympathy.

"These two people are simply not human! Their grandmother considered them so much, but in the end they were avenged by grace!"

"This is the realistic version of the farmer and the snake. This woman is a snake-hearted! The old man sucks blood."

In the live broadcast room, there was a lot of scolding.

Felicity's eyes turned red.

Now, even she doesn't know the truth or not.

Because Bai Steven's statement perfectly explained why she had never understood why the homeowner didn't come to collect the house.

Only one's own people can do this regardless of gains and losses.

"So, what else do you guys have to say! Get out of Bai's house for me!" Bai Steven made a final announcement.

Felicity looked at them with pain and said, "Then, can I buy this house?"

"Buy? Hahaha, Felicity, do you have money? You are no longer the Patriarch of the Bai family, nor the president of the Bai Group. What do you buy? Do you rely on your rubbish husband?" Steven Shengren Can't help laughing.

"My husband has money!" Felicity said loudly.

However, it attracted ridicule from the audience.

The live broadcast room is more joyful.

"Waste is rich? Beauty, have you ever heard that men become bad when they are rich?"

"Yes, would he be so useless if he had money? Money is a man's spine. Obviously he has rickets."

"Bai Steven did a great job! Very happy! I'll give you a gift first!"

Seeing that everyone didn't believe it, Felicity was angry and sad!

William is the dragon among men!

The world is short-sighted!

"Okay, leave it to me, I'll give you a happy ending." William supported Felicity and sat on the sofa.

Then he walked to Bai Steven.

When Bai Steven saw him walking, there was almost a shadow in his heart.

He couldn't help but stepped back and screamed inwardly, "You, what do you want! I tell you, there are tens of thousands of viewers here to help me judge!"

William chuckled softly: "I hit you and dirty my hands. Besides, you can't do anything with you today."

William stood in front of the camera and said, "Is the real estate certificate just now real?"

The Bai family was up and down.
William sneered at this expression.

Steven shouted angrily, "Nonsense! Of course it's true, can't I dare to lie in front of so many people?"

Bai Steven had made up his mind to bite to death.

Anyway, the buyer hasn't shown up so far, it's impossible to show up now.

Unless the sun hits the west.

"Then you swear to netizens?" William said again.

Bai Steven's heart stunned, "Why should I listen to you?"

William looked at the live broadcast room, "The man who dare not swear is not a man, right?"

The people in the live broadcast room did not think it was a big deal, "Bai Steven, swear when you swear, afraid of being a hairy?"

"You are afraid of even a trash, aren't you more trash, haha?"

"Hurry up, I'm still rushing to work."

Bai Steven saw the people in the live broadcast room all sorts of screens, and his heart was frustrated, "Swear to swear! I swear this house belongs to my grandma, otherwise there will be thunder and thunder."

When he swore, he was careful not to say whether the real estate certificate was true or false.

William didn't know what he was thinking, smiled, and then suddenly said to the netizens, "Did I say a coincidence, do you still want to watch a good show?"

Screen 666 in the live broadcast room!

"All right, then let you watch the show for free. Coincidentally, I also have a good thing in my hand. Wait and come right away." William finished speaking and walked to his room.

Felicity's heart touched her throat, she didn't know what William was going to do.

Will you take out a knife?

And Baijia, you look at me, and I look at you, cheering each other up.

Bai Steven even whispered: "Don't worry, grandma, with me, there is nothing wrong, I don't expect him to get out of my palm."

It was a little dull to watch the live broadcast room without the cream. Some people ran away and said quickly: "Dear brothers, don't leave. Can someone dance and sing a song for you? Is the train shake good?"

Everyone started to brush up.

"Okay, okay! I like the little cream when I shake it up."

"This is considered midfield welfare hahaha."

"Oh, the train starts."

As soon as Little Cream started to shake, William walked out of the room with a bag in his hand.

He saw the little cream swaying his body at a glance, and walked over and pressed one hand on her face to push out the screen, "What is it doing? Spicy eyes."

The fat houses in the live broadcast room looked like they were about to move. Just about to go crazy, William took out something from the bag and shook it in front of the screen.

"I just said it was a coincidence. I also have a real estate certificate in my hand. Would you like to see whose name is written?"

Chapter 287

When the Bai family saw that William actually took out a big red book in his hand, all his faces froze.

Where did he get the real estate certificate!

What the hell is this!

Bai Steven's heart also twitched, and he looked at William in disbelief.

However, William didn't pay attention to Bai Steven at all, and instead looked at the live screen with interest.

On the screen, all of a sudden, he got excited.

"Oh, did things turn around?"

"Quickly, open it to us! My forty-meter sword is already hungry and thirsty!"

William smiled and opened the real estate certificate in his hand.

After seeing the name on the real estate certificate, the live broadcast room instantly fried.

"Fuck! Why is Felicity's name on it?"

"Is this house that old woman's or Felicity's?"

"I thought it was a drama about family ethics, but now it looks like it's still a big suspense movie."

Bai Steven also saw the name on the real estate certificate, and he shouted on the spot, "Impossible! How could this be! How could this house be Felicity!"

With this shout, everyone in the Bai family, including Felicity, had their eyes widened.

Felicity didn't know where his strength came from, so she rushed over and grabbed the real estate certificate in William's hand. When she was sure she saw her name, she was dumbfounded.

Why, this real estate certificate will have my name written on it.

What exactly is going on?

Where did William get this real estate certificate?

"Jin Sheng, here, what's going on!" Yasmine was so embarrassed that she couldn't hold her face, and asked Bai Steven in a deep voice, hoping that he would give everyone a convincing explanation in person.

Bai Steven looked at Felicity and immediately said to the live broadcast room: "Look at Felicity's expression. Obviously she doesn't know about this real estate certificate. I can conclude that this real estate certificate It's fake! So you guys and dogs, you forged real estate certificates!"

Felicity's heart suddenly lifted up and looked at William nervously.

All the live broadcast rooms were quiet, and they were waiting for William's answer.

William looked at Bai Steven like a fool, "Fake? Do I know you are coming today? Can I go upstairs and make a fake real estate certificate?"

This rhetorical question hit the nail on the head!

Thoroughly pierced Bai Steven speechless!

The Bai family at the scene suddenly felt cold hands and feet.

With William's explanation, the group became lively again.

"Fuck, it makes sense, I was speechless to refute!"

"Yes, this kid is right. They can't create a certificate right away, just to wait for Bai Steven to come over?"

"Then Bai Steven's copy, how can I explain it? Is it a fake? But it's not right. Bai Steven swore it just now."

Bai Steven's square inch suddenly became chaotic.

He never expected that William also had a real estate certificate in his hand.

Could it be that this kid knew that the Bai family was coming over today, so he forged the real estate certificate in advance?

No, this kid should have forged it very early!

It should be that they want to use this fake real estate certificate to drive away Zhang Rebecca!

Thinking of this, Bai Steven immediately regained a little confidence, and said coldly: "Why do you have this real estate certificate in your hand? Where did it come from? I hope you can explain it to me!"

Will William explain?

He didn't even bother to spend the words.

He sneered and said: "Explain or something, I will be exempt. However, since there are two real estate certificates, that one must be fake. Why not, shall we call the police?"

Call the police!

These two sons, like a sharp knife, stabbed the Bai family.

Their faces all changed.

Even Felicity saw something was wrong.

She thought about it and looked at William with great surprise, "William, this real estate certificate..."

"I'll explain to you later, let me call the police first." William said with a smile.

The people in the group didn't think the matter was too big, and they swiped the screen one by one, "Okay, okay! Otherwise, let's fight for you. You can concentrate on arguing and don't be distracted."

"Leave this small matter to us, and it's incumbent on us to eat melons!"

Seeing the messages in the live broadcast room, Bai Steven fought a cold war all over!

If you call the police, it will be completely help!

That's it!

Another shame by this kid!

Does he want to burn the jade and the stone and die with our Bai family?

What a cruel person!

Steven's voice softened suddenly, and he shouted to the group: "Wait, everyone, wait! I have something to say."

However, someone has left a message, "Oh, what? It's too late, I have already called the police."

This message, instantly seemed like a basin of cold water, poured down from Bai Steven's head.

Seeing that the police had really called the police, Yasmine was immediately upset, rushed to Bai Steven, and shouted out: "Bai Steven! I know you can't do a big deal! What can you do now! The police will come and take me What can I do if this old woman takes it away! You can think of a way!"

Bai Steven originally wanted to put on a pose, but after hearing this, his feet softened.

It's over, this is completely finished!

This old woman, when she said this, didn't she admit that the real estate certificate she was holding was fake in front of the entire network!

damn thing! Mud can't support the wall!

Sure enough, the live room was fried.

"Damn! It turns out that Bai Steven is the fake real estate certificate! No surprise! No surprise!"

"It's a shame that I still believe him so much, he swore just now, right? Is it going to be thunderous now?"

"I thought about it seriously. Since Felicity and their real estate certificate are real, is that the current situation? The Bai family are the biggest white-eyed wolves. They not only come to their house to drive them out, but also To take their house? This is a crime."

The little cream watched the scene completely messed up, and suddenly became utterly innocent.

She wanted to turn off the live broadcast, but she was threatened by netizens. If she dared not live broadcast at such a wonderful moment, all her fans would turn black.

"What are you still thinking about! Go to William and ask him to tell the police well later! Don't let the entire Bai family take responsibility for the crime you committed!" Yasmine was furious when she saw Steven not moving. The crutches hit his head.

Bai Steven was awakened by this knock.

But this time, he turned his head to look at Yasmine with a grim look and gave Yasmine a hard push.

Pushing Yasmine back several steps.

"It's all you useless old lady! What can you do! A dog thing that hasn't succeeded but failed! I should have killed you sooner!" Bai Steven was completely mad and shouted at Yasmine.

Aggrieved!

Unwilling!

Bai Steven has been full of anger since yesterday, and now that Yasmine is like this, he can't control it all at once, venting all the opinions in his heart against the Bai family.

Chapter 288

Yasmine was stunned by this roar.

She stared blankly at Bai Steven's hideous face like a devil, and cried out: "Do you know what you are talking about! I am your grandma! For so many years, I will give you what you want! Why are you? Say it like this!"

Bai Steven opened the chattering box and couldn't stop it anymore, "Hehe, grandma! You are just an old thing in my eyes! I can't help but add to the blockage! Why didn't you die early? Forget it!"

Yasmine was scolded by these vicious words, and his whole body was completely lost.

The rest of the Bai family wanted to accuse Bai Steven, but they stopped one by one after seeing his completely crazy eyes.

Continue to fry in the live room.

"Wow, annual drama! The nest is turned upside down hahaha!"

"This Bai Steven was forced to jump over the wall in a hurry, right?"

"The police have twenty minutes to reach the battlefield!"

Felicity couldn't help but be speechless when she watched this scene.

Bai Steven is really crazy, now it seems that Bai Steven broke with the Bai family first.

After Bai Steven scolded Yasmine, he looked at William ferociously, "William, do you want to burn the jade with me? The police are here, and we are both going to die! Don't think I don't know that your real estate certificate is also fake. "

"Fake? Don't think you are okay?" William gently handed the real estate certificate to Felicity, "My, but the real estate certificate, I asked someone to buy the house back then. And put it under the name of my wife. So, this also explains why no one came to accept this house, because I originally followed Felicity."

William's words were like thunder, even Felicity was blown up.

Bai Steven's pupils shrank for a while, "This, how is this possible!"

"You dare to lie or even swear in front of a live broadcast of tens of thousands of people, I don't dare. I don't know if you still remember, how much money did the Genuine Care Medical Center ask you for compensation?" William said.

Bai Steven was taken aback, and replied instinctively: "10.5 million."

When he said this, an ominous premonition suddenly grew in his heart.

"Haha, how much did this house sell for?"

William asked again.

"One and a half million." Bai Steven replied.

But after speaking, his face turned white on the spot!

At first, Genuine Care Medical Center wanted the Bai family to lose money, otherwise they would sue them.

The Bai family pieced together and made up nine million.

Then Yasmine forced Zhang Rebecca to sell the house, and Bai Steven sold 1.5 million yuan through an intermediary.

Add up, isn't it exactly 10.5 million!

Bai Steven felt a deep chill coming out.

At that time, he wanted to break his head and didn't understand why Genuine Care Medical Center would cost an extra 500,000.

Unexpectedly, waiting here!

The money that the Bai family paid to Genuine Care Medical Center for selling the house was transferred to this kid again!

In other words, this William didn't spend a penny at all, and changed this house that originally belonged to the Bai family into Felicity's house.

What a trick to change the day!

If you think about it this way, this real estate certificate is genuine!

Felicity also understood, and her eyes were clouded with tears, "William, you..."

William patted Felicity on the shoulder, and said gently: "I wanted you to live here quietly, but I didn't expect to make such an incident."

Felicity couldn't bear the gratitude that William felt in her heart, and she hugged William tightly.

This home is the source of all her waiting.

It's William again.

When he was about to collapse, he gave himself a silent gift.

If it hadn't been for the Bai family to bully people today, how could he have discovered that William's guardianship of him was deeply rooted and meticulous.

The Bai family went up and down, but they cursed at William one by one: "Good, you dog! Just take our Bai family's money and take our Bai family's property! What else do you have to do next! Swallow all the company!"

Felicity scoffed at these people's words.

William's real estate certificate was written in the name of wind and snow.

He didn't care about the Bai family property at all.

This group of people will only clamor here.

After several minutes of calming down, Bai Steven finally recovered a trace of consciousness.

He thought uncomfortably, how to protect himself now.

After thinking about it, he still said to William cheeky: "William, it was a misunderstanding before. We only wanted to give you a predicament. We didn't really want to drive you away. I have this real estate certificate in my hand. It's also to scare you. See if you can..."

William chuckled, "Originally, I didn't care about such trivial matters at all, but you are so immortal that you have invited a little demon to come to the city for live broadcast. Now you want to conceal this matter. Can't live."

By these words, the Bai family members were extremely frustrated in their hearts!

Bai Steven's intestines are all blue with regret!

He looked at the trembling little cream.

There is a feeling of losing his wife and breaking down!

by!

If you don't invite this little anchor over today, things might be over.

Now that I think about it, I invited this little anchor to give myself a boost, but now it has become a devil's pestle to drive myself into hell!

Damn it!

However, it is completely meaningless to stop the live broadcast of Little Cream now.

He looked at William pleadingly, "William, I kowtow to you, you are so smart, there must be a way, you save me, save our Bai family, okay?"

The other Bai family members also looked at William emotionally, "William, we were wrong, we shouldn't do this, can you bypass us?"

Especially Zhang Rebecca, when she knew that the house was white wind and snow, her heart became nervous.

Today she is on the side of Bai's house, will Felicity drive herself away later!

Then I am really homeless!

"Felicity, for the sake of our mother and daughter, would you let William's men be merciful?"

In the live broadcast room, there was joy and peace.

"Hey, hey, the face slapped so fast, I saw it for the first time in my life."

"Why do I have the illusion that I read Shuangwen, it's so cool and pleasant."

"William, keep on fighting! Don't stop! We can stand it!"

"I took another bucket of popcorn and continue."

William looked straight at this time and said in a deep voice to Bai Steven: "Forgery of a real estate certificate is a crime of forging, altering, or buying and selling official documents, certificates, and seals of state agencies. Article 280, paragraph 1, of the Criminal Law stipulates: Anyone who alters, trades, or steals, robs, or destroys official documents, certificates, or seals of state organs shall be sentenced to fixed-term imprisonment of not more than 3 years, criminal detention, surveillance, or deprivation of political rights; if the circumstances are serious, he shall be sentenced to fixed-term imprisonment of not less than 3 years but not more than 10 years."

"You people, wait for legal sanctions."

Chapter 289

"Damn! This William is awesome! The law comes with open mouth, without breathing!"

"He's in the law department? This crime is serious."

"Haha, the Bai family steals chickens and loses their rice. What should they do now?"

The discussion continued in the live broadcast room.

After the Bai family heard William's words one by one, their faces turned green.

How could they consider so many things before!

What they thought was not to let William come hard.

Now, William hasn't come hard.

But moved out of the legal provisions.

This is harder than it is, and harder.

Going to jail.

One by one, they were like bereaved concubines, and some even cried, "I don't want to go to jail, no."

Bai Steven saw that William was determined to punish him, his heart frustrated, and angrily said: "William, stay on the sidelines and see each other well in the future, do you really want to be so unfeeling!"

"Unfeeling? I'm just a soldier to cover the water and soil. You forged the forged real estate certificate, and you did the live broadcast of the whole city. What does it have to do with me?" Lu Yexu made them all speechless.

Thousands of mistakes are Bai Steven's fault!

"Dear netizens, you can help me to be a witness. Bai Steven forced us to do it all. The real estate certificate is also called artificial fake. It has nothing to do with the rest of us." Yasmine suddenly jumped out and spoke to the live broadcast. Shouted the person in between.

But everyone in the live broadcast room was cheerful, waiting for the police to come.

"Felicity, what do you say?" Bai Steven suddenly looked at Felicity.

Because Felicity feels soft.

If William doesn't eat hard, he can only say it from her.

"Are you your mother being displaced? Can you bear the heart that your grandma will be arrested and sent to jail at such an age?" Bai Steven asked Felicity.

But Felicity swept away the weakness before, snuggling against William, and said, "Married to my husband, I listen to William."

In a word, the Bai family's path of pleading was completely broken.

At this point, the Bai family showed a desperate look.

They couldn't think of killing them, and they were just trying to drive away these two people.

Until now, they would fall into the terrible situation where a group of Bai family would go to prison together.

"Felicity, the Bai family is over, and you are going to be over together!" Yasmine couldn't help cursing viciously, "You don't have the big tree of the Bai family. I see what you can do in the future!"

"Today's matter, we can write off everything, as it did not happen, I promise, the Patriarch of the Bai family, continue to let you be, how!"

Patriarch of the Bai family?

Felicity couldn't help laughing when she heard this, "Patriarch Bai, what a thing!"

Everyone's breathing is stagnant!

What a big tone!

This Felicity even left the Patriarch of the Bai family not doing it, just to put them to death!

This is the rhythm of breaking the net!

"The Patriarch of my Bai family, at least in Qingcheng, is also a well-known name. Are you really indifferent at all?" Yasmine tried to convince Felicity again.

But Felicity stayed still.

In this way, Felicity had enough of the days of suffering in the Bai family.

She can bear it.

However, she couldn't bear to see William being tortured by these people again and again!

It's better to take two shots than to get everything done!

Just as Yasmine was going to continue to mobilize Felicity, a noise suddenly came from the door.

A group of people came in.

The person in front said in surprise: "What's the situation in the Bai family today, so lively?"

Everyone looked back, but they showed incredible eyes.

The person in charge was surprisingly just met yesterday, the president of the Cheongsong Medicine Association!

Frاندick!

Frاندick, as a famous master of the Qingcheng generation, how could he personally come to the white house?

Only William and Felicity smiled at each other.

They knew what Frandick came to do.

But the Bai family didn't know that Yasmine seemed to see a savior, and she rushed to Frandick with a humble smile, "President Hu, why did you come here in person? Our Bai family is brilliant. "

Seeing Frandick in the live broadcast room immediately set off another climax.

"Wow! This old man is so familiar, I seem to see it often on TV."

"He is Frandick! The president of the Pharmaceutical Association, my second uncle works in the Pharmaceutical Association, and I have the honor to meet President Hu."

"Yes, President Hu is said to be upright, upright, and his character is very reliable. Is he coming here to support the Bai family?"

"Hahaha, I don't have enough popcorn again."

Frandick looked at the dignified atmosphere of the scene, and his heart shook.

Could something big happened to the Bai family?

All of them looked like they were facing the enemy.

Thinking of this, Frandick suddenly thought about it.

His love for William is too much.

Although he had seen from the meeting place yesterday, he faintly knew that William had a conflict with the Bai family.

But it seems to be just for Bai Steven.

Besides, every family has scriptures that are difficult to recite.

Now if something happens to the Bai family, William will not leave it alone.

He immediately said to Yasmine: "Did something happen to the Bai family? Just tell me, if I can help, I will definitely help."

When the Bai family heard this, they all looked overjoyed!

Frandick actually agreed to help!

This is simply a pie in the sky!

Who is Frandick!

His prestige in Qingcheng is too high and too high.

If he can come forward and say a few words, then the Bai family will be able to come back to life!

Thinking of this, Yasmine immediately grabbed Frandick's hand and said, "Mr. Hoo, I am going up and down for the Bai family, thank you! Our Bai family has come to life and death, you must make a move!"

Life and death!

Frاندick's face turned straight. Didn't expect the matter to be so serious?

But couldn't even William manage it?

He is supernatural.

Frاندick was a little disturbed.

I'm afraid that the matter is too big, even I can't settle it.

He said in a deep voice, "You talk about it first, I can only guarantee that I will help as much as possible."

Yasmine seemed to grab a life-saving straw, "Mr. Hoo, you are polite. This matter is a disaster for our Bai family, but as long as you are willing to come forward, it will definitely be resolved."

Just as Frاندick was about to listen to her to continue, he suddenly found the selfie stick and frowned, "What's going on?"

The little cream shivered even more.

Frاندick leaned in front of the screen and found that it was live broadcasting, his face froze.

However, in the live broadcast room, it was infinitely friendly, and I wish it could be bigger.

With a word of yours and me, they reiterated what happened just now.

Especially the scene in which the Bai family wanted to drive away William and Felicity, and was finally slapped in the face by William, was very detailed.

After hearing what everyone said, Frandick's face became extremely solemn!

OK!

I thought something happened to the Bai family!

It turns out that these villains are trying to frame my benefactor!

Then I am welcome.

Frandick said in a cold voice to the live broadcast room: "The so-called honest officials are difficult to cut off housework. I will not interfere with the affairs of the Bai family. I came here today for one thing. Originally, there was a press conference for this matter in the afternoon. Yes, but since everyone is so interested, I will announce it here first."

"I came here to represent the entire Pharmaceutical Association and appointed Ms. Felicity as the vice chairman of the Pharmaceutical Association, in charge of all pharmaceutical companies in the south of the city!"

Chapter 290

"What! Felicity serves as the vice chairman of the Qingcheng Pharmaceutical Association!" These words, like thunder, blasted in everyone's ears!

One by one they looked at Felicity in disbelief, and their eyes were filled with an unknown fear!

At this time, Frandick said to the trembling little cream: "Turn off the live broadcast and go out."

How dare you not listen to that little cream, no matter how frying pan in the live broadcast room, neatly shut down the live broadcast, and then left the Bai's house.

After going out, she took a big breath.

I thought I was here to help Bai Steven today, but I didn't expect that this was a walk through the ghost gate of hell.

The situation inside just now was really exciting!

But every one of the Bai family was completely speechless, and their hearts were full of chills.

How did Felicity become the vice chairman of the Pharmaceutical Association!

What's more, it is in charge of the southern part of the city!

Isn't the Seongnam area the Bai's side?

In other words, Felicity's title of vice president will eat the Bai family to death!

Yesterday, the mysterious candidate for the vice-chairman who was circulated at the meeting turned out to be Felicity.

Yasmine's face was tragic.

No wonder!

No wonder Felicity sneered at this when she wanted to let Felicity continue to be the head of the Bai family!

It turns out that there is another Gao Zhi!

I am so triumphant in front of her, saying that the Patriarch of the Bai family is also a well-known name in Qingcheng.

Thinking about it now, it's a big joke.

Compared with the vice-chairman, the Patriarch of the Bai Family was as ridiculous as the desire of dust to compare to Haoyue.

Bai Steven was even more reluctant to believe that he was killed, but everything changed overnight.

He rushed to Frandick and said eagerly: "Mr. Hoo, are you wrong? How can she be a vice president!"

There was only one thought in his mind, that Felicity could not be the vice chairman.

She can't be fooled if she fights for death!

Otherwise, she will be trampled under her feet in this life!

Frاندick looked cold and asked Bai Steven, "Are you questioning me and the vision of our Pharmaceutical Association?"

Bai Steven was so frightened, he said quickly: "Don't dare, don't dare."

Frاندick ignored Bai Steven, but handed the appointment letter to Felicity.

Felicity accepted the appointment letter, and his hands were shaking.

Frاندick kindly said to Felicity: "Felicity, you will be a member of our Pharmaceutical Association from now on. I will contact you personally if you have any problems in the future. Of course, if you have something that can't be solved, oh no, what's wrong? If it's inconvenient to solve the problem, just tell me. The old man is in Qingcheng, so he can talk about it."

As he spoke, he deliberately looked at the group of white family members.

The implication cannot be more obvious.

Felicity knew that Frاندick was asking him whether he should help clean up this group of people today.

But now, the matter has been almost resolved by William, she quickly said: "My family's affairs, I will worry about you personally. If there are things in the future, I will ask you again."

Frاندick nodded, and said to William: "Then there is nothing wrong, I will leave first."

William smiled, "Thank you."

Frاندick led people and hurriedly left the Bai family.

After all, after the general meeting, there are still many details to be handled by Frاندick himself.

After they left, the Bai family stared at the appointment letter in Felicity's hands one by one, with fire in their eyes.

Felicity really changed, and rode on top of the Bai family!

Although he was the Patriarch of the Bai family before, it was still useless to speak in the Bai family.

Now, when she speaks, the Bai family dare not follow?

Yasmine's complexion was extremely complicated, and he never thought that such a big event would happen today.

Felicity said to everyone present at this time: "You can go now, William and I have nothing to do with you."

Everyone woke up in a spirited spirit.

Yasmine stepped over and said to Felicity: "Felicity, we were wrong before, can we take a long-term view on this matter? You are now the vice president of the Pharmaceutical Association. This is the glory of our family."

At this time, all she was thinking about was Felicity now that she had soared into the sky.

The Bai family must firmly hold Felicity in his hands, and can't let this golden phoenix fly away from the Bai family's den.

This time, the loss of the Bai family has been great.

But at the moment Felicity glanced at William, and said coldly to them, "It's you who are unkind first, haha, you are the first to be stubborn and respectful, is this the style of your Bai family? You don't leave, no wonder The first thing I did when I became the vice president was to sanction you!"

As soon as these words came out, Yasmine's face changed again!

Today's Felicity is surprisingly determined!

"Felicity! Don't you want to be a white-eyed wolf! The Bai family has raised you for more than 20 years, and finally cultivated you into a talent! But at this time, you want to kick our Bai family away! Yours Has your conscience been eaten by a dog!" Yasmine couldn't help it anymore and scolded loudly.

Felicity showed a fierce stern on her face, "Okay, then according to what you said, Bai-eyed wolf, today I am decided by Felicity! Get out!"

In one word, everyone was embarrassed by the curse.

One by one, they were full of fire in their hearts, but they were afraid of the power of Felicity at the moment, and they could only hold back.

At this time, there was noise from outside again, and a group of people in uniform walked in and said: "Someone called the police just now, saying that someone in your Bai family forged a real estate certificate to deceive people?"

Before everyone could react, Felicity pointed at Bai Steven, "It's him."

Bai Steven was so frightened that he quickly threw the real estate certificate aside, his face completely pale.

But it was too late.

The group picked up the real estate certificate and said, "Is this the evidence? Come with us."

The Bai family fried the pot all of a sudden, all of them were crying, and wanted to beg Felicity.

But Felicity pulled William's hand and returned to her room unfeelingly.

Behind him came scolding, pleading, and crying.

As the door closed, Felicity's tough aura swept away, and her whole body fell limp in William's arms.

William looked at her with bitterness all over his face.

Felicity couldn't help it anymore, and in William's arms, she cried loudly.

William knew that Felicity had done everything today to prevent herself from being humiliated by the Bai family.

A home that has stayed for 20 years, if you say it is broken, it is really a big blow to Felicity.

However, there is no alternative.

This is the only way for Felicity to grow.

William didn't say comforting words, just holding Felicity and touching her hair.

I don't know how long it took before Felicity wiped away the tears and smiled softly at William.

"William, you are the only person in the world for the rest of my life..."

@vamp20w0rld

Chapter 291

After William heard this, he was deeply moved.

He rubbed Felicity's head, and said gently: "Well, depend on each other for life, never leave. I'll cook for you."

Felicity looked at William's back, then looked at the appointment letter on the bed, and the real estate certificate, her eyes were crazy.

While eating, William's phone rang.

Seeing the serial number, William frowned slightly, left the table, and answered the phone.

"Brother Tigger?" William said.

However, on the other end of the phone, it was not Brother Tigger's hearty voice.

It was a somewhat cold female voice.

"Who are you?" the woman asked William.

There was a faint feeling in William's heart, "Who are you again?"

"I'm Liu Xiangye, Liu Tigger's daughter. My dad had an accident. He told me this number before he passed out and asked me to call you." The woman said.

Liu Tigger's daughter?

William was taken aback for a moment, and immediately asked, "What's wrong with Brother Tigger? Where are you guys?"

Liu Xiangye's tone seemed a little impatient, but he still said: "In my dad's company Hushan Security Company."

"I'll be there right away." William finished speaking and hung up the phone.

On the phone, Liu Xiangye seemed to want to say something, but William didn't hear it.

William walked back to the table and said sorry to Felicity: "Felicity, I have something to go out. You can eat first."

Felicity nodded obediently, "Well, I'll go to sleep after eating. You must be safe when you go out."

William nodded, and drove to Hushan Security Company.

At the moment, at the security company, two people are standing in front of the office window on the top floor.

A beautiful woman with a nice body and a cold face holds a mobile phone in her hand.

She looks very young at her age, but she has a world-weary temperament.

She is the woman who called William just now, Liu Xiangye.

After Liu Xiangye hung up the phone, she frowned.

Next to her stood a young man in a suit, leather shoes and gold glasses.

His name is Sun Meilin, a suitor of Liu Xiangye.

Sun Meilin asked Liu Xiangye, "Xiangye, who are you calling? Why did your dad ask you to call this person?"

Liu Xiangye shook his head, and said coldly: "I don't know who he is, but my dad has explained, I can only make this call."

Sun Meilin said with a look of concern: "Why didn't your dad let us take him to the hospital? Why do we have to call this person?"

Liu Xiangye shook his head and said: "My father's identity, this injury, definitely can't be sent to the hospital, wait for that person to come first, this is my father's order."

Sun Meilin nodded helplessly, and said, "Let's prepare with both hands. My dad knows some famous doctors in Qingcheng. I will ask my dad to inquire and see if I can bring a doctor over."

Liu Xiangye said lukewarmly: "Thank you, then."

Sun Meilin called on the side.

Not long after, William came to Liu Tigger's office.

As the door opened, William saw a man and a woman standing in front of him.

Liu Xiangye looked at William in front of him, frowning on the spot.

She thought that the person her father asked her to call must be a unique person.

Maybe they can solve their urgent needs.

But I didn't expect that the person who came was so young?

Similar to yourself?

Such a person, maybe it hasn't been a few years since they just came out of society, right?

How can he help?

Liu Xiangye and Sun Meilin looked at each other, their eyes were disappointed.

Because Liu Xiangye was spoiled by his father since he was a child, he has developed an arrogant look.

As long as she looks down on people, she will never treat each other with courtesy.

Because of loss of identity.

She looked at William with a cold tone, "Are you the person my father called?"

William nodded and said, "My name is..."

However, before finishing speaking, Liu

Xiangye interrupted, "I don't need to know who you are? I just made this call at my father's order. Now you can go."

Liu Xiangye's tone made William feel a little bored.

But after all, William owed Liu Tigger a favor. He held back the displeasure and said, "Where is your father? How was the injury? Isn't it serious? I'll check it out."

After a few questions, Liu Xiangye became even more impatient. She pointed her finger at a lounge next to the office and said, "It's inside, but I shouldn't die."

This indifferent tone, this indifferent attitude towards his father's life and death, made William even more unhappy.

"Why don't you go in and look at him?" William asked in a deep voice.

If Liu Tigger is injured and the wound is bleeding, he will lose too much blood at any time.

His daughter actually stood outside, not looking at her father.

No wonder Liu Tigger complained to himself that his daughter made him very big.

The father-daughter relationship seems very ordinary.

Liu Xiangye was completely irritated by the question, and her tone was not polite, "What right do you have to say about me here! Since you are my father's friend, I will let you go in and take a look, and then leave me after you read it. It's annoying before my eyes!"

William didn't bother to care about her, so he went into the lounge.

In the lounge, he saw Liu Tigger lying unconscious on the bed covered in blood.

He hurried over and carefully checked Liu Tigger's injuries.

I saw several criss-cross knife wounds on his body, and the blood in the wounds gradually solidified.

However, this is not a solution.

William thought about it, and suddenly noticed that Liu Tigger's eyebrows were dark, and he felt like he was going to heal Liu Tigger.

But at this time, the Sun Meilin who was behind William stepped forward and tightly grasped William's hand.

He cursed, "What do you want to do! What do you want to do to my uncle!"

This curse caused Liu Xiangye's alarm outside, and she immediately asked, "What happened?"

Sun Meilin immediately said that this kid wanted to move Liu Tigger.

Liu Xiangye outside said coldly: "Pick him out."

Sun Meilin couldn't help but push William out.

Outside, Liu Xiangye's eyebrows were worried and uneasy, but also a little helpless.

Seeing William, this emotion instantly turned into a cold stern, "After reading it, you can go."

William's tone also cooled, "Your father bleeds too much, and if he is not treated for him, he will not be able to last for an hour."

Liu Xiangye's expression stiffened involuntarily when he heard William's words about blood, but he immediately recovered his calm and said, "I know. Sun Meilin has already asked a famous doctor."

Sun Meilin's phone rang at the right time, and he immediately answered it.

Half a minute later, he said to Liu Xiangye with a look of joy: "Xiangye, I have heard that my father is more familiar with the old genius He Jifeng at the Genuine Care Medical Center. Just now, He told my father that he was injured by the knife. Sword poison is not very sure, and then He Lao recommended us a genius doctor named William!"

Chapter 292

William?

With this name, William and Liu Xiangye raised their heads and looked at Sun Meilin at the same time.

Even William himself didn't expect that the old man He Jifeng would sell himself.

Liu Xiangye frowned, "William? Why haven't I heard of such a genius doctor before, but I have vaguely heard that there is a waste son-in-law named Lu in the Bai family."

Sun Meilin could not say anything at once.

But at this time, Liu Xiangye continued: "But since it was recommended by an old expert like He Jifeng, it means that this genius doctor William should have more profound skills than He Jifeng."

Sun Meilin hurriedly flattered, "Xiang Ye made sense."

Liu Xiangye showed a wry smile, "It's just that, can we get this kind of famous doctor who is more powerful than He Jifeng? Sun Meilin, otherwise we will try to find a better doctor. After all, time will not wait. people."

Sun Meilin suddenly showed a sly gleam at this time. He suddenly smiled and said to Liu Xiangye: "Xiangye, our uncle's identity, and his injuries, how can I get an ordinary doctor to come? You don't know, I just happen to know that genius doctor William, he is the grandfather of my good brother."

William was taken aback, looking at this Sun Meilin amusedly?

He knows me? Am I still the grandfather of his good brother?

Then how old should I be.

But Liu Xiangye was overjoyed and looked at Sun Meilin in surprise, "Really! Do you know the genius doctor William?"

Sun Meilin said with a smile, "Of course, he is an invisible old genius doctor. Most people seldom hear his name. It's a bit difficult to get him out of the mountain."

In Sun Meilin's expectant eyes, Liu Xiangye really pleaded, "Meilin, can you figure out a way..."

This is what Sun Meilin waited for, "Let me try, I can only spare my dignity, and I have to ask the genius doctor William to save our uncle."

Liu Xiangye's face was moved, and she was a little choked in the cold, "Thank you Merlin, I really don't know how to thank you."

"I'll go out and make a call." Sun Meilin said again.

However, when he was about to go out, he found that William was still in the room.

He immediately became unhappy, and said for Liu Xiangye: "Why are you still not leaving!"

It was impossible for William to leave. Now that he heard Sun Meilin say that he knew him, he already knew he was going to do something, so he wouldn't leave.

He casually found a reason and said: "I have a major news to tell Brother Tigger. I must wait for him to wake up."

"Important news? Is it about Xiangdeng Village? Or is it about Sirius?" Liu Xiangye asked William immediately.

William smiled without saying a word, pretending to be profound.

However, he was thinking of the two words Liu Xiangye said just now.

Incense Lantern Village.

Sirius.

It seems that Brother Tigger was injured this time because of these two words.

"If you don't tell me, don't tell me, then you wait and don't be an eyesore here. In addition, I seriously warn you that if you dare to move my dad, I will kill you on the spot!" Liu Xiangye said, actually He took out a small dagger from his wallet and danced to William in demonstration.

William nodded indifferently, then sat down on the chair beside him, closing his eyes and resting.

Brother Tigger wouldn't be able to die for a while, William needed some time to digest the smell he had just smelled from Brother Tigger, and the blackening of his eyebrows that seemed to be poisoned.

William wanted to know, that Sun Meilin said he knew him, what the hell would he do later?

Sun Meilin watched William sit in the corner and couldn't help but sneered: "Xiang Ye, it seems that this guy is a dogleg of your dad. He is still pretending to be in front of us. Later, your dad will wake up and let your dad rush. Leave him, look at him and be annoying, pretend to show someone a poker face."

Liu Xiangye glanced at William indifferently and nodded, "I also think this kid is getting in the way, I will tell my dad."

"Then I'll go out and call for Doctor Lu." Sun Meilin said and went out.

After going out, he couldn't help but want to laugh.

Sun Meilin is a rich second-generation, and has been struggling to pursue Liu Xiangye recently.

However, Liu Xiangye has an arrogant personality, and behind him is Liu Tigger, a tiger of Qingcheng, as his father.

So Sun Meilin dare not come hard at all.

The soft Liu Xiangye is too cold to eat this set at all.

Today I finally seized the opportunity to show my courtesy.

Haha, what William!

What a doctor of land!

Where does Sun Meilin know this shit?

But Sun Meilin saw Liu Tigger's whole body hurt, and thought that it would be enough to find a good surgical doctor to come and bandage it. Liu Xiangye was making a fuss.

However, this fussing just gave Sun Meilin a chance.

Sun Meilin thought. Later, he would just find an old doctor to come over and replace the unknown so-called William. After he cured Liu Tigger, he would be Liu Xiangye's father's benefactor.

She must not give her arms.

Starting from empiricism, Sun Meilin instinctively believed that the genius doctor He Jifeng could admire must be an old man.

So he immediately called and asked a friend to ask someone to come and help.

Three people waited in the room for less than twenty minutes, and someone knocked on the door.

Sun Meilin knew that the person he had invited was here, and hurriedly stepped up and said: "The old genius doctor is here, I will open the door."

He opened the door and three people walked in.

The current one, black-clothed and white-bearded, with a prisoner's dragon stick in his hand, he really smelled like a stranger in the world.

Behind him, stood two young men in white Tang suits, carrying medicine boxes or something in their hands.

"See me, Mr. Lu, why don't you kneel!" one of the young men shouted majestically.

But he was immediately stopped by the old man, "It's all my own, no."

"Doctor Lu, I didn't expect you to come so soon. I am so grateful. This is Liu Xiangye, my good friend, you must help her." Sun Meilin said exaggeratedly.

The old man squinted at Liu Xiangye and didn't seem to put her in his eyes.

Liu Xiangye saw that this old man was so arrogant, he couldn't help but mutter, he was really an expert, he had a temper.

She hurriedly lowered her eyebrows and said, "Hello, Doctor Lu, please help my dad."

The old man snorted and said to Liu Xiangye: "It's only because of Sun Xiaowa's face that the old man came out. But only this time, next time, Sun Xiaowa, your father will die, the old man will not come out."

These words made Liu Xiangye tears in his eyes.

She said sincerely to Sun Meilin: "Meilin, I didn't expect you to sacrifice so much, I don't know how to thank you anymore."

Sun Meilin was so happy and crazy. He asked the fake William to say these words in order to make Liu Xiangye more grateful.

Now it is true.

Liu Xiangye is about to take the elderly and them to see Liu Tigger in the lounge.

At this time, passing by William.

William didn't move.

The old man looked down.

The young man behind him shouted again: "Who are you! Seeing me, Mr. Lu, dare not to kneel in rudeness!"

@vamp20work

Chapter 293

William raised his head, glanced at the old man slightly, and sneered: "A deceiver who wants me to kneel, are you worthy?"

The sound is not loud, but like thunder!

The old man's face changed instantly, and he couldn't help looking at Sun Meilin.

He was timid.

Sun Meilin's face stiffened slightly, and he immediately returned to its original state, and said aggressively, "Good thief, what a big tone! Dare to be so presumptuous in front of Old Lu!"

The situation was deadlocked all at once.

And Liu Xiangye glanced at William contemptuously, and said to the old man: "Mr. Lu, don't care about him. This guy is just a little brother of my dad and doesn't understand the rules. You see my dad is in danger, can you show him first? Next, in a moment, I will take care of this guy myself and give you a satisfactory explanation."

The old man snorted coldly and walked towards the lounge.

Several people were in the lounge. The old man told people around him not to approach him, then took the medicine box and checked it with Liu Tigger.

This old man was originally a retired surgeon, but he was comfortable with bandaging.

Liu Xiangye hesitated outside for a while before entering the room hesitantly.

As soon as she entered, she saw blood stains all over the bed, and her entire face turned pale.

Cold sweat kept flowing out of her forehead.

William couldn't help feeling amused when she saw her weird look.

It turns out that this arrogant guy is seriously dizzy.

No wonder she didn't always guard her father's side just now.

Liu Xiangye seemed to have prepared, put on a pair of sunglasses, and then asked the old man, "Doctor Lu, my father's injury does not matter, right?"

The old man said casually: "It doesn't matter, ordinary trauma, it's very simple, the old man will just bandage him."

Sun Meilin on the side was secretly proud, it really was a bit of skin trauma, so he still needed a lot of fanfare to find a genius?

It seems that I have done the right thing and found the right person.

After listening to the old man's words, Liu Xiangye's heart relaxed slightly, "Then there will be the genius doctor Lao Lu."

William stood at the back, and did not stop the old man.

Although this old man is just furry kung fu, William can still let him do the trivial matter of dressing up the wound.

The old man took ten minutes to bandage Liu Tigger's whole body, and then put him back on the bed.

He signaled that everyone could leave here.

Several people returned to the office outside, and the old man couldn't help but proudly said: "It's embarrassing to have the old man go out in person for this little problem. Sun Xiaowa, if there is nothing to do in the future, don't call the old man."

Sun Meilin quickly pretended to nodded yes.

Then, the old man looked at William again with an arrogant expression, "Little Wah, why are you laughing at your face? Could it be that you don't agree with the old man's medical skills?"

Everyone looked at William.

William's eyes were clear, but the corners of his mouth rose slightly.

A look of sneer.

Liu Xiangye's brows frowned on the spot, and he said coldly, "What kind of attitude is this! You don't hurry up to apologize to Master Lu! Believe it or not that my dad wakes up, I will let my dad punish you heavily!"

The old man carried his hands on his back, like a grandmaster.

And William smiled, "Your dad wakes up? Then you have to wake up for your dad."

Liu Xiangye's face changed, "What do you mean! Do you dare to curse my dad!"

The old man sneered even more, "Hehe, if an old man takes action, do you still dare to say he can't wake up? The old man bet he will wake up in an hour."

"Oh? Really? Otherwise, go in and take a look at Brother Tigger?" William said with a smile.

Take a look?

What to look at

Liu Xiangye was taken aback.

And Sun Meilin rushed to William in a vigorous step, "What do you mean! Do you dare to doubt the medical skills of God Doctor Lu? Do you know who is God Doctor Lu? Kneel me down!"

"If you want me to kneel, yes, go in and take a look at Brother Tigger." William said casually.

This time Liu Xiangye looked at William suspiciously.

This kid, from the very beginning, looked like Taishan collapsed and his face didn't change color. Now he is even more vowed, is there really something wrong with it.

She put on her sunglasses and went into the lounge to see her father.

Outside, Sun Meilin said with a sneer: "Boy, you are afraid that you don't know how to write death words at all! This is the master doctor Lu himself..."

However, before he finished speaking, he heard Liu Xiangye scream from inside.

"Dad! What's wrong with you, Dad!"

Then, when everyone saw Liu Xiangye rushing out, grabbing the old man's hand, their expressions became too tense, "Mr. Lu, please go in and see my dad! He looks terrible!"

Everyone was stunned, what happened inside?

The old man also looked inside quickly.

From this look, he had an amazing experience, and was shocked by the scene before him.

I saw that Liu Tigger was still unconscious, but the corner of his mouth was bleeding out!

The blood that came out turned out to be black!

The old man was just a surgeon. He panicked when he saw such a strange picture.

He looked at Sun Meilin helplessly.

Sun Meilin was also shocked by the scene in front of him, but he finally said in a deep voice, "Old Lu, you can see it again."

Where would this old man look.

He was crying without tears.

His previous arrogant aura was wiped out. At the moment of his life, he has become conscientious. "Well, your father's illness, the old man feels nothing, this is normal. The old man still has important things to do, so let's leave first. ."

With that, the old man walked outside, and the prisoner's dragon stick that had not left his body suddenly became unnecessary.

Stride like flying.

When Liu Xiangye saw this scene, he immediately seemed to understand something, and immediately shouted: "You stop me!"

Sun Meilin secretly shouted badly, and Liu Xiangye would find out.

Before Liu Xiangye was concerned and confused, so Sun Meilin was able to let the old man impost, and now the old man can't solve this injury, even more timid on the spot.

Liu Xiangye is not a fool.

And Liu Xiangye had already rushed outside, and happened to see the old man about to grab the door.

But at this time, the old man seemed to be frozen, screamed, his body thumped, and he fell straight at the door.

In this scene, Liu Xiangye was stunned. What happened?

"Sun Meilin, who is this old man! What have you done!" Liu Xiangye saw Sun Meilin and grabbed Sun Meilin by the collar.

Sun Meilin was shocked and was about to quibble.

At this moment, I saw William sneer on the sidelines.

Suddenly he thought, and pointed to William and said, "I know! I know! This kid did all this! Didn't he touch Brother Tigger just now? He must have moved his hands and feet at that time!"

Chapter 294

Liu Xiangye can be regarded as half a person in the world.

When she heard Sun Meilin's words, a cold light flashed in her eyes, and a dagger appeared silently in her hand.

The dagger hit William's neck directly!

"Say! Who are you! Are you a spy from Sirius! Dare to do something to my dad! You are tired of life!" Liu Xiangye shouted with a cold face.

William's dagger was in front, but his face remained unchanged.

He gently squeezed the dagger in one hand, and smiled: "Who am I? Then listen carefully. My name is William."

My name is William.

These four words are like drinking!

Liu Xiangye's entire face changed color!

"You, your name is William? Then he is..." Liu Xiangye couldn't help looking at the old man who fell to the ground.

Sun Meilin's face distorted instantly, how could this be!

How can there be such a coincidence in the world!

This kid is William!

He rushed over in one step, and hit William in the face with a punch, "You dare to talk nonsense to me here, and see if I don't teach you!"

However, William suddenly snatched Liu Xiangye's dagger!

A flash of cold light!

Sun Meilin suddenly wailed like a pig!

I saw that dagger pierced Sun Meilin's entire palm!

The blood, so immortal, shot Liu Xiangye in the face.

Liu Xiangye's face turned pale, and when he rolled his eyes, he went into a coma!

"You! You!" Sun Meilin wanted to attack William with bad words.

But William looked at him with a hint of cruelty in his eyes.

Sun Meilin instantly felt stared by the tiger beast and wanted to retreat, but found that his legs were completely soft.

William snorted, ignoring this kind of clown, turned and headed into the lounge.

Seeing that Liu Tigger was still vomiting blood, he shook his head slightly, took out the silver needle, and helped him heal.

Liu Tigger is poisoned.

It should have been poisoned on the blade that hurt Liu Tigger before.

Fortunately, this was just ordinary poison, and William quickly detoxified it.

After half an hour, Liu Xiangye, who was outside, woke up quietly.

She opened her eyes in a daze, and found that the office was empty.

However, the blood stains all over the floor gave her the urge to coma again.

She resisted the discomfort, remembering her father in her heart, and staggered towards the lounge.

With this probe, her face suddenly changed.

I saw William sitting on Liu Tigger's bedside, closing his eyes and resting.

As if knowing that Liu Xiangye had woke up, William opened his eyes and said, "Your dad is no longer a serious problem. He should wake up soon."

At this moment, Liu Xiangye was completely speechless to the person in front of him.

Before, I thought he was just a little brother of his father.

However, this person is ruthless!

All of a sudden, Sun Meilin's hands were abolished!

Now, he also said that his father was fine.

Did he heal his father just now?

By the way, he also said that he is William.

While she was hesitating, William had already stood up and walked towards her.

At this moment, she no longer had the cold arrogance she had before. Seeing William coming, she instinctively backed away several steps.

She came out with William, and finally couldn't help it, and asked, "What happened just now? What happened to Sun Meilin?"

William said casually: "That old man is a fake, he should be just a general surgeon. It was Sun Meilin who called to impersonate me, so he should be courteous to you."

Liu Xiangye stomped his feet with anger when he heard this, and gritted his teeth and said: "Good, you Sun Meilin! Even I dare to lie! If something really happened to my dad today, I must take his skin off!"

William didn't even bother to discuss this kind of villain.

"By the way, what happened to my dad?" Liu Xiangye asked again.

"Your dad is poisoned, the old man can't tell at all. I will write a prescription later, and you will follow the prescription to grab the medicine." William said again.

Liu Xiangye nodded instinctively.

She looked at William quietly, a bitterness in her heart.

Where did this kid come from?

It always feels magical.

By the way, the father should know the magic of this kid, so he asked himself to call him for help before he fell into a coma.

It's a pity that he looked down on others and spoke coldly to him before.

Fortunately, his adult doesn't remember the villain's past. Otherwise, if there is any accident to his father, it will be completely the evil result of his own hand.

Thinking of this, she resisted and said to William, "Thank you for saving my father."

"I am good friends with your dad, so I will save him naturally. It has nothing to do with you," William said.

This Liu Xiangye was arrogant, and William didn't bother to talk to her.

These words made Liu Xiangye angry.

What kind of temper, this kid!
Isn't it just a little capable!

There are too many genius doctors in the world, I'm really not rare!

In front of me, I was still showing up, I pulled down my face and apologized, you still do!

How old are you!

Liu Xiangye stared at William fiercely, and did not speak any more.

The two were silent for ten minutes, when they heard a cough from inside.

William got up and walked inside.

Liu Xiangye also put on sunglasses and walked in.

Liu Tigger had opened his eyes slightly.

When he saw William, Wushen's eyes burst into light.

But his voice was extremely weak, "William, you really saved my life."

William smiled and said, "I owed you a favor before."

Liu Tigger nodded slightly.

William walked over, helped Liu Tigger up and leaned on the head of the bed.

Liu Tigger saw Liu Xiangye wearing sunglasses, his eyes softened suddenly, "Xiang Ye, you probably know each other too, this is my good brother, William."

Liu Xiangye snorted and did not speak.

Not only dissatisfied with William.

Even more dissatisfied with my father.

Liu Xiangye fainted blood since childhood.

But Liu Tigger has never dealt with blood!

After Liu Xiangye was sensible, she did not know how many times she persuaded her father Jinpen to wash his hands.

But Liu Tigger never listened to her.

Liu Xiangye also planted a seed of hatred in her heart since she was a child.

She felt that her father didn't care about her feelings, or even her daughter.

She looked at Liu Tigger coldly, and after making sure that he was fine, she walked outside coldly.

Liu Tigger smiled bitterly, and said to William: "I'm sorry, every family has a hard-to-read sutra. My daughter has this temper..."

William nodded, indicating that he didn't care.

He felt that although Liu Xiangye was indifferent in appearance, he was even acrimonious.

But when Liu Tigger was really in danger of life, she still cared about it.

Otherwise, he wouldn't be confused just now and be fooled by Sun Meilin.

Leaving her aside, William looked at Liu Tigger, "Brother Tigger, since you told me to take action, then you should have something to tell me."

Liu Tigger looked at William, and finally sighed and asked an inexplicable question, "Do you know Qin Tianlang?"

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 295

William nodded and said, "I heard a little bit. Under Qingcheng, one tiger and one wolf divide the world."

Liu Tigger smiled bitterly, "Where do I start? When I was young, I had a violent personality and a brutal force, almost suppressing Qin Tianlang."

"When I was about to kill Qin Tianlang, the child gave birth to Xiangye, but she died on the spot because of a dystocia."

"That's why I have always owed Xiangye. It was after she was born that my temper gradually reduced, and I made an agreement with Qin Tianlang to divide the city in two ways, so that the water in the well will not be offended by the river."

"In the past few years, Qin Tianlang has not died of ambition and has been growing his strength. In the past two years, he has been faintly eager to move. But he has not been able to find a suitable reason for war."

"A while ago, there was a man named Kaleb who came to my subordinate Klutz. You should remember Klutz."

William nodded, motioning for him to continue.

Liu Tigger sighed, "Klutz has just arrived in Qingcheng after all. I don't know the doorway inside. The rules are broken. It just robbed Sirius' business and gave Sirius a reason to go to war."

"So, for a while, I've been fighting Sirius all the time. My injury was also calculated by the villain Sirius."

After William listened, there was no other expression.

He is not very interested in such disputes.

He suddenly changed the subject and said, "I'm finished talking about Sirius, but there is another thing I am more interested in."

"What's the matter?" Liu Tigger asked.

"Fragrant Lantern Village." William spit out these three words.

Liu Tigger's face changed on the spot, "How did you know Xiangdeng Village!"

William couldn't comment.

He heard the name of this village from Liu Xiangye just now.

This name reminded him of another thing naturally.

Before the General Assembly of the Pharmaceutical Association, the room was full of red lanterns.

That red lantern is interesting.

Seeing that William didn't explain the reason, Liu Tigger shook his head bitterly, "I don't know where you heard it, but since you already know it, I won't hide it from you anymore. Are you free tomorrow?"

William nodded, "Yeah."

"Tomorrow, I will take you to Xiangdeng Village for a tour, before the village is destroyed." Liu Tigger said this, with unspeakable sadness in his eyes.

William made an appointment with him and left Liu Tigger.

When he returned, he knew the final result of the farce of the Bai family from Felicity's mouth.

Before Yasmine went to the bureau, she had been looking for relationships all over the world, but it really made her find a relationship.

Therefore, the Bai family was only fined and educated, and none of them went to jail.

William had already guessed that there would be such a result, and he didn't take it seriously.

Early the next morning, Liu Tigger's car stopped in front of William's house.

After William got in the car, he found that Liu Xiangye was driving.

Liu Xiangye was obviously dissatisfied with

William, and he didn't even say hello.

She didn't shy away from the existence of William, and said to Liu Tigger with an unhappy expression: "Are you really going to take this kid to Xiangdeng Village?"

Liu Tigger said gently: "Well, this is the first time I have taken a guest back in the years since I left the village."

William was taken aback.

It turned out that Liu Tigger came out of this village.

No words all the way, the car drove on the mountain road for five hours.

It was not until noon that I reached a small fork in the road.

The car couldn't get in, so Liu Tigger asked Liu Xiangye to lean the car on the side of the road, and the three of them walked in.

After a while, William smelled a faint fragrance.

This scent is exactly what William smelled on that cinnabar century lamp.

The village should not be far away.

Liu Tigger was obviously timid, with sadness written all over his face.

Three minutes later, a small village appeared in front of William.

Liu Tigger led the way, and William followed.

Walking into the village, William immediately discovered the weirdness of the village.

This village is very small, there are only about a hundred families, and all the houses they live in are thatched huts, and they are shabby.

Bright red lanterns are hung at the entrances of their houses, which are exactly the centennial lanterns of cinnabar.

However, according to common sense, red lanterns are hung at the door, and the surname should be written on the lantern.

But no one wrote the last name.

What's more weird is that there is a coffin under the lantern at the door of every house!

This makes people have goose bumps.

However, Liu Tigger and Liu Xiangye were obviously used to it and turned a blind eye to this.

Liu Tigger seemed to see through William's thoughts and explained faintly: "This village is Xiangdeng Village. The people who live in it are all craftsmen slaves who escaped from a place hundreds of years ago. They have been slaves for generations. It was carved into the bones, so they thought that they did not have the qualifications to have a surname. Even my surname, Liu, was taken after I left the village."

William frowned. The world is so big, there is no wonder, what other craftsmen are there?

But is it really good to live so humbly?

"This coffin is what they prepared for themselves. They are a group of people who have nothing to do with the world." Liu Tigger sighed.

At this time, a gray-haired old man with white hair and a skinny body appeared in front of him.

Liu Tigger hurriedly stepped forward, helped out the old man, and exclaimed gently: "The village chief, why did you come out yourself?"

The village chief was shaking his hands and feet so badly. At this age, he should be ninety one hundred.

The village head smiled kindly, but he said something that made William sluggish, "Brother comes back, and when the brother comes back, it's natural to meet him personally."

Little brother? brother?

What is this generation?

Liu Tigger asked Xiang Ye to help the village chief, and then walked side by side with William.

Seeing William's doubts on his face, Liu Tigger explained in a low voice, "This is my brother who grew up playing with him. Don't look at him like a seven-year-old man. In fact, he is only fifty years old."

Fifty years old!

William's whole body is not good.

Fifty years old looks like a hundred years old?

What is going on in this village!

Liu Tigger said bitterly: "Don't look at him at fifty years old, but in this village at fifty years old, it is a miracle of longevity. The people here, logically speaking, will not live to be forty years old..."

William was shocked!

"Go in first, you'll know later." Liu Tigger said.

When I entered the village, the village was very peaceful.

Many people weave lanterns while basking in the sun.

It's just that these people made William's hair terrified.

All of them were skinny, with sunken eyes, as if they were born with malnutrition.

But when they saw the outsider William, they all smiled kindly.

"I know you still have a lot of questions in your heart, stay and join in tonight's Eternal Life Festival, you will know everything." Liu Tigger suddenly said to William.

Chapter 296

"Eternal Life?" William was taken aback.

Liu Tigger did not explain too much, but led William to the village chief's house.

The village chief's house is still in the innermost part of the village, and it is still a thatched hut with some simple furnishings.

However, William saw something weird.

It was a transparent jar with a red, almost viscous liquid in it.

The liquid wafted a strong fragrance of blood.

Liu Tigger walked to William and stared at the jar and said, "Every household has this jar. I know you are good at medicine, and I don't want to lie to you about what kind of cinnabar water is. You guessed it right, it's human blood."

"Every family uses this blood to make lanterns and then sell the lanterns to make a living. This is the fate of Xiangdeng Village." Liu Tigger patted William on the shoulder and turned to chat with the village chief.

And Liu Xiangye had already ran out to play with the playmates he knew.

Until the dusk fell, Liu Tigger called William outside.

When William went out, he saw a strange red light in front of him.

The lanterns at the entrances of every house are already lit, and the fragrance is overflowing, and being in it, it is like a fairyland, floating in the sky.

William followed Liu Tigger to an empty square where a raging bonfire had already been lit.

About two to three hundred people were sitting around the campfire, chatting, dancing and dancing.

It was just these people that William looked terrified. They were all skinny and couldn't find anyone who weighed more than a hundred catties.

At this time, a misty song suddenly rang in everyone's ears from far and near.

"Ah mile... Ah mile..."

"Holding your hand in the breeze, kissing your face in the drizzle..."

"Here is the bridge and the flowing water filled with flowers and snow..."

"In the legend, you and I will never be separated, in the singing, you and I love to death..."

"The Jade Dragon, the Third Kingdom, flying in the wind and strolling in the sea of clouds..."

"Oh... I love you until the jade dragon flies to the sky..."

"Oh... I love me, it stops flowing when I love Lishui..."

"Trust me, follow me, I will let the snow lotus on the mountain drive for you..."

"Let's fly, let's float, we are in the third country of Yulong..."

With the sound of this ethereal singing, the faces of the villagers in Xiangdeng Village were suddenly filled with sadness and joy.

It's like a pair of lovers knowing that they are about to live and die together.

They stood up one by one, gathered around the bonfire, and danced.

The singer slowly walked over.

It was actually Liu Xiangye.

A few young girls followed Liu Xiangye.

They sang songs and joined the dancing team.

At the scene, everyone spoke and sang this folk song that sounded very graceful but a little sad.

William thought about the lyrics of this folk song, but he was a little silly for a while.

Liu Tigger's eyes were red when he heard it, and he took a sip of wine and said to William: "This song is called "The Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon". It is the hometown that this group of people can never go back to. They are the only one to their hometown. Think about it, it's only in this song."

"This is a martyrdom song. The third kingdom of the jade dragon sung in the song is the legendary holy land of martyrdom..."

When Liu Tigger said this, he couldn't say it anymore.

And William looked at these people who were singing and laughing but with sad faces, and somewhat understood the reason for their sorrow and joy.

The sad thing is the avenue of life and death.

The joy is that we went to Huangquan together and saw eternity in a blink of an eye.

"I'll take you to a place." Liu Tigger suddenly got up and said to William.

The two of them carried a cinnabar lamp, one foot deep and one shallow foot, to the bulging hill behind the village chief's house.

When he arrived on the hill, William suddenly felt like stepping into the peach blossom field!

Is this hell?

I saw a big pond with a diameter of five meters on this mountain bag. Blood was gurgling in the pond!

The temperature of the blood water seemed to be very high, forming a wisp of blood gas, which kept lingering in the midair of this mountain bag.

The smell of blood here is even worse, making the blood churn in the body!

"You see, this place is the holy land that the villagers have guarded for generations. We call it the Immortal Pond." Liu Tigger sat down on the edge of the pond and took out the wine he had prepared.

William stared at this blood pool blankly, and his heart was shocked.

"The villagers have been craftsmen for generations. Their ancestral training and the only craft is to make cinnabar lamps for centuries. Oh no, it should be called Xiangxue Centennial Lamps. And the layer of lacquer on the outside of the lantern is used in this pond. The fragrant blood is stained red and will not change color for a hundred years.

"This pool is natural, and there is geothermal underneath. People in this village, from one to eighteen years old, join the ranks of blood sacrifice, two a day, to keep the blood in the pool indestructible, and then add some secret spices. The medicinal materials form this immortal water."

"People outside will only find it very fragrant and exciting when they smell it, but the people in the village are already immune to this smell."

"It's this group of poor people. They are the people who accompany their blood all day long, but they are also the most bloodless people in the world." Liu Tigger said this, his voice choked again.

William was deeply shocked by these last words.

Some of the doubts in his heart gradually resolved.

Why is there the smell of blood in the Fragrant Blood Centennial Lamp?

Why are the people here, all skinny and short-lived?

It's all because of this pond and the thousand-year ancestral instruction.

In the long run, the blood sacrifice, the body has completely collapsed.

This damn immortal pond, damn immortal water!

William couldn't help feeling a trace of compassion and anger in his heart.

"Qin Tianlang already knows about this place, and he has written the battle book. Three days later, he will bring people to fight against Xiangdeng Village. I promised." Liu Tigger said again.

Three days later? William's heart shrank.

"Xiangdeng Village is my first pure land of bliss and my last destiny. I have no regrets." In Liu Tigger's words, there was a sense of relief.

"Is it worth it?" William asked suddenly.

Liu Tigger's eyes flashed, and suddenly he looked at William fiercely.

But this was fierce, steamed by blood, and became sad again. He suddenly asked William, "William, you are a smart man. I have a question that I want to ask you all the time. There are many ways to live in life, but after all, it is vulgar. People have many choices, but in the end they can only embrace the ordinary. There are great immortality and small immortality in the human world. The big immortality is praised by the world, while the small immortality is just to protect the lover, even if it is defeated. You are proud. Which one would you choose?"

William choked for a while, but he didn't know how to answer Liu Tigger's question.

And Liu Tigger smiled bitterly, and suddenly finished the last drink, stood up and turned his back to William, "This Eternal Life Festival is exactly three days. I will accompany these poor people to live forever."

"I will let Xiangye send you down the mountain."

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 297

William was about to speak.

Liu Tigger suddenly turned around, his eyes became unfamiliar, "William, this is my fate with this village, it's none of your business. The people in the village are tired, and I am tired."

From these words of Liu Tigger, William heard a lot of fatigue and relief.

What a Liu Tigger.

What a Lantern Village.

They wanted to use this catastrophe three days later, completely but the village's sad fate.

To die, to live forever.

William sighed without speaking.

He carried Liu Tigger's lantern and walked slowly towards the hillside.

Behind it, Liu Tigger murmured to himself, "What can I choose? Only small immortality."

Sharon seemed to know that William would come, she had already guarded the hillside.

"Let's go." Sharon said to William coldly.

William did not answer either, but followed Sharon's back.

In front of him, there was a light of three feet illuminated by a small lantern.

Behind him is a sea of bitter world illuminated by a bonfire and a century-old lamp.

The song of "The Third Kingdom of Jade Dragon" is still floating, sad and happy.

When the two came to the parking place, Sharon got into the car and started it soon.

William sat in, but Sharon did not drive.

She turned her back to William, not knowing what she was thinking.

It was not until three minutes later that Sharon turned off the car suddenly, and threw the key directly into William's arms, "Go down the mountain yourself."

Looking at Sharon's unpredictable eyes, William seemed to understand something.

However, Sharon meant that there was no silver three hundred taels here, and said with a sneer: "Don't think that I stayed for my dad, he is in my heart, nothing. I stayed, there are some things that have not been done yet. ."

"This village has nothing to do with you, and it's not like a small person like you can get in. Get out."

After Sharon finished speaking, he handed the small lantern to William, but he took the phone to illuminate Xiao Xiaoguang and returned to the village.

William sat in the driver's seat, took a deep breath, and shook his head.

My heart was depressed.

At this moment, in a club in Qena City.

A thin middle-aged man with a numb face was holding a cigar in his mouth, listening and reporting to work.

This person is Sirius from Qena City!

After Sirius listened to the report, his eyes flickered, "Hehe, you mean, Liu Tigger has gone to that village?"

The man nodded.

"And not even one of his men?" He asked again.

The subordinate nodded again.

"It seems that the village is indeed Liu Tigger's weakness! Hahaha! This shameless pen, people in the rivers and lakes actually left a weakness for themselves. However, in order to prevent that guy from plotting, we will bring more people when that time comes. Go up, yes, that thing, you guys also go to prepare." Sirius said.

The pupils shrank, "Brother Sirius, you mean, that thing..."

"Well, I'm going to die anyway, I'll decide how to die." Sirius said with a grim smile.

Qena City has been silent for too long, but in my hands, it is lively.

Three days passed in a blink of an eye.

At this evening, in the square of Lantern Village.

The bonfire that had been burning for three consecutive days was still burning.

But the fire was much smaller, and there was a feeling of exhaustion.

The villagers surrounded the bonfire one by one and continued to sing and dance, without any panic of going to death.

They all went through the most elaborate dressing and dressing tonight.

The men put on the clothes they had just sewn, and the women put on crude hair accessories.

Liu Tigger drank the wine, his whole body was slightly drunk.

At this time, suddenly the ground trembled.

Liu Tigger opened his eyes, and twenty or thirty people walked towards Liu Tigger.

Seeing the visitor clearly, Liu Tigger's face suddenly showed anger.

Here comes his subordinates, Leon and Klutz!

Leon is okay, but Klutz is directly naked, back, and carrying thorns!

Liu Tigger shouted: "Did I let you over!"

Leon's face froze.

However, Klutz knelt in front of Liu Tigger, his voice choked, "Brother Tigger! Today, all of this is my fault! I read less, only remember one idiom, bear Jing please sin, today, I I didn't come to fight Sirius, I just came here to redeem my conscience!"

The people behind him all knelt in front of Liu Tigger.

"Brother Tigger, you treat us like a mountain, we cannot live with you, we will die with you today!"

"We have already explained the family affairs."

"If it's Brother Tigger, you doubt that you want to drive us away, then I'm sorry. Today we--"

"Draw a line with you! In this way, you can't control us!"

These people are Liu Tigger's most loyal subordinates!

Rao was begging for death in Liu Tigger's heart. Seeing them kneeling on the ground one by one, his eyes were red.

His steps moved, and finally he helped them one by one.

He ordered the number, there were twenty-five people in total.

These twenty-five people, what use can they come here?

It just gave Sirius's butcher knife a little blood.

However, Liu Tigger could no longer say to drive them away.

He and those people sat back in front of the campfire again.

The bonfire is about to go out.

"Brother Tigger, when we receive the call, Sirius's people will come over soon. And they destroyed the stone bridge that entered the village, and no one can come in again." Leon said to Liu Tigger.

Liu Tigger nodded, patted his shoulder, and said, "I was ready to die today, you guys, let me owe you guys, give me a drink!"

With that, he took up the wine in his hand!

Those people, all drink together, higher than their foreheads!

"May the next life be a brother!" Liu Tigger shouted!

"May the next life be brothers!" the people shouted together.

After drinking the wine, the jar fell to the ground!

"Ping Pong Pong", like a war song!

After Leon and Klutz finished drinking, they led the people and walked toward that path!

That is the only way into the village.

There is the first pass to be held tonight!

It is also their grave in this life!

But Liu Tigger didn't stop him, he looked at the villagers in front of him.

They are still singing and dancing, seemingly not caring about the arrival of these people.

The peace of liberation hung on everyone's face.

Only Sharon beside her was indifferent, but her eyes were red.

Liu Tigger looked at her, feeling guilty.

She shouldn't be here tonight.

Here is the blood she fears most in this life.

Thinking of this, Liu Tigger gave a wry smile and took out a black cloth from his pocket.

Sharon was about to speak, but Liu Tigger stopped him.

"Don't move, listen carefully to Dad's last words." Liu Tigger said gently, and then gently covered Sharon's eyes with the black cloth in his hand.

"Sorry, my father has countless enemies. It's not that I don't want to put down the butcher knife. Dad doesn't put the butcher knife. It is Dad who bleeds. But if he puts down the butcher knife, he bleeds..."

"It might be you."

"Sorry....."

Chapter 298

Sharon under the black cloth burst into tears.

Tears wet the black cloth.

But it made Sharon feel that at this moment in this life, by his father's side, he was particularly at ease.

She doesn't understand reason.

When she decided to stay with her father, the disparity between father and daughter had long been ignored by her.

What else is warmer than Dad's last sentence.

She wanted to say something, but heard Liu Tigger's footsteps.

he left.

Not far away, there have been waves of soldiers meeting each other.

There was a lot of laughter, there was a roar.

The enemy has come.

Sitting cross-legged on the ground, Sharon suddenly unconsciously sang the song "The Third Kingdom of Jade Dragon", which was passed down from generation to generation.

"Ah mile... Ah mile..."

"Holding your hand in the breeze, kissing your face in the drizzle..."

"Here is the bridge and the flowing water filled with flowers and snow..."

"In the legend, you and I will never be separated, in the singing, you and I love to death..."

"Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon, flying in the wind and strolling in the sea of clouds..."

"Oh... I love you until the jade dragon flies to the sky..."

"Oh... I love me, it stops flowing when I love Lishui..."

"Trust me, follow me, I will let the snow lotus on the mountain drive for you..."

"Let's fly, let's float, we are in the Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon..."

The more you sing, the more tears flow.

It seems that she and her father are just a pair of butterflies going to death.

As long as I can hold my father's hand in the troubled times, what is there to be afraid of...

The people around listened to Sharon's song, and sang along one by one.

Outside, there was the sound of fighting, and it was bloody.

Here is the sound of singing and dancing.

It seems that two worlds do not interfere with each other.

This time, "The Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon" is like two butterflies experiencing the moment of death.

Endless sorrow, endless sadness.

There is a yearning for eternal life, and a nostalgia for this life.

After the singing was finished, there were still a few flames dying from the campfire.

Someone slowly left the campfire and walked towards the house.

They did not enter the house.

But he pushed open the simple lid of the coffin at the door of the house, without saying a word, he glanced at the world for the last time, and lay quietly in the coffin.

Serenely waiting for death and relief.

Every time the folk song is sung, someone quietly leaves and lies quietly in the coffin.

Although Sharon was blindfolded, he seemed to know what had happened.

Tears flowed down again, and she suddenly discovered whether this would be too cruel to these people.

At this time, a calloused hand was placed on her head.

A pitiful voice rang, "Sharon, don't blame your father. All of us don't blame him, but thank him very much."

"We are all tired. Even the village head of me is fed up with such shackles."

After the village chief said this sentence, he faltered and left.

"Let's fly, let's float, we are in the Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon..."

The singing has stayed on this sentence, repeated, repeated.

Until gradually disappeared.

The surroundings are terribly quiet.

Only the roar and fighting sound not far away can be heard.

Dou Da's tears slid down Sharon's cheeks.

And on that trail.

Liu Tigger watched his brothers fall in front of him one by one, his eyes cracked!

They died without saying a word.

They even smiled, thanking Liu Tigger for his kindness.

Is such a death really worth it!

Liu Tigger only felt the blood and energy in his heart, but he couldn't use his power.

The wound on his body cracked and blood came out again.

Sirius stood not far away, laughing arrogantly.

This trip, I did not expect it to be so smooth.

This Liu Tigger is a paper tiger who pulled his teeth at all!

Finally, in front of Liu Tigger, only one subordinate was left.

Klutz.

This person who came with the heart of redemption, but at this moment, burst out with immense bravery.

He held a machete, as if completely mad, slashing left and right.

However, Sirius brought hundreds of people with him, and after just a while, there are still sixty to seventy people left.

Liu Tigger watched Klutz humiliate him in a single blow!

In the end, Sirius took the sword and slashed it.

Blood shot!

Klutz suddenly looked up to the sky and laughed.

He turned around and walked slowly towards Liu Tigger.

He suddenly knelt heavily in front of Liu Tigger.

"Brother Tigger, in this case, I am not guilty..." Klutz grinned and said this sentence.

As if waiting for a pardon from Liu Tigger.

Liu Tigger, a seven-foot man, also shed blood and tears!

He nodded heavily.

Klutz squeezed the last smile, and fell on this ground forever with a click of his body!

Around him, Sirius's subordinates laughed wildly.

Liu Tigger kept moving back.

A heart that originally wanted to die, at this moment, suddenly there was a slight looseness.

Revenge!

However, this thought of revenge disappeared in an instant.

How to get revenge?

There are fifty or sixty enemies.

And myself, alone.

The people in the village, humbled to their bones, even with a knife on their necks, they dare not resist.

Outside the village, the stone bridge has collapsed.

No one will come to support yourself.

Is this my fate?

Liu Tigger gave a wry smile.

At the beginning, shouldn't you be ready to die?

That's all right.

He kept backing, only to find that there was no way to go back.

Behind him is the bonfire.

There was only one person behind him.

Sharon.

Covered with black cloth, Sharon sang "The Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon" over and over again, as if to vent his anger.

It also seems to be doing the last time for the villagers who have already been lying in the coffin and waiting to die.

Liu Tigger sighed and sat beside Sharon, holding Sharon tightly in his arms.

With this hug, the singing stopped.

Yes, only a soft sob sound.

"Hahaha! Are all the people in this village dead? Why are there no one!" Sirius stood in the front, laughing arrogantly.

Liu Tigger did not speak, but slowly closed his eyes.

Lantern Village is cut off today.

Break away, a big dream in a century.

"The Tiger of Qena City turned into a dog who didn't know how to resist. It's really boring. Forget it, I don't want to play with you anymore, let's do it." Sirius shook his head, but turned to Go back.

The overall situation is set.

A knife has already gone towards Liu Tigger.

Sharon's heart, at the moment of life and death, actually slowly calmed down.

She opened her mouth, wanting to sing the song of martyrdom again.

But I found that my throat was completely stuck, and I couldn't make a sound.

And at this moment, it was like a hallucination.

Not far away, the small road full of corpses suddenly lit up with a little jumping red light.

A misty and melancholy song came.

"Holding your hand in the breeze, kissing your face in the drizzle..."

Chapter 299

Sirius and others turned their heads together in an instant, looking at the road to death!

On that road, a red dot was flickering faintly.

There was a corpse there, and the red dots were beating, which looked strange.

And I don't know when it will start, it is starting to fog up here.

In a cloud of confusion, it seems that something is coming.

Everyone got goose bumps all over.

Is this a ghost?

"Here is the bridge and the flowing water filled with flowers and snow..."

"In the legend, you and I will never be separated, in the singing, you and I love to death..."

"Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon, flying in the wind and strolling in the sea of clouds..."

The singing was still singing, and it seemed very desolate.

Sirius couldn't help it anymore, and shouted loudly: "Who! Who is there to pretend to be a ghost! Come out for me!"

There was no answer.

However, the red light can see more clearly.

In the mist, a figure also faintly appeared.

The figure broke through the fog and walked out slowly.

I saw a man, holding a red lantern in his hand, slowly walking on this lifeless land.

The singing came from his mouth.

Before the villagers sang this song, there was always a bitterness and loneliness.

However, the song in his mouth seemed particularly tragic and desolate.

Like a samurai at sunset, going to death alone.

But Liu Tigger was stupid when he saw the person who came.

It's William!

This lone lantern bearer turned out to be William who should have left here three days ago!

Hasn't the stone bridge been destroyed?

How did he appear here!

Sharon couldn't help pulling down the black cloth. After seeing that it was William, his head was in a trance.

Did he come here to die?

Obviously he is just a humble little person, but he still wants to show off some prestige here!

"Who are you!" Sirius shouted at William.

William's footsteps stopped, he did not answer Sirius's words.

But his eyes were on Liu Tigger's body.

"Brother Tigger, do you remember the question you asked me three days ago?" William asked suddenly.

Liu Tigger was startled.

I heard William continue to say: "You ask me, in life, should I choose the great immortality or the small immortality. At that time I was asked by you."

"I was outside, spent three days, finally figured out the answer, so I will come over and tell you."

Liu Tigger was going to be pissed off by William!

What answers are you thinking about at this time!

Moreover, thinking of it, I stupidly came over and told me why!

See you, are you all from Sirius at the scene!

However, William seemed to mutter to himself: "Since my grandfather passed away, I feel lost in the direction of life."

"Your question, wake me up."

"If I, William, have the world in mind."

"Then you Liu Tigger is my world's son, this Lantern Village is my world's next village, does it have nothing to do with me?"

"I want future generations, and bravery will have me!"

"I want future generations, saying that I must be a male!"

"I choose--"

"Great immortality!"

After William finished speaking, the scene was deadly silent.

Liu Tigger's eyes suddenly turned red.

He didn't know why William made such a choice.

However, this choice does not mean that William wants to coexist and die with himself and Lantern Village today!

This fool!

Thanks to his unparalleled wisdom!

Thanks to his resourcefulness!

It's a complete fool!

Sirius felt completely confused when he heard these words.

He stared at the man who dared to come by himself, and touched the beard of his chin.

There was a fierce look in his eyes.

"It turns out that I wanted to be a hero. Okay, I will make you perfect! Give it to me and chop him into meat sauce!" Sirius has always been a cruel master.

Sirius's men, Qi Qi rushed towards William.

And William put the lantern on the ground casually, his hands, he didn't know when, he had already tied a thick bandage.

And on the bandage, a touch of cold light can be seen under the moonlight!

I saw that the bandage was filled with Needles of Ruby Flower.

This is William's weapon!

Seeing William alone, rushing towards the other dozens of people, without fear, even Sharon, who had been looking at him upset, his heart convulsed fiercely at this time.

"Dad, who is he?" Sharon couldn't help asking.

Liu Tigger's eyes were fixed on William who was fighting alone, his voice choked.

"If he does not die tonight, he is my master!"

Sharon stared at Liu Tigger in disbelief, "Dad, you mean, he alone can treat these people..."

Liu Tigger said with a wry smile: "I don't know, just let us see how many miracles he can create."

William was already at war with those people.

Without a knife, the heart is cruel than a knife!

Without a sword, the eyes are as sharp as a sword!

He slammed a punch, and his fist slashed across a person's neck!

The Needles of Ruby Flower wrapped tightly in his fist cut that person's throat directly.

The man didn't even have time to yell and fell straight.

However, one person fell, and there were successors.

These people, in this blood-scented land, have long been exaggerated so much that life and death are no longer in their minds.

After William contacted and killed ten people, he couldn't help but gasped.

He looked at these people bitterly.

It's too much.

If there are more than twenty people, William still has the confidence to fight.

However, six to seventy people long ago exceeded the limit that William could bear.

Although he has been studying "The Scripture of Tranquility", the second chapter is just to stimulate the body's potential.

His body is just better than ordinary people. How to defeat Sirius with one enemy and one hundred.

Liu Tigger clearly saw that William was incapable, and his brows were deeply locked.

"Dad..." Sharon grabbed Liu Tigger's hand anxiously.

Liu Tigger looked at William and said softly, "What a William, he chose Great Immortality. Since it is his choice, let's just look at it. Anyway, this life has already been sacrificed."

William seemed to feel Liu Tigger's heart. He raised his head, his eyes sharpened suddenly.

Powerless!

But the heart is even more unwilling!

He slammed a punch and smashed the few people in front of him fiercely. The madness in his heart always had the kind of suffocation that would not come out!

Too frustrated!

Then, even more crazy!

More crazy!

William suddenly drew more than a dozen Needles of Ruby Flower from his body, and his eyes gradually became blood red!

"This disgusting village, don't you know how precious life is!"

"My grandfather wanted to be born but couldn't. You two or three hundred lives, and you all committed suicide! You are trampling on the dignity of life, trampling on my beliefs!"

"You just lie in the coffin and watch carefully! If I firmly believe that fate should not be broken!"

"Who is it!"

William yelled up to the sky, and the dozen or so silver needles in his hand plunged into his body like crazy!

@vamp20w011

Chapter 300

Sirius's men looked stupid!

What the hell is this lunatic in front of!

Are you self-harming?

Neurosis!

And Liu Tigger's heart trembled fiercely after listening to William's words!

His eyes were red again!

William's call was meant for the whole village!

And these words are exactly what Liu Tigger wanted to say but didn't dare to say!

People in Lantern Village, have you heard that!

The lunatic in front of him intends to use his own life to prove one thing to you cowardly people.

If people don't give in, who would dare to let me go to netherworld!

Liu Tigger also suddenly thought that this is William's courage and William's wisdom.

Sirius's people were all present.

Relying on William, there is no way to win.

The only way is to awaken the blood of these villagers and fight the enemy together.

It's just a pity, William, you still underestimated the humbleness and cowardice of these people.

After the coffins on the scene moved slightly, they fell silent.

Liu Tigger couldn't help sighing.

The shackles of the millennium are deeply rooted.

William, you miscalculated.

After being stimulated by the silver needle, William straightened up again and rushed out toward Sirius's person.

This time, blood for blood, strength for strength!

The blood shot at William and the enemy at the same time.

The scene has long been unable to tell who has more blood and who has less blood.

This kind of desperate play made all those people back up a few steps.

They looked at the desperate guy in front of them in amazement, almost vomiting blood in their hearts.

Obviously, he suffered more than a dozen knives from them, although he had escaped the key at the last moment.

However, his body was already scarred and bloody.

In this way, he actually stood up straight, as if he didn't know the pain at all!

He is like an iron-blooded warrior, more like an unparalleled God of War!

Although powerless.

But in terms of momentum, he alone severely suppressed dozens of people on the scene!

Such bravery caused Sirius not far away to be dumbfounded.

When will Qena City have such a tiger and wolf man who is not afraid of life and death!

Where did he come out!

What does this village have to do with him!

What does Liu Tigger have to do with him!

Can you use your own life to go shopping!

The battle continues.

I don't know when, William was already standing in front of Liu Tigger.

He even stood trembling, but he seemed to use his own body to block the thousands of troops in front of him.

No one can break through William and come to Liu Tigger and the others.

The whole village was actually kept by William alone!

The coldness in Sirius's eyes was even worse.

What a shame!

Bringing so many people over, it was even suppressed by one person to move forward.

If this is spread out, in the future, the name of Sirius will be laughable and generous in the arena!

He yelled fiercely: "Have you not eaten yet! Beat me to death! Whoever beats him, I will reward a villa!"

The group of people who were originally afraid, heard such a reward, and their eyes turned red.

They roared together and slashed towards William again desperately.

William was accidentally chopped up, his blood shot out.

Liu Tigger was about to protect Sharon who was close at hand, but it was too late.

William's hot blood spilled on Sharon's face!

Sharon was completely stunned for an instant.

William's desperate protection is right in front of her

She could even see clearly that William's body was oozing blood.

His shirt is already in tatters, showing all the scars!

And the hot blood on her face, like a thunder, hit her head fiercely.

In her heart, it seemed that something had been broken.

Liu Tigger was about to wipe off the blood for Sharon.

Because he knew that Sharon had been fainted with blood since she was young, and now that the blood is on her face, she has not been scared into a coma.

However, his hand was suddenly caught.

Liu Tigger was taken aback.

But it was Sharon who grabbed his hand.

Sharon's whole body was trembling violently, as if there was a sea of dead blood flowing on his face! It's a monster!

The blood ran down her cheeks slowly.

Until it flows into her mouth.

A strong smell of blood made her suddenly hold her head and burst into tears.

She looked at the man in front of her who was fighting for the village alone, and suddenly a burst of inexplicable gratitude burst into her heart.

why!

Why is it that this village has to be protected by an outsider at all costs!

why!

Why do we wait for death one by one, waiting for the sanction of death!

It shouldn't be like this, it definitely shouldn't be like this!

We can still live!

We obviously have hundreds of people!

Liu Tigger was about to hug her, but saw her get up from the ground and ran towards the village like crazy!

"Don't kill! Don't kill!"

"Everyone, okay! Get up and help that lunatic, okay!"

"I don't want to die, and I don't want you to die."

"I want to sing with you again! I want to dance with you all the time!"

"Although I am afraid of blood, I really like the Fragrant Blood Centennial Lamp!"

"Everyone get up!"

"Can we help the lunatic together? I beg you."

Sharon shouted and ran towards the nearest coffin.

She put her hands on the heavy coffin lid and pushed it hard.

These coffins were made crudely by the villagers themselves. On the coffins, there were spikes left by the axe.

The spike cut directly through Sharon's palm.

Sharon actually didn't know, and with a hard push, he pushed the coffin lid to the ground.

The person inside looked at Sharon.

There were deep tears in each other's eyes.

"Get up, get up, get up! This is our home!" Sharon shouted at the man, and continued to run to the next house.

William was still struggling to support, his legs were already shaking.

The Needles of Ruby Flower in his hand, because of excessive force, plunged into his palm instead.

His face was covered with blood, and his eyes were a little bit blind.

The sane, because of the excessive bleeding, gradually became unclear.

He is like a machine, fighting instinctively.

Sharon was pushing every coffin and awakening every villager who didn't want to wake up.

Her hand had long been pierced to blood by the spikes.

In the end, with no strength in the hands, use the feet.

The feet trembled and pressed their heads.

Until the blood and tears ran, until the whole body was covered with blood.

Until the lid of the coffin of the last village chief was pushed.

Her consciousness was blurred, and she fell on the village chief.

Before she fell into a coma, she murmured and cried, "I still want to sing "The Third Kingdom of Jade Dragon"..."

The village head's heart, as if being hit by a stone, was so sad that it was hard to breathe.

At this moment, all the lids of the coffin were opened.

In the coffin, the first person slowly stood up.

One, two, three, three...

Until more than two hundred people stood together!

Chapter 301

Watching the villagers coming out of the coffin one by one, Liu Tigger was already in tears.

He was aching!

His heart ached for William, not caring about life and death!

His daughter's heart ached for him and he was full of holes!

Her heart ached for the villagers of this Lantern Village. The shackle of a hundred generations, the torture of eternity!

"With such a humble death, how can I see anyone else in my next life?"

"Wake up, everyone!" Liu Tigger suddenly shouted at them.

Because he used too much strength, the wounds on his body directly cracked, and blood came out.

William, who was in front of him, was in danger.

There were thirty to forty enemies in front of him!

The villagers looked at William, who was fighting alone, and their eyes began to turn red.

Prior to this, they had never imagined that there would be an outsider who would think so highly of them.

He was willing to sacrifice his life for them and burn their broken bodies!

They didn't have the fortune to enjoy the protection of others.

Their lives were worthless.

However, there was this type of person in front of him who used his own strength to forcefully extend the life of Lantern Village.

Everyone's eyes were filled with tears as they looked at Village Chief.

Village Chief laboriously put the unconscious Sharon on the ground and looked at William in a daze.

Under everyone's expectant gaze, he slowly walked home.

However, in a short while, he reappeared in front of everyone.

There was a worn-out bowl in his hand.

The bowl was filled with a cup of flirtatious Immortal Water.

Carrying the bowl of blood, he tremulously walked towards Liu Tigger.

When all the villagers saw the village chief's expression, they seemed to have understood something.

All of them suddenly wiped away the tears in their eyes and returned home one by one.

After a while, they all came out.

Each of them was holding a bowl of Immortal Water that carried the millennium-old glory and humiliation of the Lantern Village.

Village Chief stood in front of William, Liu Tigger.

"Him, what's his name?" Village Chief suddenly asked. His voice was no longer weak and weak as before. Instead, there was a hint of firmness in it.

"William!" Liu Tigger said in a low voice.

Village Chief nodded. "This bowl of Immortal Water is for William in the Lantern Village!"

After he said that, he took the lead and drank up the bowl of blood!

"Salute William!" All of a sudden, the villagers made the biggest roar in their lives!

He drank up his blood!

Smashing the bowl into the song!

"People of our Lantern Village have long been immune to blood incense, so we just drink some Immortal Water to arouse some courage!

Villagers, copy it! Kill these bastards with a thousand cuts!" Suddenly, the village chief shouted with grief and indignation.

"Roar!" After drinking more than two hundred bowls of blood, it seemed that the bloody nature of this group of weak people was completely aroused!

For a moment, the old, the weak, women and children!

"Drinking blood to become a weapon!"

Liu Tigger's tears were streaming down.

He had an impulse to kneel down in front of William!

It was William!

Summon blood with blood!

It awakened the villagers' courage for the first time since they were born!

From the moment they climbed out of the coffin and drank the Immortal Water!

They were no longer the same as before!

Lantern Village, Nirvana, continued one's life!

All of this was woken up by William with his life!

William, you must hold on!

At the sight of this, the eyes of Sirius, who was standing not far away, were split open!

Damn it!

A bunch of garbage actually knew how to resist!

Okay!

"Then I will let you taste the taste of fresh blood!"

"Go back to the coffin and wait for death!"

"Do you really think that I've brought these people here? Haha, I'm going to become the tiger of the Qena City! How could I be so careless!" Sirius suddenly whistled loudly.

The ground not far away suddenly trembled.

Before the person arrived, the voice came first!

A large number of people rushed out on the path!

There were at least one hundred people!

Liu Tigger's heart sank when he saw this!

Sure enough, Sirius had a backup plan!

The reason why Sirius could compete with Liu Tigger in Qena City was not that he was wise or powerful.

"And it's because of his insidiousness!"

By hook or by crook!

Now more than a hundred strong men and horses appeared. What should they do?

Although the villagers of the Lantern Village were in high spirits, their bodies were too weak.

He was no match for those strong soldiers.

William, who was fighting with only one man, was obviously at the end of his tether.

With the help of William and Sharon, the new flames were finally ignited. Would they be killed by this bloody moon again today?

At the thought of this, Liu Tigger's eyes were wide open!

"I'll go all out! Life is a candle, death is a candle to the candle!" Liu Tigger grabbed a broadsword on the ground and roared in an imposing manner.

"Kill!" The villagers completely released their blood vigour by borrowing a bowl of blood, and their eyes were all red.

At this time, William, who was in front of Liu Tigger, finally gave a grunt and fell backward straightly.

Liu Tigger held on to William.

However, William opened her eyes slightly and looked at the bright moon in the sky with a smile of regret.

"Kill this punk for me!" Sirius shouted from behind.

However, the people of the Lantern Village had already protected William in the middle.

"Just now, William guarded us! Now, it's our turn to protect William! Villagers, drain the last drop of blood, don't let this group of bastards hurt their benefactor at all!" Village Chief roared.

"Roar!" The villagers responded in unison.

However, at this moment, a strange smile suddenly appeared on Sirius's face.

"Hehe, you good-for-nothings? However, I'm really too lazy to fight to the point that both of you will suffer. I still have a great nation in the future, so all of you, go to hell! Someone! Explode!" Sirius suddenly shouted again.

His men actually stepped back one by one.

Then, in everyone's confused eyes, they took out masks from the backpacks behind them one by one and quickly put them on.

William endured the pain and stood up with the help of Liu Tigger.

This mask was a poison-proof mask!

What were they going to do!

Just as everyone was feeling uneasy, they suddenly heard the sound of machine fans flapping in the sky.

More than a hundred drones had been hung on the top of the whole Lantern Village!

There was a big bag hanging under each drone!

As soon as Sirius gave the order, all the bags under the drone exploded!

Wave after wave of dense green gas gushed out from the bag!

All of a sudden, green gas permeated the sky of the Lantern Village, and even the moonlight was dyed green!

William secretly shouted, "It's the toxic gas! Run!"

At this time, the villagers suddenly panicked and turned around to run into the village one by one.

However, William stared at the poisonous gas all over the sky and frowned slightly.

The smell of this poisonous gas seemed to be...

The poisonous gas was slowly drifting down.

Sirius and company were wearing masks as they roared with laughter.

"Run! I want to see where you can run to! I'm going to bury the entire village today! No one will be spared!" Sirius said fiercely.

The poison gas slowly came down, and was dozens of meters away from them.

Chapter 302

The villagers saw that they couldn't get out of the toxic gas's range one by one. They stood there in a daze, and their eyes were fixed on him.

This was a look of despair that had gone through despair and seen hope again. Now, it was despairing again.

Compared to before, it was even sadder.

Sirius, who was in the middle of it, suddenly rang his phone.

He picked up the phone casually. "Who is it? Bernard? I've heard of him. What can I do for you?"

After listening to the phone for a while, Sirius suddenly burst out laughing. "You want me to kill someone named William? Hahaha!"

As he spoke, he looked at William, who was next to Liu Tigger with blood all over her body. "No problem. The money is transferred to my account. I promise that from tomorrow on, you will no longer hear any news about this kid. Hehe, Liu Tigger is his accomplice? Is it difficult to deal with him? Then I will give you another small gift. From tomorrow, William and Liu Tigger will completely disappear from this world!"

On the other end of the line, Bernard hung up the phone, trembling with fear. He could not believe what he had heard.

Bernard had long heard of Sirius's viciousness.

He obtained Sirius's phone number through Yohan's relationship.

William had given Bernard a hard time during the Trade seasons, causing him to lose all his reputation. How could Bernard not take revenge for such a deep grudge?

Therefore, he decided to buy a murderer!

Now hearing Sirius say yes immediately and even want to kill Liu Tigger with him, he trembled all over.

Were they going to wash the cards under the ground of the Qena City?

However, Sirius's words were full of confidence. After Bernard calmed down, a cruel look appeared in his eyes!

If Sirius really did it, then that woman called Felicity would have no one to rely on!

He could not let her go!

Bernard thought it over and over again, and decided to wait another three days!

If Liu Tigger died, there would definitely be turmoil.

Three days later, the news must have been confirmed.

At that time, it would be the time for her to visit Felicity in person and take revenge on that little b*tch!

"Felicity, three days later, I'll kick your ass!"

When Sirius hung up the phone and looked at William and Liu Tigger who were about to die, he felt very proud.

He didn't expect that these two guys could make a lot of money for him before they died.

In the midst of the deadly poison that filled the sky, Sirius started laughing maniacally!

"Go to hell! All of you, die! If you die, I'll be the king!"

He looked at the desperate villagers and spread out his hands as if he wanted to embrace the new world!

It was nothing. It was more appropriate to welcome the King of the undercity of Qena City than to use a battle of a hundred people to bury him together!

The whole audience was stunned, and only William's nose kept sniffing.

A pungent smell came from the sky earlier than that of the poisonous gas.

Seeing Sirius's laughter and everyone's despair, William steeled his heart!

"Are you kidding me?"

"I'd love to see you. How can I laugh later?"

William forced herself to take a breath and suddenly broke away from Liu Tigger's support.

He darted to the campfire where still had sparks left!

Under the watchful eyes of the people, he picked up a piece of wood that was still burning and had sparks in his hand.

"William! What are you doing!" Liu Tigger shouted out loud.

Everyone's eyes were on William.

Holding a piece of wood, William seemed to be crazy.

Unexpectedly, he said in public, "There are thousands of flowers in the cold wind night! Even more so! Stars fall like rain! Let me show you how beautiful the stars and fire are like rain!"

As he said that, he threw the wood in his hand into the sky!

The wood with sparks suddenly broke through the poisonous fog and disappeared.

Just when Sirius is about to laugh, his eyes suddenly narrow!

An ear-deafening explosive sound was heard in the air!

This was!

Everyone looked up into the sky!

An explosive sound could be heard from the fog of poison that had disappeared from the wooden block.

Then, there were faint sparks!

Then, sparks were getting bigger and bigger!

The sound of the explosion was getting louder and louder!

"Boom!" "Boom!"

A deafening sound suddenly exploded in the sky!

The ball of poisonous fog emitted a dazzling fiery light!

This ball of fire was like a flood dragon that was shuttling through the sea of clouds, quickly spreading towards the location of the poisonous fog!

"Bang bang bang!"

The whole sky seemed to be ignited by William's one hand, and the sound of the explosion was endless!

The sky was as bright as a white explosion, illuminating everyone's shocked faces!

What the hell was going on!

Why was the sky on fire!

Only William made hysterical laughter. "If you want to die, let's die together!"

From the moment they released the poisonous fog, William smelled a strong smell of sulfur.

The poisonous fog in the sky was mixed with a large amount of sulfur.

Since the other party was wearing a protective mask, then what if sparks rained down like rain?

Watching all of you being trapped in this scorching hot hell, how are you going to defend yourselves?

In the blink of an eye, the sound of explosions in the sky became louder and louder. Countless sparks quickly fell like meteorites falling to the ground!

On the ground, the houses in the whole Lantern Village were built with thatches.

A fire was ignited in just a few points!

In an instant, all the houses were on fire, and the Lantern Village was really turned into a fiery hell!

Liu Tigger gawked at this unbelievable scene and was completely dumbfounded.

He didn't dare believe it. There was someone who, with his own strength, set the sky aflame!

What was more, he couldn't believe that a great deal of flowers fell down like a shower of stars at the night when the wind blew!

A line that should have been beautiful and moving, in William's mouth, had become so tragic and heroic!

All the houses were on fire, which meant that they were no different from flowers and trees!

The rain of fire in the sky wasn't just a rain of stars!

It was cruel to the extreme!

However, if not for the fact that he was so cruel, how could he have developed the hope of living and dying together with them!

He had to die. He had to die together!

"I'll never let this Sirius go easy!"

And when Sirius saw this scene, he was so scared that he couldn't even speak!

He originally thought that it would be a piece of cake for him to bring the poisonous fog up the mountain and bury this group of garbage.

But he didn't expect it!

William, who appeared out of nowhere!

He actually had the ability to fight back in such a decisive way!

The fire dragons raged in the sky!
The purgatory on earth!

Accompanied by the thick smoke rising from all over the place, the scene was a terrible one!

"Quickly escape!" Sirius could not help but shout.

His subordinates immediately scattered like wild animals, howling like ghosts and howls like wolves.

However, would he be able to escape?

The fire had already swallowed the whole village, and the smoke was so thick that people couldn't open their eyes.

Where else could he run to?

He was afraid that he could only be burned to death here!

Even Sirius showed a hint of fear at this moment!

All the villagers looked at William, who was swaying but not falling in a daze, and all of them burst into tears.

"Am I going to die?"

Lantern Village could die.

However, how could he die?

It was the young man named William who made a choice for them at the last moment of their lives.

He didn't get killed in a humble way.

Instead, he would use an incense lamp to burn them to death with dignity!

They even had the impulse to kneel down to this young man.

But at this time, William's body trembled slightly and he looked somewhere.

He immediately looked at the villagers, and his voice was cold to the bone.

"I'll give you another choice!"

"Do you want to die by burning, or..."

"Wake up from the ashes!"
