

Chapter 1017

As he spoke, Darryl raised his hand, and the White Lily Cold Flame leapt over and floated toward the direction of Lindsay's face.

All the women in the world cared most about their beauty—especially beautiful ladies. It was as if their face was more important than their life.

As expected, Lindsay panicked as the White Lily Cold Flame approached her. Her body shook, and she quickly said, "I will tell you! It's the one in the white bottle."

When she said that, Lindsay's face was full of fear; she no longer showed her arrogant self.

Darryl quickly poured the antidote into the white medicine bottle and fed them to Debra and the others.

Soon, they felt the weakness and numbness on their body had all but disappeared.

Slap!

Slap!

When he recovered his internal energy, Dax immediately stood up and slapped Lindsay's face as he scolded her fiercely. "B*tch! I will kill you!"

Dax held the axe tightly; he was about to kill Lindsay.

"Dax!" Chester quickly stopped him. "Spare this woman; she might be useful later."

Chester turned and looked at Darryl, "Let's get to the Carter family immediately. Let's go now; it will be too late if we delay any further!"

"Yes!" Darryl did not say anything else; he nodded his head. He leapt and jumped onto the back of the snow eagle and headed toward the Carter family hurriedly.

Meanwhile, at the Carter family's mansion.

Donoghue and the Six Fairies used their internal energy in a battle in mid-air!

Donoghue and the Six Fairies used their internal energy in a battle in mid-air!

They had fought for a few hundred rounds. Donoghue managed to identify a loophole in their formation and had destroyed it. Then, he took the opportunity to attack them with his internal energy.

Donoghue had the Sky Breaking Axe that would continuously replenish his internal energy; there was no way for the six fairies to win the battle. However, none of them showed any sign that they would give up soon!

"Break!"

Donoghue roared; the air turned! The Six Fairies' faces were pale as they dropped from the sky! All of them held their hands to their chests; it was apparent that none of them had any energy left.

Donoghue was laughing insanely; his eyes glanced at the Carter family. "These six women had no energy left. Let's see who else can save your Carter family!"

Donoghue swung the axe and hit Daniel, who else can save the Carter family!"

Donoghue swung the axe and hit Daniel, who was closest to him!

"You are a terrible person! You have killed Auntie, and now you want to harm Uncle! Mister will never let you off easily!"

"At that moment, a girl ran forward and stood in front of Daniel. It was Jewel!"

"Little girl, go away! Leave quickly! Leave me!" Daniel shouted as loud as he could.

Even though Daniel had not spent much time with Jewel, he had liked her. He felt warm when he saw Jewel tried to block the attack for him.

Jewel's was furious as she continued to cry. She spread her arms in front of Daniel; she would not leave! She knew that Darryl would be devastated if anything were to happen to his father. 'I will use my life to protect Uncle and will not allow him to be harmed further! As long as I am still breathing, I will stand right in front of him!'

Jewel's eyes were red as she looked at Donoghue and shouted, "I will not let you harm him. I will not let you! Wait till

Donoghue and she said, "I will not let you harm him. I will not let you! Wait till Mister returns; he will not let you off so easily! He will not let you off!"

"Will not let me off?" Donoghue stared coldly at Jewel; his vision was deviant. "When I hacked Dax 36 times, Darryl had cut me 360 times in return! Each cut was not even meant to be life-threatening! When I see him today, I will repay it ten times more! I will slice him a hundred thousand times! Let me kill you first, and then I shall look for Darryl! None of you can escape!"

Donoghue lifted the Sky Breaking Axe and charged toward Jewel!

At that moment, no one in the Carter family had any energy to battle anymore!

The axe carried incredible power!

Jewel stood there; she did not show any sign that she would retreat! However, she closed her eyes; she knew that she would have nowhere to go even if she wanted to hide.

As the axe approached closer, Jewel's tears streamed down her cheeks.

Jewel stood there and did not show any sign that she would retreat! However, she closed her eyes; she knew that she would have nowhere to go even if she wanted to hide.

As the axe approached closer, Jewel's tears streamed down her cheeks uncontrollably. She felt utterly hopeless!

'Mister, where are you? This bad man had killed Auntie. He is also bullying me. Mister, where are you now? Do you know that I may not see you again?'

"Donoghue, you bastard!"

At that moment, a loud roar was heard from afar; the voice shook heaven and earth.

A giant white eagle flew mid-air!

It was Darryl on the back of the snow eagle, and he held the Blood Drinking Sword in his hand! His anger boiled, and his eyes were blood-red!

Chapter 1018

When Darryl saw the beautiful and grand Carter residence, it had been turned into a piece of wasteland. The Carter family's disciples were either dead or seriously injured!

As he reached the mansion, he saw Donoghue's axe about to hit Jewel's body!

"Argh!" Darryl screamed crazily as he charged forward with his Blood Drinking Sword and hit Donoghue's giant axe!

Bang!

A frightful loud crash made everyone tremble! Donoghue took a few steps backward as he locked his eyes onto Darryl!

"Jewel!" Darryl's eyes were red as he hugged Jewel's waist and pulled her into his arms.

"Mister!" Jewel stomped her feet; tears rushed out as she felt that everything was unfair.

Darryl!

Darryl!

He had finally arrived.

At that moment, the six fairies felt incredibly delighted!

Little Fairy was particularly thrilled as her eyes shone brightly; she could not hide her happiness!

"Darryl!" Donoghue held the Sky Breaking Axe tightly as the muscles on his arm tightened!

The killing aura emerged when the enemies met!

Donoghue looked coldly at Darryl. 'This is the person that destroyed the Dixon family! Because of this person, I have not had a good night's sleep for the past two years. I can only think of revenge every time I shut my eyes!'

Donoghue even dreamt of killing Darryl! At that moment, he wondered, 'Why is Darryl here? Shouldn't he be at Wishing Star Tower?'

Star Tower?'

'I have not destroyed the Carter family yet. How did he get here so fast? What is Lindsay doing? Was she not able to stop him?'

Darryl ignored him. He looked around, and his body shook terribly!

He saw his father, Daniel, on the floor; he held a bloodied Luna in his arms.

As for Luna, her eyes shut tightly, and her face was pale; there was no longer any breath in her.

"Mother!"

Darryl shouted as tears blurred his vision!

The feelings of heartache, sadness, and uncontrollable anger rushed into his mind. It was as if he would break down at any moment!

Darryl had not spent much time with his parents since he was young. He had not treated his parents well too! He thought that once he became the Alliance Master, he could spend more time with them.

He had never thought that his mother

he could spend more time with them.

He had never thought that his mother would leave him before he could do that!

His anger boiled!

Darryl stared at Donoghue with reddened eyes! 3

Donoghue was pleased to see the suffering on Darryl's face. He smiled coldly. "You are heart-broken, aren't you? When you destroyed my Dixon family, have you thought about the consequences? Don't worry; I will send you and everyone here to hell together."

"Sh*t! You b*stard!" Darryl shouted crazily as he raised both his arms!

Bang!

The air around them started to spin, followed by the nine golden dragons that surrounded Darryl!

"Kill!"

One could hear the dragon's bright and clear roars. All the nine golden dragons looked extremely powerful as they charged toward Donoghue!

clear roars. All nine golden dragons looked extremely powerful as they charged toward Donoghue!

Donoghue sighed coldly when he saw those dragons went after him.

Bang!

Then, Donoghue raised his hand and swung the axe—a bright golden light shone from the Sky Breaking Axe before it sliced the sky and earth and charged forward! ①

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Donoghue's golden light clashed against the dragons. A strong and shocking aura exploded before it crashed into the dragons and turned them into a ray of golden shadow that disappeared mid-air!

What?

Everyone was in shock; they were terrified.

How astonishingly powerful was the Sky Breaking Axe?!

Darryl's nine golden dragons were terrifying too, but the Sky Breaking Axe had defeated them with just one hit

Darryl's nine golden dragons were terrifying too, but the Sky Breaking Axe had defeated them with just one hit.

Darryl, who was still in mid-air, was furious. At the same time, he was stunned as well!

That was the Grand Weapon's power?

It was too powerful!

Donoghue laughed before he smiled wickedly as he teased Darryl. "You claim that you are the Alliance Master, and this is all that you've got?"

"Darryl, we are here to help you!"

At that moment, Dax, Chester and Debra appeared and charged toward Donoghue!

Bang!

Chapter 1019

Darryl's three companion's internal energy exploded; its intimidating power was directed at Donoghue!

However, Donoghue smiled arrogantly and said, "You have overestimated yourselves!"

Donoghue swung the Sky Breaking Axe, and three golden rays charged toward Dax and the rest.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

All three of them tried to avoid the attack, but they were a little too late! The three of them shouted and fell onto the ground after the golden rays hit them.

Once they landed on the ground, Chester vomited a mouthful of fresh blood!

Dax's face was pale, as well; it was apparent that he was injured.

Debra was fine, though; she was a Level Three Martial Emperor and the Artemis Sect's Sect Master, so her power was top-notch! However, the attack shocked Debra. Donoghue had really strong power!

Debra. Donoghue really strong power!

"Darryl!"

Donoghue clenched his fist as his body floated mid-air. He stared firmly at Darryl and said, "No one can save you today; accept your death!"

Donoghue held the Sky Breaking Axe tightly as he charged toward Darryl!

"I'll die with you if that's what it takes!"

Darryl screamed, his eyes were all red. As he spoke, a ball of white flame appeared on Darryl's palm. It leapt and immediately appeared in front of Donoghue!

What?!

What was that?!

Donoghue did not know that enchanted flames existed in the world.

However, Donoghue was stunned when he felt the heat from the White Lily Cold Flame. He quickly put the Sky Breaking Axe in front of his body to block the flame!

Bang!

Bang!

The White Lily Cold Flame struck on the Sky Breaking Axe. Not only it did not burn, but the flame went out as well.

The White Lily Cold Flame would have burned any other weapon! However, the Sky Breaking Axe was utterly unharmed! Even though the White Lily Cold Flame was the top enchanted flame in the world, and it could burn all items, it was not undefeatable. Donoghue had a grand weapon in his hand!

How did that happen?

Darryl's face turned pale; he was utterly stunned.

Donoghue was delighted as he smiled coldly. "That's all you've got?" He charged forward again!

Darryl held his fist tightly. With the Blood Drinking Sword in his hand, he charged ahead too!

Bang!

Darryl more than a hundred feet away. He spouted fresh blood, and at the same

Darryl had killed many enemies with that sword when he faced the Westrington army. The Blood Drinking Sword had achieved violet level, yet it could not defend against the Sky Breaking Axe!

Sigh...

At that moment, Darryl was surprised and furious! Everyone on the ground gasped quietly too!

The Sky Breaking Axe in Donoghue's hand was too powerful—even Darryl's weapon had been destroyed. How could he continue with that battle?

"Watch out, Darryl!"

Little Fairy, who sat with her legs crossed at the side, tried to help him. Her internal energy as she observed Darryl's situation. She could not help but shout at the man.

The rest of the people there were worried about Darryl as well.

Cindy and the rest wanted to help Darryl, but most of them had already exhausted their internal energy. If they were to rush forward, they would be killed as well.

They needed to restore their internal energy first.

Donoghue laughed and smiled at the sky; he was extremely delighted. "What else do you have, Darryl? Show it all to me! I want you to suffer a complete defeat today! I want you to die!"

Bang!

Donoghue lifted his hand again, and an intense killing aura exploded from the Sky Breaking Axe! It hit out at Darryl!

Wow! The axe looked like it had broken the sky into two!

At that moment, everyone was anxious about Darryl!

Darryl was in shock too! He had never Darryl was in shock too! He had never imagined the Sky Breaking Axe had such terrifying power!

At a critical moment, Darryl used his mind to release the Exquisite Pagoda. A group of figures immediately appeared in front of Darryl's eyes.

All of those figures carried strong auras; they were the 500 warriors trapped at the bottom-most level of that Exquisite Pagoda. They had been in a battle with the Westington army, so almost all of them were injured.

However, all 500 of them joined forces to form a protective shield in front of Darryl.

Bang!

The Sky Breaking Axe hit the protective shield and created a loud bang that could shatter the earth!

Even though the 500 warriors had defended the hit, it was still the Sky Breaking Axe—their faces immediately paled.

Chapter 1020

What?

Donoghue furrowed his brows when he saw that.

What had happened?

How did 500 people suddenly appear?

"Kill him!" Darryl shouted coldly.

At an instant, the 500 warriors rose and charged toward Donoghue like a rising tide.

Darryl, at the same time, raised his internal energy as he trailed behind them.

At an instant, the 500 warriors rose and charged toward Donoghue like a rising tide.

Darryl, at the same time, raised his internal energy as he trailed behind them.

However, although there were 500 warriors, all of them were injured. It was difficult for them to change the tide when they faced Donoghue's Sky Breaking Axe!

In just five minutes, Donoghue had defeated half of the 500 warriors!

Red Eye Warrior and Blazing Snake Queen were not seriously injured, but they could barely hang on.

As for Darryl, his body was covered with blood!

The Sky Breaking Axe's remaining energy had managed to hit him, and his shoulders bled. If he did not avoid the hit, he would have lost his whole arm.

So powerful!

So powerful!

The Sky Breaking Axe was too powerful!

Darryl was furious and worried when Donoghue defeated his warriors from the Exquisite Pagoda one by one—their numbers eventually dwindled.

"Die!"

Donoghue roared loudly. In the blink of an eye, he broke through the warriors' attack. With the Sky Breaking Axe in his hand, he hacked toward Darryl!

It was Donoghue's strongest hit—even if Darryl were a Martial Emperor, he would definitely be killed if he could not avoid it!

The Six Fairies, Jewel, and Debra sweated profusely as they observed the situation from the ground. They bit their lips; they were distraught!

The Six Fairies, Jewel, and Debra sweated profusely as they observed the situation from the ground. They bit their lips; they were distraught!

Darryl's eyes narrowed when he saw the axe approached him. He had completely lost hope! There was no way he could avoid that!

'That's it... I am afraid I will have to die here today...'

Darryl felt a pain in his chest; he looked at the ground.

He saw Daniel hug his wife as he cried lungs out!

'Father, Mother, I have let you down. I can't take care of you anymore.'

Darryl's tears streamed down his cheeks uncontrollably as he shut his eyes.

Everyone's heart clenched! The Sky Breaking Axe was only less than three feet away from Darryl!

Everyone's heart clenched! The Sky Breaking Axe was only less than three feet away from Darryl!

The crowd on the ground also shut their eyes; they dared not watch further!

However, at that moment, Darryl felt a shiver run through his body. Suddenly, his eyes opened wide!

Darryl had a sudden realization!

"Donoghue, you killed my mother! I want you to repay that with your blood!"

Finally, Darryl roared with madness.

Bang!

Darryl lifted his hands, and the internal energy in his abdomen exploded.

After that moment, Darryl no longer had any internal energy in his abdomen—he was like an average person.

"What is he doing?"

"Darryl, what are you doing?"

Everyone's expression changed; they were astonished.

How could he continue the battle with Donoghue after he released all his internal energy? Did that mean he wanted to die?

However, Darryl did not listen to them. He floated mid-air with his eyes shut tightly! Finally, a cold voice echoed from Darryl's mouth, and the loudness shook the world!

"Grand Destruction Art, Mountainous River Art!"

Grand Destruction Art, Mountainous River Art.

Then, Darryl opened his eyes, and at the same time, his right finger pointed toward the sky!

When he said the last word, the sky and earth immediately changed their colors! The sky was covered with dark clouds, and at the same time, the flowers, grass and trees on the ground within a few hundred miles around then immediately froze—all the plants wilted and turned yellow!

Bang!

A loud noise followed that. The ground under Darryl's feet started to break into pieces. Underground lava oozed upward like fire dragons as they circled Darryl's body!

The Grand Destruction Art had three levels!

The first level was the Single Finger Wonder

The first level was the Single Finger Wonder.

The second level was the Mountainous River Art.

The third level, which was the highest level, was the Celestial Rotation!

Darryl had only learned the technique for the first level—the Single Finger Wonder. When Yvonne was about to marry Jeremy, Darryl had used that skill when he crashed their wedding.

Chapter 1021

As for the level two technique, the Mountainous River Art, Darryl had not been able to complete it.

Chapter 1021

As for the level two technique, the Mountainous River Art, Darryl had not been able to complete it.

However, when he saw his mother killed and his father had cried his lungs out, Darryl felt a door opened in his mind. He was desperate, and thus, he had managed to complete the level two technique—the Mountainous River Art. The skill that he performed was the Mountainous River Art!

The Mountainous River Art technique could absorb all the energy within an area of a few hundred miles!

The flowers, grass and trees in the few hundred miles around that area had been grown quite healthily. However, the moment Darryl used the Mountainous River Art, all of them had wilted! The energy from the lava and the plants had all gathered into Darryl's hands to form a fireball! The fireball had a diameter of a few thousand feet!

all of them had wilted! The energy from the lava and the plants had all gathered into Darryl's hands to form a fireball! The fireball had a diameter of a few thousand feet! It was as powerful as the sun!

Everyone on the ground was stunned when they felt the fireball's terrifying power! However, they were excited beyond description, as well!

"Donoghue, I want you to die!"

Darryl roared crazily; the giant fireball immediately bounced toward Donoghue!

The sky and the earth twisted wherever the fireball passed by the area. It was as if it was the end of the world!

What?

Donoghue was shocked; he quickly lifted the Sky Breaking Axe to block the fireball!

Bang!

Bang!

The fireball clashed with the Sky Breaking Axe—scary energy exploded, and its brightness could be seen from as far as a few hundred miles away!

Wow!

Donoghue vomited a mouthful of fresh blood as his body flew backward!

Even though he had the Sky Breaking Axe, he could not defend against the Mountainous River Art! After a continuous battle, Donoghue had exhausted almost all of his internal energy.

He required massive internal energy to activate the Sky Breaking Axe!

After he bounced a few hundred feet backward, Donoghue tried to stabilize his body. He vomited a few more mouthfuls of fresh blood!

After he bounced a few hundred feet backward, Donoghue tried to stabilize his body. He vomited a few more mouthfuls of fresh blood!

Darryl, on the other end, became extremely weak after he performed the Mountainous River Art technique.

The Grand Destruction Art was a way to destroy the sky and earth. It was out of anyone's expectation that Darryl could even activate the Mountainous River Art technique.

After he performed the Mountainous River Art, he would need to rest for at least a month!

Wow!

Everyone was stunned; their eyes and mouth were open wide. They could not even gather their thoughts for quite some time.

gather their thoughts for quite some time.

Did that mean Darryl had won the battle?

Darryl had performed an incredible technique.

"Good. That's great! Darryl, you do have skills! No matter what, I must kill you today!"

Donoghue tried hard to hold on to his weak body. He held the Sky Breaking Axe tightly and charged toward Darryl again! He did not have much energy left, but he knew that if he did not kill Darryl that day, it would pose a greater danger for himself in the future! Hence, Donoghue must use all his might to kill Darryl.

When Darryl saw Donoghue charged toward him again, he clenched his fists. He wanted to avoid the attack, but his body was too weak; there was no way for him to dodge it.

"Darryl!"

"Darryl!"

At that moment, Debra leapt toward him and activated a protective shield to defend Darryl from the attack.

At that same time, Cindy and the rest had almost recovered their internal energy. The Six Fairies and Debra went forward to fight Donoghue!

Bang!

As Little Fairy whipped her leather belt, a loud and clear sound was heard—Donoghue had screamed.

The belt had struck him until his flesh was pulverized!

"Sh*t!"

Donoghue clenched his teeth as he swore. He had no energy left; he did not want to Donoghue clenched his teeth as he swore. He had no energy left; he did not want to continue with the battle. He had used all his might to swing the axe to force the ladies to step backward as he turned around to escape!

"Sisters, go after him!" Cindy shouted. She led a few fairies and Debra as they went after Donoghue.

Donoghue had killed so many people from the Carter family, and he had even killed Darryl's mother; they could not let him escape!

Donoghue tried his best to leave, but he saw the Six Fairies and Debra chased after himself as he turned around. He smiled wickedly and increased the speed of his footsteps.

On the other end, at the Carter family, Darryl's eyes were blood-red. His body was too weak—he sat paralyzed on the floor.

"Mister!"

"Mister!"

Jewel screamed and ran over to him quickly.

Yvonne's face was icy as she trailed behind her.

At that time, no one noticed that Yvonne held a short blade tightly in her hands.

Once she reached Darryl, Jewel held Darryl as she spoke worriedly, "Mister, are you alright?"

Jewel almost cried. She realized that Darryl was remarkably weak, and his face extremely pale.

Darryl shook his head. "I am fine."

Bang!

Bang!

Before he could continue to speak, Darryl felt a chill on his chest. Then, he saw a blade had pierced through his chest as fresh blood immediately oozed from the wound!

Darryl felt his vision turned dark; he tried his best to turn his head. He saw Yvonne held a blade cover in her hand as she stood expressionless in front of him.

"Yvonne, you—"

Darryl was stunned. He had only said a few words when his vision turned black, and he fell onto the floor.

Chapter 1022

Even as his consciousness had started to blur, Darryl felt devastated.

He never imagined that his beloved Yvonne would stab him with a blade!

"Mister!"

Jewel's body shivered; she was utterly stunned. She immediately hugged Darryl tightly and cried, "Mister, Mister, please be alright..."

Jewel tried to press on Darryl's wound clumsily. However, the blade pierced through Darryl's chest, and he continued to bleed. There was no way to stop it.

Even though she had only spent a year with Darryl, she had thought of him as her closest friend in the world. When Jewel saw Darryl in the pool of blood, she was so devastated that she almost fainted.

"Yvonne!"

Jewel's face was covered in tears. Her eyes were red as she glared at Yvonne. "Mister has been so kind to you. He missed you day and night while both of you were apart. How can you be so cruel? You've already harmed me. Why do you need to harm him as well? Why?! I was wrong about you! You do not deserve to be with Mister!"

Jewel was so angry that her body started to shake.

'When Yvonne harmed me, I should have told Mister about it when I regained consciousness. But I was too soft-hearted. I believed that she had her reasons. Now, she can even kill Mister! Does she need any reason to do that?!'

Yvonne's exquisite face showed no emotion at all when she faced Jewel. Her eyes were cold. "Since you care for Darryl so much, you should go to hell with him."

Even though Lindsav had been captured her control over Yvonne was still effective.

Even though Lindsay had been captured, her control over Yvonne was still effective.

Yvonne held the long blade and aimed it at Jewel.

Even though Yvonne was only a Master General, Jewel was simply an ordinary person; she could not avoid it at all.

"Fine!"

Jewel's face was bitter and sad. "Kill me then. Mister is not here anymore. There is no meaning for me to stay alive."

Jewel looked determined. She shut her eyes and had no intention to hide!

"Stop it!"

Suddenly, a voice shouted as a slim figure dashed toward them to block Yvonne's

Suddenly, a voice shouted as a slim figure dashed toward them to block Yvonne's blade.

It was Little Fairy.

Little Fairy had followed Debra and her other five sisters to go after Donoghue. However, they were too fast for her, so Little Fairy could not catch up with them.

At that moment, Little Fairy stood in front of Jewel and said, "Are you crazy! Why would you harm this girl?!"

As she spoke, Little Fairy looked at Darryl. Her body immediately shivered!

Darryl looked like he had lost a lot of blood; she was not sure if he was still alive!

"Darryl, are you okay? Please don't scare me..." Little Fairy's eyes were red as she hugged Darryl.

'Darryl!'

Zoran, who sat nearby, looked pale as he asked Jewel worriedly, "Jewel, how is Darryl?"

"Uncle Carter, Mister's condition is very critical. It looks like he will not be able to survive this..." Jewel replied. Then, she started to wail.

What?

When he heard that, Zoran's vision turned dark, and he almost fainted.

"Hurry..."

Chapter 1023

The next second, Zoran shouted at his disciples around him. "Bring Debra back here quickly!"

"Yes!"

Zoran was anxious.

He had exhausted his internal energy during the fierce battle with Donoghue. He did not even have the strength to stand up at that moment.

Little Fairy's tears continued to fall. She looked at Yvonne and said, "You have a poisonous heart like the snake and scorpions. You've harmed Darryl! Don't you dare run away!"

Little Fairy extended her fingers and sealed Yvonne's acupoint.

Little Fairy extended her fingers and sealed Yvonne's acupoint.

She was a Martial Saint, so Yvonne could not defend against that at all. Yvonne immediately froze; she could not move a single muscle.

At that moment, a few figures dashed downward from mid-air.

"Darryl!"

Debra's tears fell like the rain as she dashed toward them. She saw the man's pale face—he was unconscious, and his breathing was extremely weak.

"Darryl..." Debra's eyes were red as she shouted at Jewel, "What happened?! How did this happen?! Who?! Who did that to Darryl?!"

When she left to go after Donoghue, Darryl was still fine. In the blink of an eye, however...

however...

Jewel was distraught; she could barely speak.

"Jewel!" Debra bit her lips and said, "Was it Yvonne who harmed Darryl?"

Jewel sobbed as she nodded. "Yes, it was Yvonne. She stabbed Mister from the back when he was not on his guard. Sister Debra, I regretted it. I regret that I did not tell Mister about Yvonne harming me."

"Yvonne!" Debra held the sword in her hand tightly. "You and Darryl have been through so much; why would you harm him? Tell me!"

Debra wanted to kill her with her blade!

However, at that moment, Debra saw Yvonne had a crystal ball in her hands.

As the Artemis Sect's Sect Master, how could Debra not recognize the crystal ball? It

As the Artemis Sect's Sect Master, how could Debra not recognize the crystal ball? It could send one's voice to thousands of miles away!

Debra's body shivered; there were doubts in her heart. Why did Yvonne have a crystal ball in her hand? Was she under someone else's control? Debra looked around her. "Everyone! Turn around now!"

As she spoke, Debra walked toward Yvonne and lifted her long dress.

Debra was very knowledgeable. She had read about a dark charm from an ancient book; that charm could control others, but it had been lost for generations. One only needed to draw the charm on another person's waist, and he would be able to control that person.

All the men turned around. Debra lifted Yvonne's long dress and saw a green-colored charm painted on her waist!

Debra's face was cold. She told a servant to bring a pail of water so that she could wash Debra's face was cold. She told a servant to bring a pail of water so that she could wash the charm off Yvonne's waist.

The charm was drawn with special paint, so it was extremely difficult to wash away. After more than ten minutes, the skin on Yvonne's waist was red, but the charm was finally removed.

The moment the charm dropped, Yvonne's body trembled.

"Where am I? Why is my head so dizzy?" Yvonne's face looked confused.

She had regained her mind completely. Yvonne remembered when the New World Emperor had sent her to marry Donoghue, but Lindsay had tied her up and drew a charm on her waist.

She could not remember anything after that.

Yvonne looked around blankly. she knew she was at the Carter residence. When Lerov

Yvonne looked around blankly; she knew she was at the Carter residence. When Leroy Henderson absorbed her spirit energy, and she had only one day left to live, she had married Darryl at the Carter residence.

How did the Carter residence turn into a wasteland?

Chapter 1024

When Yvonne regained her consciousness, everyone's face looked conflicted.

What a joke!

If she knew that she had stabbed Darryl when she was under someone else's control, how terrible would she feel?

how terrible would she feel?

Finally, Yvonne managed to gather her thoughts. She turned toward the Six Fairies in front of her and asked, “Six Palace Masters, where is Darryl?”

When the Seven Fairies had assisted Donghai City in their battle against Sloan, Yvonne had remembered them. She knew that they had a close relationship with Darryl.

If they were there, then Darryl would be there as well.

“Darryl, he—”

The few fairies looked at Darryl.

Yvonne’s eyes followed the direction of their vision. Her body shivered when she saw what was in front of her, and her tears started to fall!

“Darryl!”

what was in front of her, and her tears started to fall!

“Darryl!”

Yvonne rushed toward him. When she saw Darryl was covered in blood, she cried, “What happened? Who injured Darryl? Darryl, wake up, please wake up...”

At that moment, the Six Fairies sighed, but they did not say anything.

Dax and Chester looked at each other and sighed as well.

“Miss Young, have you forgotten? You were the one who stabbed him with the blade just now.”

One of the Carter family’s disciples decided to tell her about it.

Yvonne was utterly devastated!

What?

‘I harmed Darryl?’

Yvonne’s heart shivered. She figured that Lindsay must have controlled her.

“No...” The next second, Yvonne started to wail!

‘Darryl will be fine! He will definitely be fine!’

Yvonne hugged Darryl tightly in her arms. Her hands stroke Darryl’s pale face gently.

Images of her time together with Darryl played over and over again in her mind.

‘Darryl, we spent more time apart than together; we have not had any good time together yet. Please don’t scare me, please don’t scare me! Please wake up, please don’t scare me anymore...’

together yet. Please don't scare me, please don't scare me! Please wake up, please don't scare me anymore...'

"Darryl—"

Yvonne's tears flowed uncontrollably, "Darryl, I do not allow you to die, do you hear me? I am Yvonne, your Yvonne. I am sorry, please wake up and look at me. You can stab me too—once, ten times, a hundred times. I am begging you to say something."

Yvonne was devastated; her tears continued to fall.

Everyone was sad when they saw that.

"Miss Yvonne."

Cindy said softly, "Miss Yvonne, let's bring Darryl into the house to lay him down quickly. Darryl's internal organs are damaged; we need to figure out a way to help him quickly; otherwise, it will be too late."

quickly; otherwise, it will be too late.”

Little Fairy, who was at the side, was anxious too. Her eyes were red.

Even though Darryl had addressed her as his little wife and had always flirted with her, she hoped that he would be fine.

When Leroy Henderson controlled the Fuyao Palace, the man had used Little Fairy’s name to lure Darryl to meet him. Darryl had gone without a single hesitation.

Little Fairy always remembered that incident in her heart, and she was forever grateful for him.

At that moment, Little Fairy still did not realize that she had fallen for Darryl.

She only knew that her heart was broken into pieces when she looked at Darryl; she

She only knew that her heart was broken into pieces when she looked at Darryl; she did not know if he would live.

Little Fairy put her hands on Darryl's abdomen and started to pass her internal energy to him. However, it could only help relieve Darryl's pain temporarily and keep him alive for a little while longer.

Then, a few of the Carter family's disciples carried Darryl into the bedroom. The man was severely injured, so fresh blood covered the bedsheet.

The entire Carter mansion stayed silent that day.

The Carter family had sustained severe injuries and losses for that battle. It was the family's worst battle in a few hundred years.

Anger, sorrow and sadness covered the entire family.

The Carter family had almost been destroyed in a single day. At the same time the

The Carter family had almost been destroyed in a single day. At the same time, the news about Darryl's injuries was spread throughout the community.

All the sects and even those from the New World had discussed that matter.

Various rumors spread everywhere.

Some said that Darryl had caused the death of an innocent female newscaster, and then he had suffered severe injuries in a battle—that was his karma.

Some said that Darryl was a person who valued love and relationship, and it was a pity if he had died.

In summary, there were too many rumors out there.

Two days had passed, but not a single sect had visited Darryl at the Carter residence. Since they no longer recognized Darryl as the Alliance Master, they no longer cared

Since they no longer recognized Darryl as the Alliance Master, they no longer cared about his life or death.

The Six Fairies and the Carter family felt disgusted at those sects' cold-bloodedness.

Darryl had done a lot for the World Universe. He destroyed dark forces, helped the other people, and defended them against the New World army.

However, they had treated him so badly because of the death of a female newscaster.

That was a sad situation.

Over the past two days, Dax, Chester, the Six Fairies and Debra took turns to pass their internal energy to Darryl every two hours to maintain his life.

Darryl had performed the second level of the Grand Destruction Art—the Mountainous River Art technique—and he had exhausted his internal energy. He was already weak when Yvonne stabbed his heart. That was the most severe injury that Under those circumstances, Chester and the others had to give him their internal energy every two hours to maintain his life. Otherwise, Darryl might die at any given time.

Chapter 1025

For the past few two days, everyone tried various ways to cure Darryl, but he did not show any sign of recovery.

At that moment, the entire Carter family, Dax, Cindy and others felt hopeless.

Darryl laid there quietly; his face was pale, and his breathing was extremely weak.

Everyone surrounded him; the atmosphere was so stressful.

Bang!

Dax's eyes were red, and his heart burned with worry as he punched the wall. He almost cried.

It had been two days—two whole days.

It had been two days—two whole days.

Everyone had tried various ways, but Darryl was still unconscious.

"Sect Master Gable, you are very knowledgeable, is there no way to help Darryl?"
Dax's tears fell uncontrollably.

Debra sighed; she felt as if her heart had been broken into pieces. "Darryl's heart was stabbed. I am afraid there is no other way."

Dax's mind went blank. Even though he was a strong man, his vision turned dark when he heard that; he almost fainted.

'That's right! Heart of the Ocean!'

At that moment, Dax's eyes shone as he looked at Debra again. "Sect Master Gable, do you have the Heart of the Ocean in the Great East?"

you have the Heart of the Ocean in the Great East.

Dax's eyes were full of anticipation!

About three years ago, Old Master Darby had been very ill and needed someone to donate bone marrow to him. Darryl had wanted to make that donation, but Dax had stopped him. Abbess Mother Serendipity had stabbed Dax's lungs because of that.

At that time, the only thing that could cure Dax was the Heart of the Ocean. It was the only thing that could block a wound of a human's internal organ!

Darryl had knelt to wash Evelyn's feet to get the Heart of the Ocean to save Dax. Then, he finally got it, and that was how he saved Dax's life.

Dax was extremely excited when he remembered that. If the Heart of Ocean could block a wound of a person's internal organ, would it be able to help Darryl?!

However, people said that there was only one Heart of the Ocean in the World Universe, and Dax had been the one who had consumed it. They would not be able to

However, people said that there was only one Heart of the Ocean in the World Universe, and Dax had been the one who had consumed it. They would not be able to find another Heart of the Ocean in the entire World Universe. However, it did not mean that there was none in the Great East!

"Sect Master Gable, do you have the Heart of the Ocean in the Great East?"

Sigh!

Debra sighed when she saw the desperation in Dax's eyes. She shook her head; she could not hide her sorrow. "This is the first time I've heard about this treasure, the Heart of the Ocean..."

Debra shed tears silently as she looked at Darryl on the bed.

Two days ago, Debra had ordered the Artemis Sect's disciples to look for spirit pills that could heal a heart wound. Many of them had sent various types of healing spirit pills, but none were effective.

pills, but none were effective.

The Elixir Sect's Sect Master, Andy Curtis, had even brought a hundred-thousand-year-old Ganoderma the previous day.

Even though the hundred-thousand-year-old Ganoderma was an excellent spirit medicine, it did not work for Darryl.

They were out of ideas, and the atmosphere in the room was extremely stressful.

"No..."

Little Fairy cried loudly. As she walked to the front of the bed, she cried and shouted at Darryl, "Darryl, wake up! I am begging you..."

Darryl's situation had worsened. If they were to rely solely on their internal energy, they would not be able to maintain his life.

they would not be able to maintain his life.

Since Darryl could die at any time, Little Fairy could not control herself.

"Little Sister!"

Cindy was distraught too. She consoled Little Sister softly. "Don't worry; there must be other ways to help him."

Suddenly, Little Fairy thought of something. She pulled Cindy aside and led her out of the room.

Once they reached a quiet place outside, Little Fairy stopped and said, "Big Sister, I wish to ask for a favor."

Cindy was confused, but she asked, "What is it?"

Little Fairy sighed deeply before she said, "Big Sister, let's use the Lily Lamp to save Darryl."

Chapter 1026

Cindy's face changed when she heard that. She did not even give it a second thought before she shook her head and rejected that notion. "No, that is not possible."

The Lily Lamp was a treasure that Cindy had obtained from Kunlun Mountain. The lamp could absorb the essence of the sky and earth; it contained a lot of spirit energy!

Cindy did think that they could use the wick in the Lily Lamp to save Darry, but it was too much a price to pay.

It was not because she loved the Lily Lamp but because the lamp wick could not cure Darryl on its own. It needed another person to contribute their spiritual energy to the lamp wick before they would let Darryl consume the wick. That was the only way to cure Darryl.

However, the person who would contribute the spirit energy would have to be at least

However, the person who would contribute the spirit energy would have to be at least a Martial Saint. Anyone below that level would be too weak for the method. Even if they combine their energy with the wick, it would not have any effect.

A person with no spiritual energy would not be able to live past a day!

Which Martial Saint would be willing to sacrifice their life to save Darryl's?

Little Fairy wanted to use the Lily Lamp to save Darryl, so it was apparent that she wanted to sacrifice herself in exchange for Darryl's life.

Cindy looked at Little Fairy as she stomped her feet angrily. "Little Sister, I cannot let you do that."

Even though the Seven Fairies of Fuyao Palace were not sisters by birth, they had a really close relationship with each other!

Fuyao Palace might be indebted to Darryl, but as the eldest sister, Cindy could not let Fuyao Palace might be indebted to Darryl, but as the eldest sister, Cindy could not let her little sister sacrifice her own life to save him!

A life in exchange for another—that was too much a price to pay!

A person with no spiritual energy could only live for a day!

"Big Sister, I am begging you." Little Fairy's tears poured as she begged her sister.

Cindy shook her head. "Little Sister, I will not give you the Lily Lamp. Yes, you might be able to save Darryl if you combine the lamp wick with your spiritual energy. But do you know you would only have a day to live if you do not have your spiritual energy? Is it worth it?! I will never allow you to do that. Let's find another way; there must be another way to save Darryl."

Cindy glared at Little Fairy before she turned to return to the room.

In Cindy's mind, there was no one in the world more important than her sisters.

In Cindy's mind, there was no one in the world more important than her sisters.

Not even for her benefactor—Darryl.

Little Fairy froze. Her tears continued to fall as her heart was filled with disappointment.

Apart from the Lily Lamp, there was no other way to save Darryl!

'No!'

'Darryl must not die. I must save him.'

Little Fairy was determined. She left the Carter family and rushed toward the Fuyao Palace's main altar.

The weapon, Lily Lamp, would have more power as it absorbed the sky and earth's

The weapon, Lily Lamp, would have more power as it absorbed the sky and earth's essence. That was why Cindy had kept it in Fuyao Palace's secret cultivating room.

'I will just have to steal it if Big Sister does not want to give it to me.'

Cindy returned to the room and saw everyone in a discussion about ways to save Darryl.

Third Fairy walked toward her and asked, "Big Sister, where is Little Sister? Didn't she go out with you just now?"

Third Fairy knew that her little sister would be upset because Darryl's life was in danger.

Cindy sighed and said, "She is outside; let her calm down."

Cindy sat down and took a sip of tea from the cup she held in her hand.

However, she did not expect that Little Fairy would not return even after an hour.

Third Fairy was worried, so she went out to take a look. Soon, she returned with a conflicted expression on her face.

"Big Sister, Little Sister is not outside!"

No!

When she heard that, Cindy's heart shivered. She turned to the other four fairies and said, "Hurry! Go after Little Sister. She must have returned to Fuyao Palace to get the Lily Lamp! She wanted to use her spiritual energy to save Darryl. Go after her now!"

Then, Cindy ran out of the room.

What?!

vvnat!!

The four fairies' faces immediately changed as they followed behind her quickly!

The fairies knew that the Lily Lamp could save Darryl, but none of them brought it up. That was because they knew that they would need at least a Martial Saint to contribute their spiritual energy to the lamp wick. If they wanted to save Darryl, then they would need to sacrifice another life! That was too cruel! That was why the fairies kept it to themselves and did not say anything about it.

It looked like their little sister had planned to use her spiritual energy to save Darryl!

The fairies were extremely worried as they flew hurriedly back to Fuyao Palace. However, they were too late.

Chapter 1027

Chapter 1027

At the Fuyao Palace.

Little Fairy had finally arrived, and she went straight to the secret room. When she noticed that the door was locked, she did not hesitate to punch it.

Slam!

With a loud bang, the secret room's door broke into pieces. Little Fairy ignored the dust as she turned and dashed into the room. Then, she walked out with a lamp in her hand.

It was the Lily Lamp!

“Darryl, you will not die. You will definitely not die.”

Little Fairy smiled as she mumbled to herself.

At the Carter residence.

It was the middle of the night, and the room was incredibly quiet. One could only hear Darryl's weak breathing.

Dax, Chester and the others had gone to rest, and Debra was the only one there to monitor Darryl's situation.

Debra had slept for two days and two nights—her body and soul were exhausted. However, she believed that Darryl would make it; a miracle would happen.

When she fell into the volcano crater, Darryl had performed a miracle when he absorbed the White Lily Cold Flame. So, even though he had been stabbed, he would not die. He would definitely not...

Squeak!

Squeak!

Suddenly, someone pushed the door open. Little Lily walked into the room with the Lily Lamp in her hand. She looked delighted when she said, “Darryl, I am here to save you.”

As she spoke, she looked around the room. She relaxed and sighed in relief as she saw only Debra there.

‘Luckily, Big Sister and the rest are not around.’

Little Lily did not know that Cindy and the rest went after her to stop her.

They had taken a different route; hence they did not bump into each other.

“Miss Irene, this is—”

When Debra saw the Lily Lamp in Little Fairy’s hand, she felt the intense spiritual

When Debra saw the Lily Lamp in Little Fairy's hand, she felt the intense spiritual energy, so she had to ask.

"This is the Lily Lamp; it is our Fuyao Palace's treasure. It can save Darryl," Little Fairy said as she walked toward the bed.

Really?

Debra was surprised; she was also delighted—happy beyond description.

Little Fairy smiled and said, "Sister Debra, please guard the door from the outside. Do not let anyone interrupt us."

"Sure, sure!" Debra did not think about it further as she headed out to guard the door.

Sigh!

Then, Little Fairy walked forward and knelt by Darryl's bed. She could not hide the joyous feeling in her heart as she said softly, "Darryl, when Leroy caught us, you had saved us. It is now my turn to save you."

Tears fell from Little Fairy's face as she spoke.

She knew that once she utilized her spiritual energy, she would only have another day to live.

However, there was no other way to save Darryl, so she had to do it! It seemed like Darryl could no longer hold on, so she could not wait anymore!

Bang!

Little Fairy activated her internal energy, and it gradually emerged from her body. Then it went into the Lilv Lamp.

Little Fairy activated her internal energy, and it gradually emerged from her body. Then, it went into the Lily Lamp.

At that moment, the Lily Lamp brightened the entire room! Next, a round pearl floated out of the lamp—that was the lamp wick! It had combined with Little Fairy's spiritual energy!

Little Fairy smiled as she held the lamp wick in her gentle hands. Then, she fed it into Darryl's mouth.

Darryl's pale face gradually became rosier, and his damaged heart healed speedily.

It had worked!

Little Fairy's face was ashen. She was weak, but a smile had remained on her face.

Since she had lost her spiritual energy, Little Fairy could feel the energy in her body had started to disperse little by little.

Chapter 1028

However, Little Fairy did not care. As long as Darryl would wake up, it would be worth it, even if she had to die for it to work.

"Are you done?"

Debra had opened the door gently; she could not wait any longer. She decided to take a peek and asked about the progress.

When she spoke, Debra focused on Darryl's body; she did not notice Little Fairy's pale face.

Little Fairy smiled and said softly, "It's done. You may come in now, Sister Debra."

"Great!"

Debra.

Debra was extremely excited as she dashed into the room. She was delighted when she realized that Darryl looked much better.

'I knew that Darryl is lucky; he would not die so easily.'

Debra held Little Fairy's hand. "Thank you so much. I do not know how to thank you enough, I—"

What?

Debra furrowed her brows! She could feel the coldness that seeped from Little Fairy's hands; her internal energy felt weak too.

"What happened? Sister Irene, you—" Debra asked; she was stunned.

Little Fairy's hand was icy cold, and the internal energy in her abdomen was extremely weak.

Little Fairy's hand was icy cold, and the internal energy in her abdomen was extremely weak.

"What happened? Why is your pulse so weak?" Debra continued to ask even though she was shocked.

Little Fairy shook her head. "Sister Debra, I am fine. I only exhausted my internal energy to activate the Lily Lamp."

When she heard that, Debra did not overthink it. She said, "Then you must get some rest; I will take care of Darryl."

There was only concern in Debra's eyes.

"I won't leave; I am fine." Little Fairy shook her head as she stared at Darryl.

'I have only one day to live. For this one short day, I want to spend my time with Darryl. I would have no regrets then.'

Darryl. I would have no regrets then.'

When Debra saw the determination in her face, she nodded and did not say anything else.

Debra was not jealous at all. Little Fairy was pretty and kind, and everyone liked her. Furthermore, she had saved Darryl.

At that moment, the room was in complete silence.

Debra and Little Fairy did not speak; their eyes were focused on Darryl.

"Hmm..."

After a short while, Darryl moaned as he started to regain consciousness.

As he opened his eyes, Darryl felt that his entire body was weak, and there was a mild pain in his chest.

As he opened his eyes, Darryl felt that his entire body was weak, and there was a mild pain in his chest.

'Sh*t! How long have I been out?'

"Darryl!"

"Darryl, you're awake! This is great!"

Little Fairy and Debra were extremely delighted as they shouted.

Debra smiled and said, "Let me get Jewel, Dax and the others." As she spoke, she hurried to the door.

'Darryl is safe; Dax and others would be so happy.'

At that moment, Little Fairy held Darryl's hand, and she could not hide the happiness in her heart. "Darryl, you're finally awake."

in her heart. "Darryl, you're finally awake."

Little Fairy's eyes were red.

'I did not waste my spiritual energy! Thank god! Darryl is awake now...'

Darryl felt touched when he realized that Little Fairy had cried until her eyes were red. However, he could not help but tease her. "My little wife, have you been worried about your husband?"

Little Fairy immediately blushed when she heard that. However, she did not scold Darryl.

Darryl scratched his head.

'This is weird...'

At that moment, Darryl noticed that something was not right with Little Fairy. When he saw her pale face, he asked, "What happened to you, my little wife?"

"I—"

Little Fairy opened her mouth, but she could only say one word before they heard footsteps from the outside.

Then, Dax, Jewel and the others walked into the room excitedly.

"I know you'd be alright."

"Little Sister! You—"

Once she stepped into the room, Cindy shivered when she saw Little Fairy's face and the Lily Lamp beside her. Her heart ached so terribly. "You! Why are you so foolish?"

When she had returned to the Fuyao Palace, Cindy was distraught when she realized that the Lily Lamp was missing from the secret room. She did not even stop for rest on her way back to the Carter residence.

When she had returned to the Fuyao Palace, Cindy was distraught when she realized that the Lily Lamp was missing from the secret room. She did not even stop for rest on her way back to the Carter residence.

When she saw that Darryl was awake and Little Fairy's extremely weak condition, the fairies knew that they were too late.

Little Fairy had used her spiritual energy to save Darryl.

Cindy was devastated; the other fairies' eyes were red and teary too.

Second Fairy had passed away not too long ago; they still mourned her death.

It seemed like they would lose their little sister too.

Darryl felt as if there was something wrong with the atmosphere, so he asked Cindy, "Palace Master, what happened?"

As he spoke, Darryl saw the Lily Lamp by his bedside; he was puzzled.

Everyone else was curious too. They had been too focused on the joyous news that they had no chance to gather their thoughts.

How did Darryl regain his consciousness?

How did Little Fairy save him?

At that moment, all eyes were on Cindy.

Cindy sighed. She could not hide her sorrow as she looked at Darryl and said, "Do you know that Little Sister sacrificed her spiritual energy to save you? She only has a day to live."

What?!

Everyone in the room was stunned!

All of them were cultivators, so they knew the importance of one's spiritual energy!

All of them were cultivators, so they knew the importance of one's spiritual energy!

Once a person lost their spiritual energy, they would also lose their life.

Like a lamp that had exhausted its flames, one could only live for a day and a night!

Darryl's mind started to spin as his entire body shook. His eyes were blood-red as he held Little Fairy's hands and shouted, "Why are you so foolish? Why are you so foolish?"

Darryl's chest clenched in pain; he could not accept the fact!

Three years ago, Leroy had absorbed Yvonne's spiritual energy, and she had only one day and one night to live. Yvette had used the silver needle on Yvonne so that she could live longer. Then, Darryl had destroyed the Kunlun Sect and took the Phoenix Pill to save Yvonne.

However, there was only one Phoenix Pill in the world!

Chapter 1030

Besides that, Yvette was in the New World, so how could she help to maintain Little Fairy's life?

She only had one day and one night to live! Darryl's tears fell like rain when he thought about that!

Little Fairy felt Darryl's sorrow, so she smiled weakly and said, "As long as I could save you, I am willing to give up my spiritual energy. Darryl, you are the World Universe's hero, and it still needs your protection in the future. I am just a girl; this is a worthy exchange."

She smiled as she said that.

Darryl was utterly devastated! He could not hold it any longer; he pulled Little Fairy into his arms as his tears continued to fall. "Why are you so foolish? I am not worthy enough for you to do that. Why are you so foolish? You foolish girl—"

Darryl continued to shout and cry as he raised his head and looked at Cindy. He asked, "Palace Master, there is a way to save Little Fairy, right? Tell me quickly; how do I save her? How do I save her?"

Cindy sighed as she looked at Little Fairy and shook her head.

"Darryl, please treasure the one day left in her life and spend more time with my little sister. Don't waste my little sister's love for you," Cindy said softly. She forced herself not to cry as she turned around and walked out of the bedroom.

Everyone looked at each other with sadness and followed suit.

They were not stupid; they could see the love that Little Fairy had for Darryl. Otherwise, she would not have used her own spiritual energy to exchange for Darryl's.

Since she had only a day to live, they should let them have a good chat privately.

Soon, only Darryl and Little Fairy were left in the bedroom.

The atmosphere was unusual and stressful.

They were silent for some time, but Darryl kept Little Fairy's hand in his. He continued to cry. "Why are you so foolish? It's not worth it for you to do that; I am not worthy..."

AOC

Darryl had met Little Fairy first before he met the rest of her sisters. When he knew that she would die soon, Darryl felt his heart ache as if it was sliced open; he felt extremely horrible!

Little Fairy felt Darryl's sorrow, but she smiled weakly and said, "Darryl, can you call me as you did before, please?"

Her pale face blushed out of shyness.

'Call her like before?'

Typically, Darryl would have laughed had he heard her request before that moment. However, he could not laugh at all. He hugged her and said, "Little Wife..."

As he said that, Darryl sobbed so hard that he could hardly speak!

Little Fairy's face was full of happiness. She leaned on Darryl's chest and mumbled, "Darryl, I realized now that I have always loved you. You can call me your little wife; I will never be mad at you."

Little Fairy sighed softly. "I guess this is what love feels like; how wonderful."

She knew she would not live for very long, but she was not sad at all. She leaned against Darryl's chest as her lips curled upward—she smiled in content.

The more she did that, the more Darryl's heart ached.

"I will not let you die. Never..." Darryl hugged Little Fairy tightly as his voice choked again. "There must be a way. Little Wife, wait for me; I will get them to find a way to save you. We will definitely find a way to save you. Definitely."

Darryl wanted to stand up.

"Darryl!"

Little Fairy pulled him down to the bed quickly. She smiled and shook her head. "There is no other way. Don't leave. Stay with me, please..."

Darryl's heart sunk as his nose twitched. He nodded. "Very well."

Darryl pulled Little Fairy into his arms again.

As she felt the warmth of Darryl's body, Little Fairy' pale face seemed joyful. "I had imagined how it would feel if you were to take me into your arms. Now I know; I feel so warm..."

When he heard what she said, Darryl's heart clenched. He could not take it anymore; he felt as if his heart had bled!

All the Carter family's disciples felt terrible after they witnessed that tragic incident.

For the next few days, the Carters rebuilt their mansion and increased its surrounding area's security. Security booths were set up every few feet around the estate, and a patrol team was initiated to guard the place.

Donoghue had escaped, but he might return someday.

So, everyone in the Carter family remained on full alert.

Suddenly, a slim figure appeared. She wore a face mask; sweat covered her forehead, and her bright eyes shone with worries.

It was Lily.

AOC

For the past two days, she had remained around the Carter mansion as she waited for Darryl's return. She had overheard the conversation between two Carter family's disciples that Darryl was on his deathbed. She was worried, and after some hesitation, she decided to see him.

"Stop! Who are you?"

Just as she arrived at the main door entrance, a few Carter family's disciples stopped her.

"I want to see Darryl!"

There was sweat on her face, and her eyes showed desperation.

The disciples checked Lily out, and one of them asked, "Who are you to him?"

His eyes were full of doubts.

After the Donoghue incident, the entire Carter family was on full alert. They would question any strangers they encountered on the family estate.

"I am his—"

Lily wanted to say that she was Darryl's wife. However, after a few words, she changed her mind and said, "I am his friend."

"Now that I look so ugly, I don't deserve to be Darryl's wife."

"No matter what, I must see Darryl."

"As long as I know he is safe, I will not need to worry then."

"Friend? What is your name? Where did you come from?" The disciple continued to ask more questions; he did not let his guard down.

"This woman claims to be Young Master's friend, but she wore a mask and dared not show her face. How suspicious!"

Lily was worried. "I am really Darryl's friend. Please let me go in to see him. I will just take one look at him from outside the door, and then I will leave. Just one look—"

However, the disciples did not give way.

"What's going on?"

At that moment, a voice was heard from a distance, and soon, Dax appeared and walked toward them.

"Sect Master Sanders, this woman wants to meet our Young Master. We noticed that she looks suspicious, so we are questioning her." The disciples reported the situation quickly.

Suspicious woman?

Dax's face darkened as he looked at Lily, "Who are you?"

"Dax!"

Lily was delighted, and she asked quickly, "How is Darryl? Is he alright?"

Dax did not reply immediately but continued to ask coldly, "Who are you?"

To Dax, Matteo had killed Lily a long time ago. Since Lily wore a mask, there was no way that Dax could have recognised her.

Lily was anxious as she replied, "Dax, I am Lily."

Chapter 1032

Lily?

When he heard that name, Dax laughed coldly. "My brother's wife is dead. Who are you? How dare you impersonate her? Do you want to die?"

Dax did not want to say anything else; he turned and dashed toward her. Then, he reached out and pulled Lily's face mask off!

When he heard that name, Dax laughed coldly. "My brother's wife is dead. Who are you? How dare you impersonate her? Do you want to die?"

Dax did not want to say anything else; he turned and dashed toward her. Then, he reached out and pulled Lily's face mask off!

Dax was a Level One Martial Emperor, so there was no way for Lily to hide. Her face mask was immediately removed.

The moment Dax saw Lily's face, he was shocked.

What an ugly woman!

Then, Dax gathered his thoughts as he furrowed his brows. He said, "You are Lily?"

Then, Dax gathered his thoughts as he furrowed his brows. He said, "You are Lily?"

Even though half of her face looked ugly, the other half was white and smooth—it almost looked perfect so Dax could recognize her!

Lily was still in shock, but she nodded.

"Sister, you're not dead! What happened to your face?" Dax looked curious; his mind was full of questions.

Lily did not have the mood to explain further, so she asked worriedly, "Let's not talk about that for now. How is Darryl? Is he alright?"

Dax snapped back to his senses and said, "Darryl's condition had been quite worrying, but he is fine now."

Then, he continued to speak excitedly, "Come! I'll bring you to him. He would be delighted to know that you are still alive."

Lily sighed; the worries in her heart were finally relieved.

Dax looked at her with full anticipation, but Lily shook her head. "I don't think I should see him, but I am relieved that he is alright. Please! Don't tell him that I was here."

Then, Lily took out an item and handed it to Dax.

It was the Heaven Repairing Stones that she had found at the Black Wind Sect's stone dungeon.

Lily did not know anything about that rock, but she knew that it had spiritual energy. Since Darryl was severely injured, it might be useful to him.

"I found this at the New World; please give it to Darryl," Lily said softly.

Dax took the rock from her. Lily's heart felt heavy as she looked at the Carter mansion for one more time. Then, she turned to leave.

"Sister, you—"

"Sister, you—"

Dax shouted, but Lily had left.

Meanwhile...

Darryl hugged Little Fairy tightly; they were still in the room. Time had passed—seconds and minutes—soon, a day had gone by silently.

In the evening of the second day, Darryl felt a tightness in his chest as he realized night had fallen. For the past ten hours, Little Fairy had shared a lot of her childhood memories.

Darryl knew that Little Fairy wanted to distract his attention because she did not want him to feel too sad.

"Little Wife, do you have any wishes from your childhood?" Darryl asked bitterly as he stroked Little Fair's hair.

Little Fairy gave it some thoughts before she smiled and said, "To be worry-free."

Darryl's heart clenched when he heard that.

'Such a wonderful girl, she had sacrificed so much for me...'

Little Fairy knew that Darryl was emotional, so she smiled as she looked out the window. "The sky has turned dark. Darryl, let's go and look at the stars. Since I was a young girl, I have loved going to the top of Fuyao Palace's mountain to look at the stars. Please accompany me to do the same tonight, alright?"

"Of course!"

Darryl nodded as he carried Little Fairy and walked out of the bedroom.

'Watch the stars? Even if she wants me to climb the mountain or dive into the ocean, I will not hesitate for a single second.'

Chapter 1033

Little Fairy might not live past the night, and all she wanted was to watch the stars with Darryl.

About ten minutes later, Darryl had arrived at the Wicked Valley's mountain peak with Little Fairy.

The Wicked Valley was where Darryl had previously defeated the Ten Villains. It is also Mid City's highest peak.

The night breeze continued to blow as Darryl, and Little Fairy climbed to the peak. With Darryl's pure internal energy, Little Fairy did not feel the cold as Darryl carried her in his arms.

Tall green grass grew all over the mountain peak. It was late at night, so there was no one there at all.

Darryl and Little Fairy sat on the green grass; the sky was full of stars, and they shone beautifully.

shone beautifully.

Little Fairy was very excited at that moment; she was as delighted as a child. "Darryl, look at that star; it is so bright.

"When I was a little girl, my master told me that a person would turn into a star in the sky after they die. Do you think I will turn into a star after I die?"

Darryl felt a sharp pain in his heart. "Little Wife, stop staying that..."

Little Fairy laughed as she nodded. She smiled weakly at Darryl and said, "Let's talk about some other things then. Do you remember the first time we met? I was about to kill you, but you still smiled cheekily while you teased me; I was so furious at that time.

"Later, we went to the New World army camp. You abducted my sisters, who were there to look for me, and locked them in the tent. I was so angry. However, come to think about it, even though you like to flirt, you did not mistreat us at all.

"Then, Big Sister locked you at the Acheron Tower. I was really worried; I did not know that I had fallen for you then.

"Then, Big Sister found you at the Acheron Tower. I was really worried; I did not know that I had fallen for you then.

"I was so happy when I saw you coming out from the Acheron Tower later. I was really very happy..."

Darryl smiled when he heard that; their surroundings got warmer.

However, there was sorrow among the warmth.

Little Fairy could feel Darryl's grief, so she consoled him gently. "Darryl, don't be sad. I am very much content that I could spend my final moments with you and the stars."

Darryl nodded and smiled, but he could not control his tears. His tears fell uncontrollably. "Irene, I'm sorry. This is all my fault..."

Little Fairy reached out to wipe Darryl's tears. She said gently, "Don't cry. I will feel worse if you cry. Honestly, I knew the consequences when I used the Lily Lamp to save you. It is worth it—as long as I could save you."

Little Fairy smiled sweetly. "Yes, we may not stay together forever, but I am very to save you. It is... if—as long as I could save you."

Little Fairy smiled sweetly. "Yes, we may not stay together forever, but I am very happy to have you by my side for this day. You have not answered me—will a person turn into a star after they die? Also, are there any gods in the sky? Will I turn into a god after I die..."

"Yes, yes you will..." Darryl's tears continued to fall. He looked up into the star-filled sky as he tried his best to smile. He said, "My little wife is so beautiful—you will definitely become a real fairy. Then, you will be able to see all the gods in the sky. You will see the Jade Emperor, Lady Queen Mother, the Cowherd and the Weaver Girl too..."

Darryl failed to choke back his tears; he could not continue to speak.

"The Cowherd and the Weaver Girl?"

Suddenly, Little Fairy was alert; she looked up at Darryl and asked, "Who are the Cowherd and the Weaver Girl? Tell me about them."

Little Fairy had grown up in the Fuyao Palace, so she had not spent enough time

Little Fairy had grown up in the Fuyao Palace, so she had not spent enough time with the rest of the society; no one had told her any fairy tales before that.

When he saw the curiosity on her face, Darryl smiled and started to tell the story about the Cowherd and the Weaver Girl.

At the end of the story, Darryl took a deep breath and said regretfully, "At each year's Qixi Festival, all the magpies in the world will form a bridge on the Milky Way so that the Cowherd and the Weaver Girl can meet each other."

"What a sad but beautiful love story."

Little Fairy looked at the starry sky.

She could not hold it anymore; she sobbed as she hugged Darryl tightly and said, "The Cowherd and the Weaver Girl can still meet once a year, but I will not have any chance to see the stars with you again. Darryl, I'd miss you. Do you know how much I'd miss you..."

Since the previous night, Little Fairy had not shed a single tear until then.

Chapter 1034

Little Fairy knew that her time was almost up — she could no longer be brave, so she started to sob.

"It's alright, don't cry, please don't cry..."

Darryl's heart clenched, and he could not stop his tears. He hugged Little Fairy and consoled her gently, "I would never let you leave me. Never!."

"Yes!"

Little Fairy pressed her face into Darryl's chest and nodded as she said weakly, "Darryl, please hug me tightly. I love this feeling."

Darryl embraced her in his arms tighter; his hands trembled.

"Tighter... I feel so cold..."

Little Fairy could feel that her body had turned lighter, and her mind had started to get confused.

Little Fairy knew that she would die soon.

to get confused.

Little Fairy knew that she would die soon.

However, she tried her best to keep herself conscious. She said weakly, "Darryl, do you have any other love story? I want to listen to more stories. I want to listen a hundred more, and yet it will never be enough. "

"Of course!"

Darryl tried to ignore the pain in his heart; he smiled as he nodded. He said softly, "Let me tell you the story about the Butterfly Lovers."

Little Fairy nodded slightly as she shut her eyes. There was a happy smile on her face.

'I am lying in Darryl's arms during my last moments, and I'm listening to his voice. I have no regrets.'

Darryl did not notice the subtle changes in Little Fairy; he started to tell the story slowly, "Long time ago, in the Zhu family, landlord Zhu had a daughter named Yingtai...

"Yingtai loved to read and write. When she was sixteen years old, she dressed as "Yingtai loved to read and write. When she was sixteen years old, she dressed as a male to attend college so that she could study. She met Shanbo there.

"After graduation, Yingtai revealed her female self to Shanbo. He was surprised and delighted. They were secretly engaged, but landlord Zhu insisted on marrying Yingtai to someone else...

"Shanbo fell ill when he knew that, and then he died. When Yingtai heard the news, she ran toward Shanbo's grave and knocked her head onto his tombstone."

At the end of the story, Darryl tried his best to quell the anguish in his heart and smiled lightly. "Guess what happened next? Shanbo and Yingtai turned into a pair of butterflies after they died, and they finally could live together freely..."

After he finished the story, Darryl waited quietly for Little Fairy's reaction.

He wanted to hear her say, 'What a beautiful story.'

However, Little Fairy did not have any reaction!

Darryl looked down at her; he could feel beautiful story.'

However, Little Fairy did not have any reaction!

Darryl looked down at her; he could feel that something was not right.

His mind immediately spun; he was stunned.

Little Fairy was quiet as she laid in his arms. There was a light smile on her pale but exquisite, but her eyes shut tightly.

"Little Wife! Irene! Little Fairy! Please, open your eyes and look at me. I am begging you; please don't scare me. I am begging you. I am begging you. Little Fairy, I am begging you! Please open your eyes..." Darryl screamed until his voice cracked.

Chapter 1035

At that moment, Darryl could feel Little Fairy's got colder—his heart sunk.

His tears fell uncontrollably. Darryl knew that Little Fairy would never wake up again!

"Little Wife, please don't scare me!"
Darryl shook Little Fairy gently—his voice choked, and his tears poured; he could not hold it anymore!

Darryl felt as if his entire heart was empty as his tears dripped onto Little Fairy's face.

"Little Fairy, let's go home. Let's bring you home..." Darryl sobbed as he spoke. He carried Little Fairy in his arms as he walked down the mountain.

Darryl did not know how he arrived back at the Carter mansion. He looked as if he had lost his soul.

When he appeared at the main entrance with Little Fairy in his arms, all the

When he appeared at the main entrance with Little Fairy in his arms, all the disciples were shocked.

It had only been a few hours, but Darryl looked as if he had lost half of his weight. He looked desperate.

"Young Master!"

When they saw Little Fairy in Darryl's arm, a few family disciples went to help the man. They could see that Darryl had no energy to walk, but he kept Little Fairy in his arms.

It was truly a tragic scene.

However, Darryl did not seem to have heard a single word that they said; he clenched his teeth as he walked into the mansion.

When he arrived at the main hall, he saw Cindy and the other fairies, Debra, Dax and others were inside—their eyes were red.

A crystal coffin was laid in the middle of the main hall.

Cindy had prepared the crystal coffin.

Little Fairy had used her spiritual energy to save Darryl—she only had a day and a Little Fairy had used her spiritual energy to save Darryl—she only had a day and a night to live. So, Cindy had ordered the Fuyao Palace disciples to make the crystal coffin with the thousand-year-old ice from the north pole.

The moment they saw Darryl carried Little Fairy home, the fairies started to cry.

"Little Sister..."

Sixth Fairy and Little Fairy's age were the nearest, and they had the closest relationship. Her heart ached so badly that she almost fainted.

Darryl felt distraught when he saw that; grief overcame him ultimately.

"Palace Master!"

Darryl's eyes were red as he looked at Cindy. He could not hide the guilt and sadness in his heart. "I'm sorry. I'm sorry..."

Before he could continue with his words, his tears started again.

Darryl knew that the Seven Fairies were like sisters. Little Fairy had died because Darryl knew that the seven Fairies were like sisters. Little Fairy had died because of him; he could not face Cindy and the other fairies.

"You..."

Cindy cried so hard that she could hardly speak. She pointed at the crystal coffin and said, "Please... put Little Sister in it."

Darryl nodded as he continued to cry.

Then, he put Little Fairy into the crystal coffin.

The coffin was made from thousand-year-old ice from the north pole; it had enough spiritual energy to ensure that Little Fairy's body would not rot.

Little Fairy's face looked peaceful as she laid in the coffin; there was a smile on her face, and it was as if she had fallen asleep.

"Darryl!"

Cindy said softly, "We will bring Little Sister back to Fuyao Palace tomorrow. Please take care of yourself."

Over the past year, too many things had happened at Fuyao Palace.

First, Leroy had killed Second Fairy. ① happened at Enya...

First, Leroy had killed Second Fairy. ①

Then, Little Fairy had left them too.

Cindy was utterly disheartened by those tragic disasters. She wanted to bring her little sister home and never to set foot in society again.

Darryl was shocked when he heard that; he begged quickly, "Big Palace Master, please leave Little Sister here with me. Please? I want to be able to see her every day. I beg of you..."

Darryl was extremely agitated.

"What is the point of that? Little Sister is gone now; even if you were to stay with her every day, she would not know it," Sixth Fairy shouted as she cried. She could no longer hold herself back.

Darryl continued to beg Cindy as if he did not hear a single word. "Please... I am begging you..."

Sigh!

Chapter 1036

Cindy sighed before she said, "Alright then. But Darryl, you must always remember that Little Fairy is from Fuyao Palace. I shall leave her with you for a year. After a year, when you feel better, I will come to bring her home to Fuyao Palace."

Cindy took another look at Little Fairy for the last time before she turned and walked out of the main hall.

The four other fairies followed behind her as they wiped their tears.

"Thank you! Thank you!" Darryl said as he sobbed. Then, he quickly carried the crystal coffin into his own room.

The next day, Darryl knelt in front of his mother's grave the entire day after her funeral. 1

Then, he locked himself in his room for the next few days. He did not drink or eat; he only quietly stared at Little Fairy's coffin. He was devastated as both his mother and Little Fairy are dead.

Dax and his other friends tried to console

Dax and his other friends tried to console him, but Darryl still could not accept it—he was utterly devastated.

On the fifth day.

It was the evening, and Darryl sat in front of Little Fairy's crystal coffin. His mind was full of images of the two of them as he stared at the stairs. He sank into depression; he could not stop himself.

At that moment, someone pushed the door open gently—Yvonne walked into the room.

"Darryl."

Yvonne's heart ached, and she felt sad when she saw Darryl's condition. She fell into his arms and cried, "I am sorry; it is all my fault. I have caused Little Fairy's death. Please—scold or punish me."

Apart from the fairies and Darryl, Yvonne was the other person devastated by Little Fairy's death.

If she had not been under someone else's charm, she would never harm Darryl.

If Darryl had not been injured, Little

If she had not been under someone else's charm, she would never harm Darryl.

If Darryl had not been injured, Little Fairy would not need to use her spiritual energy to save him; she would not need to die.

Yvonne was sure that she had caused Little Fairy's death.

"Yvonne..."

Darryl could sense Yvonne's sorrow; he gathered his thoughts and consoled her. "Don't say that. How could you have caused her death? You were under the control of a charm. I do not blame you."

Darryl's heart continued to ache when he saw Yvonne's thin figure.

"But you have been like this for the past few days. I feel so terrible. I am scared; I am afraid that it was my fault," Yvonne said as she sobbed.

Yvonne clenched her lips and looked at Darryl as she continued to say, "No matter what, I have something to do with Little Fairy and Aunty's deaths. From today onward, I am afraid I can't be with Little Fairy and Aunty's deaths. From today onward, I am afraid I can't be with you. I will stay at Auntie's grave for a year to take care of her grave. That is the only way for me to feel better about what had happened."

Sigh!

Darryl saw the sincerity on her face, and it warmed his heart—he nodded.

He understood Yvonne's character well. It was tough to change her mind once she had decided to do something.

After she had kept Darryl company for a short while, Yvonne left the room.

Just as she stepped out, Dax walked into the room with a conflicted expression on his face.

"Darryl!"

As he entered the room, Dax sighed and patted Darryl's shoulder. "She is no longer with us; don't be too sad. There are still many things that you need to do, so you'll need to snap back to reality quickly."

Darryl nodded. "I know; you don't have Darryl nodded. "I know; you don't have to comfort me. I just wish to spend more time with Little Fairy.

Darryl looked at Little Fairy in the crystal coffin, and his nose twitched.

Dax sighed before he remembered something. He took out an item from his body and handed it to Darryl. "Here. I don't know what it is, but I think it might be useful to you." 1

It was the Heaven Repairing Stone.

For the past few days, Darryl appeared to have lost his soul due to Little Fairy's death.

He thought that Darryl had looked better that day, so he took the stone out.

'This is the Heart Repairing Stone?'

Darryl's eyes shone as he quickly accepted the stone.

Chapter 1037

As he held the Heaven Repairing Stone in his hand, Darryl turned to Dax and asked, "Where did you get this?"

"Umm—"

Dax mumbled as he scratched his head. Lily had given him the Heaven Repairing Stone, but she had deliberately told him not to tell Darryl about it.

However, how could Dax lie to Darryl? After a short pause, Dax said, "Lily gave it to me."

Lily?

Darryl was stunned when he heard her name.

Dax continued to say, "Lily was here to see you the other day, and I bumped into her at the main door. She asked about your condition, and then she gave this thing to me to pass to you. I wanted to bring her to see you, but she refused. She even told me not to tell you that she was here."

Dax said excitedly, "Darryl, Lily is alive! Aren't you excited about this news?"

bring her to see you, but she refused. She even told me not to tell you that she was here."

Dax said excitedly, "Darryl, Lily is alive! Aren't you excited about this news?"

Darryl's face looked bitter. "I knew that she was not dead; she had refused to see me all these while." He sighed.

What?

Dax was stunned. After a few seconds, he suddenly came to a realization. "I know why she refused to see you. She looks ugly now; perhaps she's ashamed."

Darryl was surprised to hear that. He looked at Dax curiously and asked, "What are you talking about? She looks ugly?"

Dax nodded. "Half of her face has turned black..."

Darryl felt his heart clenched.

'Lily, why are you so foolish?'

'You are always beautiful to me; why would you feel ashamed just because you look different now?'

Darryl held the Heaven Repairing Stone look different now.

Darryl held the Heaven Repairing Stone in his hand as he thought about that. Then, he retrieved the Seven Treasures Exquisite Pagoda.

When Darryl found that treasure, he realized that it could shrink and expand in size. Then, Little Fairy found a red thread to tie the Seven Treasures Exquisite Pagoda so that Darryl could hang it on his neck and carry it with him wherever he went.

As he touched the Seven Treasures Exquisite Pagoda, his heart ached; he thought of Little Fairy again.

Darryl sighed.

His eyes were red as he walked toward the garden. After he said the appropriate charm, the pagoda expanded in size.

'Sh*t! What was that?'

Dax was shocked when he saw that. He was also curious about it, so he observed the Seven Treasures Exquisite Pagoda closely.

Then, he was even more shocked to see was also curious about it, so he observed the Seven Treasures Exquisite Pagoda closely.

Then, he was even more shocked to see what had appeared in front of him.

He saw Darryl had put the Heaven Repairing Stone into a gap in the pagoda's second tier.

Intense spiritual energy immediately emerged from the Seven Treasures Exquisite Pagoda and filled the entire room. Then, many figures started to appear from the pagoda's second tier.

Dax counted about 200 people!

He realized that all of them were powerful people; at least 50 of them were Martial Emperors.

Dax was even more surprised when all 200 figures greeted Darryl politely. "Master!"

Sh*t!

More than 50 Martial Emperors had addressed Darryl as their master.

That was right; there were more than 50

That was right; there were more than 50 Martial Emperors there, and the most powerful amongst them was a level three Martial Emperor.

Dax's eyeballs were about to fall off; his mind was so confused.

After he was stunned for more than ten seconds, Dax finally gathered his thoughts and said, "Darryl, these people are—"

Before he could finish his question, Darryl walked toward those new arrivals and asked, "Who are you? What was your position before this?"

Darryl sounded desperate. He hoped to find someone knowledgeable in medicine who could resurrect Little Fairy.

"Master, I am Cass Sher, North Star Sect's 15th Sect Master."

'North Star Sect? I thought this sect had disappeared a long time ago.'

"What about you?"

"Master, I am Shane Doby, also known as Robber General."

Chapter 1038

Darryl was not sure how many people he had questioned when he arrived in front of a wise-looking man. He furrowed his brows as he asked, "Who are you?"

'Sh*t, not even a single doctor here?'

The person smiled and said, "Master, I am Yuan Tiangang, and I am a fortune-teller. I also know about feng shui."

Wow!

A fortune-teller!

Darryl was disappointed; he was about to move on to ask the next person.

Wait!

As he arrived at the next person, Darryl suddenly realized something. He turned and looked at Yuan Tiangang again. He could not hide the shiver in his heart as he asked, "What did you say? Yuan Tiangang?"

Yuan Tiangang?!

Yuan Tiangang was a famous feng shui master in the Tang Dynasty. It was said

Yuan Tiangang was a famous feng shui master in the Tang Dynasty. It was said that he had designed the Tang Dynasty Emperor's grave.

That person supposedly knew about everything on the earth and in the sky. Before Wu Zetian took the throne, he managed to predict that she would be an emperor!

"I am Yuan Tiangang."

He smiled as he replied Darryl respectfully.

Darryl could sense his power—a level three Martial Emperor! He must be the most powerful person in the pagoda's second tier.

'Sh*t, Yuan Tiangang?'

Dax was stunned, too; he could barely stand on his two feet. Everyone knew about the Tang Dynasty's famous feng shui master.

Wow!

Chester, Debra and the others also rushed toward them when they felt the vibration.

When Yuan Tiangang and the others appeared from the pagoda, it created an energy vibration so strong that the entire Carter family felt it.

Wow!

The moment they saw the situation, Chester and the others were in shock too.

What had happened?

Why were there so many people?

However, Chester and others were relieved when they knew that those people had appeared from the pagoda.

"Hurry!"

Darryl grabbed Yuan Tiangang and dragged him to the crystal coffin. He pointed at Little Fairy and said, "Rumors said that you know everything; there is nothing that you do not know. You have the ability to communicate with the sky! Tell me quickly—how can I save her?"

Darryl's face was full of anticipation.

Yuan Tiangang looked at Little Fairy and replied bitterly, "Master, I am only a feng

Yuan Tiangang looked at Little Fairy and replied bitterly, "Master, I am only a feng shui master. All those rumors about me were exaggerated. If I could resurrect a person, I would still be trapped in the Seven Treasures Exquisite Pagoda."

Yuan Tiangang told the truth; he did not have the ability to resurrect the dead, but he had great talent and knowledge in feng shui and other areas.

When he heard that, Darryl immediately sighed; he was disappointed again.

"But—"

At that moment, Yuan Tiangang changed his words and spoke again. "Master, if I am not wrong, this person lost her spiritual energy? I can't do anything for her, but there are two things in the world that could save her."

"What are they?"

Darryl's eyes shone and burned with hope as he stared intensely at Yuan Tiangang.

The man smiled and said, "The Phoenix

The man smiled and said, "The Phoenix Pill and the Dragon Essence—these two things can absorb spiritual energy and carry the power to live. However, there is only one Phoenix Pill and one Dragon Essence in this world. If you can find either one, then you'll be able to resurrect this lady."

A Phoenix Pill and a Dragon Essence?!

Darryl felt so delighted! He finally found a way to save Little Fairy!

Apart from the Phoenix Pill, there was also the Dragon Essence in that world!

Yvonne had consumed the Phoenix Pill, so the only way to save Little Fairy was to look for the Dragon Essence.

'But I have never heard of the Dragon Essence. Where would I find it?' 6

Chapter 1039

Dax and the others were delighted when they heard that there was a way for them to save Little Fairy, but they furrowed their brows immediately after that too.

It was a big world—where would they go to find the Dragon Essence?

The room was in complete silence; one could even hear it if a needle were to drop onto the ground.

“The Dragon Essence?”

Debra continued to say, “I think I've heard it before. Five years ago, when I just became the Artemis Sect's Sect Master, my disciples told me that an exquisite treasure had appeared in Mistloren. I think it was the Dragon Essence!”

There were nine continents in the world, and all nine continents had different names.

For example, the New World, World Universe, Westrington, Great East, South Cloud World and others.

Cloud world and others.

Debra had mentioned Mistloren, and it was located to the north-west of the World Universe.

Wow!

When they heard what Debra had said, everyone there could not hide their excitement!

Darryl was even more thrilled!

Initially, the nine continents had been separated by magical barriers, but those had already disappeared. It meant that it would not be too difficult to get to Mistloren!

That was right!

Felix Blakely and Jade had even ventured to other continents!

They had heard that Mistloren was a modern new society—it was almost the same as the World Universe.

Darryl's hand trembled as he dialed Felix's number.

Soon, the man answered his phone.

s number.

Soon, the man answered his phone.

“Brother Darryl,” Felix said respectfully from the other side of the call.

Even though Felix was a business tycoon, he would always regard Darryl as his superior.

Felix would not be the man he was that day without Darryl's aid.

Darryl took a deep breath and got straight to the point—he asked, “Felix, are you familiar with Mistloren?”

Felix immediately replied, “Yes, I am. You recommended me to make investments in other continents; Jade and I had some sort of an epiphany. So, we decided to invest in Mistloren and we've been doing that for the past month. We just got back two days ago.”

Felix spoke with a respectful tone. He could not deny that Darryl had a great business mind. Felix had invested in a property at Mistloren and had already made a lot of money.

However, Darryl was not in the mood to made a lot of money.

However, Darryl was not in the mood to listen to all of those. He replied quickly, “There is an important thing that I need you to do. Please find out about the Dragon Essence in Mistloren. Once you learn more about it, you must get it for me. Understand?!”

The Dragon Essence?

Felix was confused when he heard that name. However, he could hear the desperation in Darryl's voice, so he replied quickly, "Very well. I will get it done.”

After they hung up, Darryl sighed in relief. Then, he looked at Little Fairy in the crystal coffin emotionally. “Little Wife, we will save you. Don't worry. I will get the Dragon Essence.”

Darryl's eyes were full of anticipation.

“Master, don't worry.”

At that moment, Yuan Tiangang smiled. “The thousand-year-old ice in the crystal coffin would preserve her body for three months; her body would not rot. We just

The thousand-year-old ice in the crystal coffin would preserve her body for three months; her body would not rot. We just need to get the Dragon Essence within these three months, and then everything will be fine.”

Three months?

When he heard that, Darryl held his fist tightly. He looked determined as he said, “No matter the cost, I must get the Dragon Essence within these three months!”

Darryl felt much better when they had a plan to save Little Fairy. He began to eat the food that Jewel had brought him.

However, after everyone left, Darryl continued to stay beside the crystal coffin.

The next day.

Darryl sat on the bed in the bedroom to rest.

Ring, ring.

Suddenly, the phone rang. It was Felix; Darryl was delighted when he saw it was, so he answered it immediately.

Darryl laughed.

‘He must have gotten the Dragon Essence. He is so efficient!’

Darryl was delighted.

However, once he answered the call, he could hear Felix’s apologetic tone. “

Brother Darryl, I have investigated the Dragon Essence. It is indeed in Mistloren, with the Box family. I sent someone there last night to offer to buy the Dragon Essence at a high price. However, the head of the family chased my people away without another word.”

Felix laughed bitterly. “Then, upon further investigation, I learned that the Dragon Essence had been handed down through generations of the Box family since a thousand years ago. It is their family heirloom, and the current patriarch treasured it more than his life. He would never sell it. Even their family disciples rarely saw it. No one knew where the Box family kept the Dragon Essence—it is a secret. It seems like only the head of their family knows about that.

Sh*t! Why must it be like that?

Darryl felt his hope smashed into pieces when he heard Felix's report.

However, after further considerations, he realized that no one would simply sell off a treasure like the Dragon Essence.

Then, Felix continued to speak with a regretful tone. "Brother Darryl, I am sorry. I have failed the mission."

Darryl sighed and consoled him, "It's alright, don't blame yourself. I have underestimated the matter."

As he said that, Darryl took a longer sigh.

"The Dragon Essence is the only thing that can save Little Fair. It looks like I must travel to Mistloren myself." 1

Chapter 1040

As Darryl pondered, he asked, “Felix, is there a way for me to sneak into the Box family?”

As long as he could sneak into the Box family, he would have a chance to get the Dragon Essence.

“I do have a way to get you into the family, but—”

Felix sighed. “I heard that the Box family’s patriarch is looking to hire a bodyguard for his two daughters. He wants to hire top-level warriors, but they can’t be too old. You do fit the requirement, Brother Darryl. However, the post might be below you. I think we should—” 2

Before he could finish his sentence, Darryl interrupted him determinedly. “That’s fine; I can be his bodyguard. Please arrange that for me, quickly.” 1

‘As long as I can get into the Box family, I will find the way to get the Dragon Essence for Little Fairy. I am willing to be anything, even a bodyguard, and I will never complain.’

“Which means Felix has decided to do it.”

“Alright then, Brother Darryl, I will arrange that immediately,” Felix replied with a sigh.

After Darryl put down the phone, he stared at Little Fairy and walked out of the room.

A few minutes later, he had gathered everyone at the Carter mansion’s main hall.

Darryl sat on a chair in the middle of the hall as he looked at Dax, Chester, Jewel, Debra and the others. He said, “I have to go to Mistloren on my own; I am leaving today.”

Wow!

The hall immediately turned chaotic.

No one tried to stop him; they supported his plan. Little Fairy had died to save Darryl, so it was logical for him to want to find the Dragon Essence to save her.

Darryl sighed and said, “I am worried about the Carter family when I’ve left for Mistloren.”

Donoghue had attempted to destroy the Carter family just a few days ago, and he Mistloren.

Donoghue had attempted to destroy the Carter family just a few days ago, and he had managed to escape. It would be a disaster if he were to return when Darryl was not around. How could the Carter family defend themselves?

“Darryl!”

Debra knew that Darryl was worried, so she said softly, “Don’t worry about the Carter family; go ahead to Mistloren. I will stay here to protect them.”

Although Darryl did not say it, Debra knew the reason for his worries.

Then, Dax said, “That’s right, Darryl, don’t worry, just go on ahead. Chester and I will stay here too. I have told all the Flower Mountain Sect and Eternal Life Palace Sect disciples to come here; we will protect the Carter family.”

When Darryl heard that, he felt warm and touched.

Then, Jewel walked toward him and looked at Darryl obediently. “Mister, I will not follow you. I shall stay with Sister Debra.”

Debra.”

Jewel pursed her lips. She had wanted to go with Darryl, but she had no power at all. She would only be a burden to Darryl if she were to follow him. Darryl had a serious task to complete; it was best if she did not go with him.

Darryl laughed and stretched his hand to pat Jewel’s head. “Good!”

Ever since they met, Jewel had never been away from Darryl. He had been worried when Jewel insisted on following him; it was true that she could only be an inconvenience if he brought her along with him.

He did not expect Jewel to be so understanding.

Darryl still sat on the chair when he addressed the family disciples outside the hall. “Bring me Lindsay Jones!”

Darryl had captured Lindsay at the Wishing Star Tower, and he had kept her locked up ever since.

“Yes, Young Master.”

It was Lindsay Jones.

They had tied her up; instead of her arrogant and confident expression, her eyes showed only fear.

Lindsay's perfect body trembled when she saw so many people in the main hall.

"The Prime Minister had killed so many of their people; they would never let me go."

"Darry!"

Dax glared at Lindsay as he shouted, "Let's just kill her!"

Everyone else also shouted furiously.

"That's right, kill her!"

"This is an evil woman; she deserves to die!"

Lindsay's face was pale as she felt everyone's anger. Her legs were weak, and her knees almost buckled.

Darryl raised his hand and said, "Don't everyone's anger. Her legs were weak, and her knees almost buckled.

Darryl raised his hand and said, "Don't kill her first. Let's give her something nice to eat."

Darryl walked coldly toward Lindsay. Then, he retrieved an elixir and forced it down her throat.

Gulp!

Before Lindsay could react, she had already swallowed the elixir.

"What was that? What did you give me?" Lindsay looked at Darryl with fear and anger.

Darryl laughed coldly. "What? Aren't you the Five Poison Sect's Sect Master and an expert in poisons? Are you afraid of poison?"

Darryl sounded cold; he looked straight at Lindsay and said, "Have you heard of the Heaven Cult Elixir?"

That was right; Darryl had let her consume the Heaven Cult Elixir!

"Heaven Cult Elixir?"

“Heaven Cult Elixir?”

Lindsay’s flawless body shivered as she started to sweat profusely.

Even though she was the Five Poison Sect’s Sect Master and she specialized in poison and elixir production, that was the first time that she had heard about the Heaven Cult Elixir. She did not know what that was, and that was why she was afraid.

“You have one year. If you do not get the antidote before one year is up, then your body will start to rot—you will die. If you don’t believe me, try using your internal energy and channel it to your acupoint. Do you feel sore and perhaps, paralyzed?” Darryl said coldly.

Chapter 1041

Lindsay's face changed when she heard his words. "You gave me poison? What do you want?"

Darryl smiled coldly. "I want you to go back to Donoghue and spy on him. Report back to the Carter family every fortnight. Understand?"

Previously, Donoghue had ordered Lindsay to control Yvonne.

So, Darryl wanted to do the same to Lindsay. He wanted her to act against Donoghue.

He wanted to serve that man with his own medicine!

"I understand." Lindsay immediately nodded; she dared not refuse him.

There was no way she could reject his request. When she thought about how her body would rot without the antidote, Lindsay shivered.

Darryl nodded; it was a sign for the family disciples to release Lindsay. Then, he bade farewell to everyone and headed toward Mistlören.

toward Mistloren.

Chester, Debra and the others walked him to the main entrance before they returned to the mansion.

After Darryl left the Carter mansion, he did not head straight to Mistloren. Instead, he had rushed to Donghai City.

He was still worried about another person, and that was Lily.

He arrived in front of Lily Lyndon's residence in only half an hour. When he saw the door shut tight, he shouted, "Lilybud, Lilybud!"

Even though the door was shut, Darryl knew that Lily was home.

Darryl felt as if he could feel her breath.

'Hubby! Why is he here?'

Lily had been resting on the second floor when she heard his shouts; she panicked. Her heart raced and pounded.

Lily wanted to open the door so badly, but she did not have the courage to do that!

Darryl was unsure of how many times he had shouted, but Lily did not respond to Darryl was unsure of how many times he had shouted, but Lily did not respond to him. His heart ached.

“Lilybud, I know you are here. I have to go somewhere far away; I am not sure when I will be back. Please take good care of yourself, and wait for my return, alright? I will visit you immediately after my return.”

Then, Darryl turned and left.

Lily quickly walked toward the side of the second-floor window in her stilettos. She looked through the curtain gap. When she saw Darryl’s shadow as he left, her heart clenched. Tears wet her face.

“My dear husband, you must take good care of yourself too. I will wait for you; I will wait for you forever.” Lily cried as she mumbled to herself.

At Mistloren, Wanhai City.

Wanhai City was one of the largest cities in Mistloren. There were tall buildings everywhere, and the streets were busy—it was a prosperous city.

At that moment, a smart and tidy young man stood on a street in Wulumuqi city's busiest city center.

He wore a fitted black suit that showed off his tall figure and smart features. He looked really smart from top to toe, and he showed an exceptional aura.

That young man was Darryl.

Darryl held a local mobile phone in his hand. The phone came with a Mistloren phone number.

Felix had arranged the attire and mobile phone for him.

Even though Mistloren and the World Universe were similar technologically advanced societies, they were located on two separate continents. Even though they were connected, their communication network was not merged.

Wow!

Darryl tidied his shirt and looked around the modern streets. He was amazed. "I never imagine the technology in Mistloren is so advanced. At a glimpse, I thought I was in Donghai City."

Then, Darryl's vision landed on the grand

Then, Darryl's vision landed on the grand golden casino across the streets.

It was the Golden Highland Sky Casino.

It was the largest casino in Wanhai City, and it was the grandest too. Only the rich and famous could afford to gamble their fortune there.

There were rows and rows of luxury cars at the entrance as people entered and left the establishment in either dressy suits or luxurious pieces of jewelry.

Felix had called Darryl on the phone and told him that his identity as a bodyguard had been established. Felix had arranged for Darryl to be the Box family's bodyguard.

The Box family's two daughters loved to gamble at that casino.

"The family's two daughters are here to have fun? How interesting." Darryl mumbled to himself as he entered the casino.

'Sh*t! This place is just too extravagant.'

Chapter 1042

Darryl was stunned the moment he entered the casino—it was grand, elegant and extravagant. It looked almost like a palace!

The main hall on the first floor was a few thousand square feet wide. It had various vending machines, and it was separated into multiple areas—poker, mahjong, pai gow—there was even a dedicated area that broadcasted horse races live.

All the casino games that Darryl knew was there.

The first floor was the gambling area for ordinary guests—it was crowded and noisy.

The Box family's sisters were daughters of an affluent family, so they would not be on the first floor. They would always be at the VIP Zone on the second floor.

After Darryl checked the first floor, he went straight upstairs.

When he reached the VIP zone, Darryl saw two sexy ladies further in the room.

One of the ladies was in deep blue jeans with a pair of stilettos—she looked incredibly sexy, and her beauty suffocated him! However, she also looked cold and unapproachable. She sat at the table, but she did not gamble. She only observed the game quietly.

That lady was the Box family's eldest daughter—Ashley Box.

The other lady was dressed in a short white skirt; she was about 1.63 meters tall, and she also looked beautiful. She even had a dimple when she smiled. The lady gambled happily with the dice with a few other youngsters.

That lady was the Box family's younger daughter—Tiffany Box.

The two sisters were quite famous in Wanhai City; they even had countless admirers. Even though they were sisters, they had different personalities.

Ashley, the elder sister, was cold, but she looked like a goddess.

The younger sister, Tiffany, was extremely extroverted, just like a trouble

The younger sister, Tiffany, was extremely extroverted, just like a trouble maker.

Darryl had seen their pictures before, but they looked prettier in real life. Darryl sighed before he smiled as he walked toward them.

Both sisters did not notice Darryl when he approached them.

Ashley was very bored as she sat on the chair; she disliked the atmosphere at the casino, but it was the weekend and a school holiday; her sister had insisted they go out and relax.

Tiffany, on the other hand, was engrossed in her game.

"Come on, place your bet quickly; I will be the dealer!" Tiffany shouted excitedly as she raised her snow-white arm to shake the dice.

Then, a young man with purple hair snapped at her. "Miss Box, you have lost four games in a row; if you were to lose another five rounds, you would have to have dinner with me."

He grinned as he leered at Tiffany's body.

That man was Kai Xyon, a young master from Wanhai City's Xyon family.

The Xyon family was also one of the most affluent families in Wanhai City; they shared a similar status as the Box family.

Kai had lusted after the Box sisters for a very long time, but he had never had the opportunity to meet them. By chance, he managed to see them at the casino that day, so he did not want to miss the opportunity.

As he said that, his friends echoed his sentiment.

"That's right; you must honor the bet. If you lose another five rounds, you will need to have dinner with Young Master Xyon."

Tiffany looked at Kai with annoyance. "Do you think you are the God of Gamblers? You think you'll continue winning? You'd definitely lose now."

Kai smiled as he looked at her. "That may not be the case; I am betting on small."

not be the case; I am betting on small.

"If you say it's small, then it must be big!

" Tiffany did not want to lose.

She threw the dice and immediately frowned.

Out of the three dice, two showed one dot, and one showed two dots.

That was the smallest value possible!

Kai smiled and looked at Tiffany happily.

"So? Well, I said small, so you lose again."

Tiffany said, "I have four more rounds; don't celebrate just yet."

Then, she threw the dice.

Darryl saw that as he walked near her. He shook his head discreetly and smiled bitterly.

The elder sister was cold, so it would be easier to manage her.

With just one look at the younger sister, Darryl knew that she would be the one with weird ideas. He would probably get headaches as her bodyguard.

Then, Darryl smiled at the sisters and Then, Darryl smiled at the sisters and greeted them. "Hello, Miss Box. I am Darryl."

Wow.

As he spoke, everyone's eyes focused on Darryl.

Ashley glared coldly at Darryl, but she did not speak. She was as cold as an ice mountain.

"Who are you? Don't you see that I am gambling here?" Tiffany was impatient. She was in a terrible mood as she was on a losing streak. She was not friendly toward Darryl. "Stay away from me."

Tiffany thought that Darryl only wanted to flirt with her.

He smiled at Tiffany and said, "Eldest Young Miss Box, Second Young Miss Box, I am your bodyguard; I just started work today."

Chapter 1043

Tiffany furrowed her brows as she looked at Darryl; she looked annoyed. “I’ve told them, my sister and I do not need a bodyguard? Why are they so bothersome?”

Tiffany waved her hands at Darryl. “Get lost! My sister and I do not need your protection. Step aside, and don’t disturb me.”

Oh...

Darryl felt extremely awkward; he was not sure if he wanted to laugh or to cry.

He was the Elysium Gate’s Sect Master, as well as a Martial Emperor, but a young lady had sent her away. ¹

Other people would laugh at him if they were to hear about that.

However, Darryl was not angry at all. He smiled as he stood at the side. He continued to watch Tiffany at the games.

At the same time, Darryl was amazed by Ashley. The elder Box sister had such alluring femininity, but she was too cold.

Seeing Tiffany’s attitude, Darryl was not surprised.

Soon, Tiffany lost another three rounds.

Kai laughed; he was delighted. Then, he smiled and looked at Tiffany. “This is fate. Miss Box, don’t forget about our bet. If you lose ten games in a row, you must have dinner with me. How about it? This is the last round; do you still want to continue the bet?”

Kai was extremely delighted.

‘I am very lucky today; I’ve won nine rounds in a row. I just need to win another round, and I will have the opportunity to taste her beauty.’

Tiffany stomped her feet angrily; her face was all red as she bit her lips. She did not speak.

Even though she was playful, she was not stupid. She knew what Kai wanted. If she were to go out to dinner with him, he might have some funny ideas about it. Perhaps, he would spike her food. She knew that Kai was capable of anything.

“Tiffany, stop playing and let’s go,” Ashley said as she stood up.

Ashley said as she stood up.

As the older sister, Ashley was always rational. It was the last round; if her sister were to lose again, they would need to have dinner with Kai. How could she let that happen?

Of course, Tiffany could not let go. How could she not continue with the game? She and Kai invested three million bucks into each round. She had lost nine matches consecutively, and she had lost about 20 million bucks! She needed to win the money back!

“Hey, come here!”

At that moment, Tiffany waved at Darryl. “Didn’t my father hire you as our bodyguard? I am not lucky today. Come here and play the last round for me. If you win this, I will agree to have you as my bodyguard. If you lose, then you will have to go back to where you came from.”

“Hey, this is not part of the deal.”

Kai was worried. “How can you ask someone else to play for you?”

“Why does that bother you?”

Why does that bother you.

Tiffany was annoyed. “He is my bodyguard, so why can’t he gamble on my behalf?”

Kai gulped. It looked like he had to agree with the arrangement. “Fine, let that guy play for you. If he loses this round, then you must honor your promise. Both of you will have to have dinner with me.”

Kai looked at Darryl. “Hey, man! Come here, let’s finish this quickly.”

He looked at Darryl and laughed. ‘He is just a bodyguard; he might not even have been to a high-class place like here. How dare he gamble against me?’

Darryl could see that Kai looked down on him, but he did not care.

In contrast, Darryl smiled confidently.

Darryl seldom gambled, but he was confident that he would win all of Kai’s chips on the table.

Darryl shook the dice in the container and smiled as he looked at Kai. “Big or small?”

“Big!” Kai said firmly: he looked “Big!” Kai said firmly; he looked confident.

Darryl smiled and showed them the dice.
“I guess it’s small.”

Wow!

The dice showed two with two dots and another with three dots.

It was small!

No one knew Darryl had used the Ghost Hand on the dice; he had changed them into smaller values.

The Ghost Hand technique was something that Darryl had learned at Elysian Island.

He learnt that because he had to steal the Supreme Mystery Scripture from the Hexad School’s principal. He never imagined that he would use Ghost Hand again on a dice.

“Yeah! We won!”

Tiffany cheered; she was delighted. For some reason, she thought that Darryl looked presentable then. She did not feel as annoyed as she had before then.

Tiffany cheered; she was delighted. For some reason, she thought that Darryl looked presentable then. She did not feel as annoyed as she had before then.

What? How could it be small?

‘I am so lucky today; how could I have lost?’

Kai was not happy. He threw out all the chips he lost and said arrogantly, “This is the money I lost to you. You are lucky this time. We will do it again!”

Darryl ignored him; he looked at Tiffany beside him. “Another round?”

“Of course!” Tiffany said without any hesitation. “Of course, we continue. Didn’t you see how much I have lost? I need to get back my capital.”

Darryl nodded and continued to gamble with Kai.

They continued to gamble for the next ten minutes, but Kai was like a different person as he went from a confident man to a fearful one.

Chapter 1044

Kai lost fifteen rounds consecutively! He did not only lose all of Tiffany's chips that he won earlier, but he had lost a lot of his own as well.

Soon, only a few chips remained in front of him.

A crowd had gathered around them to watch the game.

At that moment, Kai sweated profusely; he was so furious. He could not hide his anger as he looked at Darryl.

'What's going on? Where did this guy learn to gamble? How can he keep winning? That's wicked.'

He did not know that Darryl had used the Ghost Hand in each round. It was not something the naked eye could see, so it was impossible for him to win over Darryl. 1

"Aren't you lucky today?" Tiffany was amazed as she looked at Darryl. Her eyes glowed as she said, "You looked quite poor, but you are so lucky."

Darryl smiled as he looked at Kai and

When Kai saw Darryl's smile, his face turned red, and his hands trembled.

'Is he teasing me? I am the Xyon family's Young Master; I have never felt so ashamed!'

"Brother!"

At that moment, a lady walked into the room stylishly. Then she said sweetly, "Brother, we have lost a lot. Please stop playing. Save the money for my handbags, please..."

It was Layla Xyon, Kai's cousin sister.

"Shut up!" Kai roared.

He was furious as he had lost a lot of money.

Layla was shocked by his attitude, so she sat quietly beside him. She dared not make another sound.

She was Kai's cousin sister, so she knew Kai's character well. Kai could be a scary man when he was angry. At that moment, no one dared to speak against him.

"Come, let's continue!" Kai said as he "Come, let's continue!" Kai said as he pushed all the chips in front of him outward.

'No matter what, I must beat this guy today!'

Darryl smiled gently and started to shake the dice again. "Are you betting on big or small?"

"Small!" Kai said with clenched teeth.

"Then I shall bet on big!" Darryl smiled and removed his hands; the three dice on the table showed six dots!

It was the largest value!

Wow!

At that moment, everyone cheered.

Many people looked at Darryl with amazement.

He had won more than 20 games; he had taken all of Kai's chips and left him with none!

That guy was too powerful!

Tiffany was stunned too.

He was not a bodyguard; he was the God of Gamblers!

The next second, Tiffany gathered her thoughts and smiled as she said, "We have won big, so let's go home!"

She took all the chips on the table into her arms and was about to signal her sister, Ashley, to leave.

"Hang on; we are not done yet!" Kai said coldly.

He looked at Darryl fiercely as if he was an angry monster!

'How shameful it is I just let him leave?!'

"Do you still have money for another round, Kai?" Tiffany laughed. "You don't have any chips left; what would you bet on?"

Kai clenched his fist tightly. It was true that he had no money left; he had lost all of his pocket money. However, he was not happy!

Kai bit his lips as he pulled his cousin sister toward him. "Who says I have nothing? This is my cousin sister, Layla. I sister toward him. "Who says I have nothing? This is my cousin sister, Layla. I will use her as my bet! We shall bet against all the chips you have in front of you. One game to determine the winner. What do you say?!"

Kai stared intensely at Darryl.

Perhaps Kai had lost his mind!

He only wanted a win!

Layla was in shock; her body shook as she held Kai's arm. "Cousin Brother! What did you just say? I don't want to be the bet —"

Before she could finish her sentence, Kai scolded her coldly, "Keep your mouth shut!"

Chapter 1045

What?

Kai wanted to use his cousin sister as the betting chip?!

That was worth a watch.

Everyone was extremely excited. They chatted discreetly; no one dared to make a noise as they did not want Kai to get mad.

At the same time, many people turned their focus on Darryl; they wondered about his reply.

'Who is this guy?'

'He managed to win over Young Master Xyon!'

Darryl ignored everyone's focus on him and turned to look at Tiffany. "Second Young Miss, do you want to continue with the game?"

Tiffany replied casually, "He wanted to gamble with you, not me; you can decide for yourself. However, these chips are my gamble with you, not me; you can decide for yourself. However, these chips are my allowance for the week, so if you were to lose the game, then you'll need to pay me back."

Sh*t!

When he heard that, Darryl pursed his lips; he was not sure if he wanted to laugh or cry.

'Such a calculative master; I am absolutely speechless! However, I do need the Dragon Essence one day; it looks like I have no choice but to serve this cheeky girl.'

Darryl looked at Kai and nodded. "Very well, since you are still interested in continuing with the game, I will do it."

"Great!"

Kai smiled coldly and grabbed the dice. "Let me shake the dice this time, and you will guess."

What?

It was Darryl's turn to be stunned.

He could use Ghost Hand to control the

It was Darryl's turn to be stunned.

He could use Ghost Hand to control the values of the dice, but only if he were the one to shake it. He would not have that advantage if Kai were the one to do it. He could only rely on his luck then.

What could he do about that?

"Oh, it is so merry here."

Right at that moment, they heard the voice of a woman. Next, a lady dressed in a formal uniform walked into the room.

The lady looked like she was in her early thirties, and she had exquisite features. She wore a long body-hugging dress that displayed her perfect alluring body—she looked elegant and beautiful.

Once she walked into the room, a pleasant scent wafted from her body.

Gulp!

Most of the men there gulped. Their eyes were on her, but they looked worried too.

That lady was the Golden Highland Sky Casino's general manager, Madelyn Monroe.

Even though she was a lady, Madelyn had a great relationship with all influential Wanhai City players. No one dared to upset her.

Wow!

At that moment, Darryl gasped.

He did not imagine he would meet a sexy and beautiful lady at such a place.

Even though the two sisters beside him were also gorgeous, they lacked Madelyn's maturity. 2

"Sister Madelyn!"

Kai quickly hid his anger and smiled. "Sister Madelyn, it looks like you have time to come and check up on your casino?"

He could not avert his eyes from Madelyn's body; she looked incredibly sexy in her uniform and black pantyhose.

Kai was a rich young master in Wanhai City, so of course, he knew Madelyn. He was also amazed by her body. However, he knew that she was not someone he could offend.

Madelyn smiled and said, "I heard that Young Master Xyon wants to use his cousin sister as the betting chip; of course, I have to come to take a look..."

"Oh..."

Kai felt embarrassed, so he smiled and said, "Of course, this is a place of bets. Since I am gambling, there is nothing I can't use as my betting chip. Isn't that right, Sister Madelyn?"

As he spoke, Kai glared fiercely at Darryl.

'Sh*t, this guy brings me so much shame.

"Young Master Xyon, of course, I am not against it." Madelyn smiled and nodded. "However, this is a place for people to relax. Let's be happy and maintain a peaceful environment. Why don't I be the judge? I can be the one to shake the dice. Are you okay with that, Young Master Xyon?"

When she spoke, Madelyn intentionally glared at Darryl as if it was a signal of some sort.

'Sh*t, this guy brings me so much shame.

"Young Master Xyon, of course, I am not against it." Madelyn smiled and nodded. "

However, this is a place for people to relax. Let's be happy and maintain a peaceful environment. Why don't I be the judge? I can be the one to shake the dice. Are you okay with that, Young Master Xyon?"

When she spoke, Madelyn intentionally glared at Darryl as if it was a signal of some sort.

Wow!

The crowd started to discuss the latest development. 9

Chapter 10/6

Madelyn was the general manager, but that was the first time she requested to shake the dice for a guest.

Young Master Xyon was so lucky.

"It is an honor to get your help, Sister Madelyn. I am delighted," Kai said with a smile. Then, he handed the dice to her. He was delighted because he thought that Madelyn did that as a favor to him.

Madelyn smiled as she raised her snow-white arms and shook the dice. Then she smiled beautifully. "Who's betting on big, and who's betting on small?"

Kai shouted, "Big!"

As he said that, he looked provocatively at Darryl.

Darryl replied casually, "I'll take small then."

When he said that, Darryl's heart was indescribably nervous.

"Sh*t! It depends on luck now. Please, don't let me lose."

As he thought about that, Darryl's eyes were locked onto Madelyn's hands.

"Great. Let's open it."

Madelyn smiled and showed them the dice.

The moment she lifted her hands, Darryl could see a six on one of the dice and his heart sunk!

'Sh*t, it's big, I am going to lose!'

The next moment, Darryl was stunned.

Right at that moment, Madelyn flipped her hands gently. Her movement was so fast that no one around could notice it, but Darryl did see it!

When Madelyn retreated her hands, the three dice showed one, two and three dots, respectively. The total was a small value!

"Young Master Xyon!"

Madelyn smiled briefly at Kai before she said, "Young Master Xyon, you've lost."

Sh*t!

Kai's face was red; he did not see Madelyn's action. At that moment, he stared intensely at the three dice, and he was not happy!

"Sh*t!" Suddenly, Kai stood up. He pushed his cousin sister toward Darryl and looked at him fiercely, "Young man, you are lucky—she is yours. I shall remember you."

"Then, Kai ordered his followers, "Let's go."

After he spoke, Kai turned and walked away angrily.

His cousin sister Layla stood in front of Darryl. She was in a panic, and she did not know what to do.

Darryl ignored her, but he looked at Madelyn curiously with amazement on his face.

"Why did Madelyn help me?"

"You are a great bodyguard! Not only did you win back all my money, you even won a beautiful lady." Tiffany looked at Darryl; it seemed like there was a smile

Darryl; it seemed that there was a smile on her face.

Darryl scratched his head and looked stupidly at her. "Second Young Miss, I have only been lucky."

"Eldest Young Miss Box, Second Young Miss Box." At that moment, Madelyn walked toward the Box sisters and smiled at Tiffany. "May I speak to your bodyguard, privately, please?"

"This woman must have had an ulterior motive for helping me."

Darryl smiled discreetly.

Tiffany nodded casually. "Of course, you may, but please don't delay too much of our time. I am tired; my sister and I should head home soon."

Tiffany looked at Darryl. She had not wanted a bodyguard, but she did not expect his performance at the gambling table. That bodyguard might even be a lucky charm—he had been very fortunate so far.

Madelyn smiled and invited Darryl to the side.

"May I know your name, Mister?"
Madelyn asked with a smile as soon as they reached a corner.

"My name is Darryl."

As he spoke, Darryl looked at Madelyn's body; he was discreetly amazed by her.

"This lady is so alluring."

However, Darryl had seen many beautiful ladies. Madelyn looked gorgeous; that was because she had a perfect figure.
Somehow, she looked a little like Yvette.

Madelyn smiled. "I'm sure you've noticed the original value of the dice—I helped you."

"I was curious about that too." Darryl smiled and asked, "Why did you help me?"

Chapter 1047

"The reason I helped you is simple."

Madelyn looked at Darryl with a serious expression. "I would like to hire you to work at my casino. You might have hidden your trick from other people when you won those 20 games against Young Master Xyon, but you can't hide it from me. Your technique was very fast. A talent like you would be wasted as a bodyguard. If you are willing to join me, feel free to tell me all your requirements. What do you think?"

Madelyn's face was filled with anticipation.

She had noticed how Darryl had won over Kai when she was in the security camera room; he had used an incredible technique to change the dice's value.

Madelyn had run the casino for many years, and she had seen all sorts of tricks that gamblers used to win. However, that was the first time she had seen such an advanced technique.

Of course, she would try her best to retain talent like him.

talent like him.

That was the reason she helped him.

When he heard that, Darryl laughed.

"As long as you are willing to stay and help me, I will definitely treat you well." Madelyn continued to speak as she looked anxiously at Darryl; she did not wait for his reply.

Darryl looked at her; he could see a little of her cleavage under her white blouse.

Gulp!

Darryl could not help but swallow his saliva as he indulges in a brief view of Madelyn's femininity.

'Sh*t! This woman is so alluring that it's killing me.'

Other ordinary men would not be able to handle that, but Darryl was stronger than any ordinary man.

"I am sorry, even though your offer is tempting, but I am not interested,"

Darryl said with a smile. He walked away right after he said that.

As she looked at his back while he walked

As she looked at his back while he walked away, Madelyn furrowed her brows. 'What a waste—he rather works as a bodyguard than coming to work for me at the casino. He deserves to be poor.'

Darryl returned to the two sisters. He smiled and said, "Young Misses, are we ready to leave?"

"Of course, let's go home." Tiffany replied impatiently; she looked at Darryl and rolled her eyes, "Bodyguard, you are lucky. You've won a beautiful lady."

Layla was so worried that she cried as she said to Darryl softly, "I—"

Layla was distraught that her cousin brother had used her as a betting chip. She could follow a bodyguard, right?"

However, she did not expect Darryl to wave his hands and said, "You may go now."

What?

Layla was stunned; then, she was thrilled! She thanked Darryl a few more times before she immediately left. She Layla was stunned, she was thrilled! She thanked Darryl a few more times before she immediately left. She worried that Darryl might change his mind later.

"What's with you, Bodyguard? You are so foolish. Why would you let that beautiful girl go?" Tiffany asked curiously.

Even her elder sister Ashley looked at Darryl curiously too.

Don't all men love beautiful ladies? Why would he let her go so easily after he had won her?

"Sister, do you think he has difficulties down there?" Tiffany walked toward Ashley and whispered in her ears.

Even though her voice was soft, Darryl could hear her clearly enough. He was speechless for a moment.

Ashley blushed. She stomped her feet and snapped at Tiffany. "Foolish girl! Don't speak nonsense!"

Everyone pampered her sister all the time; how could she say something so embarrassing?

"Let's go home." Ashley said softly as she blushed. Then she stepped forward in her stilettos and left the casino.

"Sister, wait for me!" Tiffany shouted. She chucked all her chips into Darryl's arms. "Hurry! Take these chips and exchange them for cash." Then, she quickly jogged until she finally caught up with Ashley.

A few moments later, Darryl walked out of the casino with the two sisters. Soon, they arrived at the mansion.

The mansion's environment was quite peaceful; there was even a man-made lake in its compound. At night, the lake reflected lights from somewhere far away—it was a beautiful scene.

The two sisters lived in that mansion on regular days by themselves as it was very near to their school.

Their father, Sir Box—Robert Box—lived at another place.

Darryl was devastated when he realized that. 'Sh*t, after all these efforts, the two don't even live with their father. When don't even live with their father. When can I get the Dragon Essence then?"

He was in deep thoughts as he stood in front of the mansion when Tiffany shouted impatiently, "What are you doing out there? Come in here."

'This bodyguard is so absent-minded and dumb.'

"Yes!"

Chapter 1048

Darryl immediately went into the mansion after he answered her.

'Sh*t! They are the daughters of a rich family, and the mansion is so grand.'

Darryl immediately went into the mansion after he answered her.

'Sh*t! They are the daughters of a rich family, and the mansion is so grand.'

Darryl was even more amazed after he entered the mansion.

The entire mansion looked perfect. There was a garden, an outdoor swimming pool, and also an underground garage. It was extravagant!

At the main hall on the first floor, Tiffany pointed to a small room at the corner as she turned to Darryl and said, "You will stay in that room. My sister and I live on the second floor, and you are not allowed up there without any permission. Understood?"

She sounded bossy.

Darryl smiled and nodded. "I understand."

"Oh, yes, there's another thing!" Tiffany put her hands on her waist and thought for a while before she continued to say, " for a while before he continued to say, "You are not allowed to use the mansion's facilities without our approval. You are especially forbidden from using the swimming pool."

"We are ladies, and we are always tidy; how can we let a man use our swimming pool?"

Darryl pursed his mouth and continued to nod his head.

'Sh*t, she's ordering me like a slave.'

When she saw Darryl's behavior, Tiffany nodded satisfactorily. She waved her tiny hands and said, "That's all. I have no other matters for you now."

Sigh!

Darryl took a deep breath and turned to walk toward his room.

He felt quite depressed then.

He had been the Lyndon family's live-in son-in-law for three years, and they had looked down on him for that period. Ever since he became Elysium Gate's Sect Master, Darryl had sworn he would never Master, Darryl had said that he would never let anyone underestimate him again.

He never imagined that there would be a day where a young girl at Mistloren would get to order him around.

However, Little Fairy still waited for him to save her life.

'Sh*t, I'll have to deal with it!'

When he reached the room door, he heard Tiffany yelled for him. "Hey, come back here!"

What? Again?

Darryl grumbled discreetly as he turned and walked back with a smile. "Second Young Miss, what is your order?"

Tiffany pointed at the kitchen and asked, "Can you cook? I am hungry; make me something to eat. Oh, yes, don't put too much chilli, my sister and I dislike spicy food."

'What? You want me to cook?'

When he heard that, Darryl wanted to jump. "Second Young Miss, I am a bodyguard, not a babysitter."

'This little girl wants me to gamble and cook? She must think that I am a jack of all trades!'

Tiffany pursed her lips and teased him. "What is the difference between a bodyguard and a babysitter? You can't cook? How useless." After she spoke, the two sisters went upstairs.

Darryl sighed in relief after they left. He decided to check out the mansion to see if the Dragon Essence was there once the sisters were asleep. Perhaps their father had hidden the Dragon Essence there.

Darryl was excited as he thought about that. Then, he sat on his bed to rest.

At that moment, the two sisters were in their room upstairs.

Tiffany held her cheeks as she sat there. She looked at Ashley and asked, "Sister, do you think the bodyguard will come up in the middle of the night to peep on us?"

Ashley smiled briefly and shook her head. "What is your mind thinking? Our family must have gone through layers of checks before they decided on this man. He won't before they decided to kill this man. He won't have such bad qualities."

Both sisters took their showers in the bathroom, and parts of their body were still wet. They looked incredibly alluring.

"No!" Tiffany gave it a thought and said, "That Darryl does not look too trustworthy. We should not let down our guard. I will get someone to install a security alarm and cameras on the second floor."

Then, they heard some light footsteps outside the door.

"See, I knew he wouldn't be so obedient."

Tiffany stood up and shouted at the door, "Hey, who let you in here? Do you want to get fired? You—"

Before she could finish her sentence,

Tiffany's face changed abruptly.

She saw a man in a mask walked into her room; his eyes had a deviant grin.

Chapter 1049

"Who—who are you?"

Ashley was the first to gather her thoughts. She looked at the masked man and shouted, "Do you know what this place is? Leave immediately, or I will call the police!"

Ashley was confident that the masked man was not Darryl—he was slightly fatter than their new bodyguard.

At that moment, Tiffany snapped back to her senses and shouted, "Petty thief! How dare you steal from our house? Leave immediately. We have a bodyguard downstairs!"

Bodyguard?

When he heard that, the masked man laughed and ridiculed them. "Two young ladies, don't try to scare me. I am familiar with your current situation. You are the only two people here, so there is no bodyguard!"

The masked man jumped in from the second-floor window and hence did not see Darryl.

As he spoke, the masked man raised his hand and pointed at the two sisters!

His speed was so fast that the two sisters could not react; he had sealed their acupoints.

"You—" Ashley's facial expression changed as she looked at the masked man in fear, "Are you not a thief?"

A petty thief would not know how to seal one's acupoints.

The masked man laughed as he looked at the two sisters. He smiled and said, "Don't worry, I have no other intention. I just wanted to ask you a question. If you answer me honestly, then I will immediately let you go."

Tiffany panicked; she shouted in desperation. "Darryl! Help! Help!"

'What an idiot! He is the bodyguard, and he doesn't know that someone had broken into the house. Useless!"

"Shut up!" The masked man shouted; a strong cultivator aura exploded from his body!

He was a level-two Martial Saint!

The two sisters were ordinary people—both of them panicked.

When he realized that the sisters were scared, the masked man smiled and stared at Ashley. "Where do your family keep the Dragon Essence?"

What? He wanted the Dragon Essence?

At that moment, Ashley's body trembled as she shook her head. "I don't know!"

Tiffany also said, "My father is the one who kept it away. Only he would know where it is. We would not know where it is."

They did not lie; only Sir Box would know where the Dragon Essence was kept.

Besides, even if the two sisters knew, they would not tell the masked man so easily. The Dragon Essence had been the Box family's treasure for generations.

At that moment, the sisters tried their best to identify the masked man. He had entered their home silently, so it meant that he must have been there before that entered their home recently, so it meant that he must have been there before that. He wore a mask so that they would not recognize him.

All those signs showed that the masked man knew them.

The sisters were right.

The masked man was their schoolmate—Stephen Wagner.

Stephen was also from a wealthy family, but they had a lower status than the Box family. They were not part of the mainstream families in Wanhai City.

He knew that the Box family had a treasure like the Dragon Essence, so he wanted to use that to upgrade his family's status. He had stalked the Box sisters discreetly. He knew that if he could sell the Dragon Essence, he would earn a fortune!

Stephen had heard that the Box sisters lived by themselves in the mansion, so he decided to break into their home.

"You don't know where the Dragon Essence is?" Stephen looked coldly at the Essence is?" Stephen looked coldly at the Box sisters. His eyes burned with anger. "If I do not get the Dragon Essence today, I will torture both of you until you'd wish that you were dead!"

Stephen turned his wrist and drew a blade in his hand!

"Hey, who are you?!"

Right at that moment, they heard another voice. Then, another man appeared at the door.

It was Darryl.

Darryl smiled as he looked at Stephen; he was not nervous at all. Darryl already felt his presence as soon as Stephen broke into the mansion.

Then, Darryl followed him secretly and was about to take the intruder down when he heard him speak about the Dragon Essence. He was glad that someone else would help him to locate the treasure, but when Stephen drew his blade, Darryl had no choice but to show himself.

"Darryl, are you a pig? You sure sleep like one! You don't even know that someone had broken into the house! Quick! Save us!"

Tiffany was worried and angry when Darryl appeared, so she scolded him. "Such a weak bodyguard! What is the use for him here?"

Darryl could sense Tiffany's anger; there was a conflicted expression on his face. "Second Young Miss, you have forbidden me to simply enter your room and Eldest Young Miss' as well."

me to simply enter the room and Eldest Young Miss' as well."

"You—"

Tiffany was furious; she stomped her feet. "Fine! I allow you to enter now!"

'Does this Darryl have his brain with him? What kind of situation are we in now? He is still considering these useless things.'

Darryl scratched his eye and walked into the room.

At that moment, Stephen narrowed his eyes and looked closely at Darryl. "Are you their bodyguard?"

Stephen was surprised. Sh*t! He had not heard that the two sisters had a bodyguard. Was he a new hire?

"That's right!" Darryl nodded. "Release the two young misses immediately, or I will not let you go so easily."

Darryl stood there; it did not look like he was about to take any action.

Stephen was stunned. He could feel Darryl's energy; he smiled, "Aren't you only a energy, he said, "You only have a bodyguard? Where did your confidence come from?"

At that moment, Stephen knew that Darryl was level one Martial Saint, but he was a level two Martial Saint. He was one level higher than the bodyguard, so he was not worried.

However, Stephen did not know that Darryl was actually a level one Martial Emperor!

When Darryl decided to be a bodyguard, he had made and consumed a power suppression pill to avoid unwanted attention.

The power suppression pill could suppress a cultivator's aura so that they could hide their potential. The method to produce that elixir had been lost a long time ago on all nine continents. However, Darryl's Infinite Elixir Manual had recorded it.

"Darryl, you stupid man!" Tiffany was furious; she shouted, "Why do you bother talking to him? Just get him!"

"Alright!"

Darryl answered her as he activated his internal energy and raised his hand to punch Stephen.

However, it was a weak punch; it had no energy at all. Darryl did not want to defeat Stephen. He wanted to pretend as if he could not beat the masked man so that he could continue to question the Dragon Essence's location.

When the two sisters saw Darryl in action, they got so excited!

"That's right, hit him! When you have captured him, tie him up so that I can get my revenge." Tiffany's acupoint had been sealed, so she could not move her body at all. She could only shout at them.

When Darryl approached him, Stephen acted arrogantly. "You're only an ordinary bodyguard, but you dare to challenge me?"

Bang! As he spoke, Stephen activated his internal energy and punched forward too.

Bang!

They heard a loud bang when both parties collided. Then, Darryl pretended that he

They heard a loud bang when both parties collided. Then, Darryl pretended that he was not Stephen's match as he fell a few steps backward and sat on the floor.

'What? How weak is this bodyguard? He lost?'

Ashley and Tiffany's facial expressions changed abruptly. They felt extremely disappointed; their new bodyguard could not even withstand one hit from the masked man. He was too weak!
